And so I answered, saior-like,
"Avast!" to his "Abey!"
I made a song for him one day—
His ship was then in sight—
"The little anchor on the left,
The great one on the right."

I gave his hand a hearty grip.

"So you are back again?
They say you have been pirating Upon the Spanish main;
Or was it some rich Indiaman You robbed of all her pearis?
Of course you have been breaking hearts
Of poor Kanaka girls!"

"Wherever I have been," he said,

"I kept my ship in sight—

"The little anchor on the left,
The great one on the right!"

I heard last night that you were in;

"I heard last night that you were in;
I walked the wharves to-day,
But saw no ship that looked like yours,
Where does the good ship lay?
I want to go on board of her.
"And so you shall," said he;
"But there are many things to do
When one comes home from sea.
You know the song you made for me?
I sing it morn and night—
'The little anchor on the left.

The little anchor on the left, The great one on the right !" · But how's your wife and little one?

"But how's your wife and little one?"

"Come home with me," he said,
"Go on, go on; I follow you,"

I followed where he led,
He had a pleasant little house;
The door was open wide,
And at the door the dearest face—
A dearer one inside!
He hugged his wife and child; he sang—
His spirits were so light—
The little anchor on the left,
The great one on the right!"

'Twas supper time, and we sat down— The sanor's wife and child; And he and I: he looked at them, And looked at me, and smiled. "I think of this when I am tossed Upon the stormy foam; And though a thousand leagues away, Am auchored here at home." , giving each a kiss, he said, I see in dreams at night This little anohor on my left, This great one on my right; "

CABINET ORGANS.

Winners of THREE HIGHEST MEDALS AND DIPLOMA OF MONOR at VIENNA, 1873, PARIS, 1887, and in AMERICA ALWAYS. Declared by MUSICIANS GENERALLY to be UNRIVALED and INCOMPARABLE. Sold at fixed uniform prices to MUSICIANS GENERALLY to be UNRIVALED and INCOMPARABLE. Sold at fixed uniform prices to all, which are printed and invariable.

PURCHASERS OF ORGANS ARE REMINDED that the temptation to Dealers and Peddlers is very strong to eal in and recommend as best the organs of those makers who will pay them the largest commissions or discounts for selling.

The MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO., printing as they do their lowest prices, can afford to dealers only the smallest commissions. This plan secures to every purchaser the lowest price, because the desler cannot ask more than the Catalogue price; but it canes many dea ers to do their best to sell other organs, simply because they get enormous discounts on them. Some organs are currently sold to dealers at seventy-five per cent. discount, or at one-quarter the prices printed for them. As a rule, the poorer the organ the higher its printed price and the greater the discount on it.

The MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO. are now offering new styles, with important improvements; and are selling not only for cash exclusively, but also on new plans of eary payments, running through one year or longer. They also rent new Organs with privilege of purchase. Rent paid three years, purchases the Organ.

Send for the Illustrated Catalogues and Circulars, which give very full information, and are sent free. Address THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO., at either New York, Boston, or Chicago.
