Home Interests.

LARGE TIME AT LEBANON.—The citizens of Lebanon had a grand time Christmas eve. Two large trees were erected in the auditorium of the Sabbath Academy, on the branches of which were hung one thousand presents, valued at $1,200. Through the exertions of Mrs. W. S. Elkins and Mrs. J. Houck, a sum of money was raised, with which an elegant watch was purchased and hung on one of the trees, as a present to Rev. C. A. Woolley, pastor of the C. P. Church of Lebanon. A good choir was in attendance, and aided by the Lebanon Brass Band, which also kindly volunteered its services, furnished the best of music. The room was crowded to its utmost capacity, and the audience were treated to declamations, recitations, etc., by ladies and gentlemen of the village. C. B. Montague, Esq., was especially happy in his recitation, and brought down the house in a whirlpool of applause. Among the presents on the Christmas trees, was a splendid silver horn, presented by the Lebanon Brass Band to Prof. A. Compton, as a testimonial of the high regard and esteem in which he is held by the members of the Band, of which he is leader. A gorgeous tin horn, capable of holding "the full of a half bushel," was placed upon one of the trees, labeled to J. L. Cowen, leader of the "Hoodlum Band," and was a present to be proud of in after years. The entertainment and distribution of gifts was not concluded till near midnight, and was wound up by a grand "shake up," by the "Hoodlum Band," composed of J. L. Cowen, Esq., leader, Dr. Ballard, J. W. Bell, J. W. Gilmore, and others. The performance given by this band of artists was unique and unapproachable, eclipsing anything ever before offered in Lebanon, and was greeted by a perfect hurricane of cheers and applause. It was a memorable night in the history of Lebanon, and will not be forgotten for many long years to come; but the incidents of that night will be rehearsed around the fireside with pleasure, and the festive notes kindly spoken of long after they have passed into the Better Land.

VICK'S FIORAL GUIDE.—For January, 1875, is a magnificent number, and as a specimen of typography can hardly be excelled. It is issued quarterly, by James Vick, Esq., of Rochester, N. Y., at the low price of 25c per annum. The number before us contains over 100 pages, 500 engravings, and descriptions of more than 500 of our best flowers and vegetables, with directions for culture, &c.—the most useful and elegant work of the kind in the world. Mr. Vick authorizes the officers of every agricultural society in the United States and the Provinces of Canada, to offer from him the following premiums: For the best collection of cut flowers, $20; second best, $10; third best, $5; fourth best, a floral chromo. He also proposes to receive and forward subscriptions in aid of the starving people of Nebraska, Kansas, Minnesota and Iowa, and to add, out of his own exchequer, $500 to the donations; and with returning springs, when the sufferers by famine in those States will need seeds and grain, to give $500 more in such seeds and grain as may be most needed by them. This is liberal, and shows Vick to be the possessor of a warm heart that feels for the woes of his fellow men.

ALBANY S. S. UNION.—The Albany Sunday School Union will hold its next regular monthly meeting in the Baptist Church of this city, on next Monday evening, January 4th, 1875, commencing at 7 o'clock. This being the time usually set apart by the Christian world as a week of prayer, the Committee on this occasion resolved unanimously to hold a union prayer-meeting. Subject chosen for meditation and prayer: "The conversion of the young." Services will be opened by Dr. R. C. Hill, after which volunteer remarks and prayers will be asked for. Good music may be expected during the services. All are cordially invited to attend.

HURT.—A little six-year old daughter of Mrs. Worth, who resides a short distance from Halsey, on Saturday last was struck by the hind foot of a horse, in the forehead, and severely injured. It seems the horse was running, and the little girl being in the way, the animal attempted to jump over her, but struck her in passing with one of his hind feet. It was at first feared that the hurt would prove fatal to the little girl, but after careful examination and due attention to the wound, on Tuesday she was pronounced out of danger.

THE MASONIC INSTALLATION.—Last Saturday night, closed with a collation and dance, which was participated in by a large number of the fraternity and their friends. Upon the invitation of Mr. Biles, Agent O. S. S. Co., a number of those present went on board the steamer, E. N. Cook, the next morning, and excused to Corvallis, returning in the evening of the same day. The excursion was thoroughly enjoyed by the participants.

AT THE COLLEGE.—Christmas eve, a tree was erected by the young people, and among its branches clustered some seventy-five presents, of the aggregate value of $250 or $300. After the distribution came music and fun, the large number present enjoying a very pleasant time.

A TEACHER IN TROUBLE.—On Monday last, as related to us, at Rock Hill School-house, on the road between Lebanon and Brownsville, occurred a difficulty between the teacher, Don Byland, and one of his pupils, aged about eighteen, named Frank Richardson, in which the pupil seems to have got the worst of it. The pupil was unruly, and after the teacher had exhausted his patience in attempting to make the pupil comply with the rules of the school in vain, he ordered him to leave the school-room. This the refractory young man flatly refused to do, but upon the teacher's approach, seized a stick and menaced the teacher therewith. There and then ensued a tussle, in which the teacher succeeded in getting possession of the stick, and, knocking the obstreperous youth down with it, drew him out of the house into the wood-shed and left him. Shortly after, the young man came to the school-house door and begged to come in, saying he was sick. The teacher told him to come in; and after sitting by the stove for awhile, and getting worse, he was conveyed to his home, and at last accounts he was thought to be dangerously sick. Byland was arrested and bound over in $500 to answer. We give the facts as they were related to us, without any coloring whatever, as we do not wish to prejudice the matter either way.

"THE MASSACRE OF GLENCOE."—(Calvin B. McDonald, Esq., editor of the Salem Statesman, has been secured by the Ladies' Benevolent Society of this city, to deliver his famous lecture, entitled as above. He has recently delivered this lecture to large and appreciative audiences in Salem and Portland, and press and people unite in pronouncing it a masterpiece of eloquence. The Society is fortunate indeed in having secured this talented gentleman. The lecture will be delivered at the Court House, on New Year's evening. The admission fee will be 50c. The county authorities have generously consented to the use of the Court House for the purpose, as the proceeds of the lecture are to be given to the Ladies' Benevolent Society, and will be expended in alleviating distress. As no one will care to miss hearing this master production of a literary genius, the Court House will doubtless be crowded with citizens, and a large sum will thus be secured for the poor and needy.

WENT THROUGH A GLASS DOOR.—The other morning as W. H. Dodd was proceeding to his place of business, he observed a shepherd dog lying beside the walk, poor and thin, and shivering with cold. This seemed to be a real case of distress, and appealed at once to the sympathies of Dodd, who spoke kindly to him, got a piece of meat from the butchers, called him into the Express office, and was proceeding to make him comfortable near the stove on some sacks, when the canine suddenly became "scart," and made a bolt for the front doors. The doors were closed, but that doggon dog never stopped to calculate the chances but went through one of those three foot panes of glass in the door like a shot. And now Dodd is two or three dollars worse off for his sympathy for a toriorn-looking dog.

THREE LINKERS.—On Wednesday evening, an election for officers of Albany Lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F., to serve the ensuing term, was held, with the following result: Past Grand, Walter Ketchum, N. G.; P. H. Raymond, V. G.; Ed. R. M. Carter, S.; James Ellison, P. S.; C. D. Burkhardt, Treasurer; Past Grand, J. F. Backesto and Fred. Graf, and Geo. F. Simpson, Trustees. Installation next Wednesday evening. On motion, it was ordered that the editor of the REGISTER be requested to give notice that all Odd Fellows in good standing, with their families, are invited to attend the installation ceremonies, and no others.

THE SOCIABLE AND FAIR.—At the Opera House, on last Friday evening, was largely attended and hugely enjoyed. The Committees to whom were entrusted the success of the enterprise, acquitted themselves with credit, and deserve praise for their energy and faithfulness in the premises. The performances, lasting until 9 o'clock, were excellent, their conclusion leaving the audience in a frame of mind best calculated to insure a pleasant evening. It was an agreeable, social gathering, thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The net proceeds of the evening foot up $150, which will be placed in the treasury of the Benevolent Society, to be drawn out whenever needed to aid the poor or destitute.

REMEMBERED.—We are under obligations to the officers of the Ladies' Benevolent Society for the present of a huge three-story cake, on Saturday last. It was gorgeous in appearance, and tasted as well as it looked. We earnestly wish the ladies the fullest success in their endeavor to alleviate the sufferings of their fellow creatures. To Messrs. A. Cartmeyer & Co., we are indebted for full Christmas favors, among other things a box of splendid Havana—the clear quill. Many thanks for the kind remembrance, gentlemen.

A NEW SLICK HAT (stovepipe) is what's the matter of us, as also an elegant pair of slippers. Who wouldn't be an editor.

MASONIC.—On last Saturday night Lebanon Lodge No. 44, A. F. and A. M., held an election for officers for the new year, with the following result: R. Cheadle, W. M.; E. Kibler, S. W.; R. McCann, J. W.; J. L. Cowen, Treas.; C. B. Montague, Sec.; M. Snyder, Tyler. Installation will transpire at the next regular communication, and will be public. Rev. I. D. Driver delivering the oration on the occasion. A grand supper will be given during the evening, and a pleasant time may be expected.

OFFICERS ELECT.—At the regular meeting of Organza Encampment No. 5, I. O. O. F., of this city, held at the lodge room on Friday night last, the following Patriarchs were honored with offices: W. Tally, C. P.; N. Baum, H. P.; Coll. Van Cleve, S. W.; P. H. Raymond, Scribe; C. Kiefer, Treasurer; A. N. Arnold, J. W. Installation on the evening of January, 8th, 1875.

AT KNOX BUTTE.—The residents in the vicinity of Knox Butte met at Trinity M. E. Church on Christmas eve, where a Christmas tree had been erected, and passed two or three hours very pleasantly. A large number of presents were taken from the tree and distributed among the audience which filled the ample church. The young folks especially enjoyed themselves, and time passed merrily.

S. S. EXHIBITION.—The Sunday-school exhibition at the M. E. Church Wednesday evening was well attended, and gave general satisfaction, we are informed. As the admission fee was but twenty-five cents, the receipts were not large, being some twenty-five dollars. The Sunday-school scholars were admitted free. From those in attendance we learn that all partaking in the exhibition did well, covering themselves all over with glory.

AT SHEDD.—On Christmas eve, the union Christmas tree was a perfect success. There were seventy-five presents on the tree, and the hearts of many of the little ones were made glad. Some of the older ones, too, received valuable tokens. It was a delightful occasion, and our informant spoke of it in the most glowing terms.

AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.—A tree was erected Christmas eve, on the boughs of which a large number of presents, some of them very valuable, were hung. The church was well filled with people, and all seemed to enjoy the occasion, especially those who were remembered on the tree.

Miss Lizzie E. Smith, daughter of the late Hon. Delazon Smith, arrived at her brother-in-law's, Mr. C. F. Harper's, on Saturday evening last, after an absence of nearly four years, the larger portion of which time she has spent in Arkansas. Welcome home.

CHANGE OF OFFICE HOURS.—On and after January 1st, 1875, the office hours of the W. U. T. Co. will be from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M., instead of 9 P. M. Sundays as heretofore, 9 to 11 A. M., 6 to 8 P. M.

CHANGE OF TEACHERS.—Prof. Abner Smith, of Albany Collegiate Institute, has resigned his position in that institution. Prof. Sox will fill the position for the present.

"They cure." What cure? Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for a cough. Ayer's Pills for a purgative, and Ayer's Sarsaparilla for the complaints that require an alterative medicine.

The stage running from this city to Lebanon, arrives and departs on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week, carrying mails and passengers.

The "King of the Sandwich Islands" is having a rough time in the East, brought about by the change of climate. He had a severe attack of bilious fever at Pittsburgh, and is now shivering with fear at the cold weather in New York, whither he is going.
One of the Black Hills miners, a Mr. J. W. Bense, of Sioux City, Iowa, has returned from his search after gold. He reports that there are several parties in the Hills who occupy one camp for protection. They have found gold in paying quantities, and are very optimistic over the new diggings. Bense proposes to go back in the spring with a large party. He says his fortune lies in the Black Hills.
A Fort Smith (Kansas) special states that the notorious J. W. Wilder, the acknowledged leader of the gang that robbed the Pacific Railroad train at God's Hill (Mo.), and subsequently the Hot Springs stage, was arrested, and is now confined in the Fort Smith jail. He says that Reed, who was killed by a detective in northern Texas, was one of his men, and had been with him in all his expeditions.
The Cologne Gazette says that on the 11th inst., the German brig, Goetze, from New York, entered the harbor of Genoa, from the Straits of San Sebastian. On reaching the shore she was fired upon by the Carlists, notwithstanding she hoisted the German flag, and was ordered to be abandoned. Next day the brig stranded off San Rame, when the crew were saved by Republican volunteers. Carlists on shore fired on the boats that went to the rescue of the crew, and afterward seized the cargo of the abandoned vessel. The German men-of-war, Albatross, Andreas, and Albatross were ordered to that point to demand satisfaction from the Carlists for the attack upon the brig.
Among the interesting features of the Charles Ross abduction case, and not the least so, was the libel published by the Reading Pa.) Eagle charging Mr. Ross with bigamy, and alleging that his former wife, Mrs. Ross, was the abductor of the child. A criminal suit was brought by Mr. Ross against the Eagle, and Messrs. Hawley and Ritter, for libel, and was convicted. Judge Allison had declined upon imprisoning both parties, but reflecting that the information came from a quarter supposed to be reliable, mitigated the punishment by inflicting a fine of $1,000. The fine was paid, and thus ended the suit.
The following cology, which took place at the Washington Convention, will scarcely find place in the Congressional record or the regular report of proceedings:
Gen. Butler—You mistake my position.
Mr. Dawes—I state your position, as I understand it in your speech, which has been withheld from the record.
Gen. Butler—It was withheld because I was absent in New York.
Mr. Dawes—I do not intend to misstate your position.
Gen. Butler—The road to hell is paved with good intentions.
Mr. Dawes—No, one should be better wiser than to follow one's self.—Chicago Tribune's Washington Corr.

A sad accident occurred yesterday afternoon Dec. 12th, at Godfrey, Ill., resulting in the death of Charles J. Mason, one of the most prominent and respected citizens of the village. The fatal occurrence was as follows: Mr. Mason's hired man was cutting down a tree in the yard near his residence, and just as the tree was about to fall, one of Mr. Mason's children ran out in the direction of the tree, and was struck by the tree himself and injured severely that he died last evening at 10 o'clock. His sudden death has cast a gloom over the entire community where he lived.
Two sons of Jacob Herswinder, who lives 15 miles north of here, (Columbus, Ohio, Dec. 29th), have been arrested on a charge of murdering their father and burning his body. They are 14 and 18 years old. The family have deserted the house. The remains of Mr. Herswinder have been found among ashes in the fire place.
