

The Albany Register

VOLUME VII.

ALBANY, OREGON, MAY 14, 1875.

NO. 35.

BUSINESS CARDS. SAMUEL E. YOUNG, Wholesale and Retail Dealer in DRY GOODS, CLOTHING, GROCERIES, BOOTS & SHOES, THRESHERS, REAPERS & MOWERS, WAGONS, PLOWS, SEED DRILLS, BROADCAST SEED, SOWERS, ETC.

Here's the Place! S. H. Claughton Has received and is offering for sale a well selected stock of GENERAL MERCHANDISE!

Goods and Prices. S. H. CLAUGHTON, 1547 Lebanon, Or.

O. S. S. CO. FROM AND AFTER DATE, UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE, FREIGHT FROM PORTLAND TO ALBANY WILL BE ONE DOLLAR PER TON!

Free of Drayage and Wharfage, At Reduced Rates. Every Day.

PARKER & MORRIS' New Elevator!

200,000 bushels of Wheat!

CLEAN all the wheat received. Our take in and clean 10,000 bushels per day.

SIXTY THOUSAND SACKS to furnish those storing wheat with us.

Stoves & Ranges! FOR CASE, AT COST!

PUMPS, HOSE, ETC. HERRILL & PUTNAM'S NEW MACHINE SHOP

Stove Organs. THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD RESPECTFULLY thank the citizens of Albany and vicinity for the liberal patronage bestowed on him for the past seven years.

IMPORTANT. Endorsed by the Medical profession. DR. W. H. HALL'S REMEDY for the cure of Coughs, Colds and Consumption.

A SMALL FARM OF ONE HUNDRED ACRES. A two mile farm Albany, with house, well, garden, etc.

BUSINESS CARDS. St. Charles Hotel, Corner Washington and First Sts., ALBANY, OREGON, Matthews & Morrison, PROPRIETORS.

Exchange Hotel, Corner First and Washington streets, ALBANY, OREGON, J. H. Backensto, Proprietor.

Lebanon Mall and Stage Line, W. B. DONACA, Prop'r. MAIL DAYS—Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

O. P. S. PLUMMER, M. D., DEALER IN DRUGS, MEDICINES, PERFUMERIES, CIGARS, TOBACCO, BOOKS AND STATIONERY.

BRUNK & MAY, Manufacturers of BOOTS & SHOES, ALBANY, OREGON.

P. C. HARPER & CO., Dealers in DRY GOODS, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Hats, Groceries, Fancy Goods, Notions, Knives, and Pistols, Suits, Ropes, Mirrors, Wallpaper, Wood and Willow Ware, Trunks and Valises, Forked Trucks, &c., &c.

A. H. BELL & PARKER, late of Oregon City, have to inform the public that they have purchased the entire stock of drugs, medicines, &c., formerly owned by R. C. Hill & Son.

Stoves! Stoves! At Cost From this date until further notice, I will sell a CHOICE SELECTION OF Stoves & Ranges!

Stoves & Ranges! FOR CASE, AT COST!

PUMPS, HOSE, ETC. HERRILL & PUTNAM'S NEW MACHINE SHOP

Stove Organs. THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD RESPECTFULLY thank the citizens of Albany and vicinity for the liberal patronage bestowed on him for the past seven years.

IMPORTANT. Endorsed by the Medical profession. DR. W. H. HALL'S REMEDY for the cure of Coughs, Colds and Consumption.

A SMALL FARM OF ONE HUNDRED ACRES. A two mile farm Albany, with house, well, garden, etc.

Home interests.

Remaining in the Albany Postoffice, May 14, 1875. Persons calling for these letters must give the date on which they were advertised.

PARAGRAPHISTS. T. F. Smith, a former resident of this county, was a passenger on the last steamer from San Francisco to Portland.

Organs Encampment meets this evening. The Sunday School picnic comes off at Lebanon next Friday, and all are invited.

St. Louis has ten thousand dogs. The natives wear a section of stovepipe on each leg during the mad dog season.

Frank Wood has had his dwelling on Second street raised between three and four feet, and a neat brick wall put under for a foundation.

The Government Supt. Boat, under command of Capt. Geo. G. Smith, has been lying at Harrisburg for four weeks past, unable to do but little work.

Mrs. Jennie Purdon started for Kaima and her husband on Monday. She left her store in safe hands, where millinery can be bought, and dresses cut and made as usual.

The ordinance of baptism by immersion was not administered last Sunday, owing to the tempestuous character of the weather.

Some fifty or sixty emigrants from Illinois, Indiana and Kansas, arrived in this city on Wednesday's train.

Read the new advertisement of Tim Bros. They are in receipt of a full invoice of jewelry, watches, clocks, &c., and are still agents for the Singer Sewing Machine.

A little three year old son of Mr. Crawford, who lives on the Coates place, east of Knox Butte, died about noon on Tuesday.

More new and elegant goods at Mrs. C. C. English's. Drop in and see. Messrs. P. C. Harper & Co. want to buy wool, paying the highest price for it.

No quorum at council chamber Tuesday evening, consequently no meeting. N. Baum wants wool, and will pay coin for it.

More new and elegant goods at Mrs. C. C. English's. Drop in and see. Messrs. P. C. Harper & Co. want to buy wool, paying the highest price for it.

Through a mistake the St. Charles only furnished us with one day's arrivals until too late for this issue. Sam'l Miller will get you up as good a wagon as you can buy, at as low figures as any work and the best material will allow.

Business has increased so greatly that Mr. Melan, our superior tailor, has had to employ additional help in his shop. No tailor ever gave better satisfaction.

We have received the "Champion Speller," containing two thousand test words, just published by E. & D. M. Knowlton, San Francisco. Every body gets one, as they are but ten cents each.

The subject of the construction of a wooden railroad from this city to Lebanon is receiving some attention. Such a road, it is said, will cost not over $1,000 per mile, and would be a matter of great convenience to the people of Lebanon and Albany Prairie.

The Davis family are objects of universal sympathy and charity. The man, Davis, having recovered from the measles, extracted from the pocket of his sick wife's dress their all, some $40, and decamped, leaving the family, now consisting of four, all confined to their beds with measles in its worst form.

The citizens of Lebanon are canvassing the subject of building locks on the Albany & Santiam Canal, so as to render the Canal a navigable stream from the head to its mouth, and are urging its necessity, not only as a great convenience to that whole section, including the Forks of the Santiam, but as a matter of profit to the Canal Company.

Mr. James McHargue, of Brownsville, passed up on Monday's train, on his way home from the Palouse (W. T.) country, having in charge the coffin bodies of his two sons, William and John, who died there recently, while in charge of their father's cattle—one of them, William, aged about 30, from rheumatism of the heart, the other, John, aged about 28, from some kind of fever.

Through the courtesy of the Secretary, E. M. Waite, Esq., we are in receipt of the list of premiums to be awarded at the fifteenth annual fair of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, which will be held on the fair ground near Salem commencing Monday, October 11th, 1875, and hold through the week.

Mr. James McHargue, of Brownsville, passed up on Monday's train, on his way home from the Palouse (W. T.) country, having in charge the coffin bodies of his two sons, William and John, who died there recently, while in charge of their father's cattle—one of them, William, aged about 30, from rheumatism of the heart, the other, John, aged about 28, from some kind of fever.

Through the courtesy of the Secretary, E. M. Waite, Esq., we are in receipt of the list of premiums to be awarded at the fifteenth annual fair of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, which will be held on the fair ground near Salem commencing Monday, October 11th, 1875, and hold through the week.

Mr. James McHargue, of Brownsville, passed up on Monday's train, on his way home from the Palouse (W. T.) country, having in charge the coffin bodies of his two sons, William and John, who died there recently, while in charge of their father's cattle—one of them, William, aged about 30, from rheumatism of the heart, the other, John, aged about 28, from some kind of fever.

Through the courtesy of the Secretary, E. M. Waite, Esq., we are in receipt of the list of premiums to be awarded at the fifteenth annual fair of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, which will be held on the fair ground near Salem commencing Monday, October 11th, 1875, and hold through the week.

More new and elegant goods at Mrs. C. C. English's. Drop in and see. Messrs. P. C. Harper & Co. want to buy wool, paying the highest price for it.

Through a mistake the St. Charles only furnished us with one day's arrivals until too late for this issue. Sam'l Miller will get you up as good a wagon as you can buy, at as low figures as any work and the best material will allow.

Business has increased so greatly that Mr. Melan, our superior tailor, has had to employ additional help in his shop. No tailor ever gave better satisfaction.

We have received the "Champion Speller," containing two thousand test words, just published by E. & D. M. Knowlton, San Francisco. Every body gets one, as they are but ten cents each.

The subject of the construction of a wooden railroad from this city to Lebanon is receiving some attention. Such a road, it is said, will cost not over $1,000 per mile, and would be a matter of great convenience to the people of Lebanon and Albany Prairie.

The Davis family are objects of universal sympathy and charity. The man, Davis, having recovered from the measles, extracted from the pocket of his sick wife's dress their all, some $40, and decamped, leaving the family, now consisting of four, all confined to their beds with measles in its worst form.

The citizens of Lebanon are canvassing the subject of building locks on the Albany & Santiam Canal, so as to render the Canal a navigable stream from the head to its mouth, and are urging its necessity, not only as a great convenience to that whole section, including the Forks of the Santiam, but as a matter of profit to the Canal Company.

Mr. James McHargue, of Brownsville, passed up on Monday's train, on his way home from the Palouse (W. T.) country, having in charge the coffin bodies of his two sons, William and John, who died there recently, while in charge of their father's cattle—one of them, William, aged about 30, from rheumatism of the heart, the other, John, aged about 28, from some kind of fever.

Through the courtesy of the Secretary, E. M. Waite, Esq., we are in receipt of the list of premiums to be awarded at the fifteenth annual fair of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, which will be held on the fair ground near Salem commencing Monday, October 11th, 1875, and hold through the week.

Mr. James McHargue, of Brownsville, passed up on Monday's train, on his way home from the Palouse (W. T.) country, having in charge the coffin bodies of his two sons, William and John, who died there recently, while in charge of their father's cattle—one of them, William, aged about 30, from rheumatism of the heart, the other, John, aged about 28, from some kind of fever.

Through the courtesy of the Secretary, E. M. Waite, Esq., we are in receipt of the list of premiums to be awarded at the fifteenth annual fair of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, which will be held on the fair ground near Salem commencing Monday, October 11th, 1875, and hold through the week.

Mr. James McHargue, of Brownsville, passed up on Monday's train, on his way home from the Palouse (W. T.) country, having in charge the coffin bodies of his two sons, William and John, who died there recently, while in charge of their father's cattle—one of them, William, aged about 30, from rheumatism of the heart, the other, John, aged about 28, from some kind of fever.

Through the courtesy of the Secretary, E. M. Waite, Esq., we are in receipt of the list of premiums to be awarded at the fifteenth annual fair of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, which will be held on the fair ground near Salem commencing Monday, October 11th, 1875, and hold through the week.

No quorum at council chamber Tuesday evening, consequently no meeting. N. Baum wants wool, and will pay coin for it.

The wife of Law Skimpson was knocked insensible by a refractory cow, on Wednesday evening, but soon recovered, and is now all right.

At the funeral of the child of the emigrant family, Davis, on Wednesday, W. R. Cannon generously donated the use of one of his vehicles free. Generous William.

The McKenna & Harrisburg Canal enterprise will enlist the best talent of Harrisburg and vicinity. Those who favor the project are zealous in its support and strong in the belief of its ultimate success.

Business has increased so greatly that Mr. Melan, our superior tailor, has had to employ additional help in his shop. No tailor ever gave better satisfaction.

We have received the "Champion Speller," containing two thousand test words, just published by E. & D. M. Knowlton, San Francisco. Every body gets one, as they are but ten cents each.

The subject of the construction of a wooden railroad from this city to Lebanon is receiving some attention. Such a road, it is said, will cost not over $1,000 per mile, and would be a matter of great convenience to the people of Lebanon and Albany Prairie.

The Davis family are objects of universal sympathy and charity. The man, Davis, having recovered from the measles, extracted from the pocket of his sick wife's dress their all, some $40, and decamped, leaving the family, now consisting of four, all confined to their beds with measles in its worst form.

The citizens of Lebanon are canvassing the subject of building locks on the Albany & Santiam Canal, so as to render the Canal a navigable stream from the head to its mouth, and are urging its necessity, not only as a great convenience to that whole section, including the Forks of the Santiam, but as a matter of profit to the Canal Company.

Mr. James McHargue, of Brownsville, passed up on Monday's train, on his way home from the Palouse (W. T.) country, having in charge the coffin bodies of his two sons, William and John, who died there recently, while in charge of their father's cattle—one of them, William, aged about 30, from rheumatism of the heart, the other, John, aged about 28, from some kind of fever.

Through the courtesy of the Secretary, E. M. Waite, Esq., we are in receipt of the list of premiums to be awarded at the fifteenth annual fair of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, which will be held on the fair ground near Salem commencing Monday, October 11th, 1875, and hold through the week.

Mr. James McHargue, of Brownsville, passed up on Monday's train, on his way home from the Palouse (W. T.) country, having in charge the coffin bodies of his two sons, William and John, who died there recently, while in charge of their father's cattle—one of them, William, aged about 30, from rheumatism of the heart, the other, John, aged about 28, from some kind of fever.

Through the courtesy of the Secretary, E. M. Waite, Esq., we are in receipt of the list of premiums to be awarded at the fifteenth annual fair of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, which will be held on the fair ground near Salem commencing Monday, October 11th, 1875, and hold through the week.

The wedding-day thing in Tin. Last Tuesday evening, May 11th, 1875, being the tenth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Blain, their numerous friends in this city concluded that the event must be properly celebrated by the usual ceremonies incident to a "tin wedding."

At the funeral of the child of the emigrant family, Davis, on Wednesday, W. R. Cannon generously donated the use of one of his vehicles free. Generous William.

The McKenna & Harrisburg Canal enterprise will enlist the best talent of Harrisburg and vicinity. Those who favor the project are zealous in its support and strong in the belief of its ultimate success.

Business has increased so greatly that Mr. Melan, our superior tailor, has had to employ additional help in his shop. No tailor ever gave better satisfaction.

We have received the "Champion Speller," containing two thousand test words, just published by E. & D. M. Knowlton, San Francisco. Every body gets one, as they are but ten cents each.

The subject of the construction of a wooden railroad from this city to Lebanon is receiving some attention. Such a road, it is said, will cost not over $1,000 per mile, and would be a matter of great convenience to the people of Lebanon and Albany Prairie.

The Davis family are objects of universal sympathy and charity. The man, Davis, having recovered from the measles, extracted from the pocket of his sick wife's dress their all, some $40, and decamped, leaving the family, now consisting of four, all confined to their beds with measles in its worst form.

The citizens of Lebanon are canvassing the subject of building locks on the Albany & Santiam Canal, so as to render the Canal a navigable stream from the head to its mouth, and are urging its necessity, not only as a great convenience to that whole section, including the Forks of the Santiam, but as a matter of profit to the Canal Company.

Mr. James McHargue, of Brownsville, passed up on Monday's train, on his way home from the Palouse (W. T.) country, having in charge the coffin bodies of his two sons, William and John, who died there recently, while in charge of their father's cattle—one of them, William, aged about 30, from rheumatism of the heart, the other, John, aged about 28, from some kind of fever.

Through the courtesy of the Secretary, E. M. Waite, Esq., we are in receipt of the list of premiums to be awarded at the fifteenth annual fair of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, which will be held on the fair ground near Salem commencing Monday, October 11th, 1875, and hold through the week.

Mr. James McHargue, of Brownsville, passed up on Monday's train, on his way home from the Palouse (W. T.) country, having in charge the coffin bodies of his two sons, William and John, who died there recently, while in charge of their father's cattle—one of them, William, aged about 30, from rheumatism of the heart, the other, John, aged about 28, from some kind of fever.

Through the courtesy of the Secretary, E. M. Waite, Esq., we are in receipt of the list of premiums to be awarded at the fifteenth annual fair of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, which will be held on the fair ground near Salem commencing Monday, October 11th, 1875, and hold through the week.

Mr. James McHargue, of Brownsville, passed up on Monday's train, on his way home from the Palouse (W. T.) country, having in charge the coffin bodies of his two sons, William and John, who died there recently, while in charge of their father's cattle—one of them, William, aged about 30, from rheumatism of the heart, the other, John, aged about 28, from some kind of fever.

LOCALS ON 8TH PAGE.