COLL. VAN CLEVE.

ALBANY, - - OREGON.

FRESH TOPICS.

THEY are beginning to find Charley Rosses again. The last one was seen or two, must already be investigated by tramping through Germany with a for- a Parliamentary committee. Under this tune-teller.

much worse than Spinner's as Spinner's and stamped with an official stamp ; he is worse than everybody's else. If you retires into a stall and marks a cross would become United States Treasurer, against the name of the candidates for practice poor writing.

been like hash to me. You know hash is shop-keepers, and so liable to intimidavery good occasionally, but when you tion, and are ignorant besides. Some of have had it fifty or sixty days right along the Eaglish Judges have decided that it becomes a little tiresome.

A NEW YORK sporting paper states that there are in the United States fifteen hundred thoroughly organized base-ball clubs, having an aggregate membership of over 25,000.

Treasury has decided that internal reve- up by popular education, and by the renue officers have anthority to examine lief of the mass of the people from their the checks in any bank to ascertain servile dependence on those superior to whether they have been stamped as re- them in wealth. quired by law.

ANOTHER new industry has been developed in London. A man advertises himself as "Knocker-up and window-tickler from 3 to 7." He wakes heavy sleepers who wish to get up early. Windowtickling is waking without ringing the bells, by means of a long pole, with which he taps on the window pane.

HON. ELBERT HERRING, of New York, is the oldest practicing 'lawyer in the world, being now in his 99th year. He was admitted to the bar in 1798, and was a Judge of the Marine Court the year Napoleon became Emperor of France. Charles O'Conor, now an old and illustrious man, was a student in his office. Mr. Herring was also Commissioner of Indian Affairs-the first that held the Douglass are present at the anti-slavery. position.

HERMANN, the famous prestidigitateur, was recently united in marriage in New York to an English lady, the ceremony being performed by Mayor Wickham. After the knot had been tied the clever magician extracted a roll of bills from the Mayor's pocket-book and transferred it to Col. Pratt's mouth. The Mayor saw the joke, but warned the cunning man not to "play any such tricks on Mrs. Hermann when they went home."

This is Beecher's remarkable perora-<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text> This is Beecher's remarkable perora-tion to his last Sunday's sermon: "He that is holy and loves God for what He is; he that hath faith, when he reaches the other life can ter gentlemen place the blame upon the When I come before the Eternal Judge and say, all aglow, 'My Lord, my God !' committee. will He turn and say, 'You were never MR. JOHN ROBINSON, the circus manwill He turn and say, 'You were never immersed; go down! You did not come up the right road!' I will answer, 'I love Thee! Damn me if thou cans't!' God will say, amid the heavens aflame, 'Dost thon love? Enter in.'" NEVER was there such a falling off in the price of diamonds as there has been the price of diamonds as there has been not recollect exactly what Mr. Robinson in the case of those sent by the Khedive said, but he judged by the energetic to the Collector of the Port of New York to keep for Minnie Sherman Fitch. When they first came they were regarded as dirt cheap at $400,000, and now the FOURTEEN members of the House of as dirt chesp at $400,000, and now the Jeweller's Oircular says: "The esti-mates of the value of these jewels have been exaggerations beyond all prece-dent, and $40,000 really represents the most liberal valuation that can be put upon them, the number and size of the diamonds are so counterbalanced by their off-color." LONDON papers state that the death of the late H. L. Bateman, the well-known thestrical manager, was due diknown theatrical manager, was due didistrict; F. S. Hersey (Rep.) in the Fourth Maine district. Of the 278 Reprectly to a gust of passion. His temper was occasionally a perfect hurricane. The night before his death, Mr. Henry resentatives already chosen 102 are Re-publicans, 167 are Democrats, and nine The night bofore his default, M. Heart, Harry Trying gave a support, si which Babe many support, si which Babe Bab support, si which are Independents, Irving gave a supper, at which Bate-man was present, and the fun wared of age, three hours a day, and for twive-and over, four hours a day, and for twive-and over, four hours a day, a sufficient of the study out of school should not usually be permitted; and thet all incentive to usu-making about the used canteounly, espe-sially with girls. Springfield (Mass.) Republices may attract of the Springfield (Mass.) Republices may attract of the second of the category of the the observe of the second of the category of the state study counts, Mr. Favell is publices may attract of the second of the category of the state study counts, Mr. Favell is publices at the second of the second will run against very eminent personages Albany Register. will run against very eminent personages if he isn't careful. He is reported resointe to probe the corruption to the bottom, no matter who gets hurt in the process. He says, however, that it is the biggest and toughest job he has ever been called to handle."

> THE complex English balloting system, which has been on trial but a year system, the voter is given a ticket, with New's signature is pronounced as the names of all the candidates on 'it, whom he votes. This is the secret ballot required in a country where many of BEBOHNE on hash: "This trial has the voters are tenants and dependent the mark against a man must be a cross in every case, when the law only intended to provide that some mark should be affixed. The ballot moreover does not secure general secrecy, and English tradesmen will learn that the independent voter cannot be manufactured by THE Solicitor of the Unitel States any such device. He must be trained

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

GEN. GARFIELD wants ex-Gov. Hayes to run for Governor of Ohio this fall. SENATOR BOOTH, of California, is visiting his parents in Terre Haute, Ind. THE late Senator Revels, colored, has given up politics and gone into preaching. PHINEAS T. BARNUM, Mayor of Bridge-port, Connecticut. Admission to Bridge-port hereafter, fifty cents; children half price. changed. Tom had reason enough to feel gloomy. He was beginning to think where he could get a broom to sweep the crossings with. As he moved slowly along, ro-volving this and other plans in his mind before is better than a whole race of politiciana."

VICE-PRESIDENT WILSON and Fred. people's centennial celebration in Phila-delphia.

Ex-GOVERNOR CURTIN, it is said, will be induced to run for the Governorship of Pennsylvania this fall, on the Demo-

THE Salisbury (Md.) Advertiser nomard, of Delaware, for Vice President. The Annapolis Gazette proposes James, 6. Blaine, of Maine, for President, and Alexander B. Hagner, of Annapolis, for Alexander B. Hagner, of Annapolis, for Vice President. GEN. GARFIELD says the postage in-crease was all a mistake, due mainly to the bad practice of allowing important legislation to be crowded into the last hours of the session. That does not held out fifty cents.

THE LATTLE FOLKS. Fanny's Two Questions.

Fauny, leaning on my knee, with her questions bothers m "Uncle, you know everything-All about the Lirds and beco-Flowers and grass, and leave Uncle, you know everything !

"Why do buttercups grow yellow While the violets grow blue ? Tell me, please, and tell me true, There's a dear old fellow ?"

"Fanny dear, some things, it may be, I may know more than a baby: But why buttorcups grow yellow While the violets grows blue, I can tell no more than you."

Fanny raised her shining oyes Up to mine in swift surprise :

" I thought you knew everything, Uncle, and I'm sure you do, If you'll only tell me true; Why do rusty brown birds sing Sweetly, whiles bright birds are mute Why are all the dull ones honost, "While the gay ones steal the fruit? Don't you think it quite a pity They can't be both good and pretty?"

"Older heads than yours, my deary, Have been puzzled by this query, And may answer as they would ; As for me, why fair and good On the same hough addom grow. On the same bough seldom grow, Really, Fan., I do not know !"

Tom's Adventure.

He had spent his last cent yesterday for his dinner. Since that he had eaten nothing, and it was evident that he could earn no more money till the weather changed.

Tom appeared the next day at the library promptly at 4 p. m., and waited for his new patron. Presently the old gentleman came down beaming as gra-ciously as ever, though Tom thought he appeared just a little nervous. He patted Tom on the shoulder again, GULLIVER says: "He who causes a blade of grass to grow where none grew the broad stone steps, saw a gray-haired gentleman standing at the entrance of gentleman standing at the entrance of a the library. "Shine, sir?" exclaimed Tom, and he darted straight up the steps. The man smiled, and opened the door wider. "Come in, my boy," said he, "I want to speak to you." Impressed by the kind tone, Tom dashed off his cap and walked in. He found himself in a lofty corridor, walled with stone. No other person was and at once set him to blacking his boots. By the time this was done, he had drawn another book from his pocket, and concealed it in Tom's box. "Carry it just where you did the other one, my boy," said he, and then he gave him some more money and dismissed him with a compliment for his faithful-As Tom passed out of the door, he walled with stone. No other person was there but himself and the man who called The man shut the door and looked inates Allen G. Thurman, of Ohio, for the next President, and Thomas F. Bay-sid. said "You're an honest boy, I think."

Tom twisted his cap, and looked down to the little box of "tools" in his left hand, and did not reply. "I can always tell an honest boy when may black my boots, and I'll give you a book, ard also fifty cents. You'll oblige me, and I'll oblige you, and we'll be firm friends. Ha, ha, ha!" Now is heard the sound of vernal showers on the twinkling grass (Shelley), and with his umbrella wanders forth the byscinthing how scepdacle vherein eggs should hafe been segreeted. Mit much ashdonishments dot hen vas filled. She vas dink dot she hyscinthine boy, for whom morn well might break and April bloom (Emerson). might break and April bloom (Emerson). In Now shall we notice how our swift spring heaps the orchards full of bloom 1 and scent (Lowell), and the maiden May returns with a pretty haste (Barry Corn-i wall). Now do the majority of intelli-gent people think it better to sport with Amaryllis in the shade or with the tangles of Nemra's hair (Milton) than to creep into some still cavern deen there tangles of Nezera's hair (Milton) than to creep into some still covern deep, there to weep and weep and weep (Tennyson). All these and many other things do we see and enjoy now that spring has broken the icy fetters of the silver streams (Wilkesbarre special dispatch), and all nature rejoices that grim-visaged March has smoothed his frosty pow and all nature rejoices that grim-visaged March has smoothed his frosty pow (Burns and Shakespeare). Spring' beau-tiful spring! has returned with birds and flowers (original), and new fashion-able styles in hats, bonnets, dresses (ad-vertisements), influenzas and catarrhe and hundreds of other things make business lively.—New York Herald.

> PRETZEL'S SELF-ACTING BACK-AC-TION HEN-PERSWADER.

a young boot-black, box in hand, was maping gloomily along the sidewalk near one of the large-library buildings of New York.
B. From the sky the heavy clouds were walks and pavements were alippery with wet, and the eaves of all the houses dripped with a changeless patter, patter, that to the boy with nothing to de seemed likely to keep on forever.
It had rained steadily for three days, and nalt that time to that time to the boot-black, had not had a single "shine." Men did not care to have their boots polished in such weather.
He had spent his last continent.

bresent time, to demonshdrate der shapes of der vorld, we hafe eggwaly as Patsey was for going out and telling the first policeman. But Tom was longer-headed. He knew that he must much more uses of der embryo of a bird, as did dose fellers in der old dimes, when it was eggspected to gif evidences, have more certain evidence of the old gentleman's dishonesty than he could show yet. The two boys talked over the matter, and finally agreed upon a line of

when it vas eggspected to gif evidences, und proofs, at der eggspense of a hens rebudation und eggcentricities. I hafe much sympady for dot class of birds, which eggshibit so much of dhem-selves, und which lay down, se much more as dhey dook ub. Shdill, in dis Tom appeared the next day at the Eggsberience, may hafe been der mud-Legesberrehee, may hale been der mud-der of some infentions, but der fadder of dis infention vas an X-cyed Eggyp-tian. From him it comed in a shdraight line through der behind fadders und mudders of Carl Pretzel, to eggsamine As Tom passed out of the door, he made a sign to Patsey, who by agreement was sitting on a step not far off, and Pat-sey nodded a little, but did not move. At half-past four Patsey did move, for und berfect, und now, after much many he saw the old gentleman whom Tom had described come out of the library years of eggstremely much doil und shtudy, he has got der ahkience to a alone. He followed him. That night the two boys met again in the old boiler. system down, und der hen must do in der fudure vat she don'd did nefer done

don't hafe done her duty yoost now, und mordified at der bossible aarkasemness which might eggehibit itself in her sister hens, she, mitout a single gackle, gwieth dooks her seat on der nest again, resolv ing to produce or berish in der addempt

Eggsbinaations 4 Dimes.

It was dhruly a beautiful ting, to saw so much of dot shpirits of determinations embodied in der fhrame work of a hen. Yoost saw der pigture of dot ahicken, und blease to told me, did you efer in my life saw so much resignations, so much of dot pure ahpirid of conscien-dious willimmess of dot unch the holdsr can be his way. This last Boston spelling-match was bothered with such words as ceriaas, ptsymagogtachygraph, giaour, tael, eyot, fichus, euchamy, and demoniacal. BALTIMORE ships 50,000,000 cans of oysters annually, and 40,000 mest dious willingness of duty. Vell, I'll yoost baed you tree tollars about it. Vy, such a sight like dot vood make a man go right away gwick off und marry a viddow. It vood make a feller valk around mit a meekness dot vas gharao derisdic of one who had got a mudder-by-law — dot's so. Yoost once more, again does der accommodating shicken again does der accommodating snicken broduce der embryo, und once more already der egg dot's full mit meat dhrops dhrough der hatchvay, und again der batentee adds annudder one to der many vat he vas hafe in his hat, by inmore as dhey dook ub. Shdill, in dis pooty gwick dime, vhen eferydings vas eggspanding, und efen nadure idself vas ledding oud der abron shdrings of ids gwick shwelling body, der hen mit ids eggodistical und eggsbensif varble und lay, must now bractice eggonomy, but be eggreegious in ids productions like any odder child of nadure. Dot is eggreential.

Eggsberience, der mudder of Infention.

in der past-lay out so many eggs con-sisdent mit her weight und shtrength.

since 1799. Tom THUMB is thirty eight years old, but very small for his age.

In all England, Ireland and Scotland there are only 137 daily papers.

THERE are said to be fifty-seven wome editing newspapers in this country.

A PROVIDENCE (R. I.) firm has completed a $400 rifle for King Kalakana. THE coal fields of Colorado are large than the whole area of New England GREAT BRITAIN has but 150,526 screen in orchards. Illinois alone has twice as many.

Two million fish were hatched last year by the government at the Michigan State

BRIGHAM YOUNG has been re-elected Prophet, Seer, Revelator, and President of the Mormon community.

BOARD at all the summer resort hotels will be materially cheaper than year, and well may we rejoice.

Swepey has no national debt, and its surplus revenue, last year, amount-ed to nineteen millions of dollars. et's go.

THE latest addition to the umbrella is a pane of glass, inserted in the front breadth, through which the holder can breadth, thro see his way.

conscien-Vell, 1'll are constantly employed in abarpening t it. Vy. oyster-knives and soldering up the

It is almost hopeless to breed horse for fast trotters when there have been but five horses raised in Kentucky in the last fifteen years that have records as low as 2-21.

THERE are hundreds of warehout the best part of New York city without tenants, and thousands of houses are oc-cupied by people who cannot pay their landlords.

Two on three dozen of the Boston doc tors have been investigating the boy murderer, Jesse Pomeroy, and, as a re-sult, have united in a petition to the Governor to hang him.

FRANK WALWORTH, the parricide, is having fits and other complaints, and the subject of a pardon for him is again at-tracting attention. His mother is a daily visitor to her unfortunate son.

An oak tree near Arensberg, in Prussis, more than a thousand years old, is about to be cut down by its owner be-cause of the inconvenience suffered from the numerous visits of strangers to the place.

EX-SENATOR REVELS, of Mississippi, the first colored citizen admitted to the United States Senate, has become a Doctor of Divinity, and is an active preacher of the Methodist Episcopal Church of that State.

WM. H. NEVIES, of London, accused of stealing $40,000 from his employers, started out strange countries for to see ; and a detective who went after him cap-tured him last week in Brooklyn, after

And Tom did so. The more Tom reflected upon this whole affair, the more thoughtful he be-came. He was sharp and keen, and it was hard to deceive him. That night he slept in an old iron boiler that had lain for years on a vacant lot in C—street. In this rent-free tenement, he can deceive potential of the sum of the sum of the street boot. he and Patsey Regan, another boot-black, had contrived to make a bed of hay and shavings, that kept them quite comfortable when the weather was not severe.

action.

And the old gentleman patted Tom's back, and gently pushed him toward the door. "But don't say any thing about this, and don't fail to carry the book to this, and don't had to carry the book to the proper place. Promise to be care-ful;" and the gentleman smiled. And Tom, whose head was full of ideas, readily replied, "I'll carry it safe, sir." And Tom did so.

No sooner had Tom and his fellow-lodger curled into their queer kennel for the night, than Tom told Patsey his ad-venture, but without exposing his employer's name. "The ould villain !" exclaimed Patsey, getting up on his elbow. That was pretty nearly what Tom contractors have been stopped, pending the inquisy. It is said that implicated parties have warned Mr. Jewell that he dations are provided.

Hisdory repeads idself in dis compli-nented cases, "a gacklin hen vas alvays nean business." A vell-fed female hen to, and they were alone again, he re-mined, "I can no provide the box here, o, with your things, and you can carry it with the cover down, all saug." And alipping a small oil leather-covered book the mow hath retreated (Wordsworth) and that the fields with flowers are the mow hath retreated (Wordsworth) and that the fields with flowers are to every hue (Drummous) and that the fields with flowers are to only the most of the provide the box how, if you'll -no, stop," he reflected. "I wont have you take them to the place," and he gave Tom a eard on which come before the swallow date there are daffodile street. "Yes, sir," stid Tom, once more. "And to-morrow come again, and you and the second second

Sector 1

-= /// 4

1

otels, the Fifth Amon great disparity in the st flesh enten is one of the sal physical demoralization

The preservation of der bedigree of der hen, yo munk not allow der shicka is the time of the source of the sour

