Services at the Baptist Church.

The services at the Baptist church last evening (Monday), were resoundingly attended, but we are certain it was one of the best.

Pleasant in presence and address, Mr. Baker showed rare skill in so clothing the plain and often unwelcome gospel of God's grace with freshness of thought and aptness of illustration, as to interest and instruct all present.

Mr. Hammond, said: "This means a conflict with the devil, in which all the forces of evil are to be met and, by the grace of God, overcome." The sermon which followed was a forcible presentation of the old, old story of salvation by grace, from Ephesians II, 5.

ODFELLOWSHIP.—The lodge at Lebanon, Lebanon Lodge No. 47, elected officers last Saturday night. Following are the successful ones: C. H. Ralston, N. G.; S. A. Nickerson, V. G.; James Suttle, S.; R. McCall, T.

THANKS.—Owing to a press of business we omitted on Monday to tender our best thanks to Mrs. Flora Parker for the presentation, on that day, of an elegant fruit cake. It was delicious, a chef d'oeuvre in the art of cake.

PASSED ON TWO PAINS.—We guess the Statesman man has been there himself; bear him: "We regret to see that our old friend Jim Anthony, of the late Sacramento Union, was somehow amalgamated out of the nomination for Governor at the late Independent Convention in Sacramento."

ANNIVERSARY.—Willamette Engine Co. No. 1, Portland, has invited Albany Engine Co. No. 1, of this city, to be present on the occasion of the celebration of the twenty-second anniversary of that Company, which transpires on the 3d of August next.

INDEPENDENCE BALL.—Given by Albany Engine Co. No. 1, at the Pacific Opera House, on Monday evening, July 28th. E. A. McAllister affirms; G. W. Richardson denies.

Mr. Baker closed with a warm tribute to the character and services of Mr. Hammond. Having known him for years, and seen the quality of his work, there could be no question but that he was a man of God, and signally blessed in the building up of Christ's kingdom.

BUCKWHEAT AT SHELDON.—On Sunday evening, as a merchant of Halcyon was on his way home from campmeeting, passing through Sheldon, the buggy in which he and a young lady were riding ran into a ditch and upset the vehicle, throwing both occupants to the ground.

THE DOWNS TRAIN.—The down train yesterday ran over and killed a cow, just to the edge of the city, belonging to Thomas Montell.

DOG CRAB.—The name of the boy reported thrown from his horse at Sheldon on Sunday, resulting in breaking his shoulder. We learn to-day that Mr. W. H. Galt is better, and his physician, Dr. Ballard, thinks he will recover in time.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 30, 1875.

PLUCKY WOMEN.—Geo. Howell, who had his shoulder displaced by being thrown from a back near Robert's bridge on Sunday, was waited upon by Dr. Smith, of Halcyon, and is getting along nicely. Howell's wife and Mrs. Shaver, each with a child in her arms, were left alone in the back, and the idea occurred to them that if they wished to save themselves from the same or a worse fate than George's, they must stop the team, which was then making very fair time.

Prof. W. E. Wells closed two writing schools on Friday evening last by a grand "writing match," at Rockhill school-house four miles from Lebanon. The two schools, numbering over sixty scholars, one from Sandridge, the other from Rockhill, met on the evening in question, when a most exciting contest ensued over the five prizes offered for the best penmanship, etc.

WILL COME.—About two weeks ago Western Star Lodge I. O. G. T., of this city, passed resolutions requesting Mr. Hammond to visit this city, said resolutions being forwarded to Mr. Hammond by the Secretary, Mr. A. N. Arnold.

ODFELLOWSHIP.—The lodge at Lebanon, Lebanon Lodge No. 47, elected officers last Saturday night. Following are the successful ones: C. H. Ralston, N. G.; S. A. Nickerson, V. G.; James Suttle, S.; R. McCall, T.

Services at the U. P. Church Last Night.

The union prayermeeting at the U. P. church last evening, was well attended and quite interesting. After the usual introductory exercises of singing and responsive scripture reading, the leader introduced the topic by saying: "Every disciple of Christ is authorized to be a preacher of his gospel in some sphere and to some audience."

Among other remarks, Mr. Irvine spoke of a letter, received that day, from a young man who had been a traveling companion six years before, who had been won to Christ by personal effort.

Prof. Warren said the desire to bring others to the Savior was one of the earliest evidences of genuine conversion. Those who are forgiven will desire to have their friends also blessed. Religion helps to cure the natural selfishness of the human heart, and its blessings increase by sharing them.

On motion, a committee was appointed to report upon candidates for membership, consisting of Drs. Skiff, Chance and Gray.

DAILY LINE TO LEANON.—The Donkey Brothers commenced to-day running a daily stage line between this city and Lebanon, to meet the requirements of the times and accommodate the citizens of Lebanon. The mail will, at least during the summer months, be carried daily, and we hope, before Winter has set in, Uncle Sam will order that the mail between the two points be carried daily, instead of tri-weekly, as at present.

A party is organizing for the purpose of a prospecting tramp which is intended to extend through the Summer. This is the best way to thoroughly prospect our mountains and valleys, and find where the precious metals can be obtained in paying quantities.

At Montreal, Canada, an action has been instituted by Rev. Gavinlong to restrain management of the temporaries of the Presbyterian Church of Scotland from disposing themselves of funds of upwards of $550,000 otherwise than for the benefit of those who maintain their connection with the Church of Scotland. The reason attributed by working men are at times ridiculous. At a colliery near Sheffield, belonging to Earl Fitzwilliam, safety lamps were introduced in place of naked lights, and 500 men struck work in consequence of that. Earl Fitzwilliam, without any more ado, closed the colliery, and now the men are wondering what they have been about.

"Yes," said the driver of the car to the man who stood on the steps, "he's a mighty nice man for our work—leastways to look at. Kick? Well, you bet. Since I've had her she's removed the insides from two horses hitched in with her; she's caved in her stalls times enough to make one carpenter rich, and lived up more than one passenger; member one case in particular. Nice old gut with youngsters, gone out for a Sunday picnic; had a basket of lunch covered with a tablecloth. Jes he was a gittin' off the mare worked round when I was a lookin', and she stobed that basket a clatter with both feet—I don't rightly know; but she got in all four—anyways there was lunch for everybody within ten rods, whether he wanted it or not; the paper boys mostly did. Think the old man saved the handle of one ham and the cork of one bottle. Sigh a nice lookin' beast as she is too. Why that mare has been brought out of the stable not less than three times 'cause she was such a gentle lookin' lady's horse. Well, it's good for the doctors and wagonmakers anyhow. Always stoves up the family, and gets back in the team in less'n a week. Never was broke she wasn't; and never will be till she falls off a horse."
