

The Albion

VOLUME VII.

ALBANY, OREGON, AUGUST 13, 1875.

NO. 47.

BUSINESS CARDS.

SAMUEL E. YOUNG, Wholesale and Retail Dealer in DRY GOODS, CLOTHING, GROCERIES, BOOTS & SHOES, THRESHERS, REAPERS & MOWERS, WAGONS, PLOWS, SEED DRILLS, BROADCAST SEED, SOWERS, ETC.

St. Charles Hotel, Corner Washington and First Sts., ALBANY, OREGON, Mathews & Morrison, PROPRIETORS.

Exchange Hotel, Corner First and Washington streets, ALBANY, OREGON, E. S. Merrill & Co., Proprietors.

A. H. BELL & PARKER, late of Oregon City, beg leave to inform the public that they have purchased the entire stock of drugs, medicines, etc., formerly owned by E. C. Hill & Son.

Here's the Place! S. H. Claughton, Has received and is offering for sale a well selected stock of GENERAL MERCHANDISE!

O. P. S. PLUMMER, M. D., DEALER IN DRUGS, MEDICINES, PERFUMERIES, TOBACCO, BOOKS AND STATIONERY.

F. C. HARPER & CO., Dealers in DRY GOODS, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Hats, Groceries, Fancy Goods, Notions, Hosiery and Trunks, Bags, Suits, Mirrors, Wallpapers, Wood and Willow Ware, Trunks and Valises, Pocket Cutlery, etc., &c.

Albany Bath House & Barber Shop, THE UNDERGROUND WOULD BE ECCE! fully thank the citizens of Albany and vicinity for the liberal patronage heretofore extended to them.

FARMERS! LOOK TO YOUR INTERESTS! AND SAVE MONEY! Old Reapers, Mowers and Threshers Repaired and made almost as good as new.

WOOD TURNING, Sawing and Dressing, Also, any Ironwork and general Blacksmithing the trade may demand.

Home Interests.

MASONIC EXCURSION.—The grand excursion under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity, comes off next week—tickets good for one week from Monday next.

RECEPTION.—A very pleasant party met on Friday evening last at the residence of Rev. I. Wilson to pay their respects to that glorious man of God, Bishop Peck.

NICE HOMESTEADS.—Messrs. W. H. Doid & Co. are offering for sale a number of four-acre lots adjacent to the city, especially designed for those who desire to secure land enough upon which they can not only erect a commodious and comfortable dwelling for their families, with all the necessary outbuildings, and not have them crowded too closely together.

WANTED A FIRE.—Across the river, in the Soap creek country, resides a little girl who, a few days since, during the temporary absence of her parents, concluded to experiment and pass off the time by setting fire to the grass in the field adjoining the house.

ERYSIPELAS.—Has been "setting up" the people of Soap creek, Benton county, to an alarming extent of late.

LUMBER FOR SALE.—Mr. F. E. Robinson is prepared to furnish first quality Lumber at the foot of Washington Street. Call before contracting.

Hold your orders until you see the Chicago Pitts Threshers. Ask old Illinois farmers and they will tell you that they are the best in the world, without any exception.

New Firm.—Sam Miller has bought the Washington and Spaulding heretofore occupied by Peters & Spaulding, together with the material and outfit, and is now prepared to furnish anything in his line, consisting of Carriages, Buggy, Harness, Saddlery, and general smithing neatly and with dispatch. Bring him the best of machinery, and more satisfactory than you can find elsewhere.

CANCER CAN BE CURED.—We warrant a cure on Cancers and "old sores." Have also new vegetable remedies for diseases of the eye, which have cured a great many cases considered hopelessly blind.

MR. JAMES MOORE—Will commence, on or about the 10th day of May, delivering fresh Milk, Butter, Eggs and Vegetables to the citizens of Albany. Now is the time to make your arrangements, as Mr. Moore will run a team daily, and do as he agrees.

REMOVAL.—Dr. Gamble has removed his office to his new building, adjoining his residence on First street, one block west of the foundry, where he may be found at all hours.

WOOL WANTED.—P. C. Harper & Co. will pay the highest cash price for all the wool they can get, and would respectfully inform everybody that they have a fine stock of general merchandise for sale very low for cash, or to prompt paying customers on time.

CAPTURING THE CUTTER.

At the time of which we write there was an inlet on Tucker's Beach, New Jersey, called Brigantine Inlet. In 1850 this was closed up, and the sea formed another inlet, which extends to the city.

There has been a number of letters written traducing our characters. These letters all refer to T. H. Barnhart for future evidence to substantiate their slanderous statements.

There was one privateer that the enemy managed to take as she was coming in—namely the "Zebra," and she was a fine vessel, very fast, and armed with a long eighteen pounder. The admiral made her a tender to the flag-ship, added a company of ten regulars, and a herd of sheep, and put a crew of eighteen men and a midshipman aboard, commanded by a master's mate.

Now, if there were bloodthirsty and wicked men, who had brains to keep their heads, and purposes, and knew she is coming on Wednesday afternoon, and that she is going to Shroud's and round about to forge, and would leave the schooner weak.

Next morning at daylight there was a whistle heard from the cutter, and two boats were let down, into which were transferred the great weight of the concealed Whigs, fourteen men, armed with entrenchers and muskets, with the master's mate and midshipman, commanding in separate boats.

There were a dozen young men in the settlement, staunch Whigs—some fishermen and all accustomed to the sea—who had been out on a boat, and were on the beach, and they all disappeared behind the sand-hills.

Next morning at daylight there was a whistle heard from the cutter, and two boats were let down, into which were transferred the great weight of the concealed Whigs, fourteen men, armed with entrenchers and muskets, with the master's mate and midshipman, commanding in separate boats.

There were a dozen young men in the settlement, staunch Whigs—some fishermen and all accustomed to the sea—who had been out on a boat, and were on the beach, and they all disappeared behind the sand-hills.

Next morning at daylight there was a whistle heard from the cutter, and two boats were let down, into which were transferred the great weight of the concealed Whigs, fourteen men, armed with entrenchers and muskets, with the master's mate and midshipman, commanding in separate boats.

THE LYING TRADER CORRALED.

He may be found on Pike's old farm, on the road leading from Corvallis to Yaquina Bay. These are the facts: There has been a number of letters written traducing our characters. These letters all refer to T. H. Barnhart for future evidence to substantiate their slanderous statements.

There has been a number of letters written traducing our characters. These letters all refer to T. H. Barnhart for future evidence to substantiate their slanderous statements.

There was one privateer that the enemy managed to take as she was coming in—namely the "Zebra," and she was a fine vessel, very fast, and armed with a long eighteen pounder. The admiral made her a tender to the flag-ship, added a company of ten regulars, and a herd of sheep, and put a crew of eighteen men and a midshipman aboard, commanded by a master's mate.

Now, if there were bloodthirsty and wicked men, who had brains to keep their heads, and purposes, and knew she is coming on Wednesday afternoon, and that she is going to Shroud's and round about to forge, and would leave the schooner weak.

Next morning at daylight there was a whistle heard from the cutter, and two boats were let down, into which were transferred the great weight of the concealed Whigs, fourteen men, armed with entrenchers and muskets, with the master's mate and midshipman, commanding in separate boats.

There were a dozen young men in the settlement, staunch Whigs—some fishermen and all accustomed to the sea—who had been out on a boat, and were on the beach, and they all disappeared behind the sand-hills.

Next morning at daylight there was a whistle heard from the cutter, and two boats were let down, into which were transferred the great weight of the concealed Whigs, fourteen men, armed with entrenchers and muskets, with the master's mate and midshipman, commanding in separate boats.

There were a dozen young men in the settlement, staunch Whigs—some fishermen and all accustomed to the sea—who had been out on a boat, and were on the beach, and they all disappeared behind the sand-hills.

Next morning at daylight there was a whistle heard from the cutter, and two boats were let down, into which were transferred the great weight of the concealed Whigs, fourteen men, armed with entrenchers and muskets, with the master's mate and midshipman, commanding in separate boats.

ABOUT ICE-CREAM.

He slipped into an ice-cream saloon very softly, and when the girl asked him what he wanted he replied: "Corn beef, fried potatoes, pickles, and mince pie."

"This is not a restaurant, this is an ice-cream parlor," she said. "Corn beef, fried potatoes, pickles, and mince pie."

"Well, I'm glad to see you here," he exclaimed. "You must reason, it isn't likely that I would consult an ice-cream parlor to buy a grindstone, is it? You didn't think I came in here to ask if you had any baked ham, did you?"

"If I owned a hardware store and you came in, I would wonder that you came for something in my line," wouldn't step out and ask you if you wanted to buy a mule, wouldn't I?"

"Well, I'm glad to see you here," he exclaimed. "You must reason, it isn't likely that I would consult an ice-cream parlor to buy a grindstone, is it? You didn't think I came in here to ask if you had any baked ham, did you?"

"If I owned a hardware store and you came in, I would wonder that you came for something in my line," wouldn't step out and ask you if you wanted to buy a mule, wouldn't I?"

"Well, I'm glad to see you here," he exclaimed. "You must reason, it isn't likely that I would consult an ice-cream parlor to buy a grindstone, is it? You didn't think I came in here to ask if you had any baked ham, did you?"

"If I owned a hardware store and you came in, I would wonder that you came for something in my line," wouldn't step out and ask you if you wanted to buy a mule, wouldn't I?"

"Well, I'm glad to see you here," he exclaimed. "You must reason, it isn't likely that I would consult an ice-cream parlor to buy a grindstone, is it? You didn't think I came in here to ask if you had any baked ham, did you?"

AN UNGUINANT JOKE.

It came home from Detroit, Michigan, and her great pride was being so invalid. She lost an opportunity in stating that she came to Minnesota to recuperate.

"This is not a restaurant, this is an ice-cream parlor," she said. "Corn beef, fried potatoes, pickles, and mince pie."

"Well, I'm glad to see you here," he exclaimed. "You must reason, it isn't likely that I would consult an ice-cream parlor to buy a grindstone, is it? You didn't think I came in here to ask if you had any baked ham, did you?"

"If I owned a hardware store and you came in, I would wonder that you came for something in my line," wouldn't step out and ask you if you wanted to buy a mule, wouldn't I?"

"Well, I'm glad to see you here," he exclaimed. "You must reason, it isn't likely that I would consult an ice-cream parlor to buy a grindstone, is it? You didn't think I came in here to ask if you had any baked ham, did you?"

"If I owned a hardware store and you came in, I would wonder that you came for something in my line," wouldn't step out and ask you if you wanted to buy a mule, wouldn't I?"

"Well, I'm glad to see you here," he exclaimed. "You must reason, it isn't likely that I would consult an ice-cream parlor to buy a grindstone, is it? You didn't think I came in here to ask if you had any baked ham, did you?"

"If I owned a hardware store and you came in, I would wonder that you came for something in my line," wouldn't step out and ask you if you wanted to buy a mule, wouldn't I?"

"Well, I'm glad to see you here," he exclaimed. "You must reason, it isn't likely that I would consult an ice-cream parlor to buy a grindstone, is it? You didn't think I came in here to ask if you had any baked ham, did you?"

FOR THE KITCHEN.

APPLE PUFFS.—Mix a quarter of a pound of butter with a quart of sifted flour, two eggs, and a spoonful of salt; half teaspoon of baking powder, and mix together.

DRIED-APPLE PUDDING.—Two parts dried apples, two parts raisins and currants and three parts coarsely-broken bread crumbs.

SPARGAS AND BEANS.—Cut the tender parts of the asparagus into quarter-inch lengths, boil in an equal quantity of water until about an equal amount of well cooked Lima beans. Cook until the asparagus is tender, and serve warm.

APPLE SNOW.—Put the apples; halve and core them; pare to boil with a little water and one cupful of white sugar. When the apples are cooked, lift them out without breaking; boil down the syrup and pour over the apples.

CRACKER PIE.—Take nine soda crackers break them and pour over them two cups of boiling milk; let them stand until reduced to a pulp, add one and one-fourth cups of sugar and one cup of raisins.

ONE-EGG CAKE.—One and one-half cups sugar, two eggs, butter the size of an egg, beat smoothly together; one cup sweet milk, two and a half cups flour, two tea-spoonfuls baking powder.

THE CORVALLIS GAZETTE says the people of Benton County are likely to raise the $100,000 necessary to the commencement of the Yaquina Bay Railroad.

THE DETROIT Free Press is a wicked paper. It says: The philanthropists subscribe liberally to the fund for a ten-acre kilobite asylum in California.

THE VASSAR College girls got away with 128 quarts of strawberries at supper time, to say nothing of the extra jam they got for dinner.

THE VASSAR College girls got away with 128 quarts of strawberries at supper time, to say nothing of the extra jam they got for dinner.