LOST, STRAYED OR STOLEN .- Some days ago Messrs. H. B. & T.C. Sprenger missed a valuable Devonshire bull, Victor Second, from their farm two miles north of Shedd. When last seen the buil, a dark red in colar, had a board fastened to his head, a brass knob on the end of each horn, and was side-hoppled. Victor is the finest animal in the State, and the owners value. him correspondingly, and will pay a good reward to any one neturning bim to them at their form as above, or will reward any one giving them information which will enable them to regain him.

AWFUL, IF TRUE .- Prosecuting Attormey, J. J. Whitney, went to Salem yesterday morning. From him we leasned the tollowing: Suspision of foul play with regard to the young man Watkine, so horribly frested by Whiteman near Jef-ferson recently, had continued to increase, until the citizens in the neighborhood distermined to know more about the matter A number of them went to the man who had been engaged to nurse Watkins after he had been so fearfully outraged, and after a little "persuasion" they learned from him that Whiteman had killed and buried Watkins. They went to the spot indicated as the grave of Watkins, and took the body from the earth, They found a bullet-hole in the forehead of depensed, which caused his death. These statements proving true, we don't know of a man who stands a ther chance to pull hemp at an early day than this same Whiteman. We have sel-dam heard of a more despicable wretch,

A reorganization of the M. E. Sunday pol was partially effected last Sunday. An effort will be made to increase its actions and usefulness.
