Universalist Convention. LYNN, Mass., Oct. 20.—The Universal-ist's Convention of the United States met this morning. It is composed of dele-gates, lay and clerical, from one State Con-vention, a large number of whom were present. No important change in educa-tional institutions during the year had oc-curred. The denominational investments in educational institutions exceed three millions, and yet there were none of them but felt their usefulness curtailed by lack of means. The general state of the church and mission work was progressing, and signs were favorable for continued progress. DENVEE, Oct. 21.—A most atrocious murder was uncarthed here to-day. A Sr. Louis. Looking up a the old granger, I asked him where all this corn came from. "Do" you ship it from New York, sir?" cars. The break occurred in the freight car. Five freight cars were wrecked, and three platform and two box. A wrecking car was at once sent to the "What corn from New York?" "Yes sir," I said. "Did you' import it from New York, or did you ship it from scene of the disaster. The train was put in trim and moved off without any interruption. No one was injured and England?" He look at me from head to foot, exam-ined my coat, looked at my cars, and then exclaimed: the damage trifling. Gov.
