THE Stockton Independent is informed that the increase of the number of the insane committed from San Francisco the present years is 25 per cent. over the corresponding period last year.

An old gentleman from the East recently offered the baggage master at Sacramento, as he thought, a $20 gold piece, but which proved to be a spiel mark. When the fraud was pointed out to him he said he had $200 in that kind of money, and he : howed more spiel marks, which had been given in exchange for greenbacks by a scamp at Omaha.

THE Sacramento Bee says that one of the female immigrants who arrived from the East by Friday's train created more attention at the depot than any one else, in consequence of her wearing chin whiskers, of a beautiful auburn, and about two inches in length, and a very good match for those of her husband. If it had not been for the fact that she was caring for a nursling infant many would have been inclined to believe that she was a he.

THE engagement of Miss Armstrong, of Brooklyn, to an opulent Italian nobleman, is announced. The Count lives in much splendor in the suburbs of Florence. Miss Armstrong went abroad a few years ago to learn the art of becoming a prima donna at Milan, but in consequence of impaired health, abandoned her project of leading a professional life. She is described as being a great beau'y of the noblest Italian families.

Parties interested are already mem oriolizing for the repeal of the law doubling the rate of postage on books, etc. The Postmaster General declares the proposition to return to the former rate of postage on books and printed matter of the third class is heartily approved by him, and he will earnestly urge the change to be made as speedily as possible. There is no doubt he will make a strong recommendation on this subject and there is reason to expect Congress will correct that legislation before the holiday's adjournment, so that the old rate of one cent for two ounces may go into effect January 1st.

A great four-mile race is to come off at San Erancisco on the 13th of November, for a purse of $30,000, given by the Pacific Jocky Club. It promises to be the most exciting turf contest ever famous runners have been entered for the race: Wild Idle, Grinstead, Katie Pease, Springbok, Rutherford, Revenue Jr., Fannie Hall, Hock Hocking and Charce.

The beet-sugar manufactory in Sacramento is now in full operation, employing 120 men, and producing fifty barrels or ten thousand pounds, of sngar per day. The saccharine vegetable is grown in the valley, and it is sold to the manufacturer at the rate of $5 a ton an acre yielding six tons. The Bee says that five thousand tons were grown near Sacramento during last season and brought the farmers $30,000.

The head of Carrie Dawson, of Remington Station, Ohio, was completely scalped by a revolving shaft that eaught | had since the operation felt a peculiar her hair. Her mother and sister have submitted to the taking of skin from their heads and shoulders for the wounded girl, and she will probably recover.

Cincinnati scientist has allowed him self to be stung once a day for three weeks by bees to ascertain the effect of the bites. He says that after about the tenth time the pain and swelling were slight, the body seeming to become inoculated with the poison.

When you see a married woman standing on the corner a block from her house to catch the letter-carrier, you may know that she is expecting a letter from her aunt, and doesn't want her time fluctuated from $60,000,000 to $70,husband to see it.

Champague is now made of gooseber ries, coal oil and rhubarb juice, sweetened and fortified with potato spirits. One of the wines that took a medal at Vienns was a thin white wine, strengthened with brandy and accrated.

The politics of the United States. which are commonly, and in a sense justly, considered to be absolutely without interest for Englishmen, seem to fore-shadow the condition to which English polities are r pidly coming. We are not about to raise a cry of warning against the "Americanizing of our institutions." In the sense which used to be attached to this phrase, the supposed danger never existed. England is not about to become a republic, or to make the judges elective, to abolish the peerage; and she was no nearer taking any of these steps before the late conservative reaction than she is now. The resemblance between the politics of the countries relates to a matter more fundamental than any of these. It is easier to imagine England ruled by a President, or inhabited by a wholly untitled population, or submitt-ing lawsuits to the decision of judges chosen by the rate payers, than to imag-ine Englishmen not divided into Iberals and conservatives. Yet while there seems no chance of any of the first three contingencies occurring, the last is in all probability, on the eve of being reduced to fact. The obliteration of political landmarks has already been accomplished in America. Republicans and Democrats are now preparing themselves for the Presidential canvass, and everywhere they are making the discovery that neither party have anything to unite their members among themselves, or to differentiate them from their opponents .-

Lodon Spectator. New York Papers on the Elections.

The Tribune claims that the Democratic party was beaten in Tuesday's election by inflation, as the Republicans were a year ago by Grantism and third term. The two elections prove the existence of an independent vote, with power and intelligence to dictate the result in the Presidential election next year. The Times, replying to the Express positively asserts that Grant will not secure their nomination. The Sun sees in Tuesday's election the explosion and death of inflation and a great triumph for judiciary independence. Every judge has got a new back-The World claims the Democrats won a moral victory as visible as their memorable victory last year, because the Democratic losses on Tuesday resulted only from the accession to the Republicans of the canal thieves. The Times combats this by showing the great Republican gains in the counties having no local interest in the canal question, instancing the 4,000 Republican gain in Duchess.

The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review of the Britsh corn trade, has the following: Sowing has been resumed in some places, but in most cases and a fine linguist. By her marriage the soil has been unfit to receive seed. Miss Armstrong becomes related to one | Large arrivals checked the upward tendency in prices of English wheat. The quality is good, but there is no material change in the market. Russian has been lower in consequence of large shipments in anticipation of ice in Russian rivers and harbors. It is reported Russia has a short crop of wheat and forage. There is consequently tenacity of holders at Odessa, and it would seem to be justified. The absence of the usual abundance from America and Russia must eventually tell on our market. In France sowing is near completion In Paris and throughout the provinces of France, as well as Belgium and Holland the markets are unchanged. At Hamburg the market is tending upward; last quotations are fully maintained at Danzig, while in Austria and Hungary prices are lower. The deepest sea sounding yet effected was obtained by the Challenger this year witnessed in California. The following in the abysses of New Guinea, depths which have occasioned a sharp line of demarcation between the fauna of Asia and Australasia. The "lead" wheighed 4 cwt and struck bottom at the depth of 4,450 fathoms, or about 26,700 feet.

The hollow rod, by which specimens of the bottom are brought up, was full of mud, and both the thermometers that had been sent down were smashed to atoms by the pressure of the superincumbent water. A previous attempt was made to reach the bottom, but in which 4,505 fathoms were sounded, showing the temperature at that depth to be 854 degrees Fahrenheit uncorrected. The Deposit (Mo.) Courier tells the following fanny story: Mr. Stevens, the man who was accidentally shot in the knee at Canterville a week or two back. and whose leg had to be amputated, twitching around the toes of his remaining foot-a sensation as it a cord was tightly tied around them. Mouday last his frien's dug up the box in which-the amputated leg had been buried, and on opening it they found a long blade of grass intertwining the toes. It was re-moved, and, strange to say, since then Mr. Stevens has been entirely free from the former uncomfortable feelings.

The year 1875 will rank as an eventful one in American mining. Whether in the line of new and rich discoveries. or better methods of taking out and reprogress. The yield of procious metals in the United States, which has for some 000,000 per year, will in 1875 aggregate very nearly $100,000,000.

A Russian proverb says, "before going to sea, pray twice; before getting married pray three times."

Depression of Trade in Germany—Total Failure of Crops in Russia.

The Morning Post of October 23d has a Berlin dispatch of the 22d, saying the depression of trade is felt so keenly by the industrial classes that the government has been requested, as a means of preventing acute distress, to resort to a measure successfully adopted in the last two wars, namely, the establishment of loan banks. The government has not as yet shown much inclination to accede to the request. Serious distress is anticipated among the industrial working classes during the coming winter, and apprehensions are also entertained of a crisis in financial circles. The same paper also says: "Russian correspondents to German newspapers give distressing accounts of the upparalelled failure of this years harvest. Nev er before, it is asserted, has the failure been so general in Russia, both in geographical extent and in comprehensiveness with regard to the crops effected. Russians are still familiar with the distress resulting from failing crops from their experience of the Samaria famine. The present is general. The entire cultivated zone is deprived of its expected harvest. From Orel to the Crimea, and from Tarnbow to Bodalisk it is the same tale, and there is no prospect for help for there is no one to help. All are groaning under the same load. In other years if there is failure of crops it attacks only one species, be it in cereals or root or grass, but this year all crops have suffered alike.

A VIRGINIA FIRE INCIDENT,-The Enterprise of October 27th relates the following pleasing incident: Yesterday after the Consolidated Virginia and Ophir works were in full blaze, a gentleman, whose residence is east of the Ophir shaft -and which residence had been on fire several times-had finally given up that the house must be lost, and had ceased further exertion; suddenly he was surprised to see a mountain quail light at his feet. In a moment the bird flew up to his breast, and lit on his vest. The man unbuttoned two buttons of his vest when the bird ran beneath it and nestled close over his heart. He buttoned his coat over the bird, and then said to himself, "That means that my house can be saved," and went to work again. Just thenthe uncertain wind changed, the volume of smoke was turned another way; the house was saved, and now, next to the children, the bird is the highest prized treasure in that house.

The Jacksonville Times says: "The late rains raised the various streams so as to render it for a time almost impossible to cross them. Slate creek, in Josephine county, was so high on Saturday that the stage was delayed nearly twenty-four hours in making the trip to this place. The stages from the north and south are behind hand, owing to the bad roads and high waters. The weather has turned off clear again, however, and the mails will doubtless arrive with more regularity."

Ater a Detroit man had entered street car and dropped his nickel in the box, a boy came running after the car and called out: "Jones-oh! Jones, vour wife has got another fit." Jones stepped to the door, looked around with a perplexed air, and called back : "Well, it's too late now? I have paid my fare, and I don't propose te let this corpora. tion get ahead of me!"

Harper's Bazar says that it is a mistake to suppose that the lady who concealed herself in a room where a lodge was about to be held and who when discovered was allowed to be initiated is a myth. The clock case may be a myth, but the lady is not. She was the Hon. Mrs. Aldworth, and continued through life to take an active interest in the order into which in her youth she had so strangely gained admission. She founded the Dublin institution for the orphan daughters of Masons. Her portrait still hangs in the principal lodge room in Cork and under it in a glass case the apron and jewels she used to wear when she atte ded lodge meet-

Ashland has two schools in successful operation. The academy has an attendance of about 100, which is daily increasing, while the same may be said of the district school.

What is the difference between spermaceti and a schoolboy's howl? One is the wax procured by the whale and the other is the wail produced by the whacks.

Happy Thought.

When at about the middle of the crossvalk she dropped a well-filled wallet out if her hand. Then the trouble began in earnest. She stooped over in front to pick it up, but her fingers could not reach the wallet by eighteen inches. She changed her parasol into her right hand and tried to reach sideways for the wallet. It was no go, however, for her fingers did not reach anywhere near the coveted article. She then tried to get down on her knees, but she might as well endeavor to pick up a drop of water with her ear. She reached back ward but her hand only extended downward on a level with her hips. She appeared to be much embarrassed. No one segmed to be passing at the moment who could assist her. Ah! a thought struck her saddenly. Quickly turning her parasol with the top on the ground, she glided a pretty little foot out from beneath her snow-skirts, and, with a gentle kick, the wallet lay in the concave parachute.

ORIGIN OF THE TERM BROTHER JONA-THAN .- The story of the origin of the above ternf, as related many years ago, to the editor of the Norwich Cowier, by a gentleman over eighty years of age, who was an active participator in the scenes of the Revolution is as follows: "When Genreal Washington, after being appointed commander of the army of the Revolutionary War, came to Massachusetts to organize it and make preparations for the defense of the country, he found a great want of amunition and other means necessary to meet the powerful foe he had to contend with, and great difficulty to obtain them. If attacked in such condition, the cause at once might be hopeless. On one occasion, at that anxious period, a consultation of the officers and others was held, when it seemed no way could be devised to make such preparation as was necessary. His Excellency, Jonathan Trumbull, the elder, was then Governor of the State of Connecticut, on whose judgment and aid the General placed the greatest reliance, and remarked, 'We must consult Brother Jonathan on the subject.' The General did so, and the Governor was successful in supply-ing many of the wants of the army. When difficulties afterwards arose, and the army was spread over the country, it became a by-word, 'We must consult Brother Jona-than.' The term Yankee is still applied to a portion, but 'Brother Jonathan' has now become a designation of the whole country, as John Bull has for England."

An Englishman was boasting to a Yankee that they had a book in the Britsh Museum which was once owned by Cicero. "Oh, that ain't nothin'," retorted the Yankee; "in the Museum in Bosting they've got the lead peneil that Noah used to check off the animals that went into the ark."

A person looking at some skeletons asked a young doctor present where he got them. He replied, "We raised
