INCIDENTS OF THE DISANTER.

The tollowing incidents connected with the loss of the steamer Pucific are collated from the Victoria papers :

Among those on board were Mrs. Moote, eldest daughter of Mr. McMillan, editor of the Standard. She was returning to her husband in San Francisco from a visit to her relatives here. Mr. Sullivan, magistrate at Cassiar, going home on leave; the wife and two children of Mr. Thomas Styles (Kinsman & Styles) ; Mrs. Moote (eldest daughter of ex-mayor McMillan, editor of the Standard); the wife and child of Mr. William Lawson (Bank of British North America) ; Richard Lyons and Dennis Cain, two of the discoverors of the Cassiar gold fields.

Mr. Jelley fails to recollect the name of the man who was lashed with him on the pilothouse. He was a successful Cassia miner. He took out $5,000 during the past season. By the survivor's description of the man who was on the pilot-house with him he is supposed to be Jack McCormick, an old Caribooite, and lately from Cassiar.

Mrs. Garesche, wife of Mr. Garesche, is in England with one of the children. Four other children are in this city ; one fine little boy called at the Standard office only to learn the awful news.

Mr. Beberly, whose name appears in the passenger list, did not sail in the Pacific.

It was rumored that fighting would commence in the district of Atlas, but up to the present time nothing has been done. E. C. Kimble, Indian inspector, is here. He is reported as being in favor of removing the Pimas and Maricopas to the Colorado river reservation. All agree that some change of location is necessary to preserve peace and security.

A special dispatch states that the British ship Lennic arrived in roads of La Platte on the 6th inst. The cook was navigating the ship under orders from the mutineers to conduct her to Gibraltar. In consequence of bad weather they were obliged to put into La Platte when they were arrested.

The strik-Yambill. ing thing about the will is that he acknowledges all his illegitimate children, calls them all by name, and makes provision for all of them. There is no shirking of responsibility, no mealyaway. mouthed subtertuge, no polite prevarication, but an honest confession of relations which most men would have shrunk from acknowledging before folks. Yet this modern polygamist was not only a successful inventor and business man, but a church-goer and exemplary Christian so far as the world knew. This is modern civilization. But, however such polygamous practices may be condemned, it is certainly creditable to Capt. Parsons was on board the Prince Alfred when she was wrecked ; was on board the Los Angels when she broke her shaft ; purchased tickets for San Francisco by the Dacota, but was unable to get away in her; sailed in the Pacific on Thursday last, and is reported lost with all his family.

Miss Palmer, whose name is mention. ed as among the lost, had a presentment ot the dark shadow of approaching danger hanging over her. When she said tarewell to several friends, she said she felt she would never see them again wrote a note to a former schoolmate in which she expressed her belief that she would never return to Victoria.

MOBE VICTIMS REPORTED .- The Oregonian has good authority for the statement that, although their names have not been published among those who perished on board the Pacific, to the list of the lost must be added two more names. Mr. E. L. Hastings, of the firm of Crane, Hastings & Co., of tor said : "Do you make wedding San Francisco, and Mr. Miller, of the firm of Redungton, Hostetter & Co., of San Fraicisco, have both been lost. These gentlemen were both acquainted with Capt. Howell and did not purchase their tickets at the office but went on board and bought them of the Purser, and thus their names did not appear on the list. They were men of considerable means and occupied high social positions, and their unhappy fate seems to be authenticated beyond reasonable doubt. It is said that Barney McCagh, a young man formerly of Portland, aged about eighteen years, who joined Rockwell & Hurlburt's troupe a short time ago, also embarked on the steamer and is doubtless lost.
