At the meeting of the Union League at Philadelphia the feeling was unanimous for a reorganization, with amendments of constitution and ritual to meet the issues of the day. A circular was issued to the members of the League to rally to the defence of the Common Schools, which are in danger.

Chas. T. Murry, editor of the South Bend Herald, Indiana, discharged a female compositer for alleged intimacy with W. A. Palmer, Justice of the Peace. First, then, the girl tried to chastise Murry and failed, and finally Palmer shot him through the body. The wound may prove fatal, and the citizens talk of hanging Palmer.

THE VIETUES OF BUTTERMILK .-

Mr. Rebber, in a paper presented to the French Academy, thus extols the virtues of buttermilk: Life exists only in combustion, but the combustion which occurs in our bodies, like that which takes place in our chimneys, leaves a detritus which is fatal to life. To remove this he would administer lactic acid with ordinary food. This acid is known to possess the power of removing or destroying the incrustations which form on the arteries, cartilages and valves of the heart. As this acid abounds in buttermilk, which is an agreeable kind of tood, its habitual use, it is urged, will free the system from these causes which inevitably cause death between the seventy-fifth and hundredth year.

A colored man, who was lately resuscitated from what seemed death, but was only catalepsy, was entertain-ing his friends with the sights he beheld in the other world. "Plenty colored bredran in - beaven, I spec, Tom." "Oh,yes!" said Tom. "And how about hell-any down there ?" asked another interlocutor. "Oh, yest masse, plenty of dem der too." "Any white folks, Tom?" "Lord save us, der sin't no end on 'em, but by gosh, masse, ebery white man done got a nigger between him and de fire!"

An Englishman was boasting to a Yankee that they had a book in the British Mursom which was once owned by Cicero. "Oh, that sin't nothin'," retorted the Yankee; "in the museum in Bosting they've got the lead-pencil that Noah used to check off the ani, mals that went into the ark."

cheeks showed that they knew nothing of cold or pinching want. With a thankful spirit she thought of her blessings as she sat down to her little pile of mending. Very busily she worked, puzzling all the time over what her husbaud could have meant by starting a singing school. A singing school and the widow ! how queer! what possible connection can they have!

At last she grew tired of the puzzling thought, and said to herself, "I won't bother myself thinking about it any more. He will tell me all about i: when he comes home. I only hope we may be able to help the widow and may be able to help the widow and make her poor heart sing with joy." "There," she exclaimed, "can that be what he meant? The widow's heart singing for joy! Wouldn't that be a singing school? It must be, it is just like John. How funny that I should find it out!" and she laughed merrily at her lucky enters her lucky guess.

Taking up her work again, she stitched away with a happy smile upon her face, as she thought over again her husband's words and followed him in imagination in his kind ministrations. By-and-by two shining tears dropped down, tears of pure joy, drawn from the deep wells of her love for her husband, of whom she thought she never felt so fond before. At the first sound of footsteps she sprang to open the door. "O, John, did you start the singing school ?"

"I reckon I did," said the husband, as soon as he could take off his wrappings; "but I want you to hunt up some flannels and other things to help keep
