Home Matters.

THE NECK-TIE AND APRON SOCIABLE -Wednesday night, was the biggest and grandest success, in the way of fun and huge enjoyment, ever set up in this city. Everybody was fairly slopping over with jolarity, and nothing occurred during the whole evening to mar the general pleasure. Old and young, grave and gay, went there with a set purpose, that purpose being to enter into the spirit of the occasion with all the vim there was in them-and they did. We are inclined to the belief that every person there-and the hall was crowdedwas perfectly satisfied with the entertainment. The oysters, and cake, and peaches, and taffy-in fact everything was the very best, and the genial and smiling ladies in waiting were untiring in their exertions to make all feel at home, and that their patronage was appreciated. We don't want any better lay out than that afforded on the eventng in question, and we believe we speak the sentiments of all present when we return thanks to the enterprising ladies who got up and managed the whole affair for their efforts to make it agreeable and pleasant to each and every one, and express tie party of the season. We came near omitting mention of a leature of the evening, the College Glee Club, which afforded some splendid music. Two little misses, Annie Mansfield and an adopted daughter of Mr. J. R. Herren, rendered "Pinback" in good style, receiving enthusiastic ap-

A GREAT SOCIAL EVENT .- The marriage of Mr. Winfield S. Peters and Miss Aurelia V. Blain, which occurred on Tuesday night, at the U. P. Church, was the grand social event of the season, looked forward to for days by our young people with the greatest expectations. The little church was crowded, gallery and all, long before the hour, 714 o'clock, by the beauty and chivalry of our city, and the ushers were bothered not a little with anxions enquirers after seats. At 716 o'clock the bridal party entered the church, when the organ, presided over by Mrs. Wyatt, pealed out the Wedding March, from Midsummer's Night Dream, in splendid style. The attendants, Miss Maria Irvine and John Hannon, Miss Laura Tate and Jay Blain, Miss Mary Hannon and Rev. W. R. Blain, came first, the ladies being dressed in immaculate white, while the gentlemen were gotten up regardless of expense. Follow-Ing came the bride and groom, the observed of all observers, taking their places quietly in front of the sacred desk. Rev. Mr. S. G. Irvine, D. D., then proceeded with the ceremony; the ring was produced and placed upon the finger; the recponses given, quietly but earnestly; the prayer for the future prosperity of the newly united pair, given by Rev. Mr. Stratton. fervently and impressively pronounced. and the welling party slowly passed from the church by the western aisle, to the delicious strains of the "Polish Liberty puffs of illusion and white silk made pompa lour, with ruchings of crepe lisse; the skirt was made with an immense train, the front composed of puffs; the veil fell in graceful folds the whole length of the train, and was fastened to the head with an elegant wreath of orange blossoms, eaught on the left shoulder with a small boquet of lillies of the valley; a bunch of orange blossoms and a bridal boquet completed the tollet. After the ceremony came the reception at the residence of the bride's mother, on the corner of Washington and Third streets. The rooms were crowded until a late hour with the many friends of the happy pair. It was a way up wedding in every respect, and we unite with their hosts of friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Peters the richest blessings of a kind Providence through a long and happy

FORKS OF SANTIAM, Dec 6, 1875. ED. REGISTER :- As several of our fellow-citizens on commencement of the work on the Santiam bridge, gave their individnal boud to the workmen for the sum of $4,500, and was at that time assured that there was only $300 yet to be made up by subscription, and on the final completion of the work it appears that the bia a deficiency of about $600, together with $700 due on subscription but not collected, for which amount the said bondsmen gave their individual note at the bank. Now, Mr. Editor, I would like to know whether this discrepancy of $300 is a mistake, or have some of the original subscribers reniged? I would ask further, is a benefitted nmunty going to sit suplacly down and let the few men suffer? If they do, it will be a bad precedent. More anon.

CAPTAIN JACK. The Twosters have on foot arrangments for getting up a grand entertalument, to come off, probably about the 8th of January. It'll be way up, you can guess.

Election.-Monday was election day. Elsewhere will be found the names of the gentlemen put forward by the Republican Convention, which met on Saturday evening, for the different offices. The Democratic Convention, which met on Friday evening, placed the tollowing ticket in the field: For Mayor, Allen Parker; Recorder, M. A. Baker; Treasurer, Cal. Burkhart; Marshal, Geo. Humphrey; Councilmen. Dallas Price, A. N. Arnold, Wm. Raiston, Frank Parton, Sig, Fox, and A. Umphrey. The canvass was most spirited, and every effort was made by Democrats to secure the election of at least a portion of their ticket. The usual election "flctions" and artifices were used by our Democratic brethren to secure Republican votes, some of which were successful. We are inclined to the belief that when it comes to "workers" our Democratic brethren have a few of the most "stubborn" men on earth, who believe in winning an election at any cost. It was a botly contested election, sure, and everything that it was thought would have the smallest particle of influence was brought to bear on the voter to secure a vote against the Republican ticket. As usual, however, in spite of everything that could be said or done by the opposition, the city has again gone Republican. The Mayor, Treasurer, Marshal, and four of the

It won't be the handsomest in the world, but will be good enough. A committee of three was appointed to push the matter of securing stock between now and the 27th, the time for the meeting of stockholders to elect directors. A committee of nine, including the President, was appointed to make the necessary arrangments for an entertainment to be given for the benefit of the Company. This entertainment will probably come off in the front of next is for rent. Enquire at this office. month. A number of substantial citizens were elected members of the Company. The intention is, if possible, to have the engine here next month. The meeting adjourned to meet next Monday evening, to hear the report of the committees, and to transact any other business that may before it. Fred McCoy was elected Financial Secretary ad interim, our F. S., Judge Montanye, having gone East, to be absent two or three months. Every member should put in an appearance next Monday alght.

> NEW JEWELRY STORE .- Mr. Charles Bouregardus, some time ago, concluded to go to California or semewhere else to engage in business, and sold out his furniture, etc., preparatory to moving. He took the precaution, however, to make a prospecting tour before finally determining to leave our beautiful little city, and soon became convinced that there was no place equal to Albany, in a Lusiness point of view, and he has therefore determined to remain here, and will soon open a new stock of jewelry. etc., probably on First street, between Ferry and Washington. Success to him.

SHAMEFUL .- Last Monday evening as we were passing along First street, we ob-March."
