Population of the Country.

There are some notable deductions to be made from the census taken in a number of the States during the last year. One of the most noticeable is the abstention from the polls of a large number of citizens. In fact, this evil seems to be on the increase. As to increase of population, the returns from fourteen States (in one of which, Michigan, the census was taken in 1874,) show an addition to that of 1870 of at least 2,000,000 persons. The accurate character of the returns from three States -South Carolina, Louisiana and Texas -are disputed. In the two first named States the enumerations are asserted to have been incompetent. In Texas the returns are an estimate based on a school census. The actual increase in the other eleven States in 1,612,000. This makes approximately an increase for the whole country of about six millions, The present decade when it closes will show a larger proportionate increase than any of those that have preceded it. Unite Under the Old Flag.

As the time for helding our County Convention approaches, Republicans should begin to bestir themselves, and consider what is their duty in the premises. The cause of the continued defeat of the Republican party in Linn heretofore, has not been so much for lack of voters, as it has been because of lack of harmony, want of union, in the rank and file of the party. Had there been no dissensions in our ranks, and had the full Republican vote been polled at the last election, all can now see how different would have been the result.

The object and aim of the Democracy of Linn especially, has been, and still is, to stir up strife and create bitterness between individual members of the Republican party of Linn; and they, the leaders of the Democracy, have left no stone unturned to effect this grand object. They reason: "If the Republicans of Linn unite, then the day of Democratic rule-the day of high taxes-is passed away forever; as with the inauguration of Republican officials, our wrong-doing and misdeeds will be unearthed and brought to light, and we shall no more be ab'e to stand before this people.

Republicans owe it to themsleves, to the country, to come forward like loyal, free American citizens, and, burying all past differences, work together harmoniously for the success of the Republican party, assured if they do this, success in June next will perch upon the banner of the party of the Union-the party that, all through the dark days of rebellion, stood steadfast, and conquered under the Old Flag. Let us as Republicans, as well as all levers of honest government, economy in county expenses, and a reduction of the present outrageous taxation, unite, and working shoulder to shoulder, we shall succeed in placing in nomination and electing capable, honest men, who will work in the interest of the whole people, and not to favor and enrich a few seedy politicians. Let every honest, conscientious man but do his duty and all will be well.

An honest old granger approached the affable young man who adorns the general delivery window of the postoffice, recently, and asked: "Is there any letter for the Griggses here ?" The young man shuffled through the G's deck, and said, "No, sir!" "Any for the Stebbinses " The young man counted the S deck and said, "No sir!" "Well, any for the Bunces?" and the old man put on his spees to see for himself. The young mad famed the B's out, and again said, "No sir !" "Then who in thunder is all them thar letters and pigeon holes for, anyhow, by gum?" ripped out the old man; and before the young man had time to reply, the old granger was shuffling down the street, swearing that "this here post-office is a blamed mernoperly, like everything else these days !"

The three political virtues taught in the school of Democracy are forgiveuess, forgetfulness, and justification. In 1865 our lesson was the duty of forgiveness, in 1868 and 1872 is was forgetful. ness, and now we are asked to follow the leader of the Confederate choir in the centennial song of justification, Loyal people generally decline to join in the chorus, or to throw up their hats over any agreement that compromises the results of the war.

That accursed national debt is what is draining our country of all its gold .-S. R. Democrat.

And that "accursed national debt," with all its accompanying evils, was caused by the rebellion of Southern Democrate against the freest government the sun eyer shone upon,

OUR NEW YORK LETTER.

THE BEST OF ALL CHARITIES-MOORY AND SANKEY - SPRING FASHIONS-POLITICAL -- BUSINESS -- BUTALTH.

NEW YORK, March 7th, 1876. THE BEST OF ALL CHARPIES. As there are poor people everywhere who must be relieved, I am going to give your renders the method of work adopted by the most useful and effective charity in the world. St. John's Guild is a body of men and women in this city, organized for the purpose of helping the deserving poor. The officers and workers get no salaries. Every dodar contributed goes directly to the relief of the poor, without being pared down a particle. Any member may recommend deserving people, and ascertain the exact circumstances. They get the number in the family, its earnings, and what they most need. Then the head gets a ticket, and on presentation, a ticket is issued on which they can draw rations once a week. The Guild has an immense warehouse on Varick St., which is filled with meats, flour, groceries, and medicines, all of which they buy at prime cost, and plied therefrom. At this time 25,000 persons are living on this charity, and there is not an unworthy person among them. Every one has to give a reference before an onnce is drawn, and the moment the pensioner gets work the supply Is stopped. In ner their work is mostly caring for sick children. 'The Guild own their own barge, and have it fitted up for excursions up the river with sick children, which they give every day. It is a sight to go down to the warehouse and see the crowds of hungry people carrying away their rations. Last Thursday over 10,000 were present during the day, and all were supplied. The Guild shows what organization will do, and how effective it may be. Every dollar is contributed without solicitation, and they have no difficulty in getting funds for every one knows that what is given goes directly to the object for which it is

MOODY & SANKEY. The meetings at the Hippodrome are increasing, if anything. Extra services have been put on this week, one in the afternoon to accommodate people who live out of town. These are announced as lectures, and Monday the streets were placarded with huge posters in the shape of theatre Posters, bearing the title of the first lecture, "On the Blood," No other intimation was given that it was not a medical discourse, as every one took it to be on reading it at the first glance. The church members who can command their time, have given up every other pursuit and attend meetings at all hours, professing to find great enjoyment in them. It is necessary to give up everything else to attend, for one must go an hour beforeuses, and like their antetypes, survive all changes, are open at half-past eleven for the morning meeting, and the throng which melts into the hall balf fills it at once. The audience is unconcerned, ladies chatting with their triends, ministers in the gallery seats close to the speakers' railing are deep in low-toned earnest chat about the advisory council, the prospects of Oliver Johnson's new paper, or the latest from the inquiry rooms, and Mr. Moody's last method. The only thing that would distinguish the meeting from a coliseum concert in jubilee time in Boston, is the number of very poor, wretched look-titudes together, and bad compassion on them because they were as sheep without a shepherd. There were such poor, decrepit old women, in garments barely decent to cover them, past all decency of neatness, and bonnets barely rescued from the coal-hole, children with unkempt hair, and frowsy garments, brought by bending grandmothers, or drawn by curiosity into the free meeting, men evidently out of work, filthy, desponding and torlorn; the back streets and alleys sitting down beside ladies in furs and velvets, and sprace young men with flowers in their button-holes. Mr. Moody and his wife are the guests of Wm. E. Dodge, Jr., of the firm Phelps, Dodge & Co., and his sons have lately been placed at one of the best schools on Fifth avenue, their expenses being defrayed by wealthy friends. The evangelists do not receive anything for their labors, beyond their expenses, but their friends take care that they shall have as good a living as tery, bribe or threat. New York can give. The money made by the sale of hymn-books goes to young Men's Christian Association. It is said that the debt of this body has been extinguished, and the fund from the Sankey hymn-book will be available for charitable work.

SPRING FASAIONS. The warm weather allows the greatest ommon to see thick jackets discarded. and the black silk worn with a lace fichu, or the head fringe cape of last fall; again suits in two shades of gray or brown debege, will be the first change for good, and with these are over-dresses of soft striped. pasket woven or wool natte cloths, in large stripes of indefinite shading, or subdued colors. Checks are found in all fabrics. wool, silk, cotton, black and white, brown and white, blue and white, but small and tion against neuralgia while March winds the soft chip bats, of every shade of tintedwhite, pearl-white, pink-white, creamfrimmed with lace scarfs of the exact tint of the straw hat. Girls will be glad to hear that long polonaises and turbans, the old favorites in dress and head wear, are settled styles for the year to ents the unofficial end of the Republican party of this city, has felt impelled to express itself. It has resolved that no man should be nominated who is not entirely free from complications that would lead him in that direction. This is somewhat ambiguous, but there can be no donot as to its meaning. It is a dig at Grant and at Roscoe Conklin, and a protest against the interference of custom house and Postoffice employees in politics. It is a demand for a throwing over board of the professional politicians, and a call for new men to come to the front, men not involved in entangling alliances, or mixed in any way

The Union League Club, which repre-

with what is known as "management." Belknap has played the dickens with the regulars. The people are not in the humor to be tooled with just now, and the action of the Union League Club is significant The members do not propose to quit the party, but they lo propose to clean it. They will have none but clean men. The third term idea, which had, at one time, some strength here, is as dead as a smelt. Right or wrong, there is a terrible feeling ot distrust of the old stagers, and a desire 5,000 families are wholly, or in part, sup- for new men. The country will do what is did in 1851, when Sherman, Colfax, Burlingame, and the now old leaders of the Republican party came to the surface. That Congress was made up almost entirely of new men, and so will the next be. He will be a very clean man who survives the impending storm. Belknap, Schenck, and the other convicted as well as suspected ones, have done the young aspirants of the country an immense service. DUSTNESS continues as usual. New York is sitting down with folded hands, and is eating itself up. There is no business whateverin fact the doing of business is rapidly be coming one of the lost arts. The springtime is coming, and it is hoped that there will be a revival, but we have been so hoping for three long, dreary years. Rents are failing every day, and landlords con- past year. sider themselves lucky to have their buildings occupied at any rent at all. It is very bad. There were 112 failures this week.

THE HEALTH of the city is bad. The unseasonable weather- it is as an ordinary June -has brought influenza, rheumatism, and fevers all of these allments are of a fearfully malignant type. The death-rate is terrible cared for suffer almost as severely. Who Shall We Select for County Offi among the poor, and the rich and well-

It is not the best policy in the world, when searching for good, competent men to fill county offices of profit and trust, to select men who have been working for months and years, it may hand, and there is no time left of half a day be, for the position; because, during the if one attends a meeting. The great doors | time they have been thus engaged, they flanked by the winged Assyrian figures, may have expended a great deal of sometimes, after they have secured the desire of their hearts, they feel it incumbent upon them to "get even." as they term it, with the people for these expenditures!

The man who is known as a skillful 'wire-puller," who is full of promises and soft words, is not the man in all cases to select for high official position, as generally speaking, he is selfish to a degree, and will promise anything and go to any lengths to secure his object. ing people who come. It was the only He is very liable to forget to-day what sign that these meetings were called in the he promised yesterday; and after his name of the Christ who gathered the mul- object is secured, will laugh to scorn any proposition looking to the fulfillment of his promises.

It is generally the best plan for the office to seek the man," and not the man the office. It is generally the best plan to give chronic or professional office-seekers a wide bertleant had ha

At the coming election we want to secure for our county officers the very best men that can be found; and it does not matter from what rank in the walks of life they are taken, so they possess the qualifications demanded by the office they are to fill, and are known for the sobriety, honesty and probity of their lives-men who are in accord with the people, and who cannot be swerved from the path of duty by flat-

It is asserted that the persons who possess the necessary information to convict Mr. Pendleton of fraud in connection with the Kentucky Central Railroad, have been tampered with by triends of Mr. Pendleton, and induced atitude in the matter of fashion. It is not to go to New Orleans. It is also stated that Gen. Butler declares his ability to find them and procure their return to Washington if the committee will furnish him subpenas and allow him to have them served by a special deputy sergeant-at-arms.

Protect our Fisheries. The Portland Bee objects to the exportation of salmon eggs taken from the Comodest though clear. The hats for the lumbia river. The ground of objection is, half season, just before we take to absolute the salmon fisheries of the Columbia river ly spring array, are white felts, with color- is one of the great industries of the State. ed velvet face trimming, worn with a and any large exportation of salmon eggs crape or lace veil of the same shade, folded would soon exhaust the supply of fish and about the head, closely, as a slight protection us of the benefit and profit of said industry. The ground is well taken, and threaten. They will soon be laid aside for the soft chip hats, of every shade of tinted-should be passed and enforced, prohibiting such exportation, and affording such other profestion as the magnitude of the interests nyolved demand.

Mrs. Belknap was a -wklow when she was united to her present husband, and brought as a wedding dower to the Secre-

They are calling Thurman a trimmer, Hendricks a hemmer, Blaine a baster, Chandler a filler, Conkling a pinker, Sherman a ripper, and sew forth.

VARIOUS "FODDER." The Roseburg Plaindeder tells how young man was fleeced at a game of cards : "He came on the cars Wednesday evening. and only had thirty dollars of the needful about him-but he had that which was better, he had experience. The conductor attempted to warn him, as did the landlord, but he thanked them not. He lived in San Francisco. He had traveled. he had. Friday morning he pawned his vallse for breakfast and wasn't half so smart."

The Eugene Guard says: On Friday evening of last week, Alfred L., son of A. M. Fletcher, aged two years and two months, was fatally scalded. The mother of the child died at its birth, and it was taken by its grand parents, who live at Pleasant Hill. On Friday evening an Indian girf had a tub of hot water prepared for scrubbing the floor. The child was playing around the tub, the grandmother being in another room, and while the attention of the girl was drawn to something else, the little one fell into the tub. It died

A team beloning to Mr. Perrington a nerchant, and postmaster of Weston, ran away last Sunday when Mr. P. and family were in the wagon, and injured several of the occupants very seriously, besides total-ly demolishing the vehicle.

Tosteb, one of the few survivors of the Clatson tribe of Indians died at his home on Clatsop plains Tuesday night about 11 o'clock. Tosteb was chief of his tribe for many years, and raised a family of children which are noted for their industry and nore than ordinary intellectual faculties

Work on the Esther quartz ledge, Douglas county, is being crowded along as fast as the weather will permit. A new road is being completed, and any amount of paying rock is now in sight. The mill will be restarted in a few days. be restarted in a few days, or so soon as the feam can deliver the ore. The pros-pect of this ledge is very flattering indeed. The sum of $2,188 13 has sufficed to run the Eugene City government during the

""THE NEW BOY."

He made his appearance at the Union school the other morning, and, arriving ahead of time, he prevented any feeling of loneliness from seizing him by licking three boys and riding the gate off its hinges. He went in with the crowd when the bell rang. and, finding no empty seat, he perched himself on the wood-box. When the children repeated the "Lord's Prayer" in concert the new boy "kept time" with his heel, and when they came to sing he argued that variety was the spice of song, and attempted to sing one of his own—one about a gentleman named Daniel Tucker, who dreamed that he was dead, and so forth. The teacher warned him to keep still, and he replied that he wouldn't come to that school if his musical qualities were to be overlooked. When opened the teacher secured his name and began asking him questions in order to find out how he should be graded. "Can you speil?" she asked. "What kind of spelling?" he cautiously "Spell 'house,' it you please."

"Frame or brick house?" he asked. "Any kind of a house.

"With a mortgage on it? "You may spell 'man' if you will," she said, giving him a severe look.

"I don't care much about spelling 'man' this morning, but I will this atternoon. I've spelled it with my eyes shut." "Do you know your alphabet?" she asked, changing the subject.
"Never had any!" was the prompt re-

"Do you know anything about reading?"
"I read like lightning?" he answered.
She handed him a reader and said: "Let me hear you read."
Read right out loud."

'I'm afraid it would disturb the chil en," he whispered.
"Go on and let me hear you read." He looked carefully at the page, scrowlhis brow and read : "It I was a lame boy and didn't get any peanuts in my stockings Christmas, dum my eyes! but I'd make things jump around at house next morning!"

"Richard, how many are three and three"

"Anything."
"It's a good deal according to what it
"he replied, as he settled back:
"I know that three and three cats don't "Did you ever study geography, Rich-

'Yes, mam." "What is geography?" "Is this world round or flat ?" "Hills and hollers!" he replied. Richard, can you write?"

"Write what?"

"Can you write your name?"
"I could, I suppose; but I've got ame, without writing it."
"Can you write a letter?" Who to?" To any one.

"Yes, I could, if I had the money to pay he postage."
"Well, Richard, " she said, in despair, You'll have to go into the lower room "I druther stay here."

"But you can't."
"I'll bet you this knife agin ten cents I She took him by the arm to remove him, but he laid his hand on her shoulder and said in a warning voice:

"Don't get me mad, now, or I'll let myself loose."

She called the principal down, and as he approached the boy he demanded:

"Boy, what are you doing here?"

"Gitting educashun!" replied Richard.

"You go right down stairs now!" continued the principal.

"Well, don't sass me, for I was never here before!" replied Richard, slowly moving his legs as if he meant to get down.

The principal took him by the collar and jerked him around, got kicked in the shin and bitten in the wrist, and finally landed the young student on the walk.

"Now you go home?" he shouted as he tried to recover his breath.

"Am I educated?" enquired Richard.

"You seem to be."

"Gimme a diplomy, then."

"Gimme a diplomy, then."
"You clear out or I'll have you arrested.
"Hain't I a scholar in this school n "No. sir."

"Who owns this school house?" de-named the boy.

"No matter—you clear out."

"Will you come out in the yard here where you can't hang on to anything?"
sked the boy.

"Begone, I say!"
"Don't draw no Derringer on me!"
warned the boy as he backed off, "nor don't think you can scare me with any of your bowie knives."
The principal walked in and shut the door, and after the new boy had stood there long enough to show that he wasn't afraid he turned and walked off, growling to that feller fore he's a week older."

New To-Day. E. BOYAE, Boot and Shoe Maker, 3d door L. east of Harper's warehouse, is always on hand to do work at reasonable rates, neat and 27-8m3*

S. C. STONE, M. D., Physician and Surgeon, BROWNSVILLE, OREGON.

OFFICE-At the Brug Store. Executor's Sale of Real Estate. THE UNDERSIGNED, remaining executor of

THE UNDERSIGNED, remaining executor of the last will and testament of Demus Beach, deceased, late of the city of Albany, by authority of said will, will sell at private sale certain real estate belonging to the estate of said deceased, consisting of a residence and an undivided one half in the Albany City Flouring Mills, with the appurtenances; also, certain real estate in the town of Buena Vista, in the county of Polk, consisting of a one-third interest in the Steam Saw Mill, and several town lots.

Persons wishing to examine the property and learn the terms of sale, &c., enquire of JOHN CONNER, Remaining Executor of said Estate. Remaining Executor of said Estat Albany, Oregon, March 23, 1876-27vsw4

HARDWARE

BOLTS, all sizes and descrip-tions, & general SHELF HARD-WARE—a full and complete as-

Stoves, Tinware, Pumps, Hose. Tin. Copper. Zinc and Sheet Iron.

CROCKERY WARE.

Ber Repairing done neatly, at short notice, and WARRANTED. First street, Albany, Oregon. n27v8 For Sale.

FIRST-CLASS Harness Shop and Stock, lo cated in Lebanon. For terms apply to JOHN SETTLE. SPECIAL NOTICE. All persons owing me on notes that are due, or book accounts, are requested to call and pay up by the 1st of April.

JOHN SETTLE.
Labaton, March 17, 1876m1

MOTROE. WHEREAS my wife, Anna Eliza Selvester, without caus: or provocation, has left my bed and board for parts unknown, I, Sannel Selvester, hereby notify all with whom she may deal, that they must deal with her at their own risk, as I will not stand responsible for any of her debts, contracts or liabilities.

SAMUEL SELVESTER.

March 17, 1876-w/n26 Large Farm for Sale or Rent.

A FARM, known as the donation claim of J.

A.M. Elliott, twelve inflessest of Albany, consisting of 380 acres; over 200 acres under cultivation; balance at present used as pasture, but all of it grain land—all under fence and well watered. It is one of the best farms in Linn county, and will be sold or rented on favorable terms. Enquire at the farm adjoining above described on the west, of W. A. PAUL.

March 17, 1876-26m1* NEW BANK.

DAVE MORGAN has opened an office in the rear of the Post office, on Broadalbin St., where he will keep on hand for sale Lime, Plaster, Cement, and "Sand Banks," of best qualities, at lowest rates. DAVID MORGAN. Albany, March 17, '76-26m3* W. R. GRAHAM. DATE OF MICHIGANI

Merchant Tailor. K EEPS always on hand Doeskins, Cassimeres N Vestings, etc., a larger and better stock than ever before brought to this market. Cuts and makes to order all styles of Clothing for men and boys, at reasonable rates, guaranteeling satisfaction.
Shop on First street, next door to City Market, lately occupied by Dr. E. O. Smith. 25v8

PHENIX Livery Feed Stable

ANS. MARSHALL, Proprietor.

CARRIAGES, BUGGIES, HACKS & SADDLE horses to let on reasonable terms.

Horses boarded by the day or week.

I will have some of the gayest rigs ever turned out of a livery stable in Albany.

EXP HEARSE and carriages furnished for funerals.

Give me a call when you want to rble.

ANS. MARSHALL.

Albany, March 10, 1876-23v8

Executor's Notice.

NOTICE if hereby given that letters testa mentary have been issued to the under NOTICE if hereby given that letters testamentary have been issued to the undersigned, upon the estate of Wm H. Mendenhall, deceased, by the County Court of Linn county, Oregon, bearing date March 7th, 1876. All persons having claims against the estate are required to present them, with the proper vouchers, within six months from the date of this notice, to the said executor, at his residence forty miles cast of Albany.

JACOB MENDENHALL.

March 10, 1876-25v8*

Executor.

FRESH GROCERIES & PROVISIONS. NEW STORE! NEW GOODS

JUST OPENED, in the building on First St., east of Ferry (lately occupied by H. Weed), a new and fresh stock of Groceries, Provisions, Etc. which I offer to the citizens of Albany and sur-rounding country at fair fiving rates.

I propose keeping a good stock of overything in my line, in its season, and respectfully ask the patronage of the citizens of Albany and vi-city, promising low prices and fair dealing with all.

J. H. HADLEY. March 3, 1876-24v8

THE ENEMY OF DISEASE! THE FOE OF PAIN Stoves & Ranges ! To Man and Beast

IN THE GRAND OLD MUSTANG

There is no sore it will not heal, no lame There is no sore it will not heal, no lameness it will not cure, no ache, no pain, that afflict the human body, or the body of a horse or other domestic animal, that does not yield to its magic touch. A bottle costing 25c. 50c. or $1 00, has often saved the life of a human being, and restored to life and mechaness many a valuable horse.

POR MEN. IT WILL CUME

Rheumatism, Burns, Scalds, Bruises, Cuts, Frost-bites, Swellings, Contracted Cords, Pain in the Back, Lumbago, Sciatica, Chilbiains, Strains, Sprains, Stiff Joints, Sore Nipples, Eruptions, Pains, Wounds, Ulcers.

FOR ANIMALS, IT WILL CURE Spavin, Galls and Sores, Swinny, Blug Bone, Windgalls, Big Head, Poll Evil, Humors and Sores, Lameness, Swellings, Scratches, Distemper, Stiffness, Strains, Soreness, Open Sores. 26v8

REMOVED REGISTER BUILDING. Corner First and Ferry Streets.

Just Received!

A LARGE STOCK OF

BOOTS SHOES

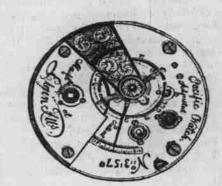

OF EVERY STYLE & MAKE WHICH WILL BE SOLD

WAY DOWN.

I WILL ALSO PAY THE Highest Market Price,

Merchantable Produce. 🖁 J. FLEISCHNER. Oct 29-3 8n6

in exchange, for all kinds of

TITUS BROTHERS.

DEALERS IN Watches, Glocks, JEWELRY, Silver & Plated Ware,

Opposition is the Life of Trade DIAMOND SPECTACLES

AGENTS FOR THE

Singer Sewing Machine.

The Best Machine Made.

Incorporated Feb. 4, 1875. Capital, $20,606.

GRANGE UNION STORE

Corner First and Washington streets, Albany, : Oregon.

President, S. A. DAWSON. Superintendent, A. J. JOHNSON DIRECTORS: A. N. LOONEY, M. MILLER, J. BLEVENS, J. G. REED, S. CANNON, S. A. DAWSON.

Clothing, Hardware, Crockery, Groceries, Farm Implements and Machinery, &c., &c. Also, bny and sell on commission all kinds of cods, Marketable Produce, &c. Dec. 24, 1873-14v8m6

STOVES STOVES! Cost

From this date until further notice, I will sell a CHOICE SELECTION OF

FOR CASH.

COST

PUMPS, HOSE, ETC. W. H. MCFARLAND. Albany, Doc. 10, 1874-13

Notice Extra. THE METZLER CHAIR This is to inform the Public that no chair goes from my factory without my name upon it. All others are false isnitations, and should be so regarded. All persons are hereby warned against attempting any such imposition upon my customers.

J. M. METZLER.

Jefferson, Or., Jan. 21, 1876.

POTLATCH! A LL PERSONS knowing themselves indebted by note or account to John Briggs, are hereby notified that he calls for a settlement, and requests that they will govern themselves accordingly.

JOHN BRIGGS. Albany, Dec. 3, 1875-11v8

NEW Furniture Rooms

F. S. DUNNING.

Begs leave to announce to the citizens of this ity and surrounding country, that he has been d a large stock of FURNITURE:

Parlor Sets. Bedroom Suits,

> Sofas, Lounges. Easy Chairs, Center Tables.

> > Whatnots, Deska, Thos Book-case

Wardrobes and in fact everything else needed to GO TO HOUSEKEEPING.

TRUEAGAG My goods are well made and of the very Latest and Handsomest Styles.

PRICES WAY DOWN. CO FURNITURE manufactured to order, at abort notice.

E. Furniture repaired and put in good skape

Albany, Nov. 26, 1875 1078 DUNNING.

REMOVAL. SOMETHING NEW IN ALBANY!!

Dress Making! Millinery Goods ! Ladies' Furnishing Goods!

---AND---General Emporium

MRS. S. A. JOHNS, at her new store on B. oad-albin street, near the corner of Second, offers the ladies a splendid stock of new MILLINERY AND DRESS TRIMMINGS. of every description, all of the latest and most fashiomable styles. She also has a complete as-sortment of

Ladies' and Children's Furnishing Goods of every quality and style, embracing and all kinds of ladies' and children's under-wear, which will be sold very low. Call and examine goods. Albany, Nov. 26, 1875-10v8

JOHN BRIGGS TAKES THIS OPPORTUNITY TO INFORM his friends and the public generally, that is now settled in his

NEW BUSINESS HOUSE. on the old stand next dear to P. C. Harper & Co. where can be found as great un assortment and as herge a stock of Stoves and Ranges

LOW A PRICE, -ALSO-Pumps & Pipes, Castiron, Brass & Enameled KETTLES.

in great variety. Also, Tin. Galvanized from, A STATE OF THE PERSON

Copperware, Call on Him. Albany, October 22, 1875-5v8

Astonish Machine Shop, A. F. CHERRY Proprietor,

ALBANY FOUNDRY

ALBANY, OREGON, Manufactures Steam Engines. Flour and Saw Mill Machin ery, sometheen

WOOD WORKING AGRICULTURAL MACHINERY.

Maintel

TRON AND BEASS CASTENGS. Particular attention paid to repairing all kinds of machinery, 41v3

JOHN SCHMEER. -DEALER IN-Groceries & Provisions,

ALBANY, OREGON. AS JUST OPENED HIS NEW GROCKE

11. establishment on corner of Ella and First streets, with a fresh sa Groceries, Provisions, Candles, Ciga bacco, &c., to which he invites the tion of our citizens. Call and see me. A THURST MAN

BLANK DEEDS.

Call at the Register Office