Home Matters.
THE CENTENNIAL PROMENADE AND SO-CIALIZABLE.—Given by the College Improvement Society, on Friday evening of last week, at the Opera House, was a way up affair, very largely attended. Mr. J. B.
Wyatt presided over the exercises, and he did it well—while Miss Sarah Aldhouse, as Lady Martha Washington, did most admirably. Prof. R. K. Warren quite filled the bill as Gen. Warren, while Mrs. S. A. Johns looked and acted Lady Warren to perfection. W. S. Peters and lady got away with Commodore Perry and Lady in good shape—indeed Mr. Peters, by some at least, was considered the best dressed gentleman in the party. It was always this—these old sea boys most always get away with the honors. Mr. Geo.
Furey represented Gen. Green to a ty-d, while Herman Sox, Charles Templeton, Clab. Stewart, G. H. Gason, Robt. Foster, C. E. Wolverton and Charles Stratton, each represented some revolutionary character, as did the Misses Cora and Libbie Irvine, Sue Decker, Libbie Hallbrook, Mary Hannon, Laura Tate and Minnie Monteth, dressed in his own style. The Misses Anna Powell, Mattie Foster, Hettie Miller and Nannie Osburn made most charming little Maids of Honor. Our elegant friend Brown and his estimable wife, were in the procession. We were puzzled to know who Mart. Intended to represent, but upon inquiry it was suggested by some malicious fellow that he resembled Benedict Arnold in general make-up. Of course such a suggestion was scandalous in the extreme, and looked like a put job on Mart. We are inclined to think Mart. intended to represent an "Inflationist on his last legs"—rather indifferent legs at that.
The "revolutionary" characters formed themselves into a glee club, and sang American, Auld Lang Syne and Yankee Doodle to the delight of the vast assemblage. The supper, of course, was the very best—our "women folk" never get up any half way suppers—while the various articles offered for sale in the way of needle-work, etc., seemed to be just the things wanted by the way they were gobbled up.
It was a most successful affair throughout, the gross receipts amounting to near three hundred dollars.

FROM MUDDY AND LAKE CREEKS.
"C. Hip" writes us: The farmers on Muddy and Lake Creeks are wide awake to business, setting things a fire generally, plowing and sowing. There has been a large amount of sod broken in this neighborhood this winter; also considerable grubbing done. The farmers are sowing considerable flax. There has also been some considerable ditching done. I think if there was more ditching done, there would be better farms, better roads, and better health.

SCHOONER WRECKED.—The schooner Caroline Melan was lost on the bar at Yaquina Bay on Wednesday, April 5th.
She was loaded with cedar lumber, and bound for San Francisco. The vessel became becalmed on the bar, and drifting among the breakers, was broken to pieces.
The Captain and crew, after spending the night on the ocean in an open boat, reached the shore chilled to the bones.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A colored man, named Peter Kelly, shoemaker by trade, who had been in the employ of Jake Fleischner, died suddenly on Saturday morning of heart disease, aged thirty-two. The rights of Catholic burial were given him, and a number of both his colored and white friends accompanied his body to its last resting place.

NO. TWO'S BELL.—Dr. Gray received, on Monday, the bill for the new bell ordered for Linn Engine Co., No. 2. The bell weighs 708 pounds, and cost, together with the hanging apparatus, $273. It was manufactured at the celebrated bell foundry of Menoley & Sons, Troy, N. Y. Its way up hill, a handsome companion to our magnificent steamer.

SPLENDID ANIMALS.—If you want to see two of the finest Percherons in the government, call at Ans. Marshall's stables at any time from Tuesday noon until Thursday noon of each week. "White Prince" and the "Pride of Perche," owned by Mr. W. C.
Myer, are not excelled in points of excellence as stock horses. See advertisement elsewhere in the REGISTER.

LONG A SUFFERER.—Wednesday morning about two o'clock, Miss Lizzie Smith, daughter of the late Hon. Deason Smith, died at the residence of her brother-in-law, Mr. F. C. Harper, of consumption. Deceased had been suffering for weeks, gradually getting weaker and weaker, until Tuesday evening, when she took some around her that she would live but a short time longer, gave directions for her burial, and asked to see her two brothers and only sister, Mrs. Anne Harper, Mrs. Harper, who is also has been ill for many months, and is too weak to sit up, was gently carried to the bedside of her death-stricken sister, to fold her in a loving embrace and give her a sister's kiss for the last time on earth.
It was a most affecting scene, never to be effaced from the memories of those present.
Lizzie was a sweet, loving, tender-hearted woman, full of all the Christian graces.
With hate toward none, but charity toward all, and a strong and enduring faith in Christ as her avenger, she has gone to her rewarding rest. And while the tears of her many friends, who knew her but to love her for her many noble traits of character, fall on the new-made grave, her grief is not as those without hope.
The relations of deceased have the fullest sympathy of the entire community. Deceased was born in March 27th, 1853, and was therefore twenty-two years' seven months and fifteen days old at the time of her death.

HANDSOME VEHICLES.—As handsome vehicles, in the way of sile and end spring hacks, as one would wish to see, can be had at the shop of Sam Miller, on corner of Ferry and Second streets. Sam uses none but the best of iron and steel and select Eastern timber in their manufacture, and the painting is equal to the very best. It is just as well to have a handsome vehicle to ride in when going to church or anywhere else, as to have a rough, dirty, looking, half-made, rickety concern, especially when a neat, trim, handsome turn out can be obtained for the same money.
You know how it is yourself. How often have the girls, and even the "old woman," objected to walk to church at all, or else preferred to go, rather than ride in an old dingy rig, specially when they knew the "old man" was perfectly able to purchase as respectable a carriage or hack as his neighbors. A good deal is due to the children, and if you want them to love and cherish the home circle, these matters that appear trivial to the "old folks," as a general thing, should receive more attention from the "head of the family." Look at "these little things" once, and call and examine Sam Miller's elegant carriages.
Don't forget it, neither.

FINE BEEF.—Mr. G. W. Cross, of Blodgett valley, Benton county, about twenty-eight miles from this city, brought into the city on Tuesday, eight head of the finest four-year old beef "critters" that have graced this market for many a day. They were stall-fed, and are fat and juicy. They would average over seven hundred each.
Mr. Cross turns out some splendid beef cattle. Of course our irrefragable butcher, Jim Harris, bought the eight head as soon as his eagle eye lit on 'em. Jim knows what pleases his customers, you bet.

MONTGOMERY QUEEN'S BEST.—Mr. Montgomery Queen, the great showman, opened at San Francisco on the 3d of the present month, probably the largest show ever put on wheels. It is both a circus and managerie, and is gorgeous beyond description.
We haven't room this week to give our readers even a faint idea of this magnificent combination, but will probably do so next week. Queen proposes to visit our people during the season, when they will be delighted with this extravagantly gotten up affair.

TEMPERANCE POLITICAL ACTION.
ORLEANS, April, 1876.
EDITOR REGISTER:
The Willamette Temperance Alliance of this county, adopted, at its last meeting, by a unanimous vote, after considerable discussion, the following resolution: Resolved, That it would be inexpedient for the temperance people of the State in the canvass of this year to nominate and support for office a distinctively temperance ticket.
The following paper was also adopted:
"Wine is a mocker; strong drink is raging; and whoever is deceived thereby is not wise."
Intemperance is a crime against manhood and against society. It is a violation of both natural and moral law. It enervates man's physical, mental and moral powers, and unfit him for the proper discharge of the duties of life, the citizen, the parent, the husband, the neighbor, and the member of an enlightened and moral community. It is the desire of temperance men here, as elsewhere, to co-operate with the existing political organizations, if it can be done consistent with sound temperance principles; otherwise they reserve the right to use the scratch. M. ACHESON, Sec'y.

WAREHOUSE SOLD.—Mr. John Beard sold, on Monday last, to the Albany Farmers' Co., his fine warehouse at Tangent.
The warehouse was one of the best in the county, with a capacity of 75,000 bushels.
The elevating and cleaning apparatus were run by an eight-horse power engine. The ground sold with the warehouse is one hundred feet front by ninety in depth. Mr.
Beard obtained $5,000 for the property.
The Farmers' Co. got a big bargain in that trade. The new owners intend putting up an addition for a sack-house, probably more than doubling the capacity of the house.

TEMPERANCE.—The Willamette Temperance Alliance was organized February 23d.
At its third meeting, at Willamette church, about three miles east of Corvallis, March 26th, sixty persons signed the pledge.
While the Alliance did not deem it advisable to nominate a temperance ticket at this time, it was resolved to support none but temperance men for office; therefore the party that wishes to secure the temperance vote, must place temperance men in nomination.

PERSONAL.—Judge Baber and wife left this city for Walls Wells the first of the week. The Judge had not determined whether he would make his home in Washington Territory, or return again to Oregon. We wish the Judge and his amiable wife prosperity and happiness wherever they go.

POLITICAL.—The Democrats of this predicted held their primary last Saturday. It was largely attended, and the struggle to get the right kind of delegates was "somewhat." There were more persons in attendance on the primary than there'll be Democratic votes in June next at the polls in this city. But then it was a Democratic feast, and we ain't going to growl.

SEVENADED.—On Monday evening the Mechanics' Brass Band complimented the newly elected Chief Engineer, Joe Webber, and Assistant Engineer, Geo. F.
Stimpson, by a serenade. Of course the boys were treated way up.

FROM HALSEY.
HALSEY, April 9, 1876.
Frank Luper, a young man living three or four miles west of Halsey, killed a large eagle a few days since, measuring nearly ten feet from tip to tip of the wings. This mammoth eagle, the king of birds, had just caught a lamb, and slaking his huge thirst into it, had flew up into a large oak to dine, when Frank took down his Winchester rifle, and, going to within one hundred and fifty yards, fired at his kingship. The ball hit and wounded the bird, compelling him to drop his prey, which he did, flying to another tree one hundred yards further off. Frank did not follow, but raised his rifle to his shoulder and blazed away the second time. The second shot proved successful, killing the eagle.
This we consider rather an excellent shot, the distance being two hundred and fifty yards.

IN MEMORIAM.
Worthy Chief Templar, officers and members of Brownsville Lodge, No. 250, I.O.G.T.: Your Committee appointed to draft resolutions expressing the feeling of this Lodge upon the death of Sister S. M. Rowland, who died on the 17th of March, 1876, respectfully report the following: WHEREAS, It has pleased the Divine providence to remove from our midst by death, our beloved sister, S. M. Rowland, be it therefore Resolved, That in the death of Sister Rowland her husband has lost a devoted and affectionate companion, her children a loving mother, her aged mother an only and affectionate daughter, and Brownsville Lodge a bright light from its circle, and society a pure and upright member, whose conduct is worthy of imitation.
Resolved, That we will ever cherish and hold in sweet remembrance the hours spent in her society, and yield to the Divine law, knowing that she will gleam in that upper and better world.
Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the husband and children in their hour of bereavement, and trust that in the members of our Order they may find true and lasting friends.
Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of this Lodge, and that a copy of the foregoing, under the seal of the Lodge, be transmitted by the Secretary to the family of the deceased, and also to the ALBANY REGISTER for publication.
Respectfully submitted,
C. E. STANARD,
ROBT. HATFIELD,
J. T. ROWLAND, Sec.
Committee.

THE LEBANON HOTEL.—Under the management of Mr. S. H. Cloughton, is bound to be a success. Mr. Cloughton has renovated and renewed it throughout, making it a most desirable place at which to "hang up." He is a sociable, gentlemanly, good-looking three-linker, and guests can't possibly get away from the hotel without having a good opinion of the "boss," the sleeping arrangements and the " grub." If Whenever you are in Lebanon, try the Lebanon Hotel, and tell us if we ain't right.

A petition was received by the City Council on Tuesday night, from Linn Engine Co., asking that leave of absence be granted the Company during Centennial Week, that said Company may go to Portland at the invitation of that fire department.
The petition was referred to Committee on Fire and Water. The Company have a desire to test their new steamer with the big steamers of our sister city.

BOUND FOR THE EAST.—Dr. Geo. W.
Gray now anticipates leaving this city on a health and business trip to the Eastern States, on or about the first of May next.
Those of his patrons wishing his professional services, should call at once, or previous to the above time. The Dr. expects to be absent about three months. 30

A note from Geo. F. Settemier says that he never enjoyed better health than he has since going to Greenhorn mines.
Owing to the dampness of the weather, work in the diggings has not progressed as rapidly as they expected, but it the rain will let up for a few days they will get things in readiness to commence working dit—probably next week.

The St. Charles sets a good table; has neatly kept rooms and nice beds; has two of the handsomest, most talented, agreeable and gentlemanly "bosses" in the hotel business; charges most reasonably for accommodations—and—what more do you want, for goodness sake. There are few hostleries equal to it anywhere.

FUNERAL SERVICE.—Mrs. Harper, who died of consumption on Saturday morning last, had been sick many weary weeks, and for the last six weeks of her life, her sister, Mrs. Shields, had scarcely left her bedside for a moment. The funeral, which transpired from St. Paul's Church, on Sunday, was largely attended.

NEW SCHOOL DISTRICT.—The new school district opposite Albany in Benton county last Monday elected the following Directors: A. Pearce, F. M. Wadsworth and A.
Decker. Yesterday, at an adjourned meeting a tax of $800 was voted to build a new school house not to be over a half a mile from the Albany ferry.

On Tuesday night the A. & S. Canal Co. presented a petition to the City Council, asking that the city take charge of, build and keep in repair the bridges and sidewalks across the Canal wherever that body of water crossed the streets of the city. The Council granted the prayer of petitioners.

Don't follow in the footsteps of Micaw-ber, waiting for "something to turn up," but pitch in energetically at anything you can get to do, and you'll be a success.
Cards, handbills or advertising done at this office, cheaper and better than anywhere else in this city.

TEMPERANCE.—That price of good fellows, G. W. C. T., W. R. Dunbar, will meet with Onward Lodge, No. 229, near Knob Butte, on to-morrow (Saturday) evening, April 15th. We suppose it is hardly necessary to say there will be a full attendance to-morrow evening.

Through the enterprise of our excellent gardener, Mr. J. Logman, our people are being supplied at regular intervals during the week with the latest in the way of vegetables, such as radishes, cauliflower, greens, etc. Yam, yam.

MUSIC.—They have an enthusiastic musician out at Halsey. He started out the other night and serenaded nearly every house in the place, keeping up his musical entertainment nearly the entire night—all gratis. Such liberality deserves recompense.

RUFFLING A FINE STOCK.—Sultings, new, beautiful and cheap. Prints, neat, tasty and attractive. Also, cash in exchange for Eggs, Butter, Cows, Gold Notes, and "other truck," at highest market rates.
A. WHEELER, Sheild.

Mr. Julius Gradwohl started to San Francisco on Wednesday. Mr. G. goes down to the Bay to lay in a large stock of hardware, etc. May he have a prosperous and pleasant trip.

dozen in this city.

A large lot of new stoves, etcetera, at McFarland's.
Maple sugar at S. E. Young's, as well as seedless raisins.
F. S. Dunning has got about as fine a lot of furniture as ever went anywhere.

There is talk of starting a new paper at Ashland, Southern Oregon.
The demand for plow teams is said to be unusually large.
Have you called at S. E. Young's and examined those new goods?
Radishes, cauliflower, greens and things in the market—occasionally.

L. Samuel, Esq., of the West Shore, Portland, came up on Monday evening.
Wm. Lair Hill, Esq., of the Portland Oregonian, was in the city Monday.
The Astorian proposes to issue a daily the first of May.
No. 2's have been granted the privilege of going to Portland on Centennial week.
Perhaps they'll go.

The special meeting of No. 2, called for Tuesday evening, was a failure. No quorum.
Dr. Alexander was in the city Wednesday. He was looking better than usual, we thought.
Go to John Briggs and purchase a first class cook-stove. He's got the kind you want.
If you want a Singer and haven't the money to pay for it, go to Titus Bros. and rent one.
Call on Charley Bourgarde if you want to see something nice in the way of jewelry.

When you mention blacksmithing, Sam Miller don't stand back for nobody—he's dead sure on it, he is.
SHERIFF'S SALE.—See advertisement of Sheriff's sale in this number of city property, on the 30th day of May.
That red cow run over by the mail train a few days ago, belonged to Mr. Parker, of Bell & Parker.

Mrs. Barrows and her daughter, Ella, of San Francisco, are in the city visiting friends. Both are looking in fine health.

ter Sunday, is called Holy Week or Passion Week.
The Centennial Committee of Portland have offered good purses for runners and treeters during the Centennial Jubilee.

DRILLS.—If you want the best head drill and broadcast sower, get the Statesman for which Frank Wood is agent.
Our farmers are diligently improving each hour of daylight and dry weather to prepare the ground for seeding.

Remember the Republican primaries tomorrow—Saturday. Every Republican should make it convenient to attend.
Mr. Joe Spedel, of Corvallis, a member of No. 14, came down on Saturday and remained visiting his many friends in this city until Monday noon.

It is said that a lady resident of Sweet Home valley a few days ago, gave birth to her twenty-third child.
BORN.—In Corvallis, April 2d, to the wife of A. C. Layton, a daughter. Bully for Gus and Lizzy.

liams and wife will return to Oregon at an early day.
Dr. L. L. Rowland, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, of Salem, has been in the city nearly the entire week attending the Teachers' Institute.

Rev. Jos. Taylor, who has the contract for furnishing the Episcopal Church, is putting up some elegant seats for that Church.
Look out for the Baptist festival. It'll be gay and festive, without a doubtless.
It's their turn, too, as all the rest have had a show. Let's give them a rouser.

M. S. Dewey has sold his stock of stoves and tinware to Mr. D. C. Nelson, late we believe, of Portland, and talks of leaving the county.
It seems to be the prevailing opinion among our citizens that the present night-watch is the most attentive and reliable officer Albany has ever had. Honor to whom honor is due.

EFFICIENT.—City Marshal Westall is generally around, attending to the duties of his office in a manner that is securing the general approbation. Good enough.
