FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 1878.

Wheat started off at 83c this week.

PICKNIC.—Albany Engine Company proposes to picnic on the 10th of May.

"VIBRATORS."—Patent "vibrating busines" are the latest novelties. Let 'em.

Jake Fleischer sails for San Francisco soon for new goods.

A good deal of wet weather for the past five months. It beats the oldest of them.

Titus Bros. will soon be in receipt of a new invoice of elegant goods in their line.

For a handsome two or three seated carriage, call on Sam Miller.

Good sweet butter is still a scarce article in this market.

Fred Graf turns out splendid work at his furniture establishment on First street.

D. D. Nelson is no slouch at mending or rejuvenating tin or copper vessels, you bet.

The city was full of Republicans on Tuesday and Wednesday, in attendance on the Republican Convention.

Nanitch that Granger church at John Briggs'; those late style parlor and cook stoves, etc.

Remember the Baptist festival next Thursday evening, and give the society a lift.

COMING.—Mr. John Barrows, late of this city, now of San Francisco, is expected here on a visit "before soon."

BORN.—To the wife of Rev. T. B.
 White, on Sunday morning, April 23d, a daughter.

STYLISH.—Those new spring hats and bonnets at Mrs. Stevens' millinery establishment on First street, next the City Drug Store.

For an overwhelming lot of stores, ranges, all kinds of tin, copper and sheet-iron ware, etc., besides novelties that you absolutely want, go to W. H. McFarland's.

Jake Fleischer is agent for the Florence sewing machine, and will keep constantly on hand at his store in the REGISTER building, needles, oil, etc.

DAWK.—Tuesday was a dark and dismal day, and during the afternoon the rain fell as it seldom falls in Oregon—a perfect deluge. Torrents was no name for it.

INSANE.—On Monday, our Sheriff L.
 C. Rice, started for East Portland, leaving in charge Mr. John Love, of Harrisburg, who had been pronounced insane.

S. E. Young's new agricultural warehouse is rapidly approaching completion.
 It will be one of the strongest and safest buildings in the city when completed.

A finer looking or more intelligent body of men were never assembled in this city, than those forming the Linn County Republican Convention, which met in the city on Wednesday last.

SPRING WORK.—Persons having buildings they wish raised or removed, should call on Mr. Allen, who has all the necessary machinery, and will do the job in good shape.

Dr. Gray is making preparations to start for the Centennial in a few days. Those needing dental work should not fail to call at once, as he will be absent two or three months.

FIZ-Z-ZZ POP!—The soda trade opens up lively, and A. Carothers & Co., at their new soda works on First and Ellsworth, are putting up at the rate of two hundred dozen per day.

FOR SALE.—Certain real estate belonging to the estate of D. Beach, deceased, in this city and Buena Vista, is offered at private sale by John Conner, Esq., as Executor of said estate. For price and terms, call at the Bank.

A CHURN.—Has been invented in Vermont for lazy men. It is adjusted to a wagon, and all one has to do is to put the cream into the churn, drive to town for the mail, and when he gets home the butter is ready to take out.

Mr. W. A. Wheeler, wife and baby, departed from our gaze Tuesday, bound for Independence, their future home. Mr.
 Wheeler is to aid in the publication of the Telegram, to be issued semi-weekly, by Mr.
 Pipes, at Independence.

CHILLS AND FEVER.—Mr. Morrison, of the St. Charles Hotel, is prostrated with chills and fever. Morrison seems to be having a hard time, as he no sooner gets cured of one complaint than another seizes him.

CALLED.—Sam. Miller, H. M. Brown, and Wm. Foren, all from the Forks or thereabouts, called on Tuesday—delegates to the Republican Convention. They were all in a remarkable state of preservation, "specially Foren.

DRIED VENISON.—Chas. Mealey came in from his ranch near Sweet Home, a few days ago, bringing in about thirty venison hams which he had cured during the winter.
 We had the good fortune to secure a couple of those hams, and we know from actual experience that they were good. Saml.
 E. Young purchased them.

MORE DELEGATES.—Our old friend, Mr.
 R. Kirk, of Brownsville, and J. A. Pearl, J. P., of Halsey, called during the Republican Convention. Mr. Pearl is a candidate for re-election to the office of Justice of the Peace, and as he is well qualified, will doubtless be elected with ease.

JAILED.—The man who broke out of our thousand dollar jail last July, while awaiting trial for larceny, by name Frank Schofield, returned to his quarters in said jail on Tuesday, being induced so to do by W. H. Queener. Mr. Queener found Frank in the Portland jail, and had little trouble in prevailing on him to change to so safe and secure a lock-up.

TO FLORESTA.—Mr. Vick, in his Floral Guide, says that ten drops of carbolic acid, to be obtained from any of our druggists, put in a pint of water, and poured on the earth in flower-pots, will destroy all earth worms, which do so much damage to the plants. A trial will satisfy all of its beneficial effects.

RESIGNED.—Mr. Joe Webber tendered his resignation as Foreman of No. 1's, last Monday evening, as he has been elected Chief Engineer of the Albany Fire Department, and couldn't well hold the two offices.
 Joe's place will be hard to fill, as few better Foremen are built these days.

FOR THE CENTENNIAL.—Mr. Mike Fuller, wife and daughter, and Mr. W. Churchill, all of Harrisburg, and Mr. Caleb Gray, of Halsey, leave Oregon on the next ocean steamer for Philadelphia. We wish our friends a pleasant trip, a good time while in the East, and a safe return to old Linn.

FOR BENEFIT OF BAPTIST CHURCH.—
 The ninth anniversary of the First Baptist Church in this city will be celebrated on Thursday, May 4th, 1878, by a festival and fair in the church, during which there will be good music, recitations, etc. Doors open at 7:30 p. m. Supper at 8 o'clock.
 Admission, 25c. Everybody is invited.
 Contributions thankfully received.

Mr. T. J. Parsons, of San Francisco, arrived in this city on Monday. Parsons has been absent from this city several years, and is returned only to find that a near and dear friend, one of Albany's fairest flowers, had been plucked by the untimely hand of death. It was a terrible blow, and he has the sympathy of many warm friends and sympathizers in his great grief.

ANOTHER CHURCH.—Rev. Z. Cook, of Coquille, Universalist, is in the city, endeavoring to secure funds for the erection of a church building to accommodate members of the Universalist faith, and it is said, with fair prospects of success. Albany is bound to be the city of churches, it seems.
 Mr. Cook preaches at the Opera House next Sunday, morning and evening.

GOOD DEED.—Recently a family of emigrants arrived in this city, sick and penniless. On Saturday, probably, one of the family died from the ravages of scarlet fever. Hearing of the condition of the family, Messrs. A. N. Arnold and W. R.
 Cannon each tendered a lack, without money and without price. Such acts of kindness to the poor need unfortunate have their reward.

MOONLIGHT AND MUSIC.—Thursday evening, May 11th, is the time set for the moonlight excursion on the steamer Altes, Capt. Miles Bell. The Mechanics' Band of this city will be engaged to furnish the music, and as tickets for the round trip will be but 50c, should the evening prove favorable, the boat will be crowded. John Hannon, Jay Blain, Lon Cleaver, Chas.
 Wolverton and Clab Stewart constitute the committee of arrangements.

MISING.—Frank Woods returned from Greenhorn the first of the week. He informs us that work in the mines has been very greatly retarded by the prevalence of stormy weather and high water. With favorable weather they now expect to be able to go to work in a couple of weeks, when "returns" from Greenhorn may be expected right along. Mr. G. F. Settle-mer does not expect to return to this city for two or three weeks yet. Success to the boys.

AT CORVALLIS.—Last Thursday night, the cañata of Esther was enacted to a crowded house. A large number of our citizens went up on the steamer Altes, which left this city on the evening in question shortly after six o'clock, and all unite in praising the manner in which those taking parts in the piece "filled the bill." The house was overcrowded, and many were turned away, as there was not even standing room. The M. E. Church must have netted a pretty sum from the entertainment.

DROWNED.—Alsalam Smith and D. H.
 Morton were drowned in the river, about eight miles below Jefferson, on the evening of the 22d. They were in company with James Elliott, and were going down the river in a small boat, when the boat upset in swift water, throwing all three of the men out. Elliott swam about half a mile, unable to reach shore, when he succeeded in catching in a drift, and was rescued therefrom about four hours afterward, almost perished. Neither of the other two could swim, and probably perished at once.

CANAL.—As the Albany & Santiam Canal and Water Ditch, sold at public auction Saturday week, barely brought sufficient money to pay its indebtedness, the stockholders lose every cent they invested in it. As this matter of losing or "sinking" money doesn't set well with some of them, suit is to be commenced, we are informed, to set aside the sale. In the mean time there is some talk of forming a new company, to consist of, first, as many of the original stockholders as may choose to take stock, and then whoever else may choose to invest, to whom Mr. John Crawford proposes to convey the Canal for the sum of $34,000—just what it cost him—or at that rate for any interest the new Company may wish.

Sabbath School Picnic.
LEBANON, April 17, 1878.
ED. REGISTER.—Committees from the two Sabbath Schools in this village met at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and was called to order by Brother Hudson.
 On motion, Brother Roberts was chosen chairman and D. Andrews elected Secretary.

The chairman briefly stated the object of the meeting, which was to take the initia-tory steps for a grand May day festival during the coming month.
 On motion, it was agreed to celebrate the day by crowning a May queen with the usual ceremonies.

The following committees were then appointed:
On Ground.—Messrs. Wasson, Hudson, Hank, Powers and Jones.
On Music.—Messrs. McDonald, Andrews and W. S. Elkins.
On Programme.—Messrs. Montague, Hudson and Jos. Wasson.

Mrs. Hank was elected prompter and instructor, R. M. Powers, Marshal, C. B.
 Montague was invited to deliver the address, and Brother Hickman was appointed chaplain for the occasion.

It was decided to have a basket dinner on the ground.
 On motion, the secretary was instructed to furnish a copy of these proceedings to the ALBANY REGISTER, Cultivator and Democrat, with a request that they be published.
 D. ANDREWS, Sec.

DIED.—At her residence in this city, April 22d, 1878, Mrs. Mary Iantze Harper, daughter of the late Hon. Delazon Smith, and wife of Capt. P. C. Harper, aged 23 years, 6 months and 23 days, of consumption. Deceased was born in Keosauqua, Van Buren county, Iowa, September 29th, 1849. In 1852 Hon. Delazon Smith and family removed from Iowa to Oregon, settling in Linn county, where Mrs. Harper remained a continuous resident to the day of her death. On the 12th of November, 1850, Hon. Delazon Smith went to his last reward, having died suddenly while on a visit to Portland. On the 15th of April, 1870, Eliza Viola Smith, a younger sister of Mrs. Harper, died in this city, at her residence, of consumption. Mrs. Mary Smith, mother of Mrs. Harper, died in 1872, of consumption, at the residence of Mrs. Harper in this city. About three years ago the only child of Mr. and Mrs.
 Harper, aged nine months, was carried to the tomb. The third sister of Mrs. Harper, Miss Helen Elizabeth Smith, died at the residence of Mrs. Harper on the 12th of April, 1876, of consumption. The mother and three daughters, within the short space of six years, have all been called from time to eternity, by that fell disease, consumption. Few persons were better known or more universally loved and respected than Mrs. Harper, and the entire community unite in tendering the deepest sympathy to the bereaved and grief-stricken husband, and the sole surviving members of the family, Delazon and Delavan Smith.

COMPLETE SURPRISE.—Wednesday was the 57th anniversary of Odd Fellowship in America, as well as the regular meeting night of Albany Lodge No. 4. Well, about 8 o'clock on that evening, under the head of "good of the order," about fifty ladies, wives and daughters of three-linkers, came to the outer door and demanded admission, and in about five minutes thereafter the lodge room was in their possession. A more complete surprise, we think, was never perpetrated upon a lot of innocent, inoffensive men. The Daughters of Rebecca came laden with good things to eat, and amid the popping of soda corks and the crumming of cake and chicken skins, and the merry and joyous laughter welling up from happy hearts, a very pleasant evening was spent. A resolution expressive of the feelings of the lodge toward their surprises was passed unanimously. It was a jocular occasion, in which "chasing the squirrel" played a prominent part.
 Give us more surprises—they are just way up.

OFFICERS ELECT.—The annual meeting of the Linn County Sufferagers was held at the house of Mrs. Lucian Putman, in this city, April 15th, 1878, when the following officers were chosen for the coming year: President, David D. Gray; Vice-President, Mrs. James H. Foster; Treasurer, Dr. Crawford; Recording Secretary, Mrs. D. L. E. Luper; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. L. Putman; Executive Committee, Mrs. E. E. Crawford, Mr. A.
 Pierce, Mrs. C. S. Flinn, Mrs. L. A. Parton, Mrs. A. Johnson. The meetings of the Society will hereafter be held on the evening of the second Monday in each month, beginning at 7 1/2 o'clock, the next meeting to be held at the house of Mrs.
 Parton, on Sixth street.

FACT STRONGER THAN FICTION.—About fourteen years ago a young man arrived in Oregon from the East, having but little more than enough kale seed to get her with. But push and energy accomplish wonders. After fourteen years of success, not unaccompanied with toil, that young man (not so young as he was) has the proud consciousness of knowing that honest industry has its reward, and he will, in all probability remain in Oregon until death closes his brilliant career, as he now sees no hope of getting out of the country, even did he desire it, owing to the shortness of the "money crop." This is extremely painful, but true.

MARRIED.—April 19th, at the home of the bride's father, J. F. Hurlbert, by Rev. T.
 J. Wilson, Mr. Clayton Dow and Miss Florence Hurlbert—all of Linn county.

DIED.—In this city, April 27, 1878, Prof.
 J. P. Siler, of the Central School, aged 41, of dropsy.

FUNERAL DAY at 11 A. M., at the Congregational church. Deceased was an Odd Fellow.

It is the intention of Cap. Humphrey to canvass the county, and as Mr. Jacobs, the Democratic nominee, is way up as a speakist, when those two meet on the stump, the fur will doubtless fly.

LIST OF LETTERS
 Remaining in the Post Office, Albany,

P. H. RAYMOND, P. M.

REAL ESTATE CARD.—Mr. J. H. Burkhart has opened a real estate and conveyancing office on the corner of Broadbald and First streets. Mr. Burkhart is one of our most thorough and progressive business men, possessing youth, perseverance and industry in an unusual degree, qualities that will win success in any community.
 Success to John. See card elsewhere.

NEW FIRM—NEW GOODS.—Messrs. Tyler & Tate have opened an elegant grocery store in the new brick east of S. E. Young's, where they have one of the nicest and most tasty assortment of groceries, provisions, etc., we have seen for a long time. The proprietors are enterprising young men, and will do the right thing by all who favor them with a call. Don't fail to give the boys a call.

FINE COLT.—We saw at Mrs. Marshall's stable, on Wednesday, one of the hard-somest Norman colts we have yet noticed in the county. The colt is the property of Mr. I. D. Miller, and was sired by White Prince three years ago. He is much handsomer than his sire.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.—The steamer Altes has been tendered the College Improvement Society for a moonlight excusion, and the Society intends to take advantage of it provided a moonlight night comes along within any reasonable time.

IN UNIFORM.—By resolution, Twosters are requested to attend the regular monthly meeting Monday night in full uniform.

Chief Engineer, Joe Webber, has purchased the late residence of Mr. H. Weed, corner Baker and Third streets, for $1,500.

D. C. Nelson has a handsome new sign.

BOUND FOR THE EAST.—Dr. Geo. W.
 Gray now anticipates leaving this city on a health and business trip to the Eastern States, on or about the first of May next.
 Those of his patrons wishing his professional services, should call at once, or previous to the above time. The Dr. expects to be absent about three months. 30

RUFFLING.—A fine stock. Suitings, new, beautiful and cheap. Prints, neat, tasty and attractive. Also, cash in exchange for Eggs, Butter, Coin, Gold Notes, and "other truck," at highest market rates.
 A. WHEELER, Shell.

Special Notices.
 In Every Town and Village persons may be found who have been saved from death from consumption by Hale's Honey or Horehound and Tar.
 Hale's Toothache Drops cure in one minute. 29

Dragging Out Existence.
 The nervous, weakly invalid does not enjoy life, but merely "drags out existence," as the phrase is. Unfit for the active pursuits of life, and incapable of partaking of its pleasures, to which health alone can give a zest, disinclined to social intercourse, and a prey to melancholy, the invalid is in need of an object of physic. Yet there is nothing in all this that cannot be remedied by that genial alterative tonic and nerve. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which supplies deficient stamina, braces the nervous system, and overcomes those bodily irregularities to which nervous weak-
