ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THE CHARGES MADE BY "VIM" ARE TRUE.

Hon. Geo. R. Helm, administrator of the estate of N. H. Cranor, in a card in Saturday's Democrat, in answer to "Vim's" charges in the REGISTER of the day before, says: It is a falsehood that in the course of settlement of the Cranor estate Judge Johns peremptorily refused to pay the $50 fee referred to, for the estate has not yet been finally settled; but Judge Johns claimed that he had a counter claim of equal value against the estate.

Good. This is virtually an acknowledgment that "Vim's" charge that the Cranor estate had never received a single cent of the $50 due from Judge Johns is true, the only excuse offered being that "the estate has not yet been finally settled," and that "Judge Johns claimed that he had a counter claim of equal value against the estate." "Vim" is certainly under obligations to Mr.
Helm for this acknowledgment, over his own signature. With a sound Democratic like Geo. R. Helm to back the charges made by "Vim," there would seem to be no further need to call more witnesses to the stand. However, we were surprised to see, as this card would seem to indicate, that even Mr. Helm had "soured" on Mr. Johns. Alas for Mr. Johns! He will be the worst "scratched" Democratic candidate at the coming election on "these coasts."

RICH PICKINGS FOR PHILADELPHIA.

Philadelphia is reaping a rich harvest from the centennial exhibition. The street cars collected over $8,000 the first day. Putting the average daily attendance of visitors at 50,000, the expenses at $4 each, we have $200,000 per day, or a grand total for the seventy-five days of $15,000,000—and this will be but a small portion of the money taken and left to enrich the staid quakers of Philadelphia. Thousands upon thousands have already exchanged hands in the erection of buildings, improving grounds, etc.; and at the final wind up, when everybody is anxious to sell out and "go home," prices will tumble "clear to nothing," more money will change hands, and the great bulk of it will remain clear profit in the hands of the careful Quakers. "Flush times" on the Pacific coast ain't a patchin' to the excitement and the mountains of bullion that will change hands at the Philadelphia Centennial.

THEIR HOBBISS.

Jim Weatherford, Democratic candidate for the Legislature, is attempting to make the county canvass on the Chinese question. Well, this is the cheapest hobby Jim could have selected, as there is no division of opinion between Democrats and Republicans on this coast, on the question of Chinese emigration. If Jim should be elected, we suppose the power, heretofore believed to rest with Congress, to make and unmake treaties with foreign powers, will at once be wrested from that incompetent body, and the Oregon Legislature, under the leadership of Jim Weatherford, will grasp and settle the mighty problem without an effort! A ripe statesman is Jim.

Mr. Stiles, Democratic candidate for County Clerk, asks that he be elected because when the Republicans went into power some years ago, the State was out of debt with some thousands in the treasury; but when the present Democratic State administration took the reins there was a debt of $100,000.
When asked the question: "The Democrats having had control of the State government for six years, what is the debt now?" he didn't know; and when told it was over $500,000, he dared not deny it. So this little hobby don't pan out so well.

BACK-FURROW.—The other day over in Benton county a lad was told by his employer to plow a back-furrow. The lad unhitched the team, put the plow on his back and carried it across the field, then hitched up and went to work. In the evening when asked how he liked plowing, he said he liked it well enough all but the back-furrowing —that was nearly lightning, as it almost broke his back carrying the plow!

A cause that has no other chance for success than what capital it may make by assaults upon some unfortunate member of a candidate's family, is certainly in a very weak condition. These flings at Judge Boise's family, from Democratic sources, shows to what depths Democratic politicians will sink to create campaign fodder.

DEMOCRATIC ROORBACKS.

The Democratic ring in this county, finding that a portion of the ticket they had put up for the voters of the county, was sure to be defeated, as even Democrats can no longer be led by the nose as in former years, determined to elect the unpopular portion of the ticket, even if they had to throw away all the balance. With this intention in view, they commenced offering to swap two and three for one! Of course this little game soon leaked out, and the friends of the balance of the ticket threatened to bolt the entire ticket if this little game was not stopped. (See communication in Democrat of last week.) Seeing that things were getting truly tropical in the Democratic ranks by the exposure of this little scheme, the Democrat comes to the rescue in its usual grandiloquent style, and charges that Republicans are offering to swap votes to elect their Sheriff! As usual, this charge is too thin, and only creates a laugh of derision whenever made. These roorbacks are old, worn-out Democratic dodges, and the more the Democrat man asserts they are true, the less confidence will our people put in them.

A FINE EFFORT.

On the evening of May 14th, at Turn Halle, Portland, Hon. M. C.
George, a Linn County boy, at present Republican candidate for the State Senate from Multnomah county, made one of the most eloquent and telling speeches of the campaign. We have room for only a paragraph, which we give, as showing the liberal and progressive spirit of the Republican party:

Has a more exalted regard for the duties of a legislator than to attempt to legislate his individual views into laws regardless of public opinion and the public welfare. The province of a legislator is to consult all interests, all views, and to adjust conflicting matters of legislation with a view to that sustaining public opinion which supports all law. In pursuance of the true principle of legislation sometimes are called upon by the highest dictates of governmental science and policy to legislate the reverse of their private opinions that the public good and welfare may be subserved. When by the possibility of circumstances such emergencies do arise, we can well see how doubtful difficult it becomes for a visionary fanatic whose intellectual capacity allows him to hold but one idea, to ever grasp and carry out the true idea of legislation and its relationship to interests and opinions of different constituents.

ACKNOWLEDGES THE CORN IN HIS USUAL GRACEFUL STYLE.

The recent severe castigations given the Democrat by the REGISTER has caused that "red hot" concern to writhe and groan and fawn around in a manner most entertaining and edifying to this public. Last Friday's issue of the REGISTER wrought the Democrat man up to a white heat, and in his frenzy he attempted a bit of small wit at our expense in his Saturday's issue, as thus:
"It is a significant fact that the opposition in this county always puts the brain of the ticket where the REGISTER editor carries his—at the tail end!" That the REGISTER editor is forced to acknowledge. Courtesy, we suppose, calls upon us to return the compliment; but a strict regard for truth compels us to acknowledge that we cannot conscientiously return the compliment, as to either end of the Democrat editor.

FARES TO THE CENTENNIAL.

The following in relation to transcontinental passenger rates will be interesting: The rates from San Francisco to Omaha are: First class, $100; second class, $75; third class, $45, currency.
Return tickets to and from New York and Philadelphia can be purchased at San Francisco for $257, limited to two months. This is a reduction of $19 on the Eastern lines from Omaha, below the regular rates. These tickets can be had at No. 3 New Montgomery street, to go by St. Louis, and at 121 New Montgomery street, to go by Chicago.
The regular fare to New York is $188, making the round trip $276 currency.
This is by far the simplest and best plan to adopt by those who do not wish to be limited to two months. This statement is reliable.

"SORBIN'S ORGAN."

A Democrat dropped into a business house the other day, and casually inquired, "do you take Sorbin's organ?" The proprietor of the establishment was at a loss to know what the gentleman wanted, until he explained he meant the Democrat, "Sorbin's organ" is good.

A FEW THOUGHTS.

Well informed Democrats all over the United States have become utterly disgusted with the doings of the Democratic majority in Congress. While it is patent to the entire country that the whole end and aim of this Democratic Congress in appointing these "smelling committees" is to make political capital for the Presidential canvass, it is also just as apparent that the attempt is a most signal failure. Every rumor of dishonesty made against a prominent Republican was and is seized upon as a pretext for summoning witnesses and otherwise spending vast sums of money in investigations which generally turn out barren of results. Only a few days ago leading Democratic journals published to the world, with great excitation, that President Grant had violated the Constitution and would at once be impeached and driven from office—a witness had been found who possessed a great "State secret" that would blast the Administration and the entire Republican party. This witness was brought to the congressional assembly by the Democratic members thereof, and with extended ears and open eyes they awaited the awful disclosures. Just imagine for a moment the rich spectacle presented by these "smelling committees" when their valuable witness testified that the spirit of Gen. Grant, on a certain occasion, came in at the window and told him all he knew regarding the President's complicity with crime! The whole party could have been bought for a nickel! Democrats have moved "heaven and earth," so to speak, to find cause for the impeachment of Grant, but have hopelessly failed. In fact they have failed partly away the time in Congress and show away hundreds of thousands of dollars for absolutely nothing. Instead of carrying out the pledges of reformation and reform upon which these Democrats were elected to Congress, they have absolutely and foolishly trifled away hundreds of thousands more of the people's money than they have been able to prove was either stolen or misappropriated—and all the time they were engaged in this "smelling" business, the country was suffering for needed legislation! Do the people of Oregon wish to continue in office men of this character?

MONEY TO BE USED LAWFULLY BY THE DEMOCRATS.

We were met with this line of other day: "Your candidate, to be elected, must beat Mr. Herron and a thousand dollars!" We supposed Mr.
Herron has to purchase Democratic votes (he can't purchase a single Republican vote in the county) he certainly never will be elected Sheriff of Linn county. If it is true, as alleged, that Mr. Herron has one thousand dollars to use in this canvass, and intending to secure his election, we will have one of the "smelling" committees of our confederate Democratic friends in Congress investigating his case! What!
Democrats accused of election bribery!
Out upon such a charge! They wouldn't do it no quicker a Brown would take a drink upon invitation!

THE OFFICE OF SCHOOL SUPERIN- TENDENT.

This is really one of the most imprudent offices in our county government, as will readily be conceded by all those who have given the subject a little thought. It is the duty of the Superintendent of Schools to examine and give certificates to all applicants for position in our public schools, appraise school lands, apportion the public money, and to have general supervision of the educational interests of the county. To properly and efficiently perform these various duties, we should have a man who is thoroughly posted to all the branches of learning; a man whose heart is in the work; an honest, fearless man, who, knowing his duty, will perform that duty regardless of consequences; a man who will not, under any consideration, grant certificates to unworthy applicants; and overall and above all, a man whose moral character is above reproach—a man to whom we can point with pride as an example worthy of emulation by our children.
In Mr. J. L. Gilbert we have just such a man as we have attempted to describe; a ripe scholar; a teacher of many years experience, who stands at the very head of the educators of this State, and upon whose character there is not the slightest stain. If the voters of Linn county are looking to the best interests of themselves, of their children; if they desire for this important office a man who will fill it with honor, dignity and credit to the county, they must vote for Mr. J. L. Gilbert.

THE LONDON SATURDAY REVIEW

has started a project for a novel society to be organized for the purpose of stocking uninhabited islands with pigs and rabbits, so that shipwrecked sailors who happen to reach them may find an abundance of food awaiting them. It also suggests that huts should be built and boilers deposited in them, just as similar conveniences are placed in the high Alps. The suggestion is a very humane and practical one, considering the numerous exigencies which are constantly arising in cases of shipwreck, and the great loss of life which has occurred in the past year.

THE ENTIRE AMOUNT OF GOVERNMENT

expenditures on account of public work, railroads, canals, &c., from 1789 to 1873 was $307,990,064.77. Of this amount, nearly one-half, ($108,394,501) were appropriated between 1865 and 1873.

FOR SOME TIME PAST THE CITIZENS OF SOLCO AND VICINITY HAVE BEEN URGING THE NECESSITY OF THE BUILDING OF A BRIDGE ACROSS THE SANTIAM, THAT THEY MIGHT HAVE AN OUTLET TO MARKET FOR THEIR PRODUCE.

While all were united as to the great want of a bridge, they were not so well united as to the point where the bridge should be built. One section of the Forks wanted a bridge across the Santiam at or near the old Solo ferry, which is nearly directly east from this city, and on an air line to Solo. Another section wanted the bridge built at Green's ferry, about two and half miles from Jefferson. The first point mentioned (the bridge at the Solo ferry) would accommodate a much larger scope of country, and a majority of the citizens are in favor of building the bridge at this point. The old Solo ferry or crossing is about midway between Lebanon and Jefferson, and if the bridge should be erected at this point, the trade of the Forks would be secured to Linn county.
Should Green's ferry or crossing secure the bridge, Marion county would secure all the advantages to be derived from the trade of the Forks. Therefore any aid extended by our county officials to building a bridge at Green's ferry, would be an absolute injury to Linn county. And yet we are notified from different points in this county that Judge Johns has promised the citizens of the Forks, who are urging the Green ferry point, to grant the funds asked from the county treasury to erect said bridge, provided he is elected County Judge!
And we still further learn that, to make the Green ferry seem the stronger point, petitions have been circulated and the signatures of children, boys under age, obtained, and that many of those signing are residents of Marion county. If these statements made to us are facts, and we have no reason to doubt them, as they were made to us by one of the oldest and best citizens of the Forks, it would seem almost incredible that Judge Johns would make a promise, the keeping of which would result in lasting injury to the best interests, not only of a majority of the people directly interested, but to the interests of the people of the whole county. We argue that, if Judge Johns will, to secure an election, promise to effect a measure that will be of incalculable injury to Linn county, he is exactly the man the citizens of Linn county do not want to place at the head of county affairs. We want a County Judge who will administer the affairs of Linn county honestly, and with a due regard to the interests of each section; and any man who will pander to the selfishness of a few to the lasting injury of the great majority, does not exhibit the right kind of honesty to entitle him to the support of either Democrats or Republicans.

THE MISSIS SMITH, OF GLASTONBURY,

Connecticut, famous for having refused to pay their taxes until they could enjoy the right of voting, were present at the meeting of the Woman's Suffrage Society in New York, Thursday, and reacted their grievances to an band of indignant sisters. They are respectively eighty and eighty-five years of age.
They stated that they had paid more taxes in Glastonbury than any man in the town, and thought they should enjoy the right to speak in the Town Hall. All those present agreed with them.

THE ATLANTA TIMES SAYS:

"A mass of 90,000,000 tons of pure, solid, compact rock salt, located on an island 185 feet high which rises from a miserable sea marsh on the route from Brimbar to New Iberia, up the river Teche, in Louisiana, is one of the wonders of the world. How this island, containing over three hundred acres of excellent land, ever came into existence in such a locality is a matter of conjecture. Vegetation is prolific, and the scenery is beautiful and varied. Here is an immense bed of pure rock salt, whose extent is as yet only estimated, and scientific men are puzzled.

THE DISTURBANCES AND BLOODIED

which have so often attended torchlight processions in Baltimore during presidential canvasses have led the council of the city to pass an order prohibiting all political processions at night.

AN EASY CONSIDERATION.—In what

respect does the editor of the Cocktail Advertiser (sometimes known as the Democrat) resemble a ship? In this, that he is generally "three sheets above wind!"

THE COUNTY CANVASS WAS OPENED AT HALSEY ON FRIDAY. JUDGE BLACKBURN MADE A SPLENDID SPEECH, LITERALLY GETTING AWAY WITH THE WHOLE "KIT AND BILLY" OF THE DEMOCRATIC SPEAKERS.

The county canvass was opened at Halsey on Friday. Judge Blackburn made a splendid speech, literally getting away with the whole "kit and billy" of the Democratic speakers. The Judge surprised even his warmest admirers, and made hosts of friends, insuring his election by a good round majority.

A FALSHOOD MY.

Judge Johns got off his piece at Halsey on Friday last in his usual "animated" style. Although accused of being a violent partizan by the Democrat, he said he would deal impartially between Democrats and Republicans in all matters that come before him, should he be elected County Judge. Capt. Hamphrey, imitating Judge John's style and manner, said he also pledged himself to act impartially, if elected Coroner, as between Democrats and Republicans.
"In fact," said Capt. H., "it will afford me full as much pleasure to set on the corps of a Democrat as a Republican."
And we are satisfied it will.

A FEW MORE INTERROGATORIES.

Perhaps the Hon. Geo. R. Helm can explain, without resort to "falshood and dirt," why Judge Johns left Missouri in the night? Why he carried off his partner's law books? Why he sold them at Grand Round and appropriated the proceeds to his own use, and whether he has ever settled with his former partner therefor? Judge Johns partner was a brave man, and went to fight for what he believed the right, and left his property in the charge of Judge Johns, who soon after found it convenient to disappear in the night time. Will Hon. Geo. R. Helm explain how it was? Come forward, George, and tell us what you know, without evasion or "dirt!" VIM.

A DEMOCRAT ON THE SITUATION.

MR. EDITOR:—As I cannot get a hearing through the columns of the Cocktail Advertiser, our Democratic organ, I ask the privilege of saying a few plain words through the REGISTER.
I am a plain, blunt man, and shall speak of matters as I see them. Although a life-long Democrat, I am opposed to the election of a man to the Judgeship of this Judicial District who has shown himself, during his term of office now about to expire, unfit in every way to fill the position accidentally thrust upon him. A man who, like necessity, knows no law, he is never ready with a decision; in his charge to the jury always pettifog the case; who prolongs each term of Court twice as long as he should, thus putting the county to double expense, and causing jurors and witnesses to wait upon his slow motions and indecision to their great loss in time and pocket. I also object to voting for a man who travels on a Holiday pass, although occupying a position on the judicial bench—a position above all others where a man should be true and untrammelled, and especially should not be under obligations to one of the greatest monopolies in the State, Judge Bonham's want of decision, arising entirely from his absolute lack of ability, costs Linn county at each sitting of her Circuit Court, twice as much as it should, and more than twice as much as it did or will under Judge Boise. Every man who has had occasion to attend our courts know there to be truths. I might urge other reasons why Democrats should not vote for Bonham, but I deem these offered sufficient for men who think and act in political matters for themselves. To those who look to the Ring for their orders how to vote, I do not write, as they will vote as they are ordered. But as there are among Democrats men who have honesty and courage enough to vote their honest convictions, I believe Linn county will not cast her vote for Judge Bonham.
DEMOCRAT.

THE COCKTAIL ADVERTISER IMMINATES

that one of the Republican candidates in this county is rather inferior as a speller. We don't know how that is, but we are informed that a prominent Democratic candidate for the Legislature spells California with two P's, which is good for a starter. Set 'em up again.

was $307,990,064.77. Of this amount,
appropriated between 1865 and 1873.
