FRIDAY.....JUNE 2 1876.

Chill Burkhardt is down with erysipelas.

Ike Conn, of Sweet Home, came down to town during the week.

Mr. W. K. Price is out again once more after a long siege of rheumatism.

Judge Strain is having a dwelling erected at corner of Calipool and Fourth streets.

For the best and most fashionable stationery, late pictorial papers, magazines, school books, etc., go to John Fosbury's.

Our agricultural friends should look in on W. H. McFarland's excellent stock of stoves, ranges, tinware, etc.

Jack Titus has purchased several hundred head of sheep which he will take east of the Cascades after election.

President Villard, of the O. & C. R. R. Co., with other officials, made our city a visit last week.

The latest from the Philadelphia Centennial is that Oregon is way ahead of any thing in the exhibition of produce.

RHEUMATIC.—We are sorry to learn that Mr. A. A. Baltimore has been laid up for some days with the rheumatism.

J. H. Burkhardt will sell you a city lot, or most any other kind of realty you want, at low figures.

PRIVILEGES.—For an invitation entitling us to all the privileges of East Portland Trotting Park, we tip our fire cap to Messrs. Holbert & Owens, Portland.

RELIGIOUS.—Prof. T. F. Campbell, of Monmouth, will preach at the Court House on Sunday, June 4th, at 11 A. M. All invited.

Mrs. Stevens is selling more millinery than all the balance, because, as a woman of taste and good judgment, she keeps nothing but the best and most stylish goods. The ladies are invited to go and see.

Morgan & McFarland, real estate agents, are up to their eyes in business. They are thoroughbred business men as well as good boys, and deserve the success they are achieving.

Carothers & Co. are in receipt of goods direct from New York, which they can afford to sell much lower than the same goods purchased in San Francisco or Portland.

RUNAWAY.—The bay team got up and dusted on Monday, and before they got through with their frolic, they made pretty thorough work with the lack. It will cost something to repair it.

The Mechanics' Brass Band now have a practicing room in Sam'l E. Young's handsome agricultural warehouse, from whence they send forth splendid music every night or two.

A brain new Independent paper has been started in Salem, its mission being to break down Judge Boise and the Marion county Republican ticket. It will fail to accomplish its object, as its eleven foot and spiked tail sticks out too plainly.

JUDGES APPOINTED.—Messrs. Joe Webber, Buchtel and Holman (all ex-chief of the Portland Fire Department), have been selected as the judges of the great firemen's tournament to come off at Portland during Centennial week. A good selection.

The Corvallis papers pay a high compliment to the management of the St. Charles Hotel. Messrs. Mathews & Morrison are thoroughly acquainted with the hotel business, besides being perfect gentlemen in the strictest sense of the word.

No. 1's of Portland have extended a special invitation to the fire companies of this city to except of their hospitalities during centennial week in Portland. Every effort will be made to entertain and make our boys comfortable by Willamette No. 1's. 'Ror for the Willamettes.

Tyler & Tate, at their grocery establishment on First street, have fresh oranges, nice and sweet; maple sugar; up you cheese; the standard coffees and teas—in fact an assortment of as nice groceries and provisions as are to be found anywhere.

No. 2's were out on a drill Tuesday evening. The little steamer, stationed on Second, and playing from the d'ch that runs down Lyon street, threw a most beautiful stream. In fact she done better than ever before. She improves with every trial.

SPLENDID GOODS.—Mr. W. R. Graham, our merchant tailor, has recently received some of the finest coat, pants and vest goods ever received in this city. He has English, French and American goods, that cannot be excelled in quality. Go, and see them, by all means.

CENTENNIAL WARD.—Our old time friend and three-linker, Mr. Sheild, late of South-ern Oregon, but formerly a resident of Corvallis, called a moment on Monday. Mr. S. proposes to start for Philadelphia about the middle of June.

A cooling draught can be obtained at Dr. Plummer's elegant drug establishment in the way of ice-cold soda. Try it.

The candidates speak at the Court House in this city to-morrow. Come out, every-body, and hear them.

CAMPMEETING NOTICE.

The annual campmeeting for Brownsville Circuit, M. E. Church, will be held on the Shedd camp-ground near Roberts' Bridge, Linn county, commencing on the 15th of June. "A BASE FALSHOOD SQUARELY NAIL-ED."

LEBANON, May 31, 1876.

COLL. VAN CLEVE, ESQ.—Dear Sir: We notice an article in yesterday's Daily Democrat, in which it is stated that Dawson and Blackburn are endeavoring to draw off all the balance of their ticket for votes for themselves. You have our authority for saying that this statement first came to our knowledge through the Democrat of May 30th. We have never made an effort to make any vote of any character, nor do we know that our friends have done so.

We have been informed since we came here, and at other points, by prominent Republicans, that they had offers, time and again, from Democrats, to vote for any three Republicans, if they would vote for Mr. Herren. In other words they offered to give three votes for one.

So far as we have been concerned, we have not advised the scratching of any name on our ticket; nor have we ever advised any swapping of any nature or kind whatever. We pronounce the statement in the Democrat without a shadow of foundation.

S. A. DAWSON,
D. R. N. BLACKBURN.

LOOK OUT FOR BOGUS TICKETS.

BROWNSVILLE, O., May 30, 1876.

ED. REGISTER:—Please warn your readers to look out for a bogus Republican ticket that is to be abroad on election day. The said bogus Republican ticket will contain the names of all the Republican candidates except that of Sheriff. In place of which will be inserted the name of J. R. Herren, the Democratic nominee for that office. Herren or his friends hoping that in thus placing him in good company the fraud will not be noticed, and many Republicans will thus unintentionally assist in his election. Please make this known through the columns of the REGISTER, so that all may be placed upon their guard.

A REPUBLICAN.

CITY MILLS SOLD.—The City Mills, owned by the late firm of Beach & Monteith, and other property in which the Beach estate was interested, was sold at auction by the executor, Mr. John Conner, last Saturday. The mills brought $23,400, and were bought in by Mr. Thomas Monteith, the junior member of the late firm. Mr. Monteith also purchased the lots and building opposite the mills, paying $1,600 therefor. The old homestead of Mr. Beach, consisting of nearly a block of land with residence, was purchased by Mr. Walter Monteith for $600.

Mr. W. A. Paul gave us a call on Monday. Mr. Paul is one of our oldest and best farmers. Honest, capable, reliable and true, with most excellent judgment, thoroughly posted as to the interests of the county, he is certainly the man our people want as one of the County Commissioners. And we are inclined to the belief that a majority of the voters of Linn county are with us in the belief that he is much better qualified, in every respect, to fill the office than either of his Democratic competitors.

OFFICERS INSTALLED.—On Saturday evening, May 6th, the officers of Onward Lodge, I. O. G. T., No. 229, were duly installed by Lodge Deputy, J. W. Probst, as follows: W. C. T. J. W. Nixon; V. T. Ross Miller; Secretary, A. T. Creecy; F. S. F. D. Haight; Treasurer, M. C. Chambers; W. C. J. Conn; M. E. Miller; D. M. W. Fry; I. G. C. Conn; O. G. George Geisendorfer; P. W. C. C. G. Burkhardt; R. H. S. Emma Geisendorfer; L. H. S. M. Nixon.

Some of the finest gold and silver watches made can be had at Titus Bros. You can obtain the kind of watch to suit your taste and the length of your purse. You can also obtain the best silverware, solid or plated; all kinds and styles of finger-rings; from one to six-barreled, either navy or pocket; pistols; opera or field glasses; watch charms of all descriptions, and jewelry till you can't rest, all marked down to hard times prices. They also have an excellent assortment of clocks, and are prepared to do job work in their line in the best style, on the shortest notice. They are way tip boys, and deserve general patronage.

HALE FARE OVER THE O. & C. RAIL-
ROAD.—Half-fare tickets will be sold over the O. & C. R. R. at the following terms and occasions: To Portland, from June 22d to 29th, for delegates to Willamette Association. To Portland, from June 8 to 16, for delegates to Grand Lodge and Chapter of Masons. To Salem, from 14 to 17, for Grand Lodge Good Templars. To Salem, from June 13 to 19, for Oregon Pioneer Association. To Roseburg, from May 31 to June 3, for Corvallis Association. Each delegate to present certificate as delegate; his wife, also, will be passed for half-fare.

ON THE TENTH OF JUNE.—Remember the meeting of citizens at the Court House on the 10th of June, to take the necessary steps to send out a party of prospectors into a country where it is believed gold can be obtained in paying quantities. In fact, it is believed, from prospects obtained years ago in the district of country under constabulation, that rich diggings exist there, and if the necessary funds can be obtained, and the right kind of men secured to prospect, those diggings will be found; and of course those who take stock in the enterprise will be equal sharers in the find.

A CHICKEN WITH FOUR LEGS.—A few days since we had a hen come off the nest with two little chicks, leaving the remaining ones to perish in the shells. To-day our little boy was making an examination of them, and found one chick that had four legs. The chicken was naturally formed except that where the tail should have been there were two legs, set opposite each other and crosswise of the body.

ALBANY, May 29. A. A. BALTIMORE.

AUCTION SALE OF FURNITURE.—Dr. Gamble proposes to sell to-morrow (Saturday) at 10 o'clock A. M., at his late residence on First street, a fine bedroom and parlor set of furniture, lounges, stove, etc. He will also sell his horse, buggy and harness at the same time. Parties looking for bargains should be on hand. Sums less than $10, cash; over that amount, six months time.

NEW DRUG HOUSE.—Messrs. A. Carothers & Co. commence immediately the erection of a new building to be used by them as a drug store, on the corner of Ellsworth and First streets. The building will be 22x65 feet, two stories high, frame, hard-finish throughout. They expect to have their new building ready to move into inside of sixty days.

AN IMPRESSIVE SERMON.—Calvary Church was crowded last Sunday evening, the large audience being attracted to listen to the address to Fremmen, delivered by the pastor, Rev. Howard W. Stratton. The members of the fire department of the city were generally in attendance. The address was one of the finest efforts of this able divine, and obtained the closest attention of the entire audience.

One Too Many.

ED. REGISTER:—In answer to Bob Frim's maiden effort in the Cocktail Advertiser of May 31st, I would state that I only took two bottles of whisky instead of three as he charges. Had I taken three bottles I would have captured Bob himself, sure as shooting. I didn't have enough to go round, and Bob's mad. L. STIMPSON.

The most unaccountable weather this that we have been having of late. However, it is the making of crops, and grain never looked better or more promising than at present. The usual amount of grain has been put in, and judging from present indications the crop will be better than for years.

THIS EVENING.—At the Opera House, will occur the grand musical entertainment for the benefit of the contemplated new Presbyterian Church. The entertainment will be under the directorship of Prof. J. B. Wyatt, which insures its excellence and a grand success. Let's all go and enjoy a rare musical treat.

MONDAY FANCIES.—The disproportion between the weight of a small boy and the noise of his boot-heels as he walks out of church at the quietest moment is a curious problem in dynamics.

The great gift of preaching—Knowing when to stop.

Some sermons are like small country-houses with big piazzas.—The introduction is larger than the structure behind it.

A woman sees herself in a pew in seven notions; a man with one.

An effective sermon is one that hits that man in the next pew.

Last Monday Mr. John H. Irvine graduated in the medical department of the Willamette University, and is now entitled to write M. D. after his name. We congratulate Johnny, and wish him the fullest success in his chosen profession.

MARRIED.

May 7th, at the residence of Mr. S. Cooper in this city, by Elder R. C. Hill, Mr. J. T. Cooper and Miss Frances Coyt—all of Linn county, Oregon.

May 28th, at the residence of L. Wheeler in this city, by Elder R. C. Hill, Mr. B. L. Simpson and Miss Jennette E. Wheeler—all of Linn county, Oregon.

Perry Splink hauled in over 500 cord of wood last fall, all of which he has sold, and last week he couldn't haul wood in fast enough to meet the demand.

FROM WHITMAN COUNTY, W. T.—From a private letter, dated Whitman county, W. T., May 17, 1876, we are permitted to call the following items: Fine weather had prevailed to the 5th, when snow fell to the depth of seven inches. Rain set in on the 7th, and the snow was fast disappearing. The grass was way up, from 8 to 16 inches high, and the valleys and hills were covered with flowers of many colors. Wheat (fall) looked splendid, giving indications of a full crop. Three dollars per acre is the price paid for breaking land there. It is pronounced a superior country for the cultivation of flax, and an oil mill is wanted, and it is believed the party putting up a mill would realize handsomely. The crop of flax to be realized the coming season in Whitman is placed at 100,000 bushels. A pork packing establishment is also demanded, and would pan out large. Wheat commands 50c, oats 36c, barley 48c, potatoes 12½c per bushel. Cattle are coming up, as are the "big steers" are said to have been driven to market. Three year olds brought $15, 4 year olds, $18, 5 year olds, $20 per head. In some instances farm hands get $1 per day.
