Board of Trade

SPECIAL MEETING, MAY 24, 1876.

A special meeting of the Board of Trade was held last evening, for the object of considering the various commercial interests requirit. State legislation, and the course to be pursued by the board in urging these non-political measures upon the various candidates in the different countles of the State seeking election to the State Legislature, and for similar purposes.

The board was called to order by Mr. Goldsmith, vice president, who stated the object of the meeting.

Reading of minutes of last regular meeting was omitted.

RESOLUTIONS.

The following preamble and resolutions were read seriatim, and after considerable discussion, in which Messrs. Kapus, Green, Gross, Goldsmith, De kum and Prindle, participated, were adopted:

WHEREAS, This board, independent of political views, recognize the urgent necessity of the various commercial matters of the State being attended to at the next legislature, therefore have

Resolved, And do hereby earnestly recommend to the various candidates in every county seeking election to the State Legislature the following important subjects for their eareful consideration, and request them to indicate to the secretary of the board whether or not they are in favor of the following resolutions:

DIRECT RAILROAD CONNECTION.

To accomplish which the State ought legislatively, for the general good of all is now the subject of litigation in Borits citizens and without exhibiting partiality or preference for either one of the three proposed railroad routes to the East, unite upon a general bill giving to which ever railroad company or capitalists as shall guarantee to commence construction within one year and complete railroad connection within six years, whatever State assistance or aid is in the power and ability of the people as a State to grant, subject always to no discrimination of fares and freights in any locality in Oregon over another, and under the farther condition that no greater through or local freights or fares shall be charged in Oregon than is in operation in California or elsewhere.

IMMIGRATION. That it is the duty of the State for the development of its various resources in Eastern, Southern and Western Oregon, to undertake like all other Western States, the immigration inter- three per day. The church property ests of the country by appointing a non- foots up about $81,000,000 in value political board of immigration with sufficient powers and a small annual appropriation from the legislature to likely to become an absorbing one withminate information, induce immigrants to come to Oregon, and while here to settle them in the various portions of the State.

PILOTAGE AND TOWAGE. That in view of the fact that the increase of values of our agricultural products depend almost entirely upon the number of foreign vessels which yearly enter the Columbia river seeking freights, it is of the utmost pecuniary importance to our farming classes for the legislature to pass such a bill for regulating the piloting and towing charges over the Columbia river bar as will encourage competition in shipping and induce vessels to come to Oregon in larger numbers than at present.

SALMON INTERESTS.

That considering the large annual exports of Oregon salmon and the inarease in the foreign demand, it is to be regretted that the run of salmon is not now so plentiful as in former years; that it is therefore the duty of the State to pass such laws as will regulate the season, time and mode of conducting this enterprise so as to increase instead of decreasing (as at present) the flow of salmon into the various rivers and tributaries of Oregon.

MERCANTILE TRAVELERS PROM OTHER

STATES SOLICITING TRADE IN OREGON. Nearly all foreign countries and sister States on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts pass license and other laws to and that General Meiggs would be ap. protect and develop their internal trade and commerce, believing that it is essential for every State to foster and build up within itself manufacturing and commercial enterprises. In Oregon contributing directly or indirectly one dollar of taxes or revenue to the State treasury, while merchants and traders, residents of Oregon, are compelled by law to pay upon their property or goods so offered for sale, all State, county and other taxes, as well as high rents and other incidental expenses. It is therefore the duty of the State to equalize taxation so that such travelers soliciting trade in Oregon shall pay equally as the resident merchants their proportion or share of taxes, and thus encourage the internal commerce of Oregon. This is best attained by the mode adopted in other States, which this Board of Trade recommends, of making such travelers procure an annual license from this AMENDMENT OF INCORPORATION LAWS. That in the judgment of this Board section 20 of the General Incorporation laws should be abolished, and section 22 be so amended as to allow a majority of the stockholders of an incorporation to file supplemental articles, thereby offering greater inducements for the investment of capital.

OFFICIAL WEIGHER OF WHEAT AND OTHER GRAIN.

That the State Legislative assembly appoint, as is done by the States of Illinois, Michigan, and other Eastern States, an official weigher of wheat, whose duties shall consist of weighing, at the request of one or more of the parties concerned, all wheat and other grain sold, or to be sold, or to be delivered free on board ship or otherwise, and whose certificate of weights shall be held in law as evidence of the facts therein stated between parties. That the said official weigher shall reside in Portland, and his remuneration shall be fixed by the State at so much per .on, payable from the grain weighed.

Resolved further, That the board solicit the various newspapers of Oregon to print these resolutions, and that the secretary be and hereby is instructed to forward copies to every candidate in Oregon seeking election to the next State legislature,

On motion the Board adjourned.

England is increasing her iron-clad fleet on a formidable scale. The Inflexible, launched lately, will weigh 10,000 tons, cost $3,000,000, and be protected by double armor of from sixteen to twenty-four inches thickness. She will carry four 84-ton guns, capable of piercing armor twenty inches thick at the distance of a mile and a half. The Temeraire, set affoat recently, will also carry four great guns. These floating monsters, though proof against artillery, may still be liable to destruction by torpedoes of recent invention.

A Tailors' Riot.

The season of 1805 (at the Haymarket Theater) was marked by the drollest riot in theatrical annals. Some years previously Foote had produced a burlesque piece, the authorship of which is unknown to this day, entitled "The paying for it that ruffles the men. Tailors, or a Tracedy for Warm Weather." The satire of the piece appears to have given great umbrage to the craft half-dime having been introduced. from which it was named. Dowton announced its revival for his benefit, an announcement which roused the furious indignation of the knights of the needle; they held a meeting and vowed to oppose it with might and main; that St. Louis has a population of 498 .menacing letters were written to the 182. beneticiare informing him that seventeen thousand talors would attend to hiss and boot the play. One, who signed himself "Death," wrote to inform one of the proprietors of the theater that ten thousand more could be there if necessary. In defiance of these doughty threats, however, the bill was unchanged. But when the night came it was soon discovered that the brotherhood meant deeds as well as words. In the gallery they contrived to secure every seat except two, and to monopolize nearly every other part of the house. Dowton's appearance was the signal for the uproar to begin; a pair of shears were thrown at him; he offered £20 reward to any person who would point out the offender, but no person would betray him. Finding the audience would not listen to a word, Dowton offered to change the piece to The Village Lawbut the riot had assumed proportions too formidable to be appeased, and the uproar within was sustained by mobs equal rights of all citizens throughout the of tailors without, A magistrate was nation, and the impartial administration of sent for, special constables called out, the laws in every part of the country, for but they were helpless against the numbers of the rioters, and the disturbance continued to increase until the arrival of a troop of Life Guards, who seized sixteen and put the remainder to flight.
