CAMPMEETING.—A campmeeting will be held, under the auspices of the Evangelical Association, three miles southwest of Wheatland, beginning June 15, 1876.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH.—Preaching at 11 A. M.: In the evening at 7½ o'clock. Sunday School at 12½ P. M. Preaching at Colwell's schoolhouse at 3½ P. M. J. BOWERSOX, Pastor.

On Monday night at Miller's Station, some one entered Newman's store through a back window, and abstracted a suit of clothes, and other articles of small value.

The entertainment at Collegiate Institute on Wednesday night, by the under graduates, we learn was well attended, and the said under graduates did themselves proud.

We have just received, from Messrs. Sherman & Hyde, music dealers, San Francisco, a beautiful new song and choros, entitled, "Darling Little Jessie," written in the popular style by James A. Kerr. The various Minstrel Troupes throughout the country have taken it up, and it bids fair to become as popular as "Is my Darling True to Me," published by the same house. The price of each of these songs is but 35 cents, and will be forwarded, post paid, by the publishers upon receipt of the amount in currency or postage stamps.

A CARD OF THANKS.—The ladies of the Presbyterian Society wish to return their thanks through your columns to the ladies and gentlemen of other churches for their invaluable assistance in their recent concert. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Dr. Harris, the Misses Irvine, Tate, Cornelius, Thompson and Alexander, and Messrs. Gaston, Stewart and Blain, by devoting the necessary time in preparation as well as by their public performance deserve the hearty thanks which we hereby tender. We would also express our gratitude to Mr. J. B. Wyatt, as conductor, and Miss Kate Conner, as pianist, who spared no pains to render our entertainment one of the most enjoyable ever attended in the city. Also to Messrs. W. B. Barr & Co. who generously furnished, free of charge, a fine piano which had been specially tuned for the occasion. We hope our citizens who have given us financial support, feel well repaid in the enjoyment received and will favor us with their presence at future gatherings, when we will always try to give them the full worth of their money.

The Evil Fruits of Weak Digestion.
There is no pathological fact more clearly ascertained than that the most formidable phases of nervous disease are directly traceable to imperfect digestion. Insomnia, with its train of direful consequences, proceeds more frequently from weakness of the stomach than from any other cause. Mere sedatives are powerless to cure nervousness, and soon cease to palliate its symptoms. The true way to strengthen the nervous system is to invigorate the digestive and assimilative organs, upon whose unobstructed action its equilibrium is absolutely dependent. The daily use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will do more to brace and soothe the weakened and irritated nerves, and induce sound, refreshing sleep, nature's grand catholicon—than all the so-called nervines to be found in the pharmacopoeia or out of it. A wineglassful of the Bitters should be taken before each meal. June

The Mule.

The mule is the most unhealthy animal in the world—unhealthy to have around.
He is continually possessed of a yearning desire to stretch himself—especially his hind leg.
We have known this yearning to make trouble in several families.
He is also possessed of great hearing power.
No man ever sees a mule kick him.
The man is usually seized with obscure visions just at this juncture.
We have seen a man get up after a mule had kicked him (very rarely though) and swear with both hands uplifted that he didn't believe the animal had stirred a peg—he looked so immovable and unconcerned.
A mule is a very "quick" animal.
Great quantities of this substance lie hidden away beneath his toe calks.
As a great explorer, the mule is equal to Stanley.
When he goes exploring for a man he always finds him.
The safest place to stand by a mule does not exist.
He is the dynamite fiend of the four legged kingdom.
The mule is a very headstrong beast.
He is likewise exceedingly heel-strong.

HORSE MEN, LOOK TO YOUR INTERESTS.

I WILL MAKE THE INCOMING SEASON, from April 5th to July 15th, with one of the stallions brought out from the East the past winter.

WHITE PRINCE, —AND— PRIDE OF PERCHE,

Will be at the stable of BEAN & DAVIDSON, South on Mondays a. m., Fridays p. m., and Saturdays.
At Albany Tuesdays p. m., Wednesdays, and Thursdays a. m. of each week during the season, at the stable of A. H. MARSHALL.
WHITE PRINCE is in good condition, and is generally known as having proven himself a No. 1 stock horse.
PRIDE OF PERCHE came out from France to Ohio in 1874, and made the season of '75 in Wisconsin. He is a dark dapple gray, well formed, fine style, good disposition, with a graceful, free, easy action that I have never seen equaled in any horse of his size: will weigh, in good condition, 1,600 pounds.
It has long been my ambition to be able to supply the horse breeders of Oregon with a breed of large horses and concentrated reproducing powers, emanating from purity of blood, from which could be bred when crossed upon the common mares of the country, a uniform class of horses—compact, symmetrical in form, coupled with style, action and stamina. To supply the above want, after a careful examination of the various large breeds known, I selected the Percheron family. The oldest sibs from White Prince are now coming 4 years old, with the younger ones, show that the above fact has been accomplished, as they are all uniform in general make-up, and show the stock probably in a greater degree than the produce of any other horse in the State, whether bred from the full-blood, high-grade Percheron, good American or the Indian pony mares, all show the peculiarities of the Percheron race.
In offering the services of the above horses to the breeders of Oregon, it is not an untitled matter, but a demonstrated fact of their value, as it is 25 years since their introduction into Ohio, and 19 years into Illinois, and wherever introduced they are giving the best of satisfaction. The one-fourth and one-half bloods bring more than double the price of the good common stock of the country, and the breeders of this stock are unable to supply the demand for them.
There is now, and will be for some time to come, a demand for the colts at good prices for stock purposes.

TERMS:
$50 the season, or four mares for $100 in U. S. gold coin, except White Prince fillies—they will be bred by special agreement.
