The Song of the Sensitive Man.

O, yes, O, yes, I'm a sensitive man,
A very uncommonly sensitive man;
I rip and I swear whenever I can,
But I'm an uncommonly sensitive man.
I rush to the depot, I start and I roar;
I follow, I flutter, I can do no more;
I prance and I snort, I rip and I tear;
I dance a fandango, and sometimes I swear.
Which makes all the innocent emigrants stare:
But still I maintain, and deny it you can't,
That I'm Albany's timid and sensitive plant.

OFFICERS ELECT.—Oregon Encampment No. 5, I. O. O. F. last Friday night elected the following officers for the next term, commencing with July: Joe Webber, C. P.; Coll. Van Cleave, H. P.; Conrad Meyer, S. W.; Ruel Carter, J. W.; N. Baum, Scribe; R. Saltmarsh, Treasurer.

The nomination of Hayes for President gives assurance that the country is safe, and as Wheeler (not of New York, but of Suedia) proposes to continue doing a square business on a narrow margin of profit for really pay, all may be happy yet. "Let us have peace"—and prosperity.

Dr. Whitney, brother of our worthy District Attorney, who arrived here last week from Philadelphia, where he has been attending a thorough course of medical lectures, started on a jaunt to Alsea Reservation on Monday. The Dr. will locate somewhere in Oregon for the practice of his profession.

As most everybody is fitting up their premises or putting up new buildings, it becomes desirable to know where the best and cheapest paints are to be had. Averill's paint stand high with those who have used it, and you can get any color you wish, the genuine Averill paint, already mixed ready to be put on, at A. Carothers & Co's drug store.

CHANGES.—W. C. Tweedale calculates to move into his store now occupied by Dr. Lister, on First street, in about two weeks. The storeroom at present occupied by Mr. Tweedale, adjoining the REGISTER office on the west, will be occupied by the gentleman who recently purchased the building, with a stock of general merchandise.

Job work has been quiet "pearl" during the week, keeping us as busy as we could well be. The orders, generally, have been for a better class of work than usual, our people showing an inclination to pay a fair price for neat and tasty work. This suits us, and we are always ready for orders for any kind of job printing, from a visiting card to a poster—in colors or plain.

NEW BRICK.—Mr. Sam Miller has contracted for the necessary brick to erect a large blacksmith and wagon shop on the corner of Ferry and Second streets. The building will, of course, be of brick, some 50 feet front on Ferry street running back the depth of the lot. It will be substantially built, and will be an ornament to our block. Rah for Sam.

SNOW.—Mr. Jas. Etkins called on us last Friday having just returned to his home in this city from Ochoco and Beaver creek via the Lebanon Wagon Road. He says teams can scarcely travel the road for a few weeks, as there is from ten to twelve miles of snow on the divide, all the way from two to eight feet deep. His advice to families is, wait a couple or three weeks before attempting to cross.

Mr. John Irving's new residence, now in course of erection, when completed will be by odds the handsomest in the city. It will be something entirely new in Oregon architecture, and will not only be handsome but very convenient.
The big circus is meandering this way.

BROWNSVILLE.—From a gentleman just from Brownsville, we learn that the Woolen Mills of that place have started up again, with better prospects and a fairer outlook than ever before. Having secured the services of a superior finisher, and other skilled mechanics, the new Company propose to get up better and finer qualities of goods than they have been able heretofore to offer this public. Although the Eagle Woolen Mills have gained a high reputation for work done in the past, the present proprietors propose to do a finer grade of work than they have been able to do heretofore. Of course we wish the enterprise the very best of success, and all such enterprises deserve, and should receive, the aid and active co-operation of every well wisher of Linn county.

BOATS FOR PORTLAND.—On third of July, next Monday, the steamers City of Salem and Willamette Chief will take passengers at half-fare to Portland. The first named will leave Corvallis at five o'clock A. M. of Monday, this city, at 6, and Salem at 9, while the Chief will leave Corvallis at 6 o'clock, this city at 7, Salem at 10, arriving at the locks at 4 P. M., and Portland at 6. The largest crowd, if not the entire number of visitors on the occasion, will go by one or the other steamer. It will be much the pleasantest mode of travel, and every effort of those connected with the steamers will be exerted to make the trip agreeable to all.

THE MCCORMICK MACHINE.—Over eighty of the leading agriculturists of the State met at Salem recently, and among other things, discussed the merits of different harvesters offered for sale on this coast. After a careful examination, and a thorough discussion of the merits of the different machines, as we learn from the Statesman, it was decided by a unanimous vote that the McCormick Harvesters and Mowers, as improved, were the best and cheapest in market, and the farmers were advised to procure them as they are the most economical, and the chief among labor-saving farm machines. P. C. Harper & Co. are the agents for the McCormick in this city. Call and examine them.

As the Willamette Chief proposes to take the firemen to Portland and return, Centennial week, for $2 each, taking 2's steamer, hose-cart and the three Percheron horses free, it's altogether likely our boys will "camp" on her for that occasion. She is a large boat, and makes good time, and under the circumstances the trip will be more pleasant made on a steamboat than by the cars.

Acting through the pores upon the sources of inflammation Glenn's Sulphur Soap promptly relieves the burning, itching and other annoyances caused by Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Impetigo, Erysipelas, and other skin diseases and ultimately removes every vestige of them.

WOOLEN FACTORY.—Mr. W. C. Griswold talks of rebuilding the Willamette Woolen Factory in this city, should sufficient inducements be offered by our citizens. It seems to be generally conceded that Albany is the best point in the Willamette Valley for such an enterprise. We hope our citizens will look upon the enterprise in the proper light, and extend all the assistance necessary to enable Mr. G. to rebuild here.

The Scio people, with their accustomed energy, have gone to work to get up a celebration on the coming Fourth which will cap anything of a similar character ever held in that bailiwick. Scioans are upon it, as all who go will find out.

Our handsome friend, Joe Tyler, of Tyler & Tate, grocers, First street, accompanied by his wife, left us for Yaquina Bay and the salt sea breezes, on Tuesday, to be absent a week or more.

Hon. W. R. Dunbar, G. W. C. T. of the State, visited Western Star Lodge officially on Tuesday evening.

A Chinaman with a pair of red top boots was the attraction on Monday.

The knife grinder made his appearance the front part of the week.

The water commenced receding at Portland Saturday night, and that city will soon be on "dry land" once more.

The Fire Department parade on Tuesday evening was way up, and everybody turned out to see it.

Mr. John Briggs has stacks of fruit cans, as well as stoves, ranges, pumps, tinware, etc.

Harvest is being vigorously pushed in California, the first of the new crop appearing at San Diego on Monday.

One of the pieces to be fired on the evening of the 4th at Portland is 100 by 200 feet. This is a red hot piece, you bet.

Parties bound for the mountains or the coast can obtain splendid sugar-cured hams, dried beef, cheese, etc., at Tyler & Tate's, on First street, at reasonable figures.

If you want a cheap, durable wooden pump, order of George Mollenkopf, at his manufactory in C. D. Simpson's warehouse at the foot of Ellsworth street.

It is a rare sight now-a-days to see two men standing on the bank of the Willamette seeing how far they can heave Mexican dollars over the chuck!

Get ready for a high old time at Hackleman's grove on the 4th. Go early and put in the entire day in old-fashioned enjoyment.

No paper next week. It's Centennial week, and we propose to take one week of holiday, as these Centennials don't come around very frequently.

A. I. Stinson dropped a valuable watch in the ditch on Broadalbin street on Monday. At last accounts he had been unable to find it.

GONE EAST.—Dr. G. W. Gray has gone East on a health and business trip, expecting to be absent about three months. Due notice will be given of his return. 33m3

Mr. Fred Banta, of this city, has been awarded the contract for building the Odd Fellows hall at Lebanon. Four hundred and thirty dollars was the bid.

This warm weather suggests soda water, and A. Carothers & Co. continue to manufacture a sufficiency of the best kind for all who call at their establishment.

Rev. W. R. Butler and wife, of Dalles, are paying our city a visit. They are in excellent health, and as they have scores of friends in this city, will doubtless enjoy their visit.

Generally we have a nice, cool breeze, right from old ocean, keeping the temperature down to where a fellow can wear a couple of shirt-studs without their weight appearing oppressive!

"Py Schininy, how dot poy studies dose langwidges!" was the exclamation of a delighted elderly Teuton the other day when his four year old son called him a "bleared-eyed son of a saw-horse."

Mr. N. Baum bought a farm last Saturday—the Lowe place, about four miles south of this city. It consists of about 147 acres of excellent land, for which he paid $27 50 an acre.

Silver is at a discount everywhere, all the way from five to ten per cent. Despite all this, and to further prove our liberality to this people, we are prepared to receive the discounted stuff, in large or small quantities, at PAR. We do this that those owing us may not be compelled to go on the market and sacrifice largely to secure the necessary amalgam with which to satisfy our just demands. Will you pay up now, be gone?
