WHAT'S LEFT.

Quittance No. 64.
An Ordinance for licencing hotel runners.
Be it ordained by the Common Council of the city of Albany, in Linn County, Oregon:
Section 1. Hotel runners shall pay a quarterly license of ten dollars. Every person who, on the public streets of Alabany, or on the wharves, or at the railroad depot, shall in a public manner, solicit custom for any hotel, inn, tavern, or boarding house, shall be deemed a hotel runner under this ordinance. Any person who shall violate the foregoing ordinance shall, on conviction thereof, before the Recorder, for every such offence, besides being liable to the payment of the license, be subject to a fine of not less than five dollars, nor more than twenty-five dollars, or imprisonment, not less than five nor more than twenty days.
Passed the Council June 27th, 1876.
N. B. HUMPHREY, Mayor.

McMINNVILLE COLLEGE.

McMINNVILLE, June 19th, 1876.

EDITOR REGISTER:—The exercises at the close of the session of the Baptist College in our village were very interesting. On Thursday evening at an early hour the Christian Church, a commodious building, furnished for the accommodation of the College, was crowded with anxious spectators. At the time appointed the programme was announced by President Bailey, opened by singing: “Worship the Lord,” an accomplished lady presiding at the organ. Prayer by the Chaplain, Elder R. C. Hill. Declamations delivered by several young gentlemen could scarcely be surpassed—they were delivered with uniform correctness of elocution, reflecting honor on the students and the highest enlogium on the teachers. The young ladies performed their parts with marked ability, delivering beautiful essays and recitations with such energy that their friends could but feel a secret pride. All felt charmed with their success. President Bailey, having sometime past resigned his position, the College has for several weeks been ably and satisfactorily conducted by efficient young gentlemen, Prof. Magers and Woody, who proved themselves to be very competent educators. The exercises were a complete success; spectators were delighted. Every intelligent person present realized that the College was an exceedingly important institution, and that all the means expended returned double compensation, in developing the intellectual and moral power, of greater value than gold to our young State.
The next session of the school will commence on the 4th day of September next.
The annual meeting of the Trustees was held in one of the rooms. Reports of Professors, claims of liabilities examined. It was ascertained that the liabilities of the school are being considerably reduced. If delinquent tuition bills were collected, with the remaining interest on endowment funds, there would be but little financial embarrassment. The report of the financial agent, showed that during the year he had increased the endowment several hundred dollars in reliable notes, the entire amount of the endowment being $30,000.
Though some reduction will have to be made for bad debts, yet we may safely estimate near $25,000 in reliable notes.
The endowments exceed $20,000, the amount stipulated in the subscription, by several thousand dollars. Every year the Financial Agent has made his report of the amount collected or subscribed by different persons, including the trip East, and the Trustees stipulated the amount of his salary, but he had not required payment because the institution in its infancy labored under some embarrassments. The Trusttees, at the last meeting, made arrangements for his entire payment for previous services in raising the endowment, he having donated to the College $2,000 in the form of scholarships, having taken for his own use one scholarship, and three scholarships for the benefit of ministers or ministers families. The latter scholarships the Financial Agent has at his disposal, to designate the beneficiary. At present three young men are receiving the benefit—one from Linn Co., one from Multnomah, and a Mr. Clark, from W. T.

Subscriptions are being circulated for money for a new college building.
R. C. HILL, Financial Agent.

BADLY CUT.—Yesterday while showing a reaper to a customer, at S. E. Young's had the first and second fingers of the left hand badly cut by getting them caught in were nearly severed from the hand.

The contract for piling and bridging for the Seattle and Walla Walla railroad of the several sloughs and swampy tracts of land lying between a point about six miles from Seattle and Black river, has been let by Superintendent Coleman to Messrs. Eaton & Webster.
The length of trestle work to be constructed by them will amount in the aggregate to nearly a mile, and by their contract they are to have it completed in six weeks.

Coming in to the wharf at Olympia, the other day, with a lot of hay on board from White river, it was discovered, on the steamer Comet, that the sparks had ignited three of the bales, and that the boat had had a close escape from destruction. Her upperdeck was burned for a few feet around, and the rope fastening the hay, had been severed. A few moments more would have loosened and spread the hay, which, burning more readily, would have soon been the cause of the steamer's burning to the water's edge.

of the order; provided, that at any celebration, entertainment or proceedings in the name of the order, no intoxicating beverage shall be offered to the members or guests present on the occasion.

The East Oregonian of the 14th inst. contained the following account of the killing of James Gordon by David Grooms: On Wednesday last, June 25th David Grooms shot an instantly killed James Gordon. The killing took place in Rebel canyon on the Walla Walla river in this county. For two or three years a feud has existed between these men and others over a piece of land.
On one occasion one of the parties shot at and missed his adversary, and was in turn very cut with a knife. Gordon was charged with perjury in swearing to his residence on the land in dispute before the U. S. land officers at LaGrande, and his case was examined into by the grand jury, and since that time the feelings between the parties have been intense. Gordon and Grooms met on the land on Wednesday when the fatal shooting occurred. We have not the details, and only learned the general facts. Grooms gave himself up to the authorities. Gordon was a man of about 55 years of age and had a large family of grown-up boys and one girl.
Grooms is a man of a large family and aged about 45 years.
