

The Albany Register

VOLUME VIII.

ALBANY, OREGON, AUGUST 4, 1876.

BUSINESS CARDS.
JOHN CONNER,
BANKING
 AND
Exchange Office,
 ALBANY, OREGON.

DEPOSITS RECEIVED SUBJECT TO CHECK ALLIANCE.
 Interest allowed on time deposits in coin, exchange on Portland, San Francisco, and New York, for sale at lowest rates. Collections made and promptly remitted. Letters to H. W. Corbett, Esq., Albany, W. S. Ladd, Banking hours from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M. Albany, Feb. 1, 1874-24.

A. CAROTHERS & CO.,
 Dealers in—
Drugs,
 CHEMICALS, OILS, PAINTS, DYES, GLASS, LAMPS, ETC.,
 All the popular
PATENT MEDICINES,
 FINE CUTLERY, CIGARS, TOBACCO,
 NOTIONS, PERFUMERY,
 and Toilet Goods.
 Particular care and promptness given Physicians' prescriptions and Family Receipts.
 A. CAROTHERS & CO.
 Albany, Oregon-113

H. J. BOUGHTON, M. D.,
 GRADUATE OF THE UNIVERSITY
 Medical College New York, late member of Bellevue Hospital Medical College, New York. Office in A. Carothers & Co.'s drug store, Albany, Oregon.
EPIZOOTICS DISTILLED.
 THE BAY TEAM STILL LIVES.
 AND IS FLOURISHING LIKE A GREEN bay tree. Thankful for past favors, and wishing to meet the old members of the same, the BAY TEAM will always be ready, and easily found, to furnish within the city limits, for a reasonable compensation, the delivery of goods a specialty.
 H. J. BOUGHTON, Proprietor.

Piles! Piles!
Why say THIS DAMNING AND troublesome complaint cannot be cured, when so many evidences of success have been achieved by the use of a cure of supposed hopeless cases? Your physician informs you that the long-suffering sufferer is to die, you learn your chances for relief. Experience has established the efficacy of
A. Carothers & Co.'s Pile Pills and Ointment are all they are recommended to be. Will cure Chronic, Bleeding Piles, in a very short time, and are considered to be the most reliable in the business in the East. In express to any point within the United States at 10¢ per package.
A. CAROTHERS & CO.,
 113 So. Third St., Albany, Oregon.
 The Eugene firm are making arrangements for a grand ball at Lane's Hall on Christmas eve.

JOHN SCHMEER,
 DEALER IN—
Groceries & Provisions,
 ALBANY, OREGON.

HAS JUST OPENED HIS NEW GROCER establishment on corner of Millwright and First streets, with a fresh stock of Groceries, Provisions, Candles, Cigars, Soap, &c., to which he invites the attention of our citizens.
 In connection with the store he will keep a Bakery, and will always have on hand a full supply of fresh bread, crackers, &c.
 Call and see me.
 February 16-21v4 JOHN SCHMEER.

ALBANY FOUNDRY
 and
Machine Shop.
A. F. CHERRY Proprietor,
 ALBANY, OREGON.
 Manufactures Steam Engines, Flour and Saw Mill Machinery, and WOOD WORKING
 and
AGRICULTURAL MACHINERY,
 And all kinds of
IRON AND BRASS CASTINGS.
 Particular attention paid to repairing all kinds of machinery.
 41v3

DR. YULE, Boot and Shoe Maker, all door hand to work at reasonable rates, neat and nice.
N. T. MOORE,
House and Sign Painter,
 ALBANY, OREGON.
GRAINING, PAPERHANGING, CALCUMINATING, GLAZING, &c. Having had an experience of 20 years in the business in the East, I can safely guarantee satisfactory work to all. Shop on First street, next door east of Clark & Wyant.

Barber Shop!
L. B. ROYAL
 HAS OPENED a Barber Shop, First street one door west of Thompson & Irving's barbers shop, where he will be pleased to meet all who wish work in his line. Thankful for past patronage, he hopes by close attention to business to merit a continuance of the same. Will keep constantly on hand a full supply of Perfumery and Toilet Goods,
 the best assortment in town. Come and see me.
 Albany, Ore., February 25, 1876-25v5

S. C. STONE, M. D.,
Physician and Surgeon,
 BROWNVILLE, OREGON.
 OFFICE—At the Drug Store.

SAMUEL E. YOUNG,
 Wholesale and Retail Dealer in
DRY GOODS,
CLOTHING,
GROCERIES,
BOOTS & SHOES,
THRASHERS,
REAPERS & MOWERS,
WAGONS, PLOWS,
SEED DRILLS,
BROADCAST SEED
SOWERS, ETC.
 First street, Albany, Oregon.
 Terms: — Cash.

St. Charles Hotel,
 Corner Washington and First Sts.,
 ALBANY, OREGON,
Mathews & Morrison,
 PROPRIETORS.
 Home newly furnished throughout. The best the market affords always on the table. Free Coach to and from the House.
P. C. HARPER & CO.,
 Dealers in—
DRY GOODS,
 Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Hats, Groceries, Fancy Goods, Notions, Shotguns and Pistols, Nibs, Ropes, Mirrors, Wallpaper, Wood and Willow Ware, Trunks and Valises, Pocket Cutlery, &c., &c.
 Sold very low either for cash, or to prompt paying customers on time.

Furniture Warerooms.
FRED GRAF,
 HAVING purchased the entire interest of G. H. Collar in the late firm of Graf & Collar, in the furniture business, takes this opportunity to return his thanks to the citizens of Albany and vicinity who have so generally patronized him in the past, and respectfully asks a continuance of the same. All kinds of furniture kept on hand and manufactured to order at lowest rates.
 Sold very low either for cash, or to prompt paying customers on time.
FRED GRAF,
 Albany, Nov. 12-28v5

PHOENIX Livery & Feed Stable
 CORNER WASHINGTON & FIRST STS.,
ANS. MARSHALL, Proprietor.
 CARRIAGES, BUGGIES, HACKS & SADDLE horses to let on reasonable terms. Horses boarded by the day or week. I will have some of the finest ever turned out of a livery stable in Albany.
 For Hacks and carriages furnished for funerals. Give me a call when you want to ride.
 Albany, March 11, 1876-21v8

HARDWARE!
TOOLS, all sizes and descriptions, & general SHEET HARDWARE—A full and complete assortment.
Stoves, Tinware, Pumps, Hose.
Tin, Copper, Zinc and Sheet Iron, on hand for sale.
CROCKERY WARE,
 The largest and most complete assortment in the city.
 Repairing done neatly, at short notice.
J. GRADWILL,
 First street, Albany, Oregon. 21v18

DR. PLUMMER, DRUGGIST,
Pure and Fresh
DRUGS AND MEDICINES!
Oils,
Perfumeries,
Toilet Articles,
FRUITS AND SHOULDERS PACKED.
 Prescriptions carefully filled. 21v15
New Millinery Store!
MRS. D. STEVENS,
 HAS moved into the store recently occupied by Mrs. C. C. English, on First street, adjoining the Drug Store, where she has opened out her select stock of Fashionable Stock of Millinery Goods, and small home-made in line and adjoining line. She can give the fullest satisfaction to all who give her their patronage, and would therefore respectfully solicit a share of the same.
 MRS. D. STEVENS.
 Albany, Nov. 19-29v11

W. R. GRAHAM,
 (LATE OF MEMPHIS)
Merchant Tailor,
 KEEPS always on hand Dressing, Cassimeres, Vestings, etc., a larger and better stock than in any other place in the market. Cuts and makes to order all styles of clothing for men and boys, at reasonable rates, guaranteeing satisfaction.
 Shop on First street, next door to City Market, lately occupied by Dr. E. C. Smith. 21v8
G. W. WILCOX,
Homeopathic Physician.
 OFFICE with Dr. E. H. Griffin, First street, Albany, Oregon. 22v Chronic diseases a specialty.

FRIENDS! CITIZENRY!! COUNTRYMEN!!!
LEND US YOUR TRADE!
 We have just opened out a NEW and fresh assortment of
GROCERIES, PROVISIONS,
 &c., in Dr. Tate's new brick, First street, where we would be pleased to serve you with any thing in our line.
 Our stock was selected in San Francisco, by MR. JOHN BARROWS,
 well known in this city, and we feel safe in Guaranteeing
 satisfaction to all who favor us with their patronage.
 We will endeavor to keep on hand a full supply of Fresh Vegetables,
 in their season, at all times.
 You are invited to call and see us.
 Albany, May 5, 76-33 TILLEN & TATE.

EVERYBODY BUYS THEM.
HAVING JUST RECEIVED A LARGE SHIPMENT of the celebrated new style Combined Drill and Broadcast
STATSMAN GRAIN DRILL,
 direct from the factory, am now offering extra inducements to the farmers of Oregon. Most of the best farmers in the State and adjacent Territory have purchased these drills, and are well satisfied with them.
 Selling seed and an increased yield of grain is the result of drilling.
 Can be used equally well as a
Drill or Broadcast Seeder.

FRANK WOOD,
 March 21, 1876-28
D. E. N. BLACKBURN,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
 BROWNVILLE, Linn Co., OGN.
PROMPT ATTENTION GIVEN TO ALL business. 22v9
J. C. POWELL & F. FLINN,
Powell & Flinn,
 Attorneys & Counsellors at Law and Solicitors in Chancery,
 Albany, Oregon. Collections made and conveyances promptly attended to. 1st
PROMPT Delivery, at Living Rates.
 HAVING bought out the delivery business of Mr. Lewis S. Johnson, I beg leave to announce to the citizens and business men of Albany, that I have on the street an express and job wagon and will be happy to carry all who may give me a call. I will be promptly attended to at reasonable rates.
 Orders may be left at the Drug Store of Bell & Parker.
VIRGIL PARKER.

Lebanon Hotel,
S. H. CLAUGHTON, PROPRIETOR,
 LEBANON, OREGON.
 HOUSE newly furnished throughout. The best in the neighborhood always on the table. The post office is next door to this House, from which the stage leaves for Albany at 7 o'clock A. M., and returning arrives at 6 o'clock P. M. Conveyance provided for parties wishing to visit the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, and adjoining room, with choice reading matter, for the guests of the house. 21v16

CHAS. BOURGARDES,
WATCHMAKER & JEWELER,
 Corner First and Ferry Sts.,
 ALBANY, OREGON.
 Watches, Clocks, Silver and Plated Ware, and Jewelry of every description and of the best manufacturers, on hand for sale at fair rates.
 Cleaning and repairing Timepieces a specialty.
 Jewelry, etc., repaired and cleaned on short notice at living rates.
 Give me a call, and see for yourself. 23 March 5, 1876-21v8

J. H. BURKHART,
Real Estate and Conveyancing Agent,
 ALBANY, OREGON.
 CORNER FIRST AND BRADSHAW STREETS.
FARMS of all sizes, improved and unimproved, in this and adjacent counties, suitable for grain raising, also timbered land and stock ranches for sale on easy terms.
 Also for sale a number of dwelling houses and vacant lots in this city.
 Parties desiring to either sell or purchase should call and learn terms and prices before purchasing elsewhere. 22v8
J. D. McFARLAND & W. MORGAN,
MORGAN & McFARLAND,
REAL ESTATE AGENCY!!
 AND
EMPLOYMENT OFFICE,
 Next Door to Wells, Fargo & Co's Express Office, Albany, Oregon.
WE ARE PREPARED TO FURNISH Emigrants and others good bargains in farms and lots in this and adjacent counties. Also, city property, both improved and unimproved.
 Renting farms and city property, and collecting rents, promptly attended to.
 Our facilities for advertising will enable us to do more for our patrons than any other Agency in the State or West.
 We also pay special attention to the employment and labor exchange department.
 Albany, May 12v.

Albany Bath House & Barber Shop.
 THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD BE PLEASED to inform the citizens of Albany that I have moved into the new building on Ferry street, next door to Taylor & Co's Saloon, where a good workman will be ready to attend to all who may favor him with their patronage.
 Dec. 11, 1874. JOE WEBB

G. A. WHITNEY, M. D.,
 Graduate of Bellevue Hospital Medical College, N. Y.
Physician and Surgeon,
 ALBANY, OREGON.
DISEASES OF WOMEN A SPECIALTY.
 Residence in Westlake's building, corner of First and Lyon streets. 4-18
J. LINSEY HILL, M. D.,
 OFFICE—At Bell & Parker's new drug store. RESIDENCE—Second street, between railroad and Montgomery. 8-44

JOB PRINTING.
 When you wish Posters, Visiting Cards, Business Cards, Bill Heads, Letter Heads, Envelopes, Ball Tickets, Programmes, Labels, PRINTING HOUSE, Horse Bills, Circular, Pamphlets, or in fact anything in the Printing Line, call at the
ALBANY REGISTER
 CORNER FERRY & FIRST STS.,
ALBANY.

OUR NEW YORK LETTER.
POLITICAL—BUSINESS—THE CENTENNIAL—THE FOURTH IN THE CITY—A REFORM INCIDENT—THE CHURCHES.
 NEW YORK, July 14, 1876.
POLITICAL.
 The Democracy of New York are the sickest set of men that ever lived. The nomination of "Slippery Sammy," does not strike them at all favorably, and they have, at this early day, given up all hope of electing him. The fact is, they see that the American people are not ready, as yet, to place the government in the hands of a party so soaked in corruption, so utterly unworthy of confidence as the Democracy, as it is now constituted. Some raw will be made to carry congressional tickets and local offices, and some powder will be burnt, in consequence, over the presidential nominees; but no one has an idea that Tilden has any reasonable chance of success. Betting men are offering odds that Hayes will carry New York, and they find no takers. The decent portion of the Democrats have got tired of spending money for the purpose of placing speculators in the best offices, andordes of unnaturalized Irish in minor places. The business men of the city know that Tilden's nomination was the result of a bargain and sale between his supporters and the inflationists of the West, and altogether, there is demoralization in the Democratic camp that is very encouraging to those who want good government. And speaking of political matters, I wish every Republican in the United States could see the "Sunday Democrat," a paper which Tilden's money supports, and which is the organ of the Irish end of the party. To make sure of the support of the Irish Democrats, it has a portrait of Kerman, the nominator of Tilden, right over a prominent portrait of Tilden, with this inscription: "A Catholic statesman, Senator Kerman, the nominator of Gov. Tilden." This is a bid for the support of the Catholics—an assurance to them that Tilden is fairly in their hands, and that, in the event of his election, they will, in national matters, have the same consideration that they have always had from him in the other positions he has filled. Without the Irish-Catholic vote in this city, the Democracy is nothing; to get the Catholic church must be conciliated in the most substantial manner. The gorgeous cathedrals, churches, monasteries, and convents, all on ground which Democratic politicians filched from the city for them, and which are more than half supported by grants from the public treasury, attest the price the Democracy has paid for their votes.

The Republicans of the city are not only confident, but entirely jubilant. The nomination of Hayes and Wheeler they accept as the best that could have been made, and more than that, as all that was desirable. Clubs are being organized in all the wards, and the best men in the city are taking hold of the work. While it is impossible to carry the city, the Democratic majority will be so reduced as to make the state absolutely certain for the Republican ticket. The Liberals are, as a rule, in line again, and thousands of Democrats will vote the Republican ticket for the first time in their lives. The north part of the state where Mr. Wheeler resides will give the largest majority for the ticket ever known, and will itself, more than balance all the frauds that can be perpetrated in the city. The outlook is excellent here; see that you do your duty everywhere else.

I hate to write that word, for there is no such thing in New York. The wholesale merchants are doing little, the retailers are doing less, except the little sport they had in Fourth of July goods, and the other trades are dead as snuff. "It will be better after the Fourth," was the hopeful thought, but it is worse than before. And even the lawyers are feeling it. The courts have all adjourned, and the poor lawyers have all gone into the country, where they can live cheaper and get a breath of fresh air, and wait till cooler weather enables them to come back and pluck their clients with more comfort to themselves. Altogether New York is a miserably dull place just now, and will be for the next two months.

THE CENTENNIAL.
 Drew off its thousands from the city this week. All business was closed from Saturday at three to Wednesday morning giving the New Yorkers three good days to see the great show. It is estimated that forty thousand people from this city alone were in Philadelphia, enjoying the Exposition. If any slight-seeing can be called enjoyment with the thermometer at 104 in the shade. The heat was intense. Members of military organizations in the grand procession dropped in the streets, and the suffering of the multitude that lined the streets was awful. The show was the biggest that ever took place in the United States, except, perhaps, the New York procession. All the trades were represented, and the city was as gorgeous as could be. Every building, public and private, was profusely decorated, and at night the city was one blaze of light. Such a display was never seen before, and never will be again for a hundred years.

Speaking of the Centennial, don't delay your going. In September the city will be crowded, and if it is hot now, you have the advantage of the more room to yourself. At this rate you can afford to go now, and take it leisurely. Don't think of staying away. It is the biggest thing that will occur for another century. There are miles upon miles of the finest works of art in existence—there are the best works in the world, and everything the world uses, from all the nations on the globe, and no one can afford to miss the education the view affords. Come, and come now. Come while the city is so empty that the landlords are anxious to see you, and will do something to make you comfortable. And come to stay a little while. Come prepared to see it all at your leisure, and be careful that you do see it all before you leave. I have said.

THE EVE OF INDEPENDENCE.
 The Fourth of July began the night before. Sunday and Monday passed off very quietly, the boys holding their crackers and fireworks in reserve, but many of the shops gave their employees holiday from Saturday afternoon. About five in the afternoon of Monday business was virtually at an end. At nine in the evening Broadway was full of people, in the street and out of it as thick as they could stand. The denizens of the east side of New York that hie in their lodgings and workshops at all times save holidays, came out with Germans with wife, children and baby, the Irish boys and girls, fleet-footed and fleet tongued, and stood around, cheerful and persevering, or sat on steps and curbstones, till the great show should begin that would be an event in their lives. At nine the signal for the illumination was given. The buildings were gay and a-dazzle with flags since morning, when Broadway looked as if all the butterfies of the world had settled upon it in the sun. And now, looking down the street miles away where it sinks to the harbor, as far as one could see, a calcium light shone, a great blazing star in the firmament of the sky, and below wound a river of fire, tossing glittering waves of flame, that reach till lost among the tall buildings of Central Square. As a spectacle, of unworldly magnificence, the effect was exciting and the prodigious wonders of magic and romance seemed possible in that wild blazing night.

THE PROCESSION.
 It was a soft and splendid evening, a perfect moon rose high, as if to mark the splendor below, a fresh breeze blew up from the bay, and through that Gulf of people miles on miles up town went the torch-light procession, first a city troop, in full uniform, in column by company—a gallant sight. The finest of all—not the aristocratic Seventh Regiment or the petted Twenty-second, but the old Seventy-ninth Highlanders, disbanded, who had begged permission to come out with the other troops. From Major-General Ward, who stood at the head of the Third Brigade, the beau-ideal of a soldier, high, courageous, impassive from sword-belt to chapane, every one of those eagle-faced black Scotch men who marched with a dagger in his garter, they were the very make of soldiers, and men for any command. The German troops were fine looking soldiers, and in their spiked helmets and close blouses, looked as if they still owed allegiance to King William. The Cuban societies made a fine impression for so small a body of men, their dress and bearing unmistakably that of gentlemen, and it was pathetic to see their beautiful colors—another red, white and blue—carried in honor of a country which celebrated the independence they were struggling to achieve. The Irish, proud, handsome faces that marched in the spirit of the hour, as they flashed back the gayest repartee to the cheers and jests of the crowd.

MIDNIGHT.
 There was such a noise by the crowd that the chiming of the bells lost its effect, and the shouting of the eight hundred members of the German choral societies was unheard. People stood packed around the sidewalks, and in the center were filled in the center with military and from the four angles a bombardment of fireworks was kept up for an hour that made the place little less than hell to the sight. There were the accompaniments of women fainting, and pickpockets making organized rushes to drive people into the corners where they could work their better, while the cannon roared, which seem the favorite pyrotechnic this year, dulled the boom of the guns from the North and East rivers. One wondered how the children stood it, for there were hundreds of babies in arms whose mothers could not stay at home and dole. Next day, Broadway was a quiet street, and the city was a quiet one. At evening, a beautiful night from the Battery finished the day, with a stroke of national glory. Heavy clouds gathered in the west, betokening a storm, but as the first gun was fired at sunset, the light broke through, and the arch of cloud shone an arc of glory, under which the smoke and thunder of salute from forts and ships down the harbor and up river, answering and echoing—fitting close of such a day, and fitting honor to the memories it celebrated.

The casualty list was very small considering the vast number on the streets, and every where else, engaged in exploding of combustibles. Occasionally a boy would get a bullet in his pistol, and that bullet would kill or maim, and occasionally a girl's clothes would take fire from a building, and she would burn to death, a few buildings were burned, and an occasional pyrotechnist was blown up, when the dynamite. But, after all, the accidents were comparatively few, and the city has reason to congratulate itself. The day, or days, rather, passed off comfortably, all things considered.

ONE REFORM INCIDENT.
 Two years ago the "Reformers" who are now supporting Tilden appropriated $50,000 to improve Tompkins Square. One year ago $50,000 more was appropriated making it all $100,000. What was done with it? Tompkins Square is to-day a dust pile, with no pretence of grass, fountains or anything else. The $30,000 were stolen by Tilden's "Reformers" the same as a million of dollars were stolen before. If the Republicans outside of the city could only know what a lot of thieves the "Reformers" who went to St. Louis really are, they would work day and night for their defeat.

THE CHURCHES
 are, like the business houses, in a state of suspension, during the hot weather. The pastors are all off in the country, or down by the sea-side, taking the rest that some of them have earned. Henry Ward Beecher spends his vacation in the White Mountains. Hepworth goes down to the sea, and "Tyn" goes to the coast, the latter in summer in his gospel tent, up-town. By the way this idea of Tyn's is a good one. He noticed that the sinners did not go to the Hippodrome last winter—that the pious were there. As the sinners would not come to Tyn, Tyn proposed to go to sinners. So he goes up-town right in the Hippodrome, and he erects an immense tent, something like a circus tent, he had his skinners going about pulling the ropes, and he preaches there every day. He is doing a good work. The hardened reprobates of the worst part of the city are brought under gospel influences, and very many of them have been induced to lead better lives. Tyn is a hearty supporter of Peter Dwyer and Jerry McAuley, who are hard at work among the worst people of the down-town part of the city. Tyn is an honest, eloquent, conscientious worker for good, and deserves all the good things that are said of him.

AN HONEST ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—The Democrat says, speaking of Gov. Hayes: "He is an amiable man, we all know; a man integrity, we are free to allow; a plous man and a respectable citizen. But that is not the sort of a man we wish for President at this time, when required in White House, and a great work of reform needs to be undertaken."
 This is true, of course, just what we have said all the time: Hayes is an honest man, a man of integrity, and therefore "not the sort of a man" the Democrat and party for whom it speaks, "wish for President." Every sensible man in community knew this before, but no one expected the Democrat to show its hand in this manner.

Hayes's principal claim to the Presidential chair is, that he belongs to the Republican party and never stole anything—Democrat.
 Very True. And Tilden's principal claim to the Presidential chair is, that he belongs to the Democratic party and has acquired a colossal fortune by robbery and extortion.

LUCKY QUARTZ.—Mr. W. H. Goltra returned from a tour of Southern Oregon last week. Mr. Goltra is interested in the noted Lucky Quartz quartz ledge, and of course, while in Jackson county visited the mine, bringing back with him some fine specimens of the rock, which we had the pleasure of examining last Monday. The gold is very plain to be seen in the quartz with the naked eye, and we should not be surprised if the lucky owners made their bonanza out of it. Rock has assayed, from various portions of the ledge, from $10 to $3,500 per ton, as we are informed. The Superintendent offers to crush the quartz for $4 per ton. We wish the lucky owners of the mine, among whom are Messrs. Goltra, Straud, Price, and others, the best of success with their shares.

SOLD.—The Demos Beach property, sold on Friday, brought $170; was purchased by Mr. S. Montgomery. The dwelling sold for $150 and the barn for $20. The new public school-house, to be erected in place of the old building, is to cost $1,100. The contract was let to Messrs. Berraw & Mills.

CANGED OF PROPRIETORS.—The Portland Evening Journal has been sold to Tony Nolmer, and will hereafter be known as the Evening Standard. Nolmer is a clever gentleman, is an old and experienced newspaper man, and will doubtless get up a good paper. We wish Tony way up success, financially.

GOSE TO PORTLAND.—Mr. C. P. Hugue, of Seald, came to this city on Monday, en route for Portland, where he intends to hang up for the future. We wish Charley the tallest success in any business enterprise he may undertake in his new home.

The Democrat man has taken down the diaper he had strung on a line from the office across the street. It was like Tilden and Hendrick's chances in the coming canvass—a very small affair.

A few days ago our young friend, Arlin Monthey, was the recipient of a splendid birthday present, a gold watch and chain, presented by his father, Thomas Monthey, Esq. It was Archie's twenty-first birthday.

Prof. Newell, of Portland, arrived in our city last week. The Prof. proposes to take up his residence in this city, engaging in teaching the delightful science of music, in which he has few equals.
 Business has not been the briskest in the world during the week, but harvest is rapidly approaching, when merchants, doctors, blacksmiths and everybody expect to reap their reward.

Col. Wilson and Mr. Habersham are expected to visit the Upper Willamette during the present week, to examine the work done in the river by the snag-puller, etc.

There is nothing mysterious about the disappearance from the skin of eruptions, burns, scalds, bruises, ulcers and sores through the influence of Clean's Sulfur Soap. Sulfur is a potent purifier and healer of the skin and is most beneficially utilized in this form.

The snag-puller under command of Capt. Geo. Smith, was yanking the snags out of the Willamette, in the vicinity of Corvallis, at last account.

Rule Saltmarsh and family start for Jackson county in a few days, partly for pleasure and partly on business.

Mr. C. H. James, of Portland, made us a pleasant call on Saturday.
 Messrs. Tyler & Tate have an excellent quality of sugar.
 S. E. Young shipped over 500 pounds of fresh butter one day recently.
PERSONAL.—Mr. Jackson, of the Eugene Journal, made us a brief call on Monday.

FATE.
 BY MRS. HART.
 The sky is cloudy, the rocks are bare,
 The spray of the impetuous waves in air,
 And the lion's wings are raised at play—
 And I shall not tempt the sea to-day.
 The trail is narrow, the wood is dim,
 The panther clings to the sparkling limb,
 And the lion's wings are raised at play—
 And I shall not join the dance to-day.
 But the ship sailed safe over the sea,
 And the lion came from the chase in glee,
 And the town that was built upon a rock,
 Was swallowed up in the earth's abyss.