SPLENDID AND TELLING EFFORT

Last Saturday there was a large Republican massmeeting held at Danville, Indiana, at which Senator Booth, of California, made a short but splendid speech. This is the account given by the telegraph:

The Republican candidate for Governor, Gen, Harrison, spoke first. "Mr. Tilden's letter of acceptance is very frank and very plain;" so we are told, and yet the Democratic politicians in Washington are quarreling over the meaning of his financial utterances. And both sides are able to fortify themselves, and confound the other, by quoting from the document!

PURITY FROM A DEMOCRATIC STANDPOINT.

The Democratic cardidate for the high office of President of the United States is at the present time one of the defendants in an action brought in the Supreme Court of the State of New Alton and Terre Haute Railroad while acting as one of the directors therefor. A few weeks ago, when this case came on for trial, Tilden procured its postposement till the first of October pext. Notwithstanding this fact, such journals as the Democrat assert from week to week that "Filden is absolutely without spot or blemish in both private and public life," thus giving us to understand that, from a Democratic standpoint, a Democrat is considered pure of del'ars!
