MUSTANG LINIMENT.

WHICH HAS STOOD THE TEST OF 40 YEARS.
There is no sore it will not heal, no lameness it will not cure, no ache, no pain, that afflicts the human body, or the body of a horse or other domestic animal, that does not yield to its magic touch. A bottle costing 25c. 50c. or $1.00, has often saved the life of a human being, and restored to life and usefulness many a valuable horse.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Dull is no name for the appearance of our city since the adjournment of Conference. A minstrel troupe is approaching the city.

"Watermillions," at three bits, are gregarious. We hear ever now and then of a case of "fever'n ager" hereabouts.

Mrs. Lou Allison is very ill, we are sorry to learn. We are again indebted to Congressman, L. Lane, for favors.

Chas Stewart is present local on the Democrat. The feeling in favor of building the Yaquina Railroad is daily gaining strength in Linn county.

Rev. S. S. Van Dersal and family expect to remove to their new home some time next week. Jay Blain and party returned on Monday, having had the "best time in the world" while at Yaquina.

Our old friend E. Cartwright, Esq., of Salem, formerly of this city, made us a pleasant call last Friday. Work has commenced on Sam Miller's new brick, corner of Ferry and Second streets.

We are under special obligations to Mr. James Finlayson for a half-bushel of splendid, large, ripe plums. Hon. Geo. R. Helm, who has been ill so long, is some better, we are glad to hear, with a hope of recovery in time.

Rev. J. F. DeVore, the new pastor of the M. E. Church in this city, is expected to arrive here during the coming week. The Fruit Preserving Co. of this city has been running to its fullest capacity the past two or three weeks.

Mr. Gradwohl has added several new lines to his large stock of well selected goods. Call and see what an excellent and varied stock he has on hand.

THE ELECTION—For officers of Linn Engine Company No. 2, to serve one year, occurs next Monday night. Every member should be in attendance. Friend Norton, local on the Democrat, who left this city on Monday, it is reported, will return no more, but will sling ink for the Statesman.

Albany Collegiate Institute opens while its doors next Monday, Rev. H. W. Stratton, President. This will be glad news to many. BORN—To the wife of Starr Mealey, August 27th, a Centennial "rooster," weighing "more as ten pounds." A good beginning.

H. H. Gale, Esq., editor of the late Grant County Express, is lying very low at Canyon City with that fell disease, consumption. MUTATION.—At a special meeting of Linn Engine Company No. 2, held at their hall Monday evening, a new Constitution and By-laws were adopted for the government of the Company.

Sam Miller has moved his old blacksmith shop far enough north of Second street, to permit the erection of his new brick two-story building, on the corner of Second and Ferry streets.

WARM.—For a few days during the week the weather each afternoon has been extremely warm, while fires were extremely comfortable in the fore part of the day.

APPOINTMENTS.—Rev. I. D. Driver, the old Methodist war horse, the ablest preacher and most vigorous thinker on the Pacific coast, was sent to Brownsville, in this county. Our old friend, Bro. H. C. Jenkins, six years ago pastor of Albany charge, goes to Monroe.

THANKS.—To those of our friends who have been and are now favoring us in the way of correspondence, we return hearty thanks, and ask them to keep up their links. Again we ask friends throughout the county to forward us "items" of news as often as possible.

THE NATIONAL BUSINESS COLLEGE—At Portland, under the guidance of those two eminent business men, Messrs. DeFrance & White, has grown to be one of the foremost educational institutions in the land. We can cheerfully recommend this College to the young men of the country who desire a thorough business education. See card elsewhere.

MR. EDITOR.—Please announce that the O. & C. Railroad will pass all ministers and delegates to and from the Annual Conference of the M. E. Church South, which convenes at Corvallis, September 13th, at full fare going, and on the certificate of the Secretary of the Conference, returning. We acknowledge the courtesy.

T. B. WHITE,
Pastor St. Paul's M. E. Church South.

MUSICAL.—Prof. G. P. Newell is now located in this city, occupying the residence on the corner of Third and Jackson streets, where he will be ready to receive pupils who desire thorough and competent musical instruction. Prof. Newell is one of the most accomplished musicians on the coast, and will give thorough satisfaction to all who may desire his services. See ad. elsewhere.

MARRIED.
August 28th, 1876, at the residence of B. F. Moore, in Halsey, by J. A. Pearl, J. P., Mr. B. W. Jenkins and Miss E. A. Beem—both of Lane county, Oregon.

Wagon and Carriage Shop, at the old stand known as the Peters & Spalding shops, where he has on hand the finest lot of end and side spring.

Two & Three Seated Carriages
never manufactured in the State. If you don't believe it,
CALL AND SEE FOR YOURSELVES.
I use nothing but Eastern Timber, and Warrant all Work

to give satisfaction, while my prices are most reasonable. You do not know how your wife and family would appreciate a ride in a well-made, handsome and stylish hack. Purchase one of Sam Miller's handsome new carriages, and you will pay less doctor's bills, and give your family more pleasure for which they will repay you a thousand times with their happy smiles. Call at my shops, corner of Ferry and Second streets, Albany, Oregon.
S. W. MILLER.

PEORIA ITEMS.

Perhaps a few items from this part of the county may interest some of your readers. The Government snag-boat, has been at work on the east channel, and has cleared all the snags out, which will be a great advantage to the grain producers in this community.

I have visited some of the hop-yards of this and Benton county. Mr. John McCoy has ten acres in hops, which will yield fifteen hundred pounds to the acre. This is Mr. Mc's second year in the business. Last year his crop didn't amount to much, but he don't feel discouraged. He is very busy at present, preparing to dry his crop. He has built a dry-house 40x40 feet, with two large furnaces. He pays 90 cents a box for picking. An average picker can pick five boxes a day, which is very fair wages these hard times.

Hon. I. N. Smith and Andrew Palmer, of Benton county, have twenty acres in hops, which is about as good as Mr. McCoy's, although the late rise in the river was a great hindrance to them in cultivating. Harvesting is very late this season, and the crops light.

Hayes and Wheeler are the only men spoken of for President and Vice President; there are no Tilden men here, or they are ashamed to own it. A. Y. S.

THE NEW MINISTER.—The pastor of the M. E. Church of this city during the past year, Rev. S. S. Van Dersal, was, by the late M. E. Annual Conference, sent to Forest Grove, while Rev. J. F. DeVore was assigned to the Albany charge. We part with brother Van Dersal with regret, as he is not only an able minister of the Gospel, but a faithful one, and, during his stay among us, has won the fullest esteem of this people. We wish him, in his new field of labor, a more profitable and pleasant year than his most sanguine anticipations may lead him to anticipate. Rev. J. F. DeVore is a most successful minister, a gentleman of high culture and most liberal attainments, and the Methodist society of this city feel most fortunate in having been so greatly favored in his appointment. We welcome brother DeVore and family to his new home among us.

Two back loads of pleurists started on Tuesday for Fish Lake. One crowd took a 44-gallon barrel along to bring trout home in. Messrs. Ankeny and Hale Backeato, of Salem, and one or more gentlemen from Corvallis, were in the parties. Our good-looking friend, Strauder Price, made one of the number, and agreed to furnish us ten or a dozen venison hams upon his return, so that we shall be well supplied with delicious dried deer for the winter. [This need not deter any of our friends from sending in venison, as we can easily get away with several dozen hams during the expected "long spell" of weather.]

One pound of green coppers, costing but a few cents, dissolved in one quart of water, poured down a water-closet, will effectually concentrate and destroy the toughest smells. If any animal, cat, mouse, rat, etc., die about the house, sending forth an offensive smell, place some dissolved coppers in an open vessel near the place, and it will purify the atmosphere. It is a simple, cheap disinfectant.

CHANGED.—Albany is now the terminal point of the West-side mail going south. Until to-day the mail from St. Joseph was despatched to Corvallis, laid over one night, and was then forwarded to this city.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Charles Plummer, nephew of Dr. O. P. S. Plummer of this city, arrived in this city from Rock Island, Illinois, on Wednesday. The Doctor will go into the drug business with his uncle. We welcome him to a home among us.

Workmen are busy painting and kalsomining the college building. New out-houses are to be erected, and a fence is to be placed around the four blocks comprising the college grounds.

Street preaching last Sunday afternoon in front of the St. Charles hotel, led by Revs. W. C. Chittin and R. S. Stubbs, was largely attended and proved very interesting.

McFarland has received a new invoice of Richmond ranges, the best range in the market.

John Briggs has a large stock of fruit cans and a full assortment of general tinware.

Billy Westlake and wife started for their home in Modoc county, California, yesterday morning.

Tyler & Tate have a most excellent stock of groceries, provisions, etc.

Fire election Monday night.

DEED.
On Willow Creek, Wasco county, Oregon, August 4th, 1876, of inflammatory rheumatism, Annie, daughter of Mr. H. A. Cleek, formerly of Benton county, aged three years.

She was a very intelligent and peaceful child while living, and exceedingly beautiful in death. Funeral services by Rev. H. B. Lane.

How to Vanquish the Stomach's Tormentor.
If the Buemy of mankind was permitted to exert his diabolical malignity in the invention of a new disease, he could scarcely devise one more worthy of his genius than dyspepsia. The dyspeptic sufferer is tormented by symptoms resembling those of almost every known malady, and is often worried into monomania by these confounding manifestations. A favorite though absurd hallucination of the victim of chronic indigestion is that he or she has heart disease. Dyspepsia has often been pronounced incurable, but experience has shown that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will vanquish it together with the constipation and bilious derangement which usually accompany it. Disease of the kidneys and supposed rheumatic pains are also frequent concomitants of dyspepsia, but they, too, succumb to the above named invaluable corrector.

The position of the Democracy on the currency question reminds us of the Democratic campaign banner in Pennsylvania, during the Polk and Dallas canvass of 1844, which was inscribed: "Free Trade and a Protective Tariff."

The first Democratic victory this campaign, was at Hamburg. The next will be from Kentucky.
