

MANIFESTATIONS OF 1861.

Every day's dispatches strengthen the evidence that the claims of the Democracy to success in the States of Louisiana, South Carolina and Florida, are founded on most stupendous frauds, amounting to the disfranchisement of whole sections of country; and as this fact becomes apparent the animus of the Democracy of 1861 manifests itself throughout the land.

Our neighbors does his regimentals and says "Democrats will never submit," to what the legally constituted authorities say is right. He even forgets his boasted States rights, and says, speaking of the Returning Board of South Carolina:

"We do not admit that they have the final decision as to who were chosen as Presidential Electors from that State. That question goes to a higher tribunal—the Congress of the United States."

These sentiments are put forth to pave the way to a justification of contemplated usurpations by the House of Representatives, which it is presumed will not balk at anything which may stand in the way of Democratic success.

The Portland Standard is equally anxious to display its bristles. It says:

"The Radical managers may as well understand the matters now as hereafter, that if Samuel J. Tilden has received an honest majority of the electoral votes of the United States, he will be inaugurated the next President. The Democracy of this country will submit quietly to an honest defeat, but to fraud they will not."

If Mr. Tilden has a fair and honest majority of the electoral vote, every Republican in the land will rejoice at his inauguration on the 4th of March next, in that the laws may be maintained. But if frauds and intimidation have prevailed in the States mentioned; if shot-guns and bulldozers have kept legal voters from the polls; if armed bands of desperadoes have taken possession of the ballot-box, and substituted Democratic or Republican majorities; if the blood of American citizens have been sacrificed that Democratic majorities may prevail;—if these things are found to be true, then our Copperhead neighbors may as well understand that the people will rise in their might, and, as in 1861, compel the blood-hounds of treason to equal and just laws, which shall be meted out even-handed to all men. These threats of our opponents will frighten nobody, neither will they enhance the success of their party. Bravo! is uncalled for. The laws will be enforced. The right will prevail.

ROUGH ON GROVER.

Telegrams from the East reported that Senator Kelly had sent a dispatch to his wife in Washington that the Presidential election in Oregon was very close, and that it would probably require the official count to determine for which party the State had gone. The Oregonian comments on this dispatch, in answer to which Senator Kelly publishes a card denying that he ever sent such a dispatch, and asserting it would have been idiotic to do so. In view of the fact that Grover is known to have sent just such a dispatch, the Senator might as well have called his successor an idiot. How singularly men will sometimes unintentionally express their true opinion of each other.

LUCKY QUEEN.

The Statesman of the 14th inst., says: "From Mr. Adam Assell, Superintendent of the Lucky Queen mine, we learn that there is now on the dump of that mine, fifty tons of rock taken out since the late rich strike, which will mill from $500 to $10,000 to the ton, besides 700 tons more which will go all the way from 1 to $1,500 to the ton. He also reports prospects very pleasing. He has tested the ledge now being worked sufficiently to satisfy himself that it is a permanent lead, averaging 4 feet in width, and one of the richest that has yet been found on the coast. The wood-work of the new quartz mill is complete, and as soon as the machinery arrives from this place the mill will be put together."

BUILDING.

Quite a number of buildings are going up in this city, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather.

FLAX—OREGON ANOTHER PEG IN ADVANCE.

On Wednesday evening Mr. Jesse Parrish called at our office, and exhibited a letter he had just received from Hon. A. J. Dutar, Oregon's Commissioner at the Philadelphia Centennial, which conveyed the information that the flax sent for exhibition by Messrs. Parrish & Miller had been awarded a medal and diploma, for "superior length, white, soft, and best adapted for linen manufacturing."

Thus it is that Oregon stands ahead in another and important article in the world's commerce. Among all the contributions from the flax-growing countries of the world, Oregon flax is awarded the first premium, on four several counts. This will certainly attract the attention of linen manufacturers to our State, when Oregon will become one of the great manufacturing countries of the world. The culture of linen-producing flax will pay much larger than wheat, and is a sure crop.

The limited experience so far with flax proves that Oregon is especially adapted to its culture; that it requires no greater amount of skill in the producer, than it does to raise wheat, and that it will pay much larger dividend than wheat.

A FORGOTTEN HOPE.

The Democracy seem persistent and untiring in their endeavors to get their candidate ahead. The extremities to which they are forced is deplorable indeed. Having become convinced that their shot-gun policy in the South is a failure, and is likely to rebound to their great shame, they are catching at straws in the North. It appears that some of the Republican electoral candidates in the North held country post-offices at the time the election was held. The Democracy are now claiming that as these parties are government officials, they are ineligible to become Presidential Electors. It appears that Dr. Watts, here in Oregon, has a Post-office up in Yamhill county. On the strength of these discoveries the Democracy are now claiming the election. Sorry is their case when a great party will resort to such a claim. While it may be true that a Postmaster cannot be an elector, it is no more true than that a Governor of a State cannot be a United States Senator. Gov. Grover, though U. S. Senator elect, continues to hold the office and receive the emoluments of Governor of Oregon; yet our Democratic friends see nothing wrong in that. All this amounts to nothing. It only shows the sorry extremities to which the Democracy are put for a lingering claim to success for their Presidential candidate. Pity the sorrows of a defunct party.

A REMEDY FOR SMALLPOX.—The following paragraph is taken from an English paper, written by a noted physician: "I am willing to risk my reputation as a public man if the worst case of smallpox cannot be effectually cured in three days, simply by cream of tartar. This is a sure and never-failing remedy: One ounce of cream of tartar dissolved in a pint of boiling water, to be drunk when cold at short intervals. It can be taken at any time, and is a preventive as well as a curative. It is known to have cured in a hundred thousand cases without a failure. I have myself restored hundreds by this means. It never leaves a mark, never causes blindness, and always prevents a tedious lingering. If the people would only try it and report all the cures to you, you would require to employ many columns if you gave them publicity."

ADVANCE PICTURES.—Those who think the Plutes are an unprogressive race are not acquainted with them. A News reporter saw five bucks in Virginia city deeply engaged in a game of draw poker. The most curious part of it was that the Indians used English almost exclusively in conducting the game. They asked one another to "ante" quite glibly. One even attempted to get off the venerable joke of "And then you won't have so much," but it was a miserable failure. Still one could see what he was driving at. "Gimme two," "gimme foah," and the usual Anglo-Saxon expletives which always accompany the progress of the national game, rose from the group. One who tried to fill a flush called down a curse upon "too much d—n hobtail!" They "raised" and "called" and raked in the pot with all the skill of white players.

We are informed that an intimate friend of our neighbor, M. V. B., reports that the specimen of poultry which has been making such a deplorable figure in the Bibulous Advertiser of late, is a very fair illustration of one the General brought home from Salem recently.

The Polk county Independence Telegram has suspended publication. Cause—want of patronage.

THE SITUATION.

We glean the following from the Eastern press as giving the best idea now attainable of the situation in South Carolina, Louisiana and Florida:

The Times in its daily bulletin says, in the general situation there is nothing but what is cheering to Republicans. They may rest in perfect confidence that Hayes is elected.

The Times' Columbia special says it is now said the Democratic managers have arranged to obtain an injunction from the Supreme Court to prevent the board from acting except in a purely ministerial capacity. From present appearances this would give the electoral vote to Hayes by 3,000, but would elect Hampton by less than 500, and give the Democrats the legislature and choice of a U. S. Senator in the place of Robertson. If the board is not restrained from hearing the contents of overwhelming evidence of fraud and irregularities, it will be sufficient to justify the correction of the returns from at least five counties which would give the State to the Republicans by not less than 8,000 majority, with both branches of the legislature. The census of 1875 shows that in Edgefield county there are 7,122 males, white and colored, over 21 years of age. Hampton is returned as having had 6,267 votes, and Chamberlain 8,103.

A Times Jacksonville dispatch says: Counties and districts which usually cast 300 votes all told, are coming in giving Tilden 600 majority when it is necessary for Tilden's election that he carry the State. Democrats from Alabama voted and railed at will, and when they supposed they had done enough, they made up such returns as suited their purpose, and then destroyed the ballots, poll lists and everything else.

A Times New Orleans dispatch says the result in Louisiana depends upon the vote of five parishes, and gives the following significant figures: The vote in 1874—East Baton Rouge: Democrats 1,558, Republicans 2,546; East Feliciana: Democrats 847, Republicans 1,688; West Feliciana: Democrats 501, Republicans 1,558; Morehouse: Democrats 654, Republicans 1,017; Ouachita 766, 1,694. Totals: Democrats 4,324, Republicans 8,303; Republican majority, 3,974. The registration of votes in the same parishes for 1875 is as follows: East Baton Rouge, 1,801 whites, 3,552 colored; East Feliciana, 1,004 whites, 2,127 colored; West Feliciana, 405 whites, 2,218 colored; Morehouse, 948 whites, 1,830 colored; Ouachita, 925 whites, 2,167 colored. Total, 5,074 whites, 11,894 colored.

The Times' Tallahassee dispatch says: One feature of the contest here which excites a great deal of interest is the difference between the vote cast for Tilden and that for the Democratic candidate for governor. The Democrats claimed that the difference would not be very great. Official returns received show that it is so great that if the Democrats have carried the State by a small majority, as is claimed by the Democrats, Tilden will be defeated by at least 400. This, it will be remembered, is a calculation from Democratic figures.

The Times' Columbia special says: Official returns from 27 counties are now in, and there are 5 yet to be received. It is pretty certain that on the face of the returns every candidate on the Republican State ticket will have a small majority, except Gov. Chamberlain. Should the board be prevented from investigating the frauds and violence perpetrated, the Democrats will have a majority in the house of Representatives, and this would close all hope of any contest by the Republicans, and the rifle clubs will have gained nearly all they fought for. A dispatch sent north from Charleston this afternoon stating that the Republicans had offered to return Hampton if the Democrats would concede the election of Hayes, is a falsehood to defame members of the board of canvassers, as there is nothing for the Democrats to concede in regard to the election of Hayes' electors. That is settled beyond question.

A Washington letter received from prominent Republican politicians in South Carolina represents the condition of affairs there as very serious. Many prominent Republicans he says have been threatened with death, and they have arrived at Columbia from the back country only by stealing away. The election in many counties was worse than over. Outrageous frauds were perpetrated and intimidation practiced upon Republican voters. In Abbeville, a strong Republican county, Georgia roughs surrounded the polls, and after voting themselves took tickets from colored Republicans, put Democratic tickets in their hands, and marched them to the polls, where they compelled the unwilling voters to deposit their votes for Wade Hampton and Samuel J. Tilden. In Oconee county the Democrats took down the names of all colored men who intimated a wish to vote the Republican ticket. In this way they intimidated hundreds. In Anderson county, where there is a large Republican vote, it is represented that but one Republican vote was polled. In Edgefield county, where the Republicans should have 1,600 majority, the Democrats claim 3,600. In 3d district, the returns insisted upon by Democrats, show a change of 10,000 votes, which is preposterous, and could not have been effected except by grossest frauds and intimidation.

GRAND OCCASION.

Next Wednesday evening, November 22, at College Chapel, the Episcopalian Society holds its fifth anniversary exercises, beginning at 7 o'clock. An admission of 25c will be charged each person. After the literary exercises, which include Jean Ingelew's Songs of Seven, music, vocal and instrumental recitations, etc., there will be an ice cream social. Of course everybody is invited, and everybody 'll go.

THANKSGIVING.

In our notice of the Ladies' Aid Society's Fair and Festival last week, the dates got mixed. The affair comes off on Thanksgiving evening, Thursday, November 30th, 1876, and as the proceeds are to be used for a noble purpose, in supplying the wants and alleviating the sufferings of the poor and needy in our midst, every citizen of the city will attend and aid in putting up a large purse.

IN BUSINESS AGAIN.

Mr. E. E. Blain has purchased the stock of clothing, etc., lately owned by Ben. Kolm, and started yesterday to purchase a new and complete stock of fall and winter styles. In a long and successful course of business in this city, no man stands higher for honesty, integrity and probity than Mr. Blain, and a more popular man on general principles don't live anywhere in the country.

WEAR GOOD CLOTHES ANTHONY.

If you voted with the majority, and therefore consider yourself an available candidate for a cabinet office or a post-office, you should manifest your satisfaction with the result by buying an elegant suit at WUELLER'S. If, on the contrary, you cast your ballot on the losing side, and feel "uncommon poor," you will be much relieved by following the same course. This prescription, like Vinegar Bitters, is good for all.

UNION SERVICE.

The pastors of the several churches of the city have made arrangements for a union thanksgiving sermon on Thursday, the 30th inst., at the Baptist church, and Rev. T. B. White will preach the sermon.

S. S. CONCERT.

The next S. S. Concert of the M. E. Church will be held on Monday evening, December 4th. Admission, 25c. Proceeds to be used in paying for the present library. A cordial invitation is extended.

GOOD ATTENDANCE.

The second quarter of the Collegiate Institute opened on Monday with about one hundred and twenty students. This is very flattering indeed to Prof. Powell and his able assistants.

LAYMAN'S SERVICE.

A layman's service will be held at the M. E. Church on Sunday evening next. Judges Piper, Miller and others will address the meeting.

MINISTERS PRAYER MEETING.

A ministers prayer meeting has been organized in this city, to meet each Tuesday at 2 o'clock P. M. The first service will be held at Rev. Dr. Irvine's, next Tuesday.

GOOD SINGING.

The singing at the M. E. Sunday School has greatly improved of late. The school is rapidly filling up. The Young Man's Bible Class now numbers forty-six.

RETURNED.—The long lost Democratic pot, Wm. M. Tweed, has been safely returned. It is said, in a good state of preservation, and as usual, is now living at the expense of the Treasury of New York. He is one of the legacies of New York Democracy.

BORN.

Saturday, Nov. 11, 1876, to the wife of C. C. Kuhn, a son.

Monday, Nov. 13, 1876, to the wife of Wm. Smith, four miles southeast of this city, a daughter.

The Fourth Congressional district is still in doubt and very close. Both Wiggington and Pascheco claiming the honors.

PROFESSIONAL.

Persons having occasion to call the assistance of the legal profession will do well to notice the card of Mr. F. M. Miller, in another column. Mr. M. is recently from Keosauqua, Iowa, from whence he comes well recommended, and we have no doubt will prove himself eminently worthy.

CHRISTMAS TREE.

The officers of the M. E. Sunday school have resolved to have a Christmas tree on the evening of Sunday, December 24th.

Condensed Lightning.

Hayes is entirely reconciled to his election. Republicans claim South Carolina by 7,616.

The New York Times says the elections in South Carolina are for Hayes without question.

S. W. Cobb is President and N. E. Clements Speaker of the House of the Alabama Legislature.

The N. Y. Tribune of the 14th says it will surely be another week before the result can be known.

New York pool room proprietors announce that they will pay no bets until the result is absolutely known; probably the 4th of March. Meantime something like four millions of money is locked up.

The London Times thinks peace in Europe is assured.

Advices from Nova Scotia report several shipwrecks.

Turkey is about to issue its third million of paper money.

Russia has given large orders to Berlin for military exports.

Russian securities are greatly depressed in the London market.

Several English officers, of the Engineer Corps, have arrived in Constantinople.

The ship Agnes Oswald, from Glasgow to San Francisco, is believed to have been lost at sea.

The corrupt officials of the Moscow Commercial Loan Bank, have nearly all been sentenced to exile.

The Czar has ordered a mobilization of the Russian army, notwithstanding he says he does not wish war.

Three men were killed at Bell's Cove, Canada, on the 14th, by the caving in of the roof of a copper mine.

By the wreck of the ships Orontoco and Carolina Agnes, nine persons were drowned, and two lives were lost by the burning of the theater at Madrid.

The Manhattan mine of Nevada, shipped $13,000 worth of bullion on the 14th.

Rev. Parshal, of Oakland, sees the committee of the First Baptist church of Oakland, for $100,000 damages for slavery.

On the 14th the stage from Eureka to Hamilton was stopped and robbed of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s treasure box, containing $500 in cash by two masked men. No passengers on board.

On the 14th inst. the citizens of Red Bluff, California, and vicinity celebrated the completion of the bridge across the Sacramento at that place—the only tree bridge which spans the river.

About 15 negroes have been brought to New Orleans to swear that there was fraud and intimidation.

J. A. Maguire, acting P. M. of New Orleans, says that Hayes and Packard will be elected by 3,000 votes.

Republicans claim although the name of one of their electors was left off in one precinct in Wisconsin they have elected the full ticket.

Interest in New York City saving banks reduce the rate of interests on deposits to 4 per cent. after the 1st of January.

Several telegraph operators have been discharged by Orton in Florida for letting Democrats read Republican dispatches.

New York Republicans think Blaine will be elected President of the Senate immediately on the re-assembling of Congress.

Counties and districts which heretofore polled only 300 votes, according to the dispatches, give Tilden 600 majority.

J. W. Watts, of Lafayette, and H. M. Solace, of Bridgeport, postmasters, have resigned in order to act as Presidential electors.

Virginia gives Tilden over 40,000 majority, and elects but one Republican Congressman. His election will probably be contested.

L. Cass Carpenter, of Columbia, says the Democrats claim Hampton's election by 1,300 majority. Republicans claim frauds.

It is rumored that the vote of Edgefield, South Carolina, claimed by Democrats by 2,500, has been thrown out by the returning board.

Cass Carpenter telegraphs from Columbia, S. C., that returns from 20 counties show that Tilden has run 1,800 votes behind.
