

It is a little amusing to hear Southern Democratic papers accusing Republicans of treason, rebellion, etc.

The recent cyclone in India lasted only twenty minutes, and yet in that brief space of time 251,000 people perished.

Sam. J. Randall, of Pennsylvania, the newly-elected Speaker, is a coarse man and a hard drinker.

The Chicago Tribune says the South is not "solid" for Tilden, but the Carolina rifle clubs, Mississippi shotgun plan, and Louisiana bulldozers came plugging near making it "solid" for him.

Much abuse and calumny has been heaped upon the head of President Grant, and much fault-finding and criticism indulged in both by friends and foes, but to-day the Nation rests in comparative ease upon the verge of a terrible gulf, simply because of the trust reposed in this quiet man who is at the helm of the ship.

On Friday, the 1st inst., at a meeting of the President's Cabinet it was decided to discontinue the postoffice at Granada, Mississippi.

A new play called "Our Boarding House" is running at a Chicago theater. We judge from the title that it is merely a rehash of old pieces.

Affairs in Eastern Europe wear a more threatening aspect than they did a few days ago. The proposals agreed to by the powers in conference and presented to the Porte, amounting in substance to a foreign protectorate over the Christian subjects of the Sultan, meet with bitter opposition and are likely to be rejected in Turkey.

Then there's the old-fashioned turkey dinner, with oyster soup and the et ceteras that go to make up a grand meal, at the Opera House on New Year's day, open from noon to 2 o'clock p. m., with a sociable in the evening.

MORE SENSATION.

A correspondent of the N. Y. Herald, the great sensational paper, solemnly announces that he, all alone by himself, has unearthed a scheme for the reconstruction of the Republican party in the Southern States, which if way up in the sensational line.

The field work will probably be completed in three or four weeks, and will include the typography of the country in the immediate vicinity of the proposed line and the hydrography of the river for a short distance above and below the Cascades.

The cold Winter of 1875, the doctors said, gave nearly everybody seeds of consumption; the hot Summer of 1876 has left the air full of malaria and fever, so it is declared. It is a wonder how we exist at all.

INSTALLATION CEREMONIES.—The officers elect of Albany Lodge, No. 4, will be installed at their Lodge room on Wednesday evening next, open to Odd Fellows in good standing and their families. After the installation, a sociable time will be enjoyed by all present—and three-linkers know just how to manage these things to a T.

ACCIDENT.—On the 21st inst., while Mr. Isaac Hayes was engaged plowing on his farm near this city, he left his team standing a few minutes, when they ran away. One of the horses, a valuable one, was badly injured by the plow cutting his legs. The animal, although badly injured, will probably recover.

LOST.—Last Monday, a small pocket-book, leather back, containing two notes of hand and one or more receipts. The name of the owner, B. A. McDonald, was written on the front and back of the book. Any one finding the book and leaving it at the Register office, will be properly rewarded.

A party up from Portland the other day in search of oats, said he could buy at less figures below; said he could obtain none at a less figure than 75c per bushel. This would seem to indicate a scarcity of the article hereabouts.

Don't forget to remember, or be backward in coming forward, this evening to the Donation Party at the M. E. Parsonage. Remember to "lotel" something along, too, as a remembrance. Bro. DeVore deserves a rouser.

DOUBLE THANKS.—We are indebted to our old friend, T. M. Humphreys, for a sack of apples and a sack of pomnd pears. Our old friend has our warmest thanks for his kind remembrance.

We suppose two thousand dollars would hardly cover the amount of money expended for Christmas presents placed on the different trees Monday night. The roads are better than usual at this time of year, but are quite sloppy at best. The Statesman complains that several students of the Willamette University behave highly unpriety in church. RELIGIOUS.—Rebecca Clawson will conduct the services at the Evangelical Church next Sabbath morning. Judge Piper went up to Eugene City on Monday, to install officers of Masonic Lodge. No snow till yet, and we are not anxious for any until next winter. The Central school-house is being remodeled and thoroughly repaired. Happy New Year to all. Markets so-so. Wheat strong at $1 per bushel. Schools all open again on Tuesday. Only two prisoners in jail at present.

Wheat in Liverpool 2d higher than last week's quotations. The Richmond Range is the waywrest article in its line ever built. Part. II. Allen, of Halsey, called on Wednesday. Mr. Allen starts out on a temperance canvass next week.

The Com. is down from Grassridge, looking as jolly and handsome as in the days lang syne. See the new advertisements in this issue. Business men appreciate the value of the REGISTER as a medium of communication between them and customers.

ON THE ADVANCE.—Price of wheat. Still on the backward—price for all kinds of merchandise, at Wheeler's store. Consult your own interest and go where you get the best value for your money or produce.

HANDSOME STOCK.—A more complete or handsome selection of stoves, ranges, tin and copperware, etc., will hardly be found in the State than to be seen at W. H. McFarland's, next door to Corner's Market. First street. Among the vast array of handsome and useful articles in tin, copper and iron, we noticed a new thing in stoves—an Oregon production, too, that we think knocks the persimmon. A visit to McFarland's will repay any one in need of anything in his line.

RESOLUTIONS. Adopted at the Brownsville Baptist S. S., on Sunday, Dec. 24th, on the occasion of the death of the three little children of H. R. and Mary Powell: WHEREAS, An insupportable providence has removed by death within the past two weeks, three of our number, Bell, Emma and Joseph, children of Bro. and Sister H. R. Powell; aged respectively seven, five and three years, thus bringing deep and heartfelt sorrow to the hearts of the entire school, and especially to the infant class, of which Bell and Emma were members, and in which little Joseph would soon have been admitted; and which places are now vacant, and to us must ever remain, but we feel in bow to the mandates of Him who said, "sorrow little children, and forbid them not, to come into me for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven"; and we know that our loss is their infinite gain; believing as the heart-grieved and stricken mother expressed it while looking for the last time upon the remains of her little ones while in the house, "My children have gone to live with God."

Resolved, That the school, officers, teachers, students and friends extend our sympathy to the bereaved parents, praying God to give them strength to bear their afflictions with christian fortitude. Resolved, That we deeply feel the loss which the infant class has sustained, and we sympathize with their bereaved teacher, Sister Sophronia Coshaw, who will look in vain for the return of her beloved students, who ever had for her a pleasant smile and a kind word; may she ever feel that there are fruits of her labors in heaven, and may the remainder of the class feel that there are new attractions in glory for them.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the parents and also a copy to the Albany papers, and request the publication of the same. A. W. STANARD, Ass't. Supt. MARRIED.

We Have IT. TODD'S DRESSED TERBA SANTA, OR, Mountain Balm, THE BEST REMEDY IN THE KNOWN WORLD FOR COLDS, DISEASES OF THE THROAT AND LUNGS, AND FOR RHEUMATISM.

Selected and gathered on the slopes of the Sierra Nevada Mountains. The leaf found in the hotter climates, when dry, contains fifty per cent. of resin or oil colored gum, the properties of which are stimulating and heating, and especially adapted to the wants of the system in case of Lung disease and Rheumatism.

The high estimate which the Spanish placed upon it on account of its medicinal qualities is unimpaired from the name they gave to it, many years ago, Yerbasanta, or "Herb of the Saints." The natives of Southern Oregon and Northern California have used it immemorially as a Rheumatic remedy. The white population in the region where it grows have used and prized it as a throat and lung medicine. For a time they called it Lung Weed; but give valuable testimony as to its virtues in curing Rheumatism.

When you open one of our packages, keep it excluded from the air as much as possible. I have used it in my family for four or five years, and regard it as one of the best family medicines we ever used. A chest full is manufactured from it in Chesham, and sold at 75 cents per chest. A single one of our packages make eight ounces of tincture, which is worth $5. The shrub from which this valuable medicine is gathered is only found in a narrow belt of country in Southern Oregon, and along the Sierra Nevada Mountains, and is supposed to have been gathered from Mount Gilend thousands of years ago, and has been extracted and sold in Egypt and in Tire before the times of Solomon.

Testimonial. Dr. Nicklin, of Eugene City, says: "Your Balm is one of the best preserved herbs I ever used, and worthy of a higher price than you put upon it."

Rev. S. K. Raymond, of Oakland, Oregon, says: "I went to California to recover from Consumption. The Doctors there gave me up, and told me if I had any friends I wished to see I had better go and see them; as I could live but a little while longer. On my way to Oregon I commenced using Mountain Balm; it helped me; I continued its use until it cured me of the disease."

Mr. W. T. Osborne, of Eugene City, says: "I know a young man who appeared to be in the last stages of consumption, and by using Mountain Balm or Yerbasanta he became a healthy young man."

Joseph P. Moore, Esq., of Milville, Cal., says: "I have been acquainted with the shrub known as Yerbasanta for 20 years, and know it to be a very valuable medicine, both for the Lungs and Rheumatism."

Mr. Kimball, of Kimball & Walton, Red Bluff, Cal., says: "I have been acquainted with the shrub known as Yerbasanta, for many years, and know it to be a great Lung medicine."
