THE ENEMY OF DISEASE!
THE FOE OF PAIN
To Man and Beast

MUSTANG
LINIMENT.
WHICH HAS STOOD THE TEST OF 40
YEARS.
There is no sore it will not heal, no lameness it will not cure, no ache, no pain, that affect the human body, or the body of a horse or other domestic animal, that does not yield to its magic touch. A bottle costing 25c. 50c. or $1.00, has often saved the life of a human being, and restored to health and usefulness many a valuable horse.

LOCAL MATTERS.
ADDITION TO ODD FELLOWS' LIBRARY.
—Mr. J. Briggs, Librarian of the Odd Fellows' Library, informs us of the reception, on Saturday last, of the following valuable works, all contributed by the Smithsonian Institute:
"Exploration of the Aboriginal Remains of Tennessee," by Joseph Jones, M. D., of N. Y.
"Raided Indians of Queen Charlotte Island, Straits of Fuca," by J. G. Swan, Port Townsend.
"Archaeological Collection of the U. S.
National Museum," Smithsonian Institute,
Washington City, D. C.
"Indians of Cape Flattery," by J. G.
Swan.
"Smithsonian Report, 1875."
"Brazil at the Centennial Exhibition, 1876."
"Brazil—Biographical"—three volumes,
by J. M. de Macedo.
These are all valuable and interesting works, and the typography unequalled.

REGON STYLE.—California papers ever now and then refer, in rather contemptuous terms, to the "Oregon style of journalism," as if it was not equal to the California style. From what we have seen of California journalism we are inclined to the opinion that if said journals would copy or imitate the "Oregon style" of to-day more fully they would be greatly improved in interest and appearance, and would largely increase their subscription lists.
We are certain that in a fair, unbiased criticism, the journals of Oregon will compare favorably in every way with the journals of any State in the Union. Give us a rest on "Oregon journalism," brother interests, and take lessons from them in typography, make-up and editorial ability.

CHANGE OF BASE.—It was resolved on Saturday night to discontinue the meetings at the Court House, for this week at least, giving way to the Women's Suffrage Association, and hold meetings each night in two of the churches of the city, hoping thus to keep up a good feeling among all classes and accommodate every one desirous of aiding in the good work that has been going on for weeks past.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.—Our citizens of the male persuasion have been unusually meek
since Tuesday, as on that day the advocates
of woman suffrage opened their batteries
at the Court House—in this city.

CONTRACTORS.—Messrs. Hochstedler & Zeiss have the contract for building the bell-tower for the M. E. Church. Work will be commenced soon.

A range that meets every requirement and satisfies every demand made upon it—the Richmond Range. It has no equal among stoves or ranges. The only place to get one is at W. H. McFarland's, next to the Bank.

SILVER WEDDING.—Mr. and Mrs. J. J.
Brown, of Seio, with numerous friends, celebrated their silver wedding on the 11th inst.

ELECTION AT WHEELER.—For a fair
election and an honest count, gotto Wheelers' at Seio.

FAIR TO GOOD.—An old boy always spelled needle, needle. He observed every needle should have an eye in it. Sew!

CIRCUIT COURT.—Meets on the 12th of next month. We understand there will be a good docket.

Mr. Beard and Miss Fanning were united in Marriage by Justice Wolrerton, last week, at his office in this city.

Saturday was the "rawest" day of the whole winter.

Physicians tell us that the general health in the county is improving.

Pacific Slopers.
Sleighing "red hot" at Colfax.
The streets are dusty in Boise City.
A town hall will soon ornament Colfax.
Furs are very scarce on the Spokane
among the Indians this winter.
They find "drum" and "edderberries"
only $1 and costs at Walla Walla.
The Kittitas valley rock assays $1,000 gold and $23 silver to the ton.
Deer are wonderfully numerous at the mouth of Moore Creek, near Idaho City.
Each resident of Ada county, has been taxed $2 for the support of a hospital.
Fresno, Powell & Co., have 1,500 barrels of flour on hand at their mill in Wait-sburg.
A "trick on travelers" called the "Centenial Game" is gathering in all the loose change in Idaho.
It is gratifying to know the Seattle jail has been dried out and is now ready for transient and permanent boarders.
Now that Mr. Cook intends running the Tacoma Herald and the Olympia Echo,
the Daily Echo will kick the bucket.
"Pedro" as a relaxation of the overworked brain, at Pendleton, has "petered." Mill. While will soon start his ten stamp mill on Conner Creek, Baker county.
Charles Miller & Co., of the Dalles, have bought the Monumental mine for $60,000.
The farmers at Weston are waiting for a good Chinook wind before doing their plowing.
The settlers of Spinal, the Stanzelish, and other points between the former and Seattle, are endeavoring to secure the establishment of three new post offices and a weekly mail service.
The Douglas Independent has an account of an exciting chase after a deer, in which Hon. W. F. Owens and another gentleman followed the buck over the rapids of the Unquaga river at Roseburg, in a small boat. Being hard pressed, the deer started down the rapids, and was immediately followed by the boat. The passage down the rapids was exceedingly dangerous—so much so that Mr. McCarty sprang from the boat to the shore, and refused to continue on the chase; but notwithstanding they were in the hole of being dashed against the rocks, the other party continued on,
and lassoed the deer just when it seemed they would lose him.

RANDOM RHYMES.
A Characteristic song has been discovered among the reidkins which shows that they know a thing or two better than some "male-faces." The song translated reads thus:
Let a man talk a very long time,
Let a man talk a very long time,
Let a man talk a very long time,
A hole he will bore in a rock.
As a writer on agricultural topics the old
"sage" of the Walla Walla Union coaxes
the best right out of the ground, as follows:
We yield the palm to Minnesota wheat,
Each April sown in;
But Oregon has raised the premium beat—
Its name is Cronin.
Another poet, speaking of a politician of some Western State who suddenly became notorious for his carelessness of reputation and a weakness for money, puts it in this way:
Ring, ring, ring the bell!
Cronin's going, going, gone to—well!
But as he went you could hear him holler,
"My soul it fetched three thousand dollar!"

VANITY.
The sun comes up and the night goes down,
And the day and the night are the same as one.
The year grows green and the year grows
brown,
And what is it all when all is done?
Grains of sand, or shining sand,
Sliding in and out of the hand.
And men go down in ships to the sea,
And a hundred ships are the same as one.
And backward and forward blows the breeze,
And what is it all when all is done?
A tide with never a shore in sight,
Setting steadily on to the night.
The fisherman droppeth his net in the stream,
And a hundred streams are the same as one.
The maiden dreameth her love-life dream,
And what is it all when all is done?
The burden of the net of the fisherman breaks,
And after the dreaming the dreamer awakes.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.—Our citizens of the
male persuasion have been unusually meek
since Tuesday, as on that day the advocates
of woman suffrage opened their batteries
at the Court House—in this city.
