Geneva (Switzerland) papers sometimes contain authentic and delicious bits of American information like this, culled from an Alpine sheet: "It is no longer denied that President Lincoln was murdered by General Grant."

John D. Lee, the great Mormon Elder and principal actor in the Mountain Meadow massacre, suffered the penalty of his crimes on Friday last, near the scene of the massacre. He died as he has lived, a fanatic. He has written a confession, so it is reported, and given it to the District Attorney, with the request to have it published after his death.

The confession of Eph Holland relative to the Democratic frauds in Cincinnati accounts directly for over 500 fraudulent votes, enough to oust Banning and nearly every Democrat in office in the county. He testifies that he was engaged as a matter of business by Banning, Wallace and other Democratic leaders to get votes by whatever means necessary, and he got them. Thousands of dollars were furnished repeaters from New York, Chicago and have been fulfilled. Pittsburg. His confession has made a startling sensation in Cincinnati. There is much disappointment expressed because Holland refuses to give the names of the Democrats in the East who furnished the money.

It is thought possible that England's want of decision may bring on a terrible war in the East, when, if she had acted promptly and as reason and humanity dictated, the matter would have been settled without bloodshed. The London Times says that the English Government has done nothing, promises nothing, and exhibits only distrust and condemnation of Russia. This being ally assumed such a position of antag. THE YAKIMA RESERVATION.

The Bee says the treaty with the Indians by which forty townships of splendid farming land in the Yakima valley, W. T., are set off to the said Indians, will expire in 1879-in two yearsand as there are probably not two hundred Indians at present making use of will either be thrown open or greatly reduced in size. The valley would accommodate a large number of farmers | New York. with prolific tarms. Forty townships is equal to a tract ten miles wide and sixty miles long, and contain 921,600 acres of land; which would provide eighty-acre tracts for 11,520 settlers. The Indians who now occupy, or rather prevent others from occupying, these lands could be easily removed to other reservations, and the valley which is now so desolate would soon become a garden of farms.

RUSSIA BUYS PLOWS.

One of the most noticeable of recent occurrences is the purchase of ten thousand American plows by the Russian Government to be distributed among the farmers of Russia. Southern Russia has hitherto supplied what is called the Black Sea trade, with wheat, being much nearer the market than we are, which gave them the advantage. But American wheat has displaced the Russian wheat to a great extent in the English market, so much so that the Russian farmer has to exert himself to hold even a portion of the trade. This has stirred the Russian Government up to use more diligence, and the plows have been secured hoping they will enable the Russian farmers to produce wheat more cheaply than heretofore, and thus compete with American producers.

Says a Columbus, Ohio, biographer of President Hayes: "He is large, robust and muscular, quick, but not nervous of movement or speech. His voice is a deep, strong, musical bass. His eyes are large, blue and kindly of expression. He wears his sandy beard full and carefully trimmed, here and there in it you notice a gray hair, as you do also in his full suit of closely cut brown hair. His form is full, but not corpulent; his teeth are white as ivory, and his features strong and well defined. His life has been so pure and reproachless that all good men and women respect him. He never uses tobacco or intoxicating liquors. He never uses profane language. He is candid, open, affable, and has no secrets; nothcharacter is above susp six bitter political campaigns in Ohio.'

AGREED AS TO HIS GUILT.

General Nesmith says he does not doubt Senator Grover's guilt for one moment, but he doubts whether the necessary proof will be brought forward to convict him.

W. H. Smith, Esq., of Harrisburg, has asserted time and again of late, in the most public manner, that he is able to prove to the satisfaction of any committee that Grover bought his way into the Senate. There seems to be no disagreement among Democrats or Republicans as to the guilt of Grover. All believe him guilty, but not a few are fearful that the testimony will be insufficient to convict. We shall see what we shall see.
