

LEBANON ITEMS.

Farmers seldom make their appearance on our streets, all busy plowing and seeding, and business in consequence is dull; nevertheless our merchants are getting up large stocks of goods, anticipating a good spring trade.

Wells, Fargo & Co. have established an office in our town, and our business men already begin to see the advantages derived from it.

Prof. G. P. Newell, of Albany, assisted by Mrs. Dr. Whitney, of Philomath, and members of the Prof.'s class in instrumental and vocal music, will give a grand concert on the 18th inst. A cordial invitation is extended to the general public to attend.

The new store of McCalley & Andrews, looks as bright as a new pin, and the proprietors are up to their eyes in business.

At a regular meeting of Lebanon Lodge No. 47, I.O.O.F., held on Saturday evening the 7th inst., S. A. Nickerson and Jas. M. Settle, P. G.'s, were duly elected Representatives to the Grand Lodge of Oregon, which meets in Portland next month.

The Odd Fellows of Lebanon will celebrate the 58th anniversary of Odd Fellowship in the United States at their new and elegant hall on the 20th inst., by giving a grand social. No pains will be spared by the several committees appointed for the occasion to make it a pleasant and edifying assemblage of the friends of the fraternity.

Ample refreshments will be prepared, and speeches and lectures will be delivered by prominent members of the Order. All Odd Fellows in good standing are invited to attend.

In justice to Hon. J. H. Mitchell, U. S. Senator for Oregon, and some of our enterprising citizens, whose exertions have been repeated and continued time and time again, we have at last been granted a daily mail by the P. O. Department on route No. 44,120, from Lebanon to Albany, and the service ordered to begin on the 15th of the present month, and our energetic and accommodating contractor, Wm. B. Douc, is carrying out the order to the letter and the spirit also.

The office of Wells, Fargo & Co., recently established here, is rendering valuable service to our merchants and shippers, and the advantages thus rendered are properly appreciated.

A brand new drug store will be in running order in a few days, under the supervision of Mr. S. Stiles, formerly in the employ of Dr. L. Foley. Mr. A. Gaines takes Mr. S.'s place at Dr. Foley's. Mr. Gaines is an affable, pleasant gentleman, and thoroughly understands his business.

Rev. W. B. Bishop, of Brownsville, presented a smiling countenance at our desk this morning, and reports all quiet at that place.

Mr. M. D. Ballard, formerly a resident of this county, but recently a merchant of Lincoln, Nebraska, is now sojourning with us, and may permanently locate. Mr. B. is well and favorably known by most of the old settlers of Linn county. His mother accompanies him on a visit to relatives and friends here.

Mr. F. M. Miller, of your city, has arrived with his goods and chattels, and will ere long assume his duties as principal teacher in our district school. Mrs. M. J. Wheeler has opened up a milliner and dress-making shop on Main street, opposite J. S. Cowan's store. Mrs. W. is mistress of the situation, and gives satisfaction to customers.

Notwithstanding the busy season for our farmers is at hand, our town was thronged to-day (17th) with wagons and horsemen from the country, who were made happy by the bland countenances and pleasant smiles of our merchants, who have fine stacks of goods to offer their customers. Notably is this the case with the elegant display of goods offered by Messrs. McCalley & Andrews.

Recent rains have rather checked the progress of the farmers in some localities, but the greater portion of the hardy yeomanry of the country are exercising their muscle to an unlimited extent, and a large amount of grain will be put into the ground in this part of the county, and a fine yield is anticipated.

Edkins Bros. complain that wheat is getting scarce, and difficult to obtain at the present fair price, notwithstanding the cry of hard times and the scarcity of money.

Mr. J. W. Bentley is opening a boot and shoe establishment next door to the post-office. Give him a call.

HARD CASE.—We have special reference to those persons who visited different residences last Monday morning just after three o'clock. They first went to Councilman Wyatt's residence and tried to get in, and when he demanded to know who they were and what they wanted, they said they wanted to find a hotel, and ordered him to come out and show them where to find one. He ordered them to leave, and to go at once—and they went. They called at Wm. Houston's, and when he ordered them off, they raised the old Harry around there, getting out on the sidewalk in front of the house and, calling him pleasant names, dared him to shoot. They visited Joe Weber's residence, Mrs. Lawless' and Fred Bant's, and probably other places—at each and every place showing the greatest audacity and cheekiness. Whether the parties were on a drunk or intended robbery, we can't say; but we know they should not have got off as easily as they did. And we opine if the same game is tried on again they will carry away—if they get away—handsome testimonials of their visit in the shape of leaden balls.

Frank Kelly, of Painter & Co., type dealers, San Francisco, called yesterday. He went to Roseburg on the noon train.

THE RICHMOND RANGE.—The Richmond range is King among cooking stoves, and no mistake. It is the most complete, best furnished, economical stove in the world, certainly. Every one who gets one of these stoves likes it, and speaks well of it. It economizes fuel, is a splendid baker, and looks well in kitchen or parlor. Call in at W. H. McFarland's, and secure a Richmond Range, and you'll never regret it.

From a Physician.
Hyde Park, Vt., Feb. 7 1876.
Messrs. Seth, Fowler & Sons, Boston.

Gentlemen:—You may perhaps remember that I wrote you several weeks ago in regard to the use of the Peruvian Syrup for my wife, who was suffering from general debility, the sequence of Typhoid Dysentery. I had tried the most noted physicians in this State, and also in Canada, without relief. At your recommendation she commenced the use of the syrup, the first four bottles made but little impression, but while taking the fifth she began to improve rapidly, and now, after using six of the dollar bottles, she has regained her strength, and is able to do most of the work about the house, and I feel that I cannot speak too highly in praise of the Peruvian Syrup. I have prescribed it to several of my patients, and have procured the sale of several of them. You can make any use of this letter you see fit. Yours very truly, H. D. Belden, M. D.

"It's Only a Cough."
Has brought many to untimely graves. What is a Cough? The lungs or bronchial tubes have been attacked by a cold; nature sounds an alarm-bell, telling where the disease lies. Wisdom suggests "try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry." It has cured, during the last half of a century, thousands upon thousands of persons. As long as you cough, there is danger, for the cough is a Safety Valve. Use "Wistar" and be cured. Sold by all druggists. april

The Richmond Range is a great wood saver, and as it throws out less heat than any other good range or stove, it is way up for Summer use.

Encouragement for the Feeble.
Debility, whether it be inherent, or caused by overtaxed strength, or protracted illness, has a most depressing influence upon the mind, breeding an abject melancholy nearly akin to despair, and enforcing the abandonment of cherished projects and high hopes. Happily, the entangled system, even in extreme cases, is susceptible of invigoration. It is proved by incontrovertible evidence that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is an untiring strengthener of the weak, and that in addition to vitalizing the physical organization, it establishes regularity among those organs upon whose efficient discharge of the duties imposed upon them by nature, continued vigor and health depend. Thousands of instances might be cited to show the regenerating influence of this health-giving agent in cases of debility, liver disease, dyspepsia, nervous ailments, constipation, intermittent fever, urinary and other troubles, gout and rheumatism, and other maladies. april

TO CONSUMPTIVES. The advertiser, having been permanently cured of that dread disease, Consumption, by a simple remedy, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all other lung troubles. Parties wishing the prescription will please address Rev. E. A. Wilson, 124 Penn St., Williamsburg, N. Y. (1875) ton329

PIMPLE.—I will mail free the recipe for "retarding a simple Vegetable Balm" that will remove "Pimples, Pimples and Blisters," leaving the skin clear and beautiful; also a recipe for "curing a luxuriant growth of hair on a bald head." Send for it. Address: Ben. Venable & Co., No. 521, No. 521, No. 521, New York. ton329

Errors of Youth.—A gentleman who suffered for years from Nervous Debility, Premature Decay, and all the effects of youthful indiscretion will, for the sake of suffering humanity, send free to all who need it, the recipe and directions for making the simple remedy by which he was cured. Sufferers wishing to be cured by his experience can do so by addressing in perfect confidence, JOHN B. COOPER, 32 Cedar St., New York. ton329

Remember This.
Now is the time of year for Pneumonia, Lung fever, Coughs, Colds, and fatal results of predisposition to Consumption and other Throat and Lung Diseases. BOEHRER'S GERMANY SYRUP has been used in this neighborhood for the past two or three years without a single failure to cure. If you have not used this medicine, go to your Druggist and ask him to send you a bottle of the wonderful success among his customers. Three doses will relieve the worst case. If you have no faith in any medicine, just buy a Sample Bottle of BOEHRER'S GERMANY SYRUP for 10 cents and try it. Regular size bottle 75 cents. Don't neglect a cough to save 75 cents. n1933

A CARD.
To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, and whose weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you. FREE OF CHARGE. A most successful remedy, discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a stamp to J. B. COOPER, 32 Cedar St., New York. ton329

The People Want Proof.
There is no medicine prescribed by physicians, or sold by Druggists, that cures such diseases as Consumption, Coughs, Colds, or that cures the Throat or Lungs. A proof of that fact is that any person who tries the Superior German Balm for 10 cents and tries it, will be cured before buying the regular size. It is sold in Germany, and its wonderful cures are attested by everyone that uses it. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sold by all druggists. n1933

When you can find gold-bearing quartz almost at your door that assays way up into the thousands, what's the use of undertaking the fatigue and deprivations of a trip into the "frozen regions," looking up silver-bearing quartz that will not pay when found, except under the most favorable circumstances? Consider this question.

"What is the danger of the hour?" asks an exchange. Well, the most serious danger we apprehend is that we may get "stuck" with one of those blanded counterfeit thousand dollar notes in circulation since greenbacks came up. It isn't the loss of the money—a mere bagatelle, of course—but it's the name of the thing we hate!

Now turn your carpet the other side up. Not that it makes any particular difference, but the women folks have got to have a little fun.

It was only the other day that an Indian laverick got even on the old woman in a manner that was charming to behold. The mother and son strolled into Sam's blacksmith shop, Sam having gone to dinner.

The old woman had a purpose strapped to her back, and possibly feeling tired, took her seat on what she in her ignorance took for dead coal. The boy saw his opportunity, and, alighting noiselessly behind the old woman, he commenced vigorously pulling at the bellows. In a moment as it were, from the efforts of that young rascal, a sheet of flame shot up from his maternal relative's seat. She (the mother) lingered not, but with a double adjective of original Swish on her offspring, she leaped out of that, and speedily reached for the big tub containing water that stands near the forge, and regardless of taste or expense dashed therein, immediately smothering the flames, while the cause of the trouble held on to his only "gallows" while he hurriedly datawaded out of the shop and around the corner.

Nothing is more easy than to get rich. It is only to trust nobody; to befriend no one; get everything and give all you get; stink yourself and everybody belonging to you; to be the friend of no man and have no man for your friend; heap interest upon interest, cent upon cent; be mean, miserable and despoiled for twenty or thirty years, and riches will come as sure as disease and disappointment. And when pretty nearly enough wealth is collected by a disregard of all the charities of the human heart, and at the expense of wallowing in filthy meanness, death comes to finish the work, the body is buried in a hole and the heirs quarrel over the money, and the spirit goes—where?
