Centaur
Liniments
[Letter from a Postmaster.]
"ANTHROP, ILL., Dec. 1, 1874."
"Messrs. J. B. Rose & Co.:
"My wife has, for a long time, been a terrible sufferer from Rheumatism. She has tried many physicians and many remedies. The only thing which has given her relief is Centaur Liniment. I am resolved to say this has cured her. I am doing what I can to extend its sale."
"This is a sample of many thousand testimonials received, of wonderful cures effected by the Centaur Liniment. The ingredients of this article are published around each bottle. It contains Witch Hazel, Mentha, Arnica, Rock Oil, Carbolic, and ingredients hitherto little known. It is an indisputable fact that the Centaur Liniment is performing more cures of rheumatism, Sciatica, Colic, Blisters, Lockjaw, &c., than all the other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves, Ointments and plasters now in use."
"For Toothache, Earache, Weak Back, Rich and Cutaneous Eruptions, it is admirable. It cures burns and scalds without a scar. Extracts of poplar, from bites and stings, and heats frost-bites and chilblains, in a short time, so that the sufferer need not be without the Centaur Liniment, while winter lasts."
"The Centaur Liniment, Yellow Wrapper, is adapted to the tough skin, muscles and flesh of the animal creation. It effects upon severe cases of Swain, Scum, White Cough, Rheumatism, and Pail Evil, are little less than marvels."
"Messrs. J. B. Rose & Co., Cincinnati, Ohio, say: "In our neighborhood a number of cases of Rheumatism are being cured by the Centaur Liniment. They pronounce it superior to anything they have ever used. We sell as high as four to five dozen bottles per month to these retailers."
"We have thousands of similar testimonials. For Wounds, Galls, Scatches, Ring-bone, &c., and for sore Swain in sheep it has no rival. Farmers, livery-men and stock-raisers, have in this Liniment a remedy which is worth a hundred times its cost."

Castoria
Mothers may have rest and their babies may have health, if they will use Castoria for Wind Colic, Worms, Feverishness, Sore Throat, Croup, or Stomach Complaints. It is entirely a vegetable preparation, and contains neither mineral, mercury, nor alcohol. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and neither grips nor grieves.
"I am using Castoria in my practice with the most signal benefit and happy result."
"This is what every one says: Most nurses in New York City use the Castoria. It is prepared by Messrs. J. B. Rose & Co., 46 Dry Street, New York, successors to Samuel Pitcher, M. D. 38v8

Improvements.—We understand that Mr. Crane intends erecting a large house, 40x80, at the falls on the Santiam Canal, just outside the city limits, for flax breaking purposes. At this point the whole body of water in the Canal falls a distance of several feet, affording an immense power.
LEGAL FIRM.—Messrs. Weatherford & Piper have formed a copartnership for the practice of law in the different courts in this State. Both gentlemen are accomplished lawyers, and will give the fullest satisfaction to all who employ them. See card in this issue.
THE ST. CHARLES is doing an immense business, as it should under its present able management. The hotel, although a large one and capable of accommodating a large number of people, is full from cellar to garret right straight along. Frank understands his business, you better believe.

ACIDENTS.—On Monday out on Mr. Robt. Foster's place, a lad named Milder Hays, aged about twelve years, was caught in some part of a threshing machine, whereby his right arm was badly torn and mangled.
On the same day near Shedd, on his brother's place, Rev. Mr. Acheson, while visiting the threshing grounds, was caught in the machinery and had his arm broken between the elbow and wrist. He wore a long tailed linen duster or coat, which, as he was passing near the tumbling rod, caught in said rod, producing the above sad result.
WEST COAST FLAX MILLS.—We spent a few moments on Wednesday evening in the new flax mills so recently erected in our midst. The factory occupies the handsome building erected by E. Cartwright some years ago for a soap factory, now the property of the Farmers' Company—a two story frame with a basement. Only a portion of the machinery has been placed in position, but that was busy at work spinning out flax at a rapid rate. The machinery is about the handsomest we ever saw in any factory, and is turning out most excellent work. At present the factory is turning out machine and shoe threads, upholstery, broom, sail and sewing twines, fish lines, heavy yarn, etc. The power for running the machinery is afforded by the Santiam Canal, and so far as we could observe there was neither break or jar in the running of the machinery, everything working smooth and nice. This is an important industry, and we hope to see it grow and increase into huge proportions in the coming years.
Look at those new style hacks at E. Buchanan's, corner of Broadalbin and First streets.

SEVERAL
In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the county of Linn,
Robert R. Fumtetter, plaintiff, vs Mary Templeton, defendant.
To Mary Templeton, the above named defendant:
The name of the State of Oregon; You are hereby notified to appear and answer the complaint of the above plaintiff in the Circuit Court, now on file with the Clerk of said Court, within ten days from the date of the service of this summons upon you; if served in any other county in the State of Oregon, within twenty days from the date of the service of this summons upon you, and if served by publication, then on or before the first day of the next term of said Court, to-wit:
Monday, the 23rd day of October, 1877, and you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint as required, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in the complaint, to-wit: a dissolution of the bonds of matrimony existing between you and plaintiff, and for costs and disbursements.
This summons is published by order of Court, at Portland, Oregon, on the 11th day of April, 1877. D. R. S. BAKER, Clerk.

Owing to a decline in prices of wheat at Liverpool the price has dropped in San Francisco and elsewhere, buyers not anxious to purchase not knowing what the future has in store.
As we intimated last week, when the war between Russia and Turkey was opened, it was believed that Russia would be unable even if willing to furnish her usual supply of wheat to England, and the United States would be called upon to make this deficiency good, and that the price of wheat would be greatly advanced. Notwithstanding the high price wheat has commanded in the Liverpool markets for sometime past this country has not taken advantage of those prices, as our exports of wheat to England during the last quarter are much less than for the same period last year. On the other hand Russia, during the month of June last, exported to England $5,140,000 worth of wheat, while for the corresponding month of last year the value of her wheat exports were but $865,000. Through the combined influences of war and the recent advance in the price of grain in the English markets, Russia has made unusual exertions, it would seem, to send her grain to market early. Any hope therefore, that the war between Russia and Turkey would aid in keeping up high prices in the English markets for wheat by diminished supplies from Russia, have been abandoned.
The weather so far in Central Oregon has been favorable for harvesting, and the grain is being rapidly secured and placed in the warehouses. A good deal of complaint is made of the damage caused by rust, but we hope the loss has been somewhat exaggerated, and when the harvest is over the real loss will be small as compared to the grand total.
Considerable wheat has been sold or contracted at $1 per bushel in this country. Quite an amount of oats has also been sold at prices ranging from 50 to 62 1/2 per bushel. A great deal of the wheat harvested this season will be bound and the straw saved for feed. From what we hear there will also be more attention paid hereafter to rotation of crops. Fields that have been seeded to wheat year after year for time immemorial almost, will be allowed a rest.

TAKE WARNING.—For the bet those who are owing us for two or three volumes of the REGISTER, we publish the following, which we clip from the Boston Bulletin:
"They had a tough subject in the inquiry-room this week. Moody wrestled with him, Sankey sang with him, but the man seemed to despair of forgiveness. Finally Moody asked him what heavy sin burdened his mind and he confessed to having beat a news paper publisher out of three years' subscription. The evangelist informed him that they did not profess to perform miracles, but if he would settle up his dues, with compound interest and pay for three years more in advance, although they could not open the doors of the church to him perhaps he might be snaked in under the canvass."

THE MACHINE WAS WORN OUT.
Why? Not because it was not well built, but it was wrongly run. Thousands of men who have run down long before their three corners and ten years are accomplished, might have been renewed into sprightliness and vim if they had tried the well known Peruvian Syrup, which contains among its compounds the Protoxide of Iron, so combined that it assimilates with the blood and invigorates the whole system. This syrup has proved efficacious in thousands of cases, and will do every body good who use it. All druggists keep it. aug

Owing to a decline in prices of wheat at Liverpool the price has dropped in San Francisco and elsewhere, buyers not anxious to purchase not knowing what the future has in store.
As we intimated last week, when the war between Russia and Turkey was opened, it was believed that Russia would be unable even if willing to furnish her usual supply of wheat to England, and the United States would be called upon to make this deficiency good, and that the price of wheat would be greatly advanced. Notwithstanding the high price wheat has commanded in the Liverpool markets for sometime past this country has not taken advantage of those prices, as our exports of wheat to England during the last quarter are much less than for the same period last year. On the other hand Russia, during the month of June last, exported to England $5,140,000 worth of wheat, while for the corresponding month of last year the value of her wheat exports were but $865,000. Through the combined influences of war and the recent advance in the price of grain in the English markets, Russia has made unusual exertions, it would seem, to send her grain to market early. Any hope therefore, that the war between Russia and Turkey would aid in keeping up high prices in the English markets for wheat by diminished supplies from Russia, have been abandoned.
The weather so far in Central Oregon has been favorable for harvesting, and the grain is being rapidly secured and placed in the warehouses. A good deal of complaint is made of the damage caused by rust, but we hope the loss has been somewhat exaggerated, and when the harvest is over the real loss will be small as compared to the grand total.
Considerable wheat has been sold or contracted at $1 per bushel in this country. Quite an amount of oats has also been sold at prices ranging from 50 to 62 1/2 per bushel. A great deal of the wheat harvested this season will be bound and the straw saved for feed. From what we hear there will also be more attention paid hereafter to rotation of crops. Fields that have been seeded to wheat year after year for time immemorial almost, will be allowed a rest.
