Messrs. Emerson, Fisher & Co. I have used one of your top Buggies three years, and three of them two years in my five stable, and they have given me perfect satisfaction and are in constant use. OSCAR SKALLEY, Newberry, S. C., July 17, 1879.
Dear Sirs— I have been using the Emerson & Fisher Buggy I bought from you as roughly, I suppose, as any one could. I had a fast horse, drove him at full speed, sometimes with two inside and myself in the buggy, and it is to-day worth all the money I paid for it. I say the Emerson & Fisher Buggies will do. A. M. TEAGUE, Farmer.
The favorable reputation the Carriages have made in localities where they have been used for several years by Liverymen, Physicians, and others requiring hard and constant use, has led to an increased demand from those localities, to meet which the manufacturing facilities of their manufacturing establishment have been extended, enabling them now to turn out in good style.

Democratic County Convention.
The Democratic County Convention assembled at the Court House at 10 A. M. on Wednesday, effecting a temporary organization with Dr. J. A. Davis in the Chair, and Hon. W. B. Bilyeu as Secretary. After appointing a committee on Credentials, one on Order of Business, and another on Resolutions, the Convention adjourned until after dinner. Reassembling, the reports of the committees were received and adopted. Agreeable to these, Dr. Lewis was made permanent chairman, Mr. Bilyeu, Secretary, with C. B. Montague and L. Senders assistant Secretaries, C. Ralston and L. Kline, Tellers.
On motion, it was ordered that a majority of all the votes cast be required to elect.
Delegates to the State Convention were elected, viz: M. V. Brown, C. Burkhardt, J. H. Smith, A. F. Beard, L. Martin, H. R. Powell, C. H. Ralston, Baz Cooper, Hiram Williams, Joseph Moise, L. Kline, Straud Price, Ed. Zeis, Sam May and J. A. Davis.

The contest for all the offices was warm, there being a large number of candidates for the several offices, and the convention adjourned for supper at 8 P. M., having succeeded in nominating a ticket as far as Assessor. The Convention assembled after supper, when the entire ticket was nominated, as follows:
For State Senator—O. P. Coshaw.
Representatives—J. P. Schoelling, Dr. W. F. Alexander, Harv. Shelton, Jacob Newman, G. E. Chamberlain, and C. F. Burkhardt.
County Judge—Lark Bilyeu.
County Commissioners—Levi Douglas and Lewis Cox.
County Clerk—D. F. Mason.
Sheriff—I. D. Miller.
County Treasurer—Ab. Umphrey.
Assessor—H. S. Williams.
Supt. Schools—D. V. S. Reid.
Surveyor—Geo. Grimes.
Coroner—Dr. J. A. Davis.

The County Central Committee was increased from three to five members, and is composed as follows: J. H. Burkhardt, M. V. Brown, C. B. Montague, D. M. Monkers and Sam May.
J. H. Smith, of Harrisburg, presented a resolution favoring an amendment to the usury law, reducing interest to 8 per cent., with 10 per cent., as the maximum rate by special contract, which passed unanimously.
Upon the adjournment of the Convention an after meeting was called by the Secretary, at which Judge Haley presided. The nominees of the Convention and others were called upon and responded in brief speeches, in the following order: Messrs. Coshaw, Mason, Chamberlain, Bilyeu, Miller, Porter, Gen. Brown, Blakeley, Reid, W. R. Bilyeu, Smith, Colvin, of Love county, Montanye, Geo. Humphrey, Herren, Chariton and Armstrong.

The speakers were unanimous in commending harmony and solidity in the Democratic phalanx, and emphasizing the duty of voting a straight, unscratched Democratic ticket in June and November next.
So far as we are personally acquainted with the gentlemen composing the above ticket, we must in all candor acknowledge that it is about as hard a ticket to beat as the Democracy has put up for the last twelve years. We are glad to know that if Democrats are to fill the offices, they are about the best men in the party. But then we will say to the gentlemen composing the ticket, "the race is not always to the swift, or the battle to the strong," or words to that effect; and you may look out for us next week, for we'll be in this race with a ticket that must win—and don't you forget it.

Dr. J. A. Davis made a very creditable presiding officer.

PRIMARIES TO-MORROW.
Republicans will remember the primaries to-morrow (Saturday, March 27th), commencing at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Let every Republican make it his business to be in attendance. The voters in the East Ward will meet at the Court House; voters in the West Ward will meet at the Opera House. Don't let any trivial matter keep you away from the primary.

Nominate Temperance Men.
KNOX BUTTE, OREGON, March 21st, 1880.
ED. REGISTER.—Before the time for holding the primary meetings of the Republican party, allow me to suggest to the managers of the conventions, that, if they desire the success of the Republican party at the coming election, men must be nominated who are known to be firm advocates of Temperance. Moderate drinkers will not answer. Within the political parties is a temperance element abundantly strong to elect or defeat the candidate for or against whom they combine.
As a Republican I desire the success of my party, but I will not vote for any candidate simply because he is a republican. Temperance men irrespective of party will receive a large number of votes, and votes, too, that have always been Republican.

If the opposing party nominate men regardless of their record as temperance men and regardless of the wishes of the temperance element within their party, and a Republican temperance ticket is nominated, the Republican ticket will receive their support, for the good reason that it is a Temperance ticket.
Nominate a staunch temperance ticket, and a grand Republican success will follow.

Case in and Surrendered.
A man named Am. Farrier, who lives out on McDowell creek, a few miles above Lebanon, came into the city on Monday evening and surrendered himself to deputy Sheriff Humphrey, informing that officer that he had a difficulty that morning with a young man named Wiley Powell, a grandson of the late Uncle Job Powell, during which he had shot, and he supposed killed, Powell. He said his shot took effect in the neck, that Powell fell to the ground, and as he made no attempt to rise, he was certain he killed him, and with this belief he fled with all haste to this city that he might give himself into the hands of the law. The deputy sheriff took him to jail at once. As we understand it, there has been a misunderstanding between the two men for a long time, occasioned by Powell's attentions to Farrier's wife. Wiley Powell will be remembered as the man who defied deputy sheriff Humphrey, some months ago, when that officer went out to arrest him. When the deputy and assistant came within speaking distance of Powell, who was hid on the hill among the fir brush, that worthy young man fired a shot from his Henry rifle, yelling out: "Here I am, you rascals, come and take me!" The officer returned to the city without a prisoner.

LATER.—Am. Farrier, who came in and delivered himself over to the Sheriff on Monday night, on the supposition that he had killed a man named Wiley Powell on the afternoon of that day, was correct in his supposition, as the man Powell died in a few minutes after being shot, the ball entering his neck just below the jaw. The verdict of the jury, assembled shortly after Powell's death, was to the effect that deceased came to his death from a wound inflicted by Am. Farrier. The prisoner claims that he killed Powell in self-defense. Several parties heard the report of the pistol or gun, but no one, we believe actually witnessed the killing. A gentleman who was near enough to hear a word now and then as the two men were conversing, heard one of the men, and he was pretty certain it was Powell, say he would kill the other, but he did not see the shooting. He heard the explosion of the firearm, and turning in the direction of the two men, saw both running in opposite directions, Powell running but a short distance when he fell. Powell upon being asked what was the matter, said Farrier had shot him. Mr. Montague, from whom we obtained the above facts, thinks Powell did not live more than fifteen minutes after being shot. And in this manner another man is hurried into eternity.

Preliminary examination before Justice Palmer yesterday; held to bail in $1,200, in default of which went to jail.
Candidate for Clerk.
So far as heard from, Mr. N. Baum, of this city, is the only Republican candidate for County Clerk, and will probably be placed upon the ticket by acclamation. We can not resist saying this much for Mr. Baum, he is perfectly competent and reliable, and would make a careful, painstaking and accommodating officer. He is a first class business man, and has been successful, and if he is nominated he will be an exceedingly good man to best—and don't you forget it.

The Debate.
The debate on Sunday evening at the Court House, between Messrs. Alf. Marshall and Jas. Finlayson, was well attended, and good attention given. The debate lasted two hours, and was ably and fairly conducted, so far as we can learn, on both sides. As we were absent from the city during the time taken up in the debate, we are unable to give even an outline of the arguments advanced by the gentlemen to prove or disprove the positions taken by each.

Real Estate Transfer.
Dr. Lister has sold his elegant residence on Broadway street to Mr. L. E. Blain, for $2,600—by the way, a splendid bargain for Mr. Blain. The Doctor tells us he proposes to go east of the mountains in search of a new home. Prosperity and happiness attend him and his excellent family.

Tragedy.
A cow belonging to Mr. J. Gelman, dropped three lambs the other day, two of them white, the other black. West
