70,000 CARRIAGES

MANUFACTURED BY EMERSON, FISHER & CO. ARE NOW IN USE IN EVERY PART OF THE AMERICAN CONTINENT.

They give the most reliable and perfect satisfaction and are in constant use. OCAIR KALLLEY, Newbury, N. C., July 17, 1879. I have been using the Emerson & Fisher Buggy I bought from you as roughly, I can say, as any man could. I had a fast horse, drove him at full speed, sometimes with two in the buggy, and it is today worth all the money I paid for it. I say the Emerson & Fisher Buggy will do. The favorable several years by an increased demand have been extended, enabling them now to turn out in good style.

36 CARRIAGES A WEEK.

BENSON'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER.

Positively the Best. The only one awarded the highest and only medal given rubber plaster, at both the Centennial and Paris Expositions. Widely and generally known among physicians as a great improvement on the ordinary porous plaster. Ask any physician to pour over the following: The value and qualities of the common porous plaster are in this article increased 10 fold by new and scientific medication. It relieves almost at once and cures where other plasters fail even to relieve. It is without doubt the best remedy ever devised for Lame and Weak Back, Rheumatism, Spinal and Kidney Complaints and all local aches and pains.

Albany Register.

ALBANY, OREGON, MAY 28, 1880.

THIS PAPER was founded on the 11th of Oct.
1850, by F. Howell & Co. and was published under the name of the Albany Register & News.
It was purchased by the present owners on the 1st of Jan. 1878, and is now published as before.

LOCAL MATTERS.

County Canvass.

The Republican candidates for the various county offices, will address their fellow citizens at the following places on the dates mentioned below:

At Halsey, Friday, May 23.
At Harlsburg, Saturday, May 29.
At Brownsville, Monday, May 31.
At Lebanon, Wednesday, June 2.
At Seilo, Thursday, June 3.
At Millier's Station, Friday, June 4.
At Albany, Saturday, June 5.
Opposing candidates are invited to participate.

Mrs. D. T. Smith.

This lady is said to be one of the best elocutionists on the coast, and delights audiences wherever she appears with her eloquence and grace. We learn that she will appear before an Albany audience some time next week, probably at the Opera House, due notice of which will be given.

Excursion to Salem.

Two of the Salem fire companies are to house their engines on the 3d of June next, and are making arrangements for a grand parade, etc., during the day, to conclude with a grand ball in the evening. Having forwarded an invitation to the fire companies of this city to be in attendance, the Albany Fire Department met and resolved to go. Negotiations are now under way through the committee appointed for that purpose with the officers of the O. & C.
Railroad, and it is expected that cars will be secured at a reasonable price, enabling all to go that feel so inclined. The fire boys of Salem will do all in their power to make it pleasant for all who do go.

Correction.

I understand that it has been intimated that I should have said that there was outstanding warrants in this county to the amount of $24,000. This is a mistake or misunderstanding. I did not make the assertion. I was asked what the county indebtedness was, to which I made the reply that, with borrowed money and outstanding warrants it would probably reach $20,000, but that there was enough delinquent tax to cover it, if it could be collected. Now I believe this to be a true statement of what was said.

I. M. BRUCE,
Treas. Linn County.

Ad the Enumerators.

As the first of June is close at hand, on which day the taking of the census begins, farmers would save themselves and the enumerator a great deal of trouble and consequent loss of time, if they would make out beforehand an abstract of all grain raised in 1879, as well as all other products of the farm during that year; also giving the number of sheep, cattle, hogs, horses, etc., on the farm. It is important that such statement be made out and left in the house in case the head of the family should be away when the enumerators call.

The name, age, nativity, etc., of each man, woman and child will be required, besides scores of other questions to which correct answers must be given. We are interested in having a full and reliable enumeration, and therefore each should be prepared for the information which the enumerators comes. The entire work must be done in June next.

That Birthday Party.

A large party of our English born citizens assembled at the St. Charles Hotel on Tuesday evening, to commemorate the sixty-first birthday of Queen Victoria, which event transpired the day previous, in supper and song. About 8 o'clock the party, numbering thirty-two, sat down to a table artistically arranged and most abundantly supplied with the good things of this life. It is only necessary to say that Mrs. C. Houk managed the arrangement and supplies on the table, to assure all of its completeness throughout. The President, Mr. J. Briggs, was seated at the head of the table, with the Glee Club seated at his right and left. After partaking of the many substantial and delicacies, such as roast beef, chicken, cake, pies, English plum pudding, etc., with porter, ale, champagne, coffee, tea and chocolate to wash them down, during which several of the party performed prodiges in the gastronomic line, the President announced the toasts, commencing with the "press." Several of the toasts were responded to in a very felicitous manner, and "brought down the house."

Miss Nettie Piper and Miss Annie Griffin favored the party with several solos, which were rapturously received. But the climax of joyousity was reached when, in response to loud calls, Messrs. James H.
Foster and This. Monteth came forward to entertain the party with the duet entitled "The Mill is Closed to-day." Mr.
Hawkins' response to "Our Landlady—Mrs. Houk," was a rare forensic effort.
Messrs. J. R. Westlibford, D. P. Mason, President J. Briggs, Vice President W.
H. Graham, Geo. W. Hildmeyer, and others whose names slip our memory at this time, fired off eloquent clin music.
It was a good old-fashioned, sociable occasion, in which all present seemed to enjoy themselves to the top-notch—and thus passed off an agreeable, happy occasion, without a squabble to disturb its harmony.

At His New Shop.

FRED WILLET is now established in his new two-story wagon and blacksmith shop, on Second street opposite S. E. Young's war-house, where he is prepared to do all kinds of blacksmithing, repairing of harness, wagons, etc. He also has on hand, and will continue to manufacture, harness and bugles, which will be sold at the lowest possible prices on reasonable terms.

City Council.

The Council met at city hall on Tuesday evening, all the board present, except Councilman Rice.

Minutes read and approved.

Bills presented at last meeting were ordered read.

Two ordinances, amending existing ordinances, were read first time.

Report of City Marshal on delinquent taxes was accepted, and costs will now be paid. Delinquent tax about $300.

The matter of the stairway of Sanders & Stenberg on Broadalbin street, was referred to committee on Streets and Public Property.

A communication from Chief of the A.
F. D. was received, announcing the receipt of bill for trucks, etc., for the Hook & Ladder Company.

On motion a warrant was ordered drawn in favor of the Mayor for $248 62, to pay for said trucks, etc.

On motion the committee on Fire and Water were instructed to secure a house for the new trucks for Hook & Ladders

On motion of Martin, property-holders were ordered to grade and gravel Seventh street, between Vine and Callpoola; also to build a drain on the south side of 7th, between Vine and Callpoola, all to be done in 15 days.

City Attorney's bill, $5, under suspension of the rules, ordered paid.

Adjourned.

Ancient but Ingenious.

A curious story is told of Diogenes who, in attempting a voyage to Samos, was taken prisoner by the pirates sent out by the tyrant of Caria. Miletus expected a very large reward for so renowned a man as Diogenes, which the latter was determined to prevent. He demanded that a countryman should occupy the prison with him as a companion to relieve the monotony of a prison life. This being granted, he shaved the head of this countryman, and on his bare poll he wrote a private message to friends at home, and as soon as the hair had grown again, he pretended to be tired of the man and he was released, made his way back to Athens, where his head was again shaved and the message read, viz: "Go to L. E. Blain's for your fashionable clothing, silk, felt, panama or clip hat, shirts, boots, shoes, or anything in the line of gentlemen's furnishing goods, and you won't be disappointed. Prices as low as the lowest."

It seems to be the prevailing opinion that the Miller will be badly left in the race for Sheriff. He will fail to get the vote of his party.

It is reported that Allen Parker has secured two dozen fruit dryers, with which he proposes to dry up the road leading to Yanquin Bay!

Father Wm. H. Gray, of Astoria, the only survivor of that little band of mislonaries who came to this coast nearly half a century ago to aid in spreading the gospel of peace, made us a short visit Tuesday morning.

In the discussion in this city on Friday night last, between Judge Piper and Bradshaw, candidates for prosecuting attorney, Piper so badly used up and demolished Bradshaw, that the audience actually were sorry for him and his pitiful appearance.

He said, in answer to the questions propounded by Judge Piper, that he didn't know, and his audience agreed with him.

Mrs. Rideout has so far completed her new residence in the Hackleman addition, as to occupy it. It is a comfortable dwelling.

James H. Foster is engaged in running water pipes out on Lyon and Ferry streets from the mains on First.

One of the direct needs of the city is sewerage. We should have two or three sewers leading from the principal streets into the river. At present sewers down Ferry and Broadalbin streets would largely aid in keeping our city clean and healthy.

Lebanon and vicinity is all excitement over the prospect of the building of what they term the "narrow gauge." It will be a good thing for Lebanon and Seilo, certainly.

The Albany excursionists were expected to reach Portland Monday night, en route to Astoria, but the prevailing cool weather proved a back-set to the enterprise, and it has been postponed until the heated period (if it ever gets here), probably in July.

If it is true that the best temperance lecturers are those who have been through the mill—the gin mill—there are a great many men, and it may be some women, heretobits who are preparing themselves to go into the temperance lecture business.

He plants His footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm."

The man who is away from his wife filling himself up with liquor, has no right to go home and maltreat her or threaten to liquor at home.

When a man's wife comes in and sees him razor in hand and with his face all lather, and asks him, "are you shaving?" it is a provoking thing in him to answer, "No, I'm blacking the stove."

I was dying slowly but surely, not from Consumption, but from the equally destructive disease, Dyspepsia. Getting worse and weaker under treatment of eminent practitioners, I concluded to try a bottle of Plunder's Oregon Blood Purifier, and I am glad to acknowledge herewith my steady improvement.

The Seilo people have succeeded in raising over $11,000 of the $15,000 required to insure the narrow gauge to that place, and are in good spirits, believing that, the balance can be raised by the first of June.

Dr. has bought a bonanza.

The Waterloo defeat of Col. Bradshaw by Judge Piper last Friday night, was a dreadful setback to some of the old shell-backs—it was worse than a dose of croton oil.

Why we, the people of the Pacific Coast should not any longer be pestered with worthless nostrums, made fifty years ago east of the Rocky Mountains, and that too, by persons who never even knew chemistry by its name proper, much less its wonderful workings, is a question suggested itself years ago to Wm. Pfunder, the only operative chemist in Oregon.

The result was that this gentleman applied himself to a great and tedious research of the different vegetables, growing in immense quantities, especially in Oregon, but shunning—until his discoveries—all their virtues from year to year to make carti. His tedious research, scientific applications, and proper combinations, culminated in the production known today as the Oregon Blood Purifier—a purely vegetable compound, ready for use, and very efficient in almost every Liver complaint and Kidney disorders.

Prof. Johnson lectured at the Court House Monday and Tuesday evenings, as announced last week. Politics so completely swallows up everything else just now, that a very large audience can not be obtained. The Professor would, at any other time, doubtless, draw a crowded house.
