Infallible Indian Remedies.
A Sure Shot For FEVER & AGUE.

DURING A LONG RESIDENCE AMONG the Indian tribes of the coast and the interior, I have had the good fortune to discover from the "Medicine" men of the several tribes, and from those residing in this country, consisting of roots, herbs and barks, and having been solicited by many people of this valley, who have tried and proved the efficacy of them in disease, to procure and offer the same for sale.
I take this means of announcing to all that during the past season, I have taken an extended tour through the mountains and valleys, and have secured certain of these remedies which are a sure cure for Fever and Ague.

Those suffering from Ague who desire to be cured, can leave orders at Mr. Strong's store on First street, where I will furnish the remedies warranting a radical cure on 1st demand no charge. W. H. WELLS.

Enoch Sloan is to build the bridge across Lake creek, some five miles from this city, under the supervision of Mr. M. C.
Calloway.

L. E. Blain has received a splendid stock of Eastern made shoes, etc., that are not easily matched for stock, make or elegance of style. See and price them.

Mr. Dannels the other day sold nearly $500 worth of furniture to go to Corvallis, and nearly the same amount to go out south. The excellence of our furniture attracts customers from abroad, especially when properly advertised.

Mr. Cherry who came in from Yaquina Bay last week, says the roads were perfectly horrible at that time, but parties were expected to go to work immediately in repairing, etc. Some $2,000 are to be expended in this way.

Following are the new officers of Albany Lodge No. 4 I.O.O.F., installed 1st Wednesday night: G. F. Simpson, N. G.; Ed. Zeiss, V. G.; Dr. J. A. Davis, R. S.; C. C. Cherry, P. S.; J. H. Burkhart, Treasurer.

On the 27th ult, the House Railroad Committee voted unanimously to grant six years extension of time to the Northern Pacific Railroad. And this is a good news.

A wealthy Pittsburg merchant is reported as having said: "I always feel happy when I am advertising, for then I know, that waking or sleeping, I have a strong, though silent orator working for me; one who never tires, never sleeps, never makes mistakes and who is certain to enter the households from which, if at all, my trade must come."

Last Friday morning Messrs. Donha and L. Elkins, of Lebanon, went to Portland to report to headquarters the result of the canvass for the subsidy asked by the O. & C. Railroad Company for extending their line from this city to Lebanon. All the money demanded has been subscribed with the exception of $300, which, of course will be raised; and pretty good headway has been made in securing the rights of way for the railroad—probably there will be no trouble in securing such rights of way from any one, after the matter has been fully considered.

The Democrat rather indirectly charges that Mr. Baum prevailed upon Dr. Savage to make the affidavit which was published on the 21st in regard to Mr. Mason. So far from this being true, Mr. Baum was opposed to its publication, and, as Dr.
Savage himself explains in last week's issue of the Democrat, the card was published by Mr. Savage without solicitation from any one, on his own account. The friends of Mr. Mason denied the charges made by the Dr., who thereupon made out a sworn statement and had it published.
Dr. Savage is willing and able to fight his own battles, and it may worry some of his enemies to keep out of his way when he comes back.

In Louisville, Ky., a new Sunday law has recently been made, under which all persons doing work or services, for which they are to receive pay, are to be punished. At midnight on Saturdays the saloons are closed and the locks sent to their stables. All persons employed on newspapers after that hour are reported for inflictment, and the climax has been reached by sending the police to the churches on Sunday and procuring the names of the sextons and organists, and reporting them for indictment. As the preachers receive pay for their labors on Sunday, the next step in the absurd proceeding will be to arrest them.

The soul stirring drum is doomed.
There is a proposition to do away with it in the French army. It is said that a drummer is of no use as a combatant, the instrument is too cumbersome. Another objection is that it is scarcely heard in damp weather. There are about three thousand drummers in the French army in time of peace and double that number in time of war. If the drum should be replaced by the trumpet the musician could take part in active fighting if there was any necessity for it. The Italian army has given up the use of drums. At its latest review the result of this change was excellent, and an unanimous vote approving of it was given by the officers.

Last week the seventh annual session of the Oregon State Grange met in Salem. Following are the officers elect:
R. P. Boise, Master; D. S. K. Buick, Overseer; A. R. Shupley, Lecturer; W. M. Hilleary, Steward; J. S.
Kirkland, Assistant Steward; W. H.
Gray, Chaplain; David Smith, Treasurer; N. W. Randall, Secretary; Thos. Smith, Gatekeeper; Mrs. M. J.
Train, Ceres; Mrs. M. J. Heath, Pomona; Mrs. L. L. Hilleary, L. A. S.; Daniel Clark, member executive committee.

The Democrat accuses Mr. Baum of putting up whiskey, through his strikers, of course, to secure votes in the coming election. This is too thin; no one believes such a silly charge, and all such charges will redound to the benefit of Mr. Baum.
The assertion that Mr. Baum lacks ability, and can't fill the office if elected, is a weaker and sillier charge than the first.
Mr. Baum is one of the best and most successful business men in the city, and while he may be a little off in his pronunciation of a few English words, he can write and spell them whenever it becomes necessary, equally as well as his opponent, if not a little better. No, it won't do to try any of these old, worn out dodges in Lincoln county, where Mr. Baum has lived so long and is so well known. His competency is acknowledged by all, and Mr.
Mason himself will not make or endorse any such charge as the Democrat makes.

The people can trust the Republican party, for it keeps its promises. The current expenses of the State of Oregon for the two years ending Sept. 1, 1880, will be at least $25,000 less than the amount appropriated by the last Legislature for three specific purposes. Economical management and a right construction of the law regulating the audit of accounts, has reduced the State expenses at a ratio of over $1,000 a month. And this has been done by the present State administration, a majority of which is Republican. When a Republican platform pledges economy and reform, the officers elect under that platform honestly carry out the pledge. Taxpayers will please note this characteristic feature of the Republican party.

Notes from Benton.
TOLEDO, Or., May 25th, 1880.

FRIEND VAN:—The canvass opened at Newport yesterday. There was a good audience. Owing to a severe storm prevailing on Saturday, the candidates did not go down to Ales. Quite a number of Ales people came up to the speaking. The different candidates acquitted themselves creditably.
The greenback element was sandwiched along with the Republicans and Democrats. Everything passed off agreeably, the Republicans winning lots of friends.
At Toledo to-day the battle waxed hotter, and some of the parties were called upon to defend their records and set themselves right on some important questions of interest to the people.

The canvass promises to be a hot one before it is done.

The Prospect in Eastern Oregon.

The Republican says that the claimants of Eastern Oregon hitherto have been almost entirely overlooked in the Legislature. The reason for this the journal claims, is that men have been selected to represent that portion of the State at Salem who were not fitted in any degree for the duties they were called upon to perform. It claims that while the members sent from Wasco county were, in the main, men of integrity, and had the respect of their fellow-citizens, they did not possess those other qualifications necessary to fit them for legislators, to-wit: ability, energy and tact, requisite to enable them to be of use to their constituents.
And as the "usual style" of men have been again nominated for the Legislature, the Republican argues that they should be permitted to remain at home where they can perform the role of simple minded citizens, and not be sent to Salem where they would be of no use whatever to any one. And the indications are that the people of Wasco county are tired of electing nonentities, and will discard the whole "kit and biffin" next Monday, and elect the entire Republican ticket. Men who have voted the Democratic ticket for a lifetime have come out and openly espoused and are working to elect the Republican ticket. The dissatisfaction with Whiteaker in Eastern Oregon, proclaimed by the delegates from that portion of the State when in this city attending the Democratic State Convention, will have no little influence in decreasing the Democratic vote of that section; and we are informed that the vote will fall greatly behind that of former years in every county, save, it may be, that of Umatilla. It is believed that Hon. M. C. George will carry Wasco, Grant, and possibly Baker counties. Mr. George's majority will hardly be less than from 1,500 to 2,000 —and it may be even more. Rah for M. C. George.

A Maine lady asked a drug clerk for "a bottle of endurable ink."

A few Facts for the Thoughtful Voter.

ALBANY, Or., May 25th, 1880.

EDITOR REGISTER:—While it is true as stated in the Democrat of the date of May 25th, that Capt. Humphrey, the Republican candidate for State Senator from Lincoln county, has been a total abstainer for only a little more than a year, yet the influence which the Democrat would have its readers draw from the ingenious wording of its article, that Capt. Humphrey is not likely to "stick," is absolutely false, and does the Capt. very great injustice.

And now, while we are on this subject of Senator, let us examine for a moment into the qualifications of the two opposing candidates for this office.

The principal, and so far as I have seen, as yet the only arguments used by the friends of Mr. Coahow, are that he has been a "lifelong Democrat," and that he will support a Democrat for U. S. Senator in 1882; and as far as my experience goes these seem to be the only qualifications necessary in Oregon for a Democratic legislator.

Mr. Coahow is, and for years has been, a merchant in Brownville in this county, and knows nothing about law. One of the principal requisites in a good legislator is knowledge of what law is, wherein the law as it stands is defective, and in what particular it needs to be remedied;
i. e.: whether it should be repealed or only amended. He should also be thoroughly acquainted with the wants and needs of his constituents. In all these respects Mr. Coahow is wholly and totally deficient.

Now, how is it with the Republican candidate? Capt. Humphrey is a lawyer in active practice and of acknowledged ability, and has all the constituents necessary to a good Senator; in other words, he is fully qualified to fill the place.
It is rather ludicrous for the editor of the Democrat to say of Capt. Humphrey "his last signing of the pledge was about a year ago, and since that time he has kept it closely," when this same editor also signed the pledge, about the same time, and has not kept it at all! There is but one step from the sublime to the ridiculous.

A few days ago I said to a prominent Democrat, "you know as well as I do that your candidate for County Judge is not qualified to fill the office." This he admitted, but said "the man qualify himself." How is this, taxpayers and voters of Lincoln county, do you propose to elect to the office of County Judge, the most responsible office to be filled on Monday next, a man who is not qualified to fill, but "can qualify himself?" He has been practicing or attempting to practice law for four years and if he is not qualified now for the office, is it likely he will qualify himself in the next few years? Or, if he can do so, do you propose to allow him to do it at your expense? Let him qualify himself first and then seek the office. Are you willing to risk the estates of the dead and those who may die in the next four years, and the rights of the widows and orphans of your county in the hands of a man who does not understand your probate law and cannot guard their interests, and whose only interest is in the salary he may draw?

Are you willing to risk the financial interests of your county in the hands of a young and inexperienced flogger?

Whom have we now to oppose this inexperienced, unqualified young Democratic aspirant for judicial honor? We have a man who has practiced law among us for years and who fully understands our probate law, the interests of the county and taxpayers, and will carefully guard the widows and orphans and the rights of the widows and orphans will be sacredly guarded. There will not be in the future long and expensive litigation growing out of defective and irregular probate proceedings, and the finances of the county will not be in irretrievable confusion. Those who know the two men, know I speak words of truth and soberness. For the last four years the affairs of this county have been administered by the Hon. S. A.
Johns, an unflinching and uncompromising Democrat, and even Republicans are compelled to admit that the interests of the county have not suffered in his hands; that estates have been administered safely and satisfactorily, and in such a manner that there will be no after litigation, and that the interests of minors have been carefully guarded, in fact that Judge Johns has been conscientious, scrupulously honest, and careful in the discharge of the duties of the office, and made as good if not the best, Judge we have ever had, and yet he has been set aside for one who loves official position "not wisely but too well," who pursues the office for the sake of gain, and not because he is competent to discharge its duties.

On the other hand the office seeks the man because of his superior qualifications, and not the man the office, for Mr. Flinn refuses to go out and seek for votes, believing as all must do, that the office is not political, and that a candidate for the position should not "stoop to conquer."

Let all, therefore, who have the best interests of the county at heart, and desire to see its affairs administered in an honest and efficient manner, vote for Mr. Flinn for County Judge, and the next four years will prove the wisdom of their choice.

O. REEVE.

The law passed by the Indiana Legislature against the garnishing of a man's wages unless there was over two months' wages due him has effectively stopped the garnishing of railroad employes—a practice which had become quite annoying to the railroad officials.

The outlook for the success of the Republican ticket over the State on Monday, was never better. Wherever Democracy has controlled the affairs of State or county any number of years, that State or county has been financially slaughtered. The State administration has been Democratic for the last ten years, and as a consequence a debt has been piled upon her citizens of from $800,000 to $1,000,000, although the constitution prohibits a greater debt than $50,000. In defiance of the constitution (which Democracy professes loves so well) an overwhelming debt has been heaped upon the taxpayers which will require years of heavy taxation to pay off. Had this debt been created in the prosecution of some great enterprise calculated to benefit the citizens of the commonwealth, there would be some excuse for the violation of so plain a provision of the constitution; but as it was not created in such manner or for such purpose, the party that created it must be held responsible for disobeying the constitution, creating an illegal debt, and forcing the taxpayers of the State to benefit a few venal politicians.

Politicians are slow to learn. Living in an atmosphere of deception themselves for a few years, they soon lose all respect for honesty in policy and are ever ready to advocate any policy or advocate any scheme that will hoist them or their fellows into office, no matter how venal or how rascally such policy or scheme may be.
Becoming thus corrupt, they lose confidence in human nature as it were, and really come to believe that "all men have their price."

This is the cause of the decline of Democracy in Oregon. Going before the people campaign after campaign on pledges of "retrenchment" and "reform," and after election ignoring those pledges continuously, the people have at last begun to see the hollowness of the professions, and the utter unworthiness of those who were nominated for office and pledged themselves to such a platform. With such a history of broken pledges, unconstitutional acts, jobbery, and even downright robbery, the Democratic party, under its present leaders, has become a stench and a by-word in the mouth of every honest man, and will be hurled from power and place by an indignant and long suffering people. The peculations, frauds and rascalities of the Grover-Clayward administration was enough to damp any party that would endorse them, and the late State Democratic Convention tacitly endorsed the whole catalog of its villainies and mala administration by refusing to condemn it in its platform.

Too Much "Oxetted."

It has been charged that Judge Boise said he was not a candidate for the office of Judge of the Third Judicial District, and that in view of this declaration Judge Powell announced himself as a candidate for the position. We do not know that this charge is true, we only know that Judge Boise was determined to have those and no one else as such candidate; that his nomination for the Supreme Bench was strongly opposed because he was the choice of the people for the judgeship of this district; and we have it from good authority, that he was not in attendance at the convention when nominated, and did not ask nor was consulted as to his nomination. Nominated under such sat-tering circumstances, Judge Boise could not do otherwise than to accept it; and as he is the choice of the voters of the district, who know him to be one of the safest and best judges of law in the State, he will be elected Judge of this district by a good round majority.

From the character given Tom Merry by the Portland Mercury, a Democratic journal, which is published elsewhere in this issue, we opined that the better class of Democrats do not want to vote for him.
Judge Odell is one of our best citizens, a strict temperance man, an able editor and an honest, upright, gentleman. Mr. Odell will be elected.

Campaning.

A campaning will be held at Roberts' bridge, about twelve miles south of this city, commencing on the 17th inst.—a week from next Thursday. All Christian workers are invited to take part in the meetings, which will hold over two Sundays.

George Elliot's marriage has caused much comment, and the small fry of literature are now taking a back at the great novelist for her incoherency in so soon forgetting the man for whom she composed great love and showed deep grief. To the world her marriage will probably be as unaccountable as that of Charlotte Brouss.

Democratic conventions have been held in New Jersey and Minnesota, but no influential group of preferences on the presidential nomination.
