

Albany Register.

ALBANY, OREGON, JULY 2, 1880.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Conn Bros. Mill Burned. Conn Bros. saw mill at Grass Ridge, a short distance beyond Lebanon, in this county, burned on Friday night last, the fire being discovered between eleven and twelve o'clock.

Foot Mashed. Mr. Voigt had the misfortune to let a large leg fall on his right foot Friday. It was iron bound, and his foot was badly jammed up, so much so that he was unable to get about for some days.

Removed to Ferry. The frame building that has long stood on the corner of Ferry and Broadbills, owned by Messrs. Seiders & Sternburg, last week was purchased by Mr. Tom Miller, who will at once remove it to Ferry, south of his blacksmith shop on corner of Second and Ferry. The price paid was $50.

From Corvallis to Astoria. An excursion from Corvallis to Astoria has been projected by the pastor of the M. E. Church of that city, the cost of tickets for the round trip being $6.75 each. The time for starting will be July 20th, the tickets to hold good for three weeks.

Religious Services. Rev. J. T. Wolfe will discourse on "The comparative antiquity of the seven Bibles of the world," at the M. E. Church, next Sunday evening. All are invited.

Lincoln County Fair. At a meeting of the stockholders in the Lincoln County Agricultural Association, held in this city last Friday, it was resolved to hold a fair some time this fall. This will be good news to our people, as a fair, properly conducted, can be made of great value to the citizens of the county.

Work to Commence. Thirty Chinamen are to commence the work of grading on the Albany & Lebanon railroad immediately, work to commence at Lebanon and grade this way. Iron sufficient for at least two-thirds of the distance has already been received.

A Good Shot. The Corvallis Gazette says that on Friday of last week, Mrs. R. Kizer, of that city, who had never as much as seen a glass ball thrown from a trap, took her husband's shot gun and broke four out of five balls, thrown from a Carl's patent rotary trap.

Golden Wedding. Mr. William T. Templeton and wife celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day on the 24 of June. Mr. Templeton was born in Rockbridge county, Virginia, in 1830. His father was a farmer and he was reared on a farm near his birthplace.

Birthdays Gathering. On Friday of last week, a number of the friends of Hon. F. M. Wadsworth called at his residence, about one mile from this city in Benton county, to rejoice with him over the fact that on that day his worthy and estimable wife completed her forty-second year.

The Twine Factory Goes, This Time. The twine factory will be opened and ready for business in a few weeks. The company is organized as follows: John Crawford, President; John Montell, Secretary; Messrs. John Crawford, Thos. Montell and Remsen Saltmarsh, Directors.

Taken by Surprise. Last Tuesday Mr. Geo. F. Simpson struck the forty-fifth mile stone in his earthly pilgrimage. This fact became known to a number of his friends who concluded to give him a surprise, and they did.

Yaquina Bay. The rush for the healthful sea breezes and good living, all to be obtained at Yaquina Bay, has already commenced. An immense crowd is reported at the Bay, with more coming every day.

Hancock-English Ship. On Monday evening the Democrats of this city met at the Court House and organized a club. John Hackleman was elected President; L. Sanders, C. P. Burkhardt, A. Blevins and J. R. Graham, Vice Presidents; Chas. Stewart, Secretary; E. R. Skipworth, Corresponding Secretary; J. Grudwohl, Treasurer.

Excellent Lumber. Conn Bros. are ready to furnish all orders for building timbers and lumber of any grade at lowest prices and on short notice. They have also on hand seasoned finishing lumber, boards, shingles, etc. All orders sent to them at Lebanon will be filled promptly.

Yamhill Campmeeting. The campmeeting at Gan's bridge, North Yamhill, under the auspices of the M. E. Church South, will commence on the third Sunday (18th) of the present month.

Brownsville, Or., June 30, 1880. ED. ROBERTS.—The outlook for a heavy crop of wheat is very good in this locality. Mr. Saml. Wilson is still sick, with very small hopes of recovery.

John Cunningham and family, old residents of this place, have just paid us a friendly visit. The campmeeting held here by the Christian Church is still going on, and quite a number are joining the church.

Mr. O. P. Coshov, Jr., is here visiting home, from school at Portland; also, Thos. Kay, Jr., has been on a visit home, from College at McMinnville. Baying time is near at hand and the crop is usually large here.

Mr. H. Brenner, proprietor of the Emano hotel, Portland, died very suddenly on Friday last. Deceased had charge of the St. Charles hotel of this city, which he conducted very successfully for several years, and will be mourned by many who have not forgotten his genial presence among us.

Several persons were added to the church during the campmeeting at Roberts' bridge. The Democratic ratification at Corvallis Saturday night was largely attended from this city.

Mr. H. Brenner, proprietor of the Emano hotel, Portland, died very suddenly on Friday last. Deceased had charge of the St. Charles hotel of this city, which he conducted very successfully for several years, and will be mourned by many who have not forgotten his genial presence among us.

Mr. G. Parrish has succeeded in raising a new variety of strawberries in his garden in this city. They are very large, luscious, and when ripe are a pale green and very light red in color outside, with white meat.

Harry Kuhn, of Dayton, W. T., arrived in this city, his old home, last Saturday evening, remaining until yesterday. He looks just like the same Harry of two years ago. Reports the "Albany settlement" in and about Dayton, in a high state of preservation.

The Star system of cutting as taught by Mrs. Coll. Van Cleave, is the best in the world. Call and you will be convinced.

Strawberries were selling at 25c a gallon last week. Sunday was the hottest day in the business.

It is said that horse racing was indulged in on Sunday last, within a mile of Roberts' bridge. The strong hand of the law should be invoked in arresting and fining participants and spectators in such desecration of the Sabbath.

Several persons were added to the church during the campmeeting at Roberts' bridge. The Democratic ratification at Corvallis Saturday night was largely attended from this city.

Judge Johns and family, it is reported, will remove to East Portland. Judge Johns filled the office of County Judge of Linn county with great acceptability during the four last years past.

Dr. Ed. Clark expects to "strike out" in search of a new home next week. Success and fortune attend him wherever he goes.

Mr. Sorbin returned from a tour through the upper country on Monday. He was as far out as Lewiston.

Dr. J. L. Hill, who has been east of the Cascades, is expected to return to his home this week.

Mrs. Annie Taylor, nee Bentley, of Walla Walla, W. T., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Judge Johns, of this city, for some days.

The torchlight procession of Friday night was a success, Democrats and Republicans joining in putting it through in good shape. We never knew of a million meeting engineered by the Democracy to go off with so little exhibition of hoodlumism as that of Friday night.

The ladies turned out en masse to see the bonfire and rockets, and while no exorbitant amount of enthusiasm was manifested, the whole affair passed off very creditably.

The newly elected county officers take their seats next Monday. Ex-Senator Gordon, of Georgia, has accepted a position in developing the mining interests of this State, and is expected to arrive here soon.

Great preparations are making for the picnic at Roberts' bridge on the 10th—Saturday week. There will be plenty of solawater, etc., on the premises, but no intoxicating beverages will be allowed.

Two car loads of Chinamen came up on Monday, under charge of J. H. Quaid, to work on the Albany & Lebanon railroad. Mr. Clement will move to Portland soon.

Sorry to lose Clem, but Liz is big. If you desire to be noticed while at the Fair, go to L. E. Blain's and get one of those handsome Fair suits.

The White sewing machine is the boss. L. E. Blain is the agent. Ballard, Isom & Co. pay the highest cash price for merchantable wheat.

Next meeting of the City Council will be held Tuesday evening, July 13th. The Republicans of this city will meet at the Court House on Monday evening, July 6th, for the purpose of organizing a Garfield Club.

Mrs. Parrish is selling millinery very low. Take your wheat to Ballard, Isom & Co. and have it made into excellent flour for a small lot.

Handsomely trimmed bonnets and hats at reduced prices at Mrs. G. Parrish's. The Albany Express train has been chartered by the Democracy of this city to take a crowd to Halsey Friday night to "outfit" Halsey won't entreat to any great extent, however.

Mr. Peter Hume, enumerator for Brownsville and adjoining precinct, will be at the Court House the first of next week to correct any mistakes or make any additions to the enumeration of those precincts.

Three men and one woman were cared for by the police on Sunday night. Too much gin had quite upset their equalibrams.

The notorious Bill English, of Indiana, is the nominee of the Democracy for Vice President. Try that sugar of lemon at Haffenden Bros. Lemonade this weather is prime.

As the 4th will be celebrated at Salem on Monday—wash-day—a good many people can't go. Fruiters tell us that strawberries are not as prolific this season as last.

Rev. E. R. Geary, of Eugene City, was in the city Monday. The celebration at Tehama will take place on the 5th—Monday next.

Mrs. F. M. Miller and her mother, Mrs. Armstrong, of Lebanon, were in the city in the front of the week. A thunder storm of short duration on Monday cooled and purified the atmosphere—a big thing.

This weather the grain crop is coming on nicely. One Granger says you can see it grow. And won't we have immense crops? Excellent dried beef at Haffenden Bros.

Fair times. The tightness in the money market will keep many a one at home. Thomas Calloway has returned from his trip east of the mountains. He expects to return to Spokane.

Judge Bonham, of Salem, was in the city on Wednesday. Whenever we hear that the business men of a city turn in and pull up the grass in front of their business houses, we are satisfied they expect a revival of trade in the near future.

Nice perfumery at the City Drug Store. The water was let into the mains on Tuesday, and now we are better prepared to squelch fires than any city in the State.

Water was thrown a distance of 90 feet, through a section of fire hose attached to the hydrant on First and Calipoola streets. Every one is wild over the Garfield and Hancock boom, and R. Saltmarsh sells goods at lower prices than ever.

A. C. Jones, Esq., of Jacksonville, arrived in this city on Wednesday. A. B. McIlwain on Wednesday received a large invoice of new goods, among which are some new styles in ladies dress goods, gentlemen's hats, and a great variety of other choice goods that will be sold extremely low for cash.

With low prices and uniform fair treatment to all customers, Mr. McIlwain is securing an immense trade. A Good Time. Our Fox Valley friends had a nice picnic on Saturday last, at which Marlon Taylor acted as Marshal. Mr. Bryant made a few well timed remarks. "Our Santiam Road Workers" was read by F. U. Hill.

The ferry at Mehama was kept busy all day carrying people back and forth from the picnic. The citizens of Mehama are preparing to celebrate the 4th in good style. The thunderstorm on Tuesday was followed by cool, pleasant weather to date.

Wool quotations during the week, 25 1/2c. The crazy man arrested Saturday, named Cortez B. Patterson, had an examination and was sent to the insane asylum at East Portland.

The prospect for will blackberries this season is good. Fruit will be much later ripening this season than usual. More new and handsome furniture at F. M. Dana's place, corner Ferry and Second streets.

The thunderstorm on Tuesday was followed by cool, pleasant weather to date.

PORTLAND, Or., May 26th, 1880. MESSRS. ROOP & SIMPSON, ALBANY, OREGON.—Gents: Having noticed an advertisement gotten up by the firm of D. M. Osborne & Co., wherein they agree to furnish their old and new customers with a twine binder attachment, at a cost not exceeding twenty dollars, next year, we would say that the whole thing is gotten up as an advertising dodge to sell their harvesters and binders, which they have not been able to do with great success.

We, as agents of the well known Walter A. Woods machine, do not care to humbug the farmers by agreeing to furnish a twine binder at a cost not to exceed "the small sum of twenty dollars." For any price, but will agree to furnish a twine binder, as any first-class binder can be furnished.

The Walter A. Woods Mowing and Reaping Machine Company are now in the field with a successful twine binder, and have been for the past two years, but the demand has been so great in the eastern States that none could be obtained for the Pacific coast trade. The D. M. Osborne & Co. twine binder attachment, as they call it, is an experiment of only a few days.

Farmer, do not be humbugged into buying an Osborne harvester and twine binder, on a promise that you shall receive a twine binder attachment another year, so that you can use either when or twine. Buy old reliable machines that have always been in the front ranks in the way of improvements, and whose manufacturers will furnish all late improvements at the lowest market price.

Audacious Audacity. On Wednesday night of last week a hack load of young people who live within a thousand miles of this city, males and females, visited the garden of Mr. A. H. Baltimore, about eight miles southeast of this city, just before midnight, pulled up flowers, potatoes, radishes, turnips, etc., making a wreck of everything, seemingly, they could lay their hands on. The intruders seemed to be actuated by a spirit of malicious mischief, and only ceased to destroy and mutilate after they had been warned to leave the premises.

Such actions do not speak very well for the "bringing up" of the young ladies and gentlemen concerned in the premises, and on second sober thought we believe the parties will be willing to make ample reparation, without Mr. Baltimore being compelled to appeal to the weighty arm of the law to obtain redress. Mr. Baltimore traced the matter up next day, and has the fullest information as to all the parties concerned. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

Sunday School Centenary. There will be a union Sunday School centenary celebration in the Court House in this city on next Sunday evening, beginning at 7:30, sharp. The following programme has been arranged for the occasion:

History of the Sunday School movement—by Rev. S. G. Irvine, D. D., pastor of the First Church; Address to teachers and S. S. workers—by Rev. J. W. Harris. Address to parents. Address to children—Rev. W. J. Crawford.

Each address limited to ten minutes. The exercises will be interspersed with singing. Please bring Gospel Hymns No. 1. It is earnestly desired that the friends of the Sunday School cause be in attendance. Come early.

Census District No. 75. Census district No. 75, embracing Brownsville and Center precincts, furnishes the following facts:

Total number of names enrolled, 1,763. Number of persons over 60 years, 40. Number of persons over 70 years, 2. Number of persons over 80 years, 2. Number of deaths within a year, 22. Number of births within a year, 88. Having completed the enumeration of the District, the enumerators, Mr. Peter Hume, will be at the Court House in this city on the 8th and 9th, next Thursday and Friday, when the roll of names will be exhibited and any names omitted can be added, or if improperly enumerated the same can be corrected, or any other errors attended to. Those interested will please attend to this matter.

City Census. The enumerator for this city, Mr. Jos. Webber, has finished his work. From him we learn the following facts:

The population of the city is 1,871. Over the age of 65 years, 52. Eighty years and over, 7—3 males and 4 females. Births, 29; deaths, 17. Chinese, 67; Italians, 10. There are 28 manufacturers in the city.

Sudden Death. We are pained to chronicle the death of little MUSA, daughter of Ed and Ella Merrill, at Astoria, on Monday last, of diphtheria, aged about six years. Miss MUSA was a beautiful little girl, the idol of all who knew her, and her death is truly a sad blow to her fond parents.

Campmeeting. A campmeeting will be held on Yaquina Bay, commencing Thursday, July 15th, at 3 o'clock, and will continue over Sunday. There are good camping facilities. Rev. J. S. McCain and Rev. Wm. Nichols will have charge of the meeting. Every ministerial help has been secured. Everybody is invited.

Lost of Letter. Uncalled for mail remaining in the Post office in this city for the week ending July 1st, 1880:

Cheewood, John Keeney, Amanda Clark, Henderson Powell, Mrs. M. R. Coombs, Florence J. Ribou, P. Estes, Kate Robinson, Mrs. E. Hazlett, Jane M. Wilson, P. Johnson, Chas. M. Wills, Oliver.

P. H. RAYMOND, P. M. Mrs. M. E. Riley, of Harrisburg, paid us a visit yesterday. She is agent for a new system of cutting dresses, cloaks, pants, vests, etc.

DENTIST. DR. H. R. FREEBORN has located in Albany for the practice of Dentistry. All work warranted. Office in Park block, corner First and Ferry sts. S. J. Dentist.
