

FOR PRESIDENT, JAS. A. GARFIELD, OF OHIO.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, Chester A. Arthur, OF NEW YORK.

Not to be Trusted.

The first, last and only argument for the election of Gen. Hancock is founded solely and entirely upon the fact that he was a loyal soldier during the war, and every such argument is a confession of judgment against the Democratic party.

Truth the Best Policy.

Our Democratic exchanges are filled now with Mobilizer and De Golyer scandals, although every charge made has been proven false by Congressional investigating committees, so far as Gen. Garfield is concerned.

The Outlook in New York.

To Republicans the outlook is splendid. Everywhere the nomination of Garfield and Arthur is received with the enthusiasm reminding us strongly of the canvass of 1840.

Won't Be Satisfied.

Before the meeting of the National Republican Convention at Chicago, Democratic papers and speakers were loud in their denunciation of Gen. Grant, assuring the Convention that he could not possibly be elected.

Why They Don't Enthusiasm.

The average Democrat is ashamed of the party's nominee for the Presidency. In his nomination the party has gone back on every principle advanced by the party.

The Southern States will hold no election in November. The Democracy of those States will appoint 133 electoral votes. As in the past, opposition to Democracy will not be tolerated.

Supreme Judges.

The newly elected Supreme Judges of Oregon qualified at Salem on Tuesday and received their certificates of election from Hon. E. F. Earhart, Secretary of State.

The total electoral vote is 369. 185 electors. Giving Hancock all the Southern States he will have 138; of the remaining 231, Garfield will certainly get 160.

Col. E. C. B. Cash, of Chesterfield, killed Wm. M. Shannon, of Cambden, S. C., in a duel on Monday.

On Tuesday afternoon, Harvey Lynch, of East Portland, shot and killed Thomas Watts in that city. It was the result of a feud existing between the two men for a year or more.

On the 6th, Horace Maynard, of Tenn., was commissioned Postmaster General of the U. S., while retiring Postmaster General, David M. Key, of Tennessee, was commissioned U. S. District Judge of eastern and middle districts of Tennessee.

It is the old eight to seven game again, and Garfield wins: G-a-r-f-i-e-l-d, 8; H-a-n-c-o-c-k, 7.

Ecclesiastical News.

The treasury of the treasury has returned to the treasury $1,000,000 of unexpended balance of the appropriation for refunding the national debt.

The East Oregonian says: Grasshoppers and bugs are upon a portion of the country. A swarm or herd at tacked D. Theodore's farm, about four miles out from Umatilla, on the river the gang was about 200 yards wide and no knowing its length. They cleared a large brush on their route clear and by the time of this writing it is expected he has any garden or grass left, except such grain as he was able to cut since the irruption. We believe that they are attacking all the farms from this point up the Umatilla river. A brown bug has also appeared on the scene and is harvesting the pot to vines.

The party which in 1864 pronounced the war a failure and rejoiced when the national arms met with defeat, now seeks to gain favor through the nomination of one of Lincoln's hirelings for the presidency. The south and those who sympathize with it, join heartily in his support. But perhaps a majority of the people will prefer to trust a little longer the party which does not feel obliged to hide its real color than one formed largely of the element which fought four years to destroy American nationality.—Oregonian.

Chas. O'Leary, In the County Court of the county of Linn, State of Oregon.

In the matter of the estate of G. A. Williams, deceased.
