

They Will Do Hard.

There is no such thing as a free ballot in the South. Threats and deeds of violence and blood has driven out effective opposition to the Democratic party in the South.

The present condition of citizenship in the South is simply a type of what it would be in the North were Southern Democratic leaders to gain control of this Government.

Chadwick Come to Grief.

Judge Dedy, referee, has rendered his decision in the case of the State of Oregon vs. S. F. Chadwick, Aron Rose and B. P. Smith—action to recover damages.

In the matter of writing a letter of acceptance, the revered Abraham Lincoln leads the van. It is the boss and no mistake. Here it is—read and preserve it:

The declaration of principles and sentiments which accompanies your letter meets my approval, and it shall be my care not to violate it, or disregard any part of it.

In some respects he resembles Jeff Davis—the only difference being that he wears a corset while Jeff wore a petticoat—Cleveland Leader.

More Trouble for Democracy. The Louisville Courier-Journal is red hot over what it calls an exodus of negroes from Kentucky to Indiana.

It is rumored that strenuous efforts are being made to induce Hancock to withdraw, as with him as the standard bearer there is no earthly hope for the Democracy.

Grant has a sincere admirer in Mantion, Colorado, who walked off lately with $400 worth of the personal effects of the party by way of souvenirs of the General.

Miss Minnie Piehotte has challenged the winner of the 20 mile ride at Minneapolis, to ride 10, 15 or 20 miles at Denver, St. Louis, Kansas City, Minneapolis or Chicago, for $2,000 a side.

The Virginia Democracy are making desperate efforts to compromise, as the general belief prevails that the state will be lost to Hancock if some compromise uniting the party is not effected soon.

The fight among the Democratic factions is becoming more bitter each day, although the leaders are still endeavoring to compromise. A convention for the above purpose is called to meet at Woodstock on to-morrow.

The merchants of Weston paid out between Monday and Friday of last week something over $1300 at Blue Mountain station, for freight alone.

The Democratic papers are appealing to the soldiers to rally to the support of General Hancock in a way and with an earnestness they were not accustomed to in the dark days of 1863.

Mr. English told the Democratic Committee that he fully realized the importance of the situation in Indiana. This means, of course, that he will contribute more to the campaign fund than he did to the Chicago free fund.

The Democrats were frank enough to tell Hancock that they nominated him because he truckled to the rebels in Louisiana. They should have added that they expected him to do the same thing again, if he were elected.

The Wheeling (West Va.) Register tells its Democratic readers that the Republican party of that State will be thoroughly organized and that the Democracy have a fight to make which calls for the exercise of judgment for thorough organization and discipline of its forces, and for experienced, sagacious and determined leadership.

Justice Jere Black writes the Philadelphia Times as follows: "Your expressed determination to see that General Garfield shall be defended against all unjust aspersions upon his personal character is equally pleasant reading to me, for I have been his devoted friend for many years, and I am resolved that I never will believe that he does not deserve the affection I have bestowed upon him."

Assistant Secretary, Col. John May, announces that this Government is not satisfied with the Spanish explanation of firing upon our vessels; that the affidavits of the officers and crews of the American vessels fired upon are more worthy of belief than the assertions of the Spanish Government, and that if the said officers and crew make the affidavits expected, Spain will be required to make the amende honorable at once.

To Oregon Farmers.

Mr. Paul Schulze, the railroad company's land agent, has addressed the following circular letter to the farmers of Oregon:

LAND DEPARTMENT O. & C. R. R. CO., PORTLAND, Oreg., July 23, 1880. DEAR SIR: As in the former years, I beg to request you to save good specimens of growing grain and grasses in the sheaf and samples of grain after it is harvested, and to forward them to the address of the producer.

The exhibits of Oregon products which the public spirit of the farmers of Oregon has enabled us to make several times at various places in the United States and Europe has demonstrated more clearly than anything else the various resources of our state, the fertility of its soil and the excellence of its climate, and our state has been greatly benefited by them.

On the subject of free trade, he wears a brilliant uniform. On the subject of river and harbor improvements, he makes a grand appearance on horseback.

On State-rights, he appears well in his spaulds and brass buttons. On civil-service reform, he has a fine military bearing.

On the subject of reform in the administration of the government, he is a modern Minut.

On the Indian question, he is the finest looking Indian fighter the country ever produced, notwithstanding that for every Indian he killed it cost the government $4,500.000.

On the southern question, he behaved like a gallant soldier, and made himself popular with every Ku-Klux, White Limer, bulldozer and ballot-box stuffer.

On the subject of our foreign relations, he wears a splendid moustache. On the schep question, he is a handsome looking man.

On all other questions of public policy, he has a martial bearing. In some respects he resembles Jeff Davis—the only difference being that he wears a corset while Jeff wore a petticoat—Cleveland Leader.

It is rumored that strenuous efforts are being made to induce Hancock to withdraw, as with him as the standard bearer there is no earthly hope for the Democracy.

Grant has a sincere admirer in Mantion, Colorado, who walked off lately with $400 worth of the personal effects of the party by way of souvenirs of the General.

Miss Minnie Piehotte has challenged the winner of the 20 mile ride at Minneapolis, to ride 10, 15 or 20 miles at Denver, St. Louis, Kansas City, Minneapolis or Chicago, for $2,000 a side.

The Virginia Democracy are making desperate efforts to compromise, as the general belief prevails that the state will be lost to Hancock if some compromise uniting the party is not effected soon.

The fight among the Democratic factions is becoming more bitter each day, although the leaders are still endeavoring to compromise. A convention for the above purpose is called to meet at Woodstock on to-morrow.

The merchants of Weston paid out between Monday and Friday of last week something over $1300 at Blue Mountain station, for freight alone.

The Democratic papers are appealing to the soldiers to rally to the support of General Hancock in a way and with an earnestness they were not accustomed to in the dark days of 1863.

Mr. English told the Democratic Committee that he fully realized the importance of the situation in Indiana. This means, of course, that he will contribute more to the campaign fund than he did to the Chicago free fund.

Hancock's Politics.

We have carefully searched the Democratic papers of the country for a summary of the political principles of Gen. Hancock, and have found them to be set forth about as follows:

On the subject of the currency, he is a magnificent-looking fellow. On the subject of the tariff, he is a splendid soldier.

On the subject of free trade, he wears a brilliant uniform. On the subject of river and harbor improvements, he makes a grand appearance on horseback.

On State-rights, he appears well in his spaulds and brass buttons. On civil-service reform, he has a fine military bearing.

On the subject of reform in the administration of the government, he is a modern Minut.

On the Indian question, he is the finest looking Indian fighter the country ever produced, notwithstanding that for every Indian he killed it cost the government $4,500.000.

On the southern question, he behaved like a gallant soldier, and made himself popular with every Ku-Klux, White Limer, bulldozer and ballot-box stuffer.

On the subject of our foreign relations, he wears a splendid moustache. On the schep question, he is a handsome looking man.

On all other questions of public policy, he has a martial bearing. In some respects he resembles Jeff Davis—the only difference being that he wears a corset while Jeff wore a petticoat—Cleveland Leader.

It is rumored that strenuous efforts are being made to induce Hancock to withdraw, as with him as the standard bearer there is no earthly hope for the Democracy.

Grant has a sincere admirer in Mantion, Colorado, who walked off lately with $400 worth of the personal effects of the party by way of souvenirs of the General.

Miss Minnie Piehotte has challenged the winner of the 20 mile ride at Minneapolis, to ride 10, 15 or 20 miles at Denver, St. Louis, Kansas City, Minneapolis or Chicago, for $2,000 a side.

The Virginia Democracy are making desperate efforts to compromise, as the general belief prevails that the state will be lost to Hancock if some compromise uniting the party is not effected soon.

The fight among the Democratic factions is becoming more bitter each day, although the leaders are still endeavoring to compromise. A convention for the above purpose is called to meet at Woodstock on to-morrow.

The merchants of Weston paid out between Monday and Friday of last week something over $1300 at Blue Mountain station, for freight alone.

The Democratic papers are appealing to the soldiers to rally to the support of General Hancock in a way and with an earnestness they were not accustomed to in the dark days of 1863.

Mr. English told the Democratic Committee that he fully realized the importance of the situation in Indiana. This means, of course, that he will contribute more to the campaign fund than he did to the Chicago free fund.

The Democratic press is making frantic but vain efforts to prevent the "fraud issue" from slipping out of its grasp.

It is stated, on good authority that Mr. English has not subscribed to a Democratic campaign fund in twelve years.

The Indianapolis Journal says that Hancock's manly beauty is about the sum total of his qualification for the Presidency.

Republicans are showing their confidence in the success of their ticket by promptly organizing all over the country. It is system that will tell on the day of election.

There has not been the slightest lessening of the tone of confidence in which the Republicans speak of the success of their ticket since the Democratic nominations were made.

The Indianapolis Journal says: General Hancock prides himself on his shape, and it has been understood in army circles for many years that he wears a corset. No man who wears a corset can be elected President.

The Democratic platform favors a tariff for revenue purposes only; and yet with control of both houses of Congress they have done nothing to modify tariff they so unctuously denounce.

The enthusiasm in Indiana over English has not started yet. The State Department has given permission to Mexican troops to follow Victoria across our line on the Rio Grande and they are in hot pursuit.

All men recently discharged from the Hudson river tunnel resumed work, and will be kept at work night and day until the crib is completed.

In the Superior Court at San Francisco, on Saturday, L. M. Kalloch was arraigned for the murder of Charles DeYoung. The accused was allowed until Thursday next to plead.

The officers of the Japanese corvette Takubata tendered a reception in honor of the Japanese Consul, which was attended by about three hundred ladies and gentlemen, at San Francisco on the afternoon of July 23d.

There is no need of American contributions for Ireland. The potato crop is ripe. Bright appears occasional, and mostly on fields planted with old seed in southwestern Ireland. There is no apprehension of its spreading.

Workmen excavating at the East St. Louis depot, found a box with the mutilated and decomposed remains of a man supposed to be Judge Mayo, a banker of Illinois, who disappeared mysteriously over a year ago about that region.

Lady Anne DeGray, eldest daughter of Earl DeGray, died in London July 24th.

J. H. Blount has been nominated for Congress by the Democrats of Macomb Georgia.

Gen. Grant is going to Boston the last of September as the guest of the Middlesex Club.

Cicero Simms was hanged at Fair-play, Col., on July 23d for the murder of Jno. Johnson last January.

It is believed that a meeting of the British agents and Abulrahman Kahn will shortly be arranged near Kabul.

Extensive forest fires are raging south of Seattle in the vicinity of White river. In the late municipal election at Colfax 59 votes were cast. E. N. Sweet was elected mayor.

The city assessor reports within the corporate limits of Seattle this year $1,585,519 worth of property.

During the next month the effort will be made at the Seattle factory to manufacture 100,000 complete barrels, or nearly 400 a day.

On Saturday it was announced that Hancock's letter of acceptance was ready, but he was waiting for English to get his ready.

REMOVAL. PHIL. COHEN Has removed his stock of goods to the brick lately occupied by the Grange Union Store, Corner Washington and First Streets, where he will be pleased to meet old and new customers.

STORAGE: Albany City Mills! THESE MILLS WILL PAY

Four Cents Per Bushel, in mill feed—Bran or Shorts—over and above the market price, on good merchantable wheat sold to us or stored at our mills.

ALBANY Collegiate Institute, Albany, Oregon.

The Second Term will open on Wednesday, Sept. 1st, 1880.

Summons. In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the county of Lane.

M. L. Hasbrouck, G. C. Conroy and J. H. Washburn, partners under the firm name of the State of Conroy & Washburn, and Albert Butts, defendants.

GOLD. Great chance to make money. We will take a person in every town to make subscriptions for the largest, cheapest and best illustrated family publication in the world.

BENT business now before the public. You can make money faster at work for us than at home by the ordinary means.

666 a week in your own town. $1000 per week. No rent. Reader, if you can see a business at which persons of either sex can make money, write for particulars to H. HALLET & CO., Portland, Maine.

Citation. In the County Court of the county of Lane, State of Oregon.

Sheriff's Sale. In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the county of Lane.

BY VIRTUE OF TWO SEPARATE WRITS of execution issued out of the above named Court in favor of the above named appellant.

Saturday, the 24th day of July, 1880, at the Court House door in the city of Albany, Lane county, Oregon.

ST. CHARLES HOTEL, ALBANY, OREGON. Mrs. C. Houk, Proprietor.

JOB PRINTING! Neatly executed at this office.

LEGAL. O. E. CHAMBERLAIN, FLINN & CHAMBERLAIN, Attorneys at Law, ALBANY, OREGON.

J. C. POWELL, W. R. BILYEU, POWELL & BILYEU, Attorneys at Law and Solicitors in Chancery.

J. K. WEATHERFORD, (NOTARY PUBLIC), Attorney at Law, ALBANY, OREGON.

D. R. N. BLACKBURN, ATTORNEY AT LAW, ALBANY, OREGON.

L. H. MONTANEY, Attorney at Law, ALBANY, OREGON.

C. H. HEWITT, Attorney and Counselor at Law, Office, Old Post Office Building, Albany, Oregon.

DE. H. J. CHURCHILL, Homeopathic Physician and Surgeon, Office in McCall's brick, Albany, Oreg.

B. E. SAVAGE, M. D., Physician and Surgeon, First street, Albany, Oregon.

C. C. KELLY, M. D., PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, ALBANY, OREGON.

JUNIOR F. WHITING, ARTIST, Fresco, Sign, Scene, and Pictorial Painting.

D. G. CLARK, Heavy and Shelf Hardware, Iron, Steel and Mechanics' Tools.

F. WOOD & CO., Manufacturers of MONUMENTS!

MARBLE AND STONE WORKS. Head Stones, Tablets, Mantles, Cemetery Curbing, Ashler & Coping.

As we get our marble direct from the quarries, and have it selected with care, we can assure customers the

The Best Materials and Lowest Prices. Orders from any part of the State promptly attended to.

Ladies' Variety Emporium. MRS. M. J. HYDE, KEEPS CONSTANTLY ON HAND German Zephyr, Canvas, Thread, Pins, Needles, Buttons, Real Hair Switches and Curbs, Hosiery, Stamped Goods, &c., &c.

Child's Waist and Corset Skirt Supporter. French stamping done to order.

NEW PATENT. With over 1,000,000 pairs of shoes made at wholesale prices in quantities to suit the market.