City Paper.
FRIDAY, SEPT. 17, 1880.

FOR PRESIDENT,
A. GARFIELD,
OF OHIO.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
GEO. A. ARTHUR,
OF NEW YORK.

COOP!

Skunked in Maine!
A Seven! Despite the 300 Democratic Corruption Fund!

Legislature Overwhelmingly Republican!

ne New U. S. Senator will be a Republican.

Davis will Doubtless be Re-lected Governor.

Democracy Sick and Discouraged.

The news from Maine on Wednesday looked well for the success of the Greenback Democratic fusionists, and all over the country the Democrats (claiming the victory because they furnished the corruption fund) cheered, torchlighted, misick-ed, bonfired and "trified" in the old style of yesterday told a different tale, and now the Democratic lip has to be thrown over the shoulder to keep from being tramped on by its owner.

Maine is true to the old Republican party despite fusion, fraud and the lavish expenditure of corruption money. The Legislature is largely Republican in both branches, insuring the re-election of Davis as Governor, as well as a Republican U. S.
Senator.

The hands of Republicans all over the Union, increasing Garfield's majority, and every Northern State will cast its vote solid for the Republican ticket in November.

The Exclusive Business Don't Seem to be a Success.

The exclusive element of the Democratic party tried to eject a little enthusiasm into their worn-out political bodies last Wednesday evening, but only succeeded in getting fifteen members to attend the wake at the Court House. What will they do with the corpse, is what's troubling them now. Without the excluded wing, Democracy pure and simple is gone entirely to the demimonde how-wows in Linn; but to be compelled to humbly ask forgiveness and the assistance of said excluded wing is, if anything, worse than the Austerlid defeat which awaits them if they don't. It's galling to the "white man's party," and it's the only party that can do it, so then we may expect the "ex-clusives" to get down on their narrow, bones, ask pardon for getting defeated, ask humble pie, and then gracefully retire to back seats and let the victorious "excluded" run de machine! How are the mighty fallen!

Democratic strategy exhibits a new phase in Maine—it attempted to purchase majorities. Democratic strategy failed.
English was put upon the ticket solely to use it. And he has promised to use one hundred thousand dollars in purchasing votes for the Democratic ticket in Indiana. Doubtless he will try to carry out his promise, and spend even more than this sum in this endeavor, but he will sink his money to no purpose, as was the $100,- 000 spent in Maine. Bulldozing in the North don't pan, so these Democratic "reformers" have but one hope of success, and that is in buying majorities. But the plan has been disclosed too early in the campaign, and a close watch will be kept upon bribe-takers, and they will doubtless result in furnishing more Democratic candidates for the penitentiary.

Last week Vermont came to the front with thirty thousand Republican majority —an unusually heavy vote for that staunch Republican State. "The first gun for Garfield." On Monday, Maine held an election.
The canvass was the most exciting and hotly contested ever witnessed in the State, and the report is that the fusion candidates (Greenbackers and Democrats) got away with a majority of the votes. The Legislature, however, is largely Republican, showing that the State is all right, and will cast her vote for Garfield and Arthur in November. Our Democratic friends effect to be elated over the prospect of carrying Maine in November, but they have no hope. They are doing some mastery "whistling to keep their courage up," but this is an old dodge of theirs, and will fool nobody. Later news gives the victory to the Republicans.

Hon. J. N. Dolph and John F. Caples will deliver speeches during the canvass in the interest of the patriot and statesman, Gen. Garfield.

The Governor's message covers about twelve columns of the paper, and is a credible paper.

Yazoo Statistics.

According to the census returns of the solid South, notwithstanding the vast numbers of colored people who have left that "happy" country for the "cold and rigorous North" during the past two or three years—a fact which was deemed of such momentous importance by a Democratic Congress as to demand the appointment of an "investigating" committee—there has been a steady and extremely gratifying increase of population down in Dixie. In fact, in some portions of the South, especially in the quiet and peaceful State of Mississippi, the increase in population surpasses the wonderful growth of our most prosperous Western and Middle States. We may take, for instance, the county of Yazoo in Mississippi, somewhat notorious in the past years, it is true, for the murders, and robberies, and whippings, and midnight raids, committed upon defenseless people, whose only crime was that of being known as Republicans, or at least as opponents of the Democratic party—an out of the way rural district, it is true, but apparently possessing attractions so greatly outbalancing all other drawbacks as to—dece, use or increase her population as occasion required.
In the case of Yazoo county let us see how the "plan" of the "solid South" looks, when compared with former census returns.
We give the census returns of Yazoo for 1860 and 1870:

Census of 1860. White population 5,677 Colored population 12,325 Total 18,002	Census of 1870. White population 6,271 Colored population 12,325 Total 18,596
--	--

Showing an actual decrease in population of more than five thousand from 1860 to 1870.
This marvelous out of the way county of Yazoo, which shows an actual decrease in population in the ten years intervening between 1860 and 1870, gives evidence of such vast recuperative powers under the "plan" of the "solid South" census returns of 1880, as to fairly astonish the "world and the balance of mankind," eclipsing the phenomenal growth of the most favored Western or border State. Read:

Total population of Yazoo in 1870.....17,199
Total population of Yazoo in 1880.....35,000

While the census of 1870 shows that the population of Yazoo county decreased five thousand in the previous ten years, we are expected to believe that, under the soothing effects of the Ku-Klux, White League and shot-gun policies of the "solid South," Yazoo county actually increased in population during the ten years intervening between the census of 1870 and 1880, eighteen thousand!

A short history of political affairs in Yazoo county for a part of the time intervening between the last two census returns, as given by an exchange, may lead to a better understanding as to why the population should decrease from 1860 to 1870, and increase from 1870 to 1880. Following is a leaf from its history:

In 1875 the "White League" made a raid on the Republicans of Yazoo county, killed some and drove others off. Among those killed was a member of the legislature named Patterson. Patterson was wealthy and at the time of the outrage had on his person a large sum of money. This money was never recovered by Patterson's family or even heard from by Dixon, the leader of the gang who did the hanging, became an independent candidate for sheriff.

Dr. McCormick, the Chairman of the Democratic committee of Yazoo county, published a card declaring that Dixon was the leader of the mob which hung Patterson, and that he converted to his own use, the money and the property of Patterson. Dixon replied by this card to the public:

"Owing to certain reports now in circulation that Patterson, a member of the Republican party, was charged with having hanged on his person a large sum of money. This
family or even heard from by Dixon,
the leader of the gang who did the hanging,
became an independent candidate for sheriff."

Mr. McCormick, the Chairman of the Democratic committee of Yazoo county,
published a card declaring that Dixon was
the leader of the mob which hung Patterson,
replied by this card to the public:

family or even heard from by Dixon,
the leader of the gang who did the hanging,
became an independent candidate for sheriff."

To this Dixon replied in a card that the Patterson money was used to defray current expenses of the eventful campaign of 1875; that $3,000 was paid to have the poll-tax stamps changed to the names of issue certificates of election to the Democratic candidates; that Dr. McCormick was chairman of the Democratic executive committee at the time and was a party to the contract. I have in my possession the necessary receipts to show who received the $3,000, and also the false key to the ballot box.

It will be noticed that Dixon does not deny the killing of Patterson, but charges that he had the proof that the money was employed in the cause of the Democratic reform. Mr. Dixon, however, could not find his blood for his tergiversity in opposing the Democratic party. No man ever pretends that Patterson was a bad man except that he was a Republican. Murder a man, rob his dead body in the case of Mississippi chivalry, and apply the proceeds to pay for stuffing the ballot box. This is the "plan."

Murder, and robbery, and ballot box stuffing, and false swearing and false census returns being the whole and entire assets of the Democratic party of the "solid South," can honest, law-abiding, conscientious citizens of Oregon vote for Gen. Hancock, the standard bearer of that party?

If the Republicans in Maine had been defeated by the fusion ticket, it would not have been a Democratic victory. Plaieted, the fusion candidate for Governor, was originally a Republican and became a Greenbacker. He was placed in nomination by a Greenback Convention, and then "endorsed" by a Democratic State Convention. Had he succeeded it would have been a Greenback victory and not a Democratic.

On Wednesday night the Democracy of Portland expended a good deal of breath and money, and power over the Republican victory in Maine. They are cursing the telegram now—the "hired emissary" of the "radicals."

Big Nosed George, a noted road agent and murderer, arraigned at Rawlins, Wyooming, on Monday, on charge of murder, pleading guilty of murder in the first degree, refusing all legal counsel, saying he would die for his crimes.

More Glaring Southern Frauds.

The great frauds committed in the Southern States in taking the recent census are so glaring, that a man must have an admirable cheek who dare deny them. In South Carolina where an increase of forty three per cent. in the population is claimed in the last ten years, the decrease in wealth according to the same census is, if anything, more remarkable than the increase of population. During the past ten years the value of land is represented as having depreciated more than twenty-three millions of dollars, and the number of buildings is less by 2,910, than ten years ago. By the official report of the Auditor of State, made recently, the taxable value of property in the State is less by forty millions of dollars than three years ago. The number of houses have not only decreased, but the number of domestic animals and other personal property have largely decreased. But these unblushing census takers, under the direction and by order, doubtless, of the shot-gun bosses, ask us to believe that, although ten years ago there were but 705,605 people living in 121,545 houses, there are now 996,824 people living in 121,935 houses! Does any sensible man believe that men accumulate wealth and decay in that manner?

Legislature Organized.

The eleventh biennial session of the Oregon Legislature convened at Salem on Monday last. The Senate organized with the following officers: Sol Ilr-c'h, President; J. C. Peckles, Chief Clerk; G. O.
Holman, Assistant Clerk; George Tateem, Sergeant at Arms; Joseph Acton, Door-keeper. The rules of 1878 were adopted for the government of the Senate for the present. The clergermen of the city were invited to open the sessions with prayer.

The house organized permanently with the following officers: Z. P. Moody, Speaker; C. B. Moores, Clerk; J. W.
Strange, Assistant Clerk; E. C. Hadaway, Sergeant-at-Arms; T. A. Bacon, Door-keeper; Charley Cooper and L. Laughhead, Pages.

A South Side Solid by Fraud.

The following outspoken paragraph is from the Mobile (Ala.) Gazette:

"We shall live to see the day when the solid South will be regarded as the greatest political mistake of the age. A South made solid by fraud, perpetrated under the very sanction of the electon laws that ever cursed a community, cannot long exist as a menace to the whole country, and should not be permitted to exist for the safety and happiness of the free people of America. In its present aspect it means nothing but healthy national feeling, political depravity, industrial death."

Capt. Dolg, charged with having caused the wreck of the steamer Great Republic at the mouth of the Columbia river, was arrested in San Francisco on Monday by U. S. Detective Finnegass and Special Officer Fred V. Davis, and turned over to the U. S. authorities. He had a preliminary examination before U. S. Commissioner O'Brien, who held him in $2,000 bail, and transferred the case to the U. S. District Court in order that the necessary papers may be issued for sending the defendant to Oregon, where he was indicted, for trial.

Our Would-be Riders.

The Chicago Liberator says:

"The Chicago of the South, one by one, are being ditched by drawing a wet sponge over the face of the Ledger. They are all solid for Hancock and the party of republicanism. In five years past $27,000,000 of honest debts, distinctly to northern and foreign capitalists, have been thus disposed of, and more in prospect. These are the people who propose to run our national affairs for us. Their credentials do not impress us as being exactly what they should be."

Man's.

A Chicago telegram of the 14th has this in the little mare: Captain Stone is said to have stated privately to-day that he intends to drive Mand S. on Thursday for all there is in her and to lower the record to such a point that St. Julien will not be able to touch it, for this year at least.
It is said that he believes Mand can make the circuit in 2:08 if conditions are favorable. Her trial trip of 2:14 yesterday, in the face of a high wind and poorish track, is considered quite remarkable.

Hon. George H. Williams.

Hon. George H. Williams is expected to arrive in this State in a few days. Judge Williams is one of the ablest men in the United States, and if it be possible the Garfield Club of this city should secure him for at least one great speech before he returns to Washington. No man is more thoroughly acquainted with national politics, and none would be listened to with greater attention by all our people.

Fell out about Quarrelling?

"All is not gold that glitters," and the ancient harmony and good feeling, once so heartily claimed as reigning in the ranks of the old and reliable Democracy of Linn, is stirred to its profoundest depths; and it is feared, with reason, too, that matters can not be amicably adjusted in time to save it from utter ruin in November.
Vale, Bonbons of Linn—your light has gone out.

Fairs.

The Washington County Fair begins next Monday, September 20th. The Walls Walla Fair will be held next month.
Linn County Fair opens on the 6th of October. Mechanics' Fair, Portland, is advertised to commence on the 7th of October, but may commence on the 4th, and will attract visitors from every part of the State. We believe the races are to commence at Salem next month.

Judge Caples was absent from Portland, and therefore did not receive the letter of invitation sent from the Garfield Club of this city, asking him to deliver an address on Saturday night, until the latter part of the week. Previous engagements prevent ed his coming, but he will be with us before the canvass is ended.

Senator Bayard has taken the stump in South Carolina.

An Asylum for the Insane.

The State has submitted long enough to exorbitant charges for keeping its insane, and a determined effort will be made during the present session of the State Legislature to build an asylum where the unfortunate of our State may receive proper care and attention at figures that will not impoverish the State treasury for the enrichment of one man. Under the present "management" we are inclined to believe that persons sent there slightly demented are almost morally certain in a short time to become permanently and radically insane.
If it is possible for the State to erect the necessary buildings, let it be done; if not, let the contract be given to reliable parties, who propose, as we are informed, to contract for the keeping of the insane for a specified number of years at rates probably less than half now paid the present monopoly. Let justice done our insane and the taxpayers at the same time.

Hancock Noting Sympy to Beauregard.

Following is a Toledo dispatch to the Cincinnati Commercial, of July 21: A gentleman in this city to-day received a letter from a friend in Vicksburg who was a resident of New Orleans at the time Gen.
Hancock was in confinement of the latter city. He incloses a copy of a note sent by General Beauregard to General Hancock in reply to an invitation from the latter to dinner. The note ran thus: "Gen. H.— Please don't humble me by those flags. I'll come and see you, but first remove them." The flags were accordingly ordered down, and Beauregard dined with General Hancock, who was thus guilty of an open insult to the flag to soothe the irritated nerves of an unrepentant rebel.

Bi-annual Reports.

Through the politeness of Hon. R. P.
Earhart, Secretary of State, we are in receipt of the following biennial reports to the Legislature now in session at Salem: Report of Secretary of State; State University; State Agricultural College, Corvallis; Superintendent of Penitentiary, Salem; Superintendent of Public Instruction, and State Librarian. Each is neatly printed in pamphlet form, showing that the State Printer appointed to fill in the time before the Printer elect could take his office. Mr. W. P. Keedy, understands his business to a dot.

The Garfield Club.

The Garfield Club meets Wednesday night next, at the Court House, and every two weeks thereafter until after the close of the Presidential canvass. All persons in sympathy with the party of Union and universal freedom, and who propose to vote and work for the election of the tri-partisan and patriot, Hon. Jas. A. Garfield is urged to place his name on the roll and become an active member of the Club.

Washington's Delegate.

Hon. Thos. Brand is has been nominated by the Washington Territorial Republican Convention for the Delegateship. Tom has made a good Delegate, has labored industriously and successfully for his constituents in the past, and will be re-elected by a good round majority.

Unaltered Shirts.

Linen and muslin guaranteed of the best quality, to be had at L. E. Blain's for one dollar each—cheaper than you can buy the stuff at retail, of which the shirts are made. Call at Blain's and see them.

Democratic Campaign Song.

Bring a saw a shot-gun,
A pocket full of dollars;
Four and twenty black men, A running for their lives.
When the polls are open, Put the big gun to work;
Isn't that a bully wench?
To make a solid South?

Northern sympathizers, Making speeches chiefly;
Major General Hancock,
Killing rebel infantry.

English in a quantity,
How to open his dollars;
Along comes a solid South,
And fits them all with collars.

A Fragrant Breath and Pearly Teeth Are easily obtained by cleansing your teeth with the tooth-powder of Dr. S. H. WALKER, D.D.S. Composed of fine anti-septic herbs, it imparts whiteness to the teeth, a delicious aroma to the breath and preserves intact, from decay to the crown. Activity of the stomach will destroy the strongest teeth; unless the action of the stomach is kept under control, and this pure tooth-wash protects the central system by removing every impurity that adheres to them. Ask your druggist for S. H.

An immense amount of fruit is being canned in Marion county.

A heavy frost fell in the Waldo hills on last Wednesday night, nipping potatoes,

Mr. Phelps commenced picking hops at his yard near Silverton last week, employing 25 Chinese. His crop is most excellent, the late rains being very beneficial to it.

Wells, Fargo & Co. shipped from Pendleton during August a total of $16,346 11, of which $4,500 25 was in silver bars and $75 in gold dust.

The Baker county Agricultural Society have offered a purse of $100 to be contested for by any one desiring to make a horseback ride of 50 miles with the allowance of ten horses for the distance.

William Cox and Albert Nash, recently engaged in the manufacture of brick near Pendleton, have shaken the dust of Unadilla county from their spines, leaving libraries to the amount of $700 in Pendleton and Weston.

E. F. Walker and J. B. Wisley, of Jackson county, have recently received machinery for the manufacture of sulphur springs, and will soon commence operations.
They have twenty acres in sulphur

"Free Land for the Landless"

To the Republican party are the people of the United States indebted for the passage of the homestead act. During the first years of Buchanan's administration every effort to pass a free homestead bill through Congress was defeated by the Democratic party; and when in the last year of Buchanan's administration, by increasing Republican strength, the bill was passed through Buchanan vetoed it, and the Democratic party sustained the veto. When under the administration of the patriot-statesman Lincoln, the bill became a law, both branches of Congress were Republicans, which made its passage possible. The Republican party has from the first not only been in favor of "free lands for the landless," and pre-emption laws, while the Democracy has as strenuously opposed, but its whole career has shown it to be in favor of all laws calculated to be of the greatest benefit to the greatest number.

Amson C. Ticheoor, of Callista, California, has been interviewed regarding his discovery of gold in the Thermal springs at Callistoga, which Ticheoor and Judge Dudley have recently purchased. He asserts that gold is held in solution in water, and that from a gallon of water taken from the Pacific ocean he has obtained a net profit of $1 30. He says that the waters of the springs are richer, and that from ten barrels he obtained $300. He proposes to make gold as cheap as sand. Here is his theory as given to a reporter of the Call:

Well, down in the interior of the earth where all this hot water comes from, gold is formed by the agency of intense chemical and electrical heat. This is in solution which so quicksilver will amalgamate.
This water fills veins of rocks and becomes transmitted into metal state through electrical influences. Now, if we can reproduce this state, resulting in the precipitation of gold, the problem is solved. I suspended a piece of rolled sheet lead, chemically and electrical heat. This is in solution
which so quicksilver will amalgamate.

Handsome Dry Goods.

Mr. S. E. Young has returned from San Francisco where he purchased a very large stock of dry goods, etc., which can now be seen upon counters and shelves in endless array. The ladies are specially interested in those handsome styles of dress goods —the latest and most fashionable. As Mr. Young buys for cash, direct from the manufacturers, he has a large percentage over-time buyers, and can and will sell at very much less rates. Call and see.
