Mr. Scott offered the following resolution, which was adopted unanimously:

Whereas, We are informed that the President of the United States, W. B. Hayes, and party, will pass over the Oregon & California railroad, on his way to Salem, on Thursday next, the 1st of October;

Resolved, That the Mayor and Common Council of the city of Albany, and all citizens of said city who may desire, meet the President and his party at the depot when the cars arrive, for the purpose of paying their respects to him as President of the United States; and that a dispatch be sent to the President at Roseburg, to ascertain at what time he will be in Albany, at the depot on said day, and give us audience.

The Mayor was authorized to do the necessary telegraphing, appoint the committees, etc.

The Mayor appointed Messrs. Saltmarsh, Scott and Rice on music. On donations Messrs. Martin, Gradwohl and Daniels.

The following communication was then read from the Blue Ribbon Club:

Herren and Central Meat Market. See new card.

County Fair.
 County Fair commences next Wednesday. Send in the big wheat, oats, fruit and vegetables, not forgetting the luscious fruit, preserves, cake, as well as needlework, plain and fancy. Let's have one grand old fair that will be a real credit to the county.

Garfield and Hancock.
 The fight between Garfield and Hancock will be a bitter and determined one, and how it will end no one can foretell, but any one can foretell the results of a fight between the worst case of backache or kidney complaint and the Oregon Kidney Tea. The latter never fails to conquer. Sold everywhere.

Successful Hunters.
 Some days since Messrs. W. U. Baltimore, D. B. Monteth, Wm. Hartless, Wat. Monteth and Milt. Hyde went up to the mountains on a deer hunt. Messrs. Baltimore and Wm. Hartless left camp for this city on Sunday evening, arriving here in the front of the week with a load of nice hams. They reported that up to the time of their departure the party had killed thirty-two deer. D. B. Monteth and W. U. Baltimore were the boss hunters, having killed twelve each.

A Hancock Triumph.

Friday evening the Democracy of this city went by rail to Lebanon to ratify and speak. The Hancock Guards, to the number of 80, including a few boys, paraded First street with torches, filling the air at times with "cheers" and "tigers." After getting on the cars the fun commenced. Going and on the return, a number of Hancockers proceeded to hammer each other in good style. A few ladies accompanied the crowd, having a car provided for them, and they were nevertheless insulted, going so far, in one instance at least, that a gentleman, who happened to be in the car, was forced to choke the party effectually to make him believe. We were not present on the occasion, but the above information comes from a solid Democrat, and we have no reason to doubt him when he averred to us that a part of the crowd was composed of the "lowest down stiffs outside the penitentiary." We hope never to be invited to chronicle a similar occasion.

Four bottles of whisky were drunk in one car on the way out, which had no little to do with the quantity already taken aboard before leaving the city, in firing the Hancockites. Such exhibitions of low vulgar obscenity will not increase the Hancock vote in Linn county.

El Carter & Co.
 Messrs. El Carter & Co., manufacture that excellent agricultural implement known as the "Excelsior Harvester," one of the best ever invented and which is so popular among the farmers. They manufacture it as a combined chaff crusher and cultivator, or without the chaff crusher, as farmers may desire. For this season they have made some improvements, and it is now more durable and better made than ever, while a reduction has been made in the price. Farmers and others are respectfully invited to call at their manufactory and examine it. They also keep on hand and manufacture to order all kinds of doors, window sash, molding, etc., for sale at as low rates as good material and good work will allow. Don't fail to call and see them. Factory at the foot of Montgomery street, on river bank.

It Pays to Insure.
 Business men make the matter of insuring their goods and property of the first importance, as no man can tell the day nor the hour in which his property may be damaged or entirely destroyed by fire, even though he may exercise the greatest care and watchfulness. Our farmers are pretty generally making assurance doubly secure by insuring their grain after placing it in the warehouse. This is wise and safe, and should be followed by all. Insure your grain, houses, barns, or goods of any kind in a good company, and you can sleep soundly. Among the soundest insurance companies doing business in Oregon, none can be more highly recommended than the Connecticut and the German-American. It is a noteworthy fact that both the above companies paid every dollar of their losses in the great Chicago and Boston fires, a fact which speaks loudly in their favor. The instructions to agents in every case is to find out the amount of any loss by fire in which they are interested, and pay it to the last farthing. These are the companies in which to insure. Mr. Julius Gradwohl is the accommodating agent for both companies in this city, to whom all should apply who desire to insure in safe companies.

Garfield and Arthur.
 There will be a meeting of Republicans held at Bishop's Hall, Brownsville, on Saturday (to-morrow), October 21, 1880, at half past three o'clock p. m., for the purpose of perfecting the organization of a Garfield and Arthur Club. All persons interested should remember that "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty," and that we still spell Nation with a big "N." Let there be a large attendance. This call is made at the request of

MANY REPUBLICANS.

The Late Daniel Bringle.
 Another pioneer is taken from us by death. Mr. Daniel Bringle having departed this life at the ripe old age of 79 years, on Friday of last week. He was buried on the following day. He had been a resident of Oregon for many years, and had many friends who will sincerely mourn the loss of a true and upright man. Peace to his ashes.

Complimentary.
 The Democratic torchlight and procession Monday night was a creditable affair. The "old stiffs" were not allowed to run it, but a better class of men were in procession. And the boys deserve credit for the orderly conduct of the whole affair. If the programme of Monday night is carried out during the rest of the campaign, we shall not be compelled to chronicle any more disgraceful conduct similar to that of Friday night last.

Handsome and Stylish.
 Mr. W. R. Graham, our Merchant Taylor, has received a lot of handsome cloth for gentlemen's suits, as can be had in any market. They are the latest fall styles, and he will make suits that fit, look well and will wear, at unusually low prices. If you desire a perfect fit in the latest style at a small expenditure of coin, don't fail to call on Graham, next door west of the REGISTER office.

The President's Visit.

President and Mrs. Hayes, Gen. Sherman, ex-Gov. Ramsey, and the large number accompanying them, reached this city a few minutes after 11 o'clock a. m. of Thursday, by special train from Roseburg. By previous arrangement, Mayor D. G. Clark, attended by the City Council, were on hand to receive the President and escort him to the balcony of the hotel at the depot, where stationed the Ladies' Cornet Band and Mechanics' Brass Band, both of which united in rendering some splendid music for the occasion. The Mayor formally tendered to President Hayes, in a neat speech, the congratulations of our people and the freedom of the city, when Gov. Thayer stepped forward and introduced the President to the people of Linn county, when cheer after cheer went up from the vast throng assembled to do him honor. The President then made a neat little speech to which the closest attention was paid throughout, and lustily cheered at its close. Ex-Gov. Ramsey was then introduced, and although he said he was too hungry to make a speech, yet he, too, made a most excellent talk. Gen. Sherman was then introduced, and the old veteran made one of his characteristic speeches. In the mean time Mrs. Hayes had been induced to come upon the balcony and be introduced to the hundreds of ladies present who desired to see the lady who had done so much for the cause of temperance while acting as mistress of the White House. Mayor Clark gratefully introduced Mrs. Hayes, and then, after the cheering had subsided, presented her, with the compliments of the Ladies' Cornet Band of Albany, a handsome bouquet. The party then retired to the dining room where an elegant dinner was served. We noted among the party Hon. M. C. George, Congressman elect, Hon. Richard Williams, ex-Gov. Gibbs, Gov. Thayer, Secretary of State Fairbank, ex-Mayor Newbury, of Portland, Cy. Dolph, Esq., several members of the Legislature, and other whose names we can not now call to mind. The train left about five minutes before noon. Instead of this condensed notice we should have greatly preferred to have given a full report of the speeches made, etc., but this prevents. In conclusion we can only add that the Ladies' Cornet Band received numerous compliments upon their music. Mrs. Hayes made special inquiries regarding them, and the entire party seemed pleased with the hearty reception given them by our people. There was but one person who forgot common politeness by yelling two or three times for Hancock, but as the entire assembly seemed to excuse him on account of his pure ignorance, no harm was done. We are rather proud of our people, and Albany has again proved itself worthy of the flattering encomiums heretofore heaped upon her by all visitors.

The Golden Days of Youth.
 The other day we received a paper from "away down in Egypt," our boyhood's home. How it brought up the old times when we hunted blackberries and waded in Silver creek with Cleopatra Matilda Ann and her handsome redheaded sister, Priscilla Italia. Then, later, during the long winter evenings, how we congregated around the big rock built fireplace, cracking hazelnuts and shellbarks and grubberies for Fun, and filling in the hours with "pleased or displeased." Then the candy-pullings, the quilting bees, the corn shuckings—jewish. Then the tremendous fight with Newt Pace, the next day, because kissed his "gal" when ordered to "go to Rome" and in the summer, how we used our "influence" with the boys not to hook widdler Massey's melons—and prevailed on 'em. She had two such sweet girls! And how we used to go to Sunday School so regularly every Sunday morning at 9 o'clock; and how regularly, some mornings, we didn't go all the same; and how we used to imitate Washington, with our little hatchet always in sight; and how, at school, we were always head of the class, when we were not occupying some other position; and how affectionately old Tanner used to go for us, and how we loved him; and—in fact, the recollection of the "halcyon" days of youth come swelling up by the volume, and we could write a book. If we had time, God bless the old home and the friends of our youth.

Splendid Millinery.
 A large attendance greeted Mrs. Powell's grand opening of new fall and winter styles of millinery yesterday, the handsome store being thronged with fair ladies until late in the day. The room, under the hands of Mrs. Powell and Miss French, was tastefully and handsomely decorated, and the large show-window filled in such manner as to show off the hats, bonnets, millinery, etc., to the best advantage. The new styles are elegant, and the ladies are keeping the lady attendants busy in filling their orders. It is the finest display we have ever seen in the city.

More Nice Goods.
 Mrs. Parrish failed to get all the handsome millinery goods ordered, but still the display at her new place yesterday was good enough, and orders came in fast. She will receive full supplies in a day or two, and will keep her stock full and complete during the season, and will sell at prices that will astonish those patronizing her. Call and see, ladies.

Married.

Railroad Prospects.

We are informed by the Vice President of the Oregon Pacific Railway Co., Mr. Nash, that the contracts for iron, etc., for the road, will be made for the delivery of said material at a period not later than April, 1881, so that the work of construction may commence early in the Spring. The first work that will engage the attention of the Company, will be the construction of proper wharves, etc., at Yaquina Bay, preparatory to receiving the material, locomotives, flat and other cars for the road. As the building of one hundred and thirty miles of road have already been contracted for, to be completed during 1881, there will be no foolishness, but the work will be pushed with the utmost vigor. The intention is, as we remarked last week, to commence the work at the Day and come this way. The road will pass through Corvallis, cross the Willamette at that point, and come straight to this city. From here it will pass on to Lebanon, thence on over the mountain road. This is the present plan, at least. We were mistaken last week in saying that the O. P. Railway would connect with Jay Gould's railroad at Boise City; it will connect with an Eastern road, however, now being built.

A Pleasant Time.
 Mr. Virgil Parker, of this city, and Miss Mary Parker, daughter of Hon. Allen Parker, of Yaquina Bay, were united in marriage at the home of the bride the first of the week, arriving in this city, their future home, on Wednesday. The same evening a large number of invited guests assembled at the residence of Mr. E. A. Parker, father of the bridegroom, spending a pleasant evening and partaking of the grandest supper imaginable—it just laid out anything in quality, quantity and variety of dishes. It is impossible to do the supper justice, and we are compelled to fall back on the expression used by the ladies when intending to mean perfection, "It was perfectly splendid." About half past nine, the firemen, accompanied by Mechanics' Brass Band, paid their respects to the newly wedded, Virgil being a member of One's. Virgil came to the front, made a little speech, invited the boys in, cake, sodas and cigars all round, and was duly congratulated by his brother firemen. It was a very pleasant occasion to all, and Mr. Parker and his handsome wife have the best wishes of hosts of friends for their continued happiness and unbounded prosperity.

Housing of Hook and Ladder Trucks.
 Annual list of Hook and Ladder Company No. 1.
 On Thursday, October 7th, Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1 of this city will receive their handsome apparatus from the city, duly presented by the Mayor, attended by the City Council, when they will be housed in due form. The entire Fire Department will turn out and aid in the ceremony. I. C. Dickey will act as Chief Marshal, with D. B. Monteith and F. H. Davis, Assistants. The Department will march out to the depot of the O. & C. Railroad, starting at about 11 A. M., meeting and escorting the several companies from Salem and other points, who are expected on the noon train, back to the city when the ceremonies will take place. After the "housing," a lunch will be set for invited and invited guests at One's house. In the evening a call will be given by the Hook and Ladder Co. at the Opera House. Tickets, $1 50.

Fox, Baum & Co.
 One of the strongest and oldest dry goods houses in this city is that of Fox, Baum & Co. They carry an immense stock of goods in the way of dry goods, clothing, groceries, boots, shoes, hats, caps, etc., etc., and from a perfect understanding of the wants of our people, gained by long years of experience, are enabled to offer for the inspection of old and new patrons, the choicest of fall and winter goods specially adapted and purchased to meet their wants. An inspection will prove all that has been stated in their handsome advertisement, on the first page of this issue, we think; and a cordial invitation is extended to all to call at their store and examine goods and prices. And while there take a look at the telephone connecting the store with the Court House—it is a novelty to many.

Clothing.
 Strangers visiting our city should not fail to make themselves acquainted with the attractions of L. E. Blaha's Clothing House, in Foster's Block, where a large assortment of reasonable Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats, Boots and Shoes, for Men and Boys, are always on display. This house has rare facilities for procuring the very best of Ready made Clothing, and yet sold at prices much below what it would cost to buy the cloth and have them made to order. The proprietor extends a cordial welcome to all visitors to the County Fair, whether they purchase or not, as he desires that the superior quality of his Clothing, and the moderate prices, should be widely known.

More Nice Goods.
 Mrs. Parrish failed to get all the handsome millinery goods ordered, but still the display at her new place yesterday was good enough, and orders came in fast. Grand Repeal

A grand torchlight procession of this city, will be given next. Hon. Geo. H. W. present and make a speech. Judge Williams is one of the wheel horses of the Republic, has few equals and no super-rostrum. The various Garfield Clubs in this and Benton county invited and expected to be with us in the procession. Both hands will be secured for the occasion being to give a chance to Republican in the whole country part with us and have an old-fashioned whoop-up. The ladies, too, are cordially invited to take part in the procession. And won't we have time! Don't let anything but illness prevent every Republican in this city from appearing on the occasion, come one, come all.
