FRIDAY ..... OCT. 15, 1880 EARNEST TALK TO YOUNG VOTERS. Gen. Garfield Talks to a Large Delega-tion of Young Men. CLEVELAND, Oct 9-The "First Voters" of the Garfield and Arthur battalion, of Kidney and Liver Cure, and other remedies, Cleveland, went to Mentor to-day by special train of six cars, and called on ous disadvantages in the past and the Gen. Garfield at his home. The train new comet which he recently found was stopped at the farm and the battalion in spite of many obstacles, but as the new heade I by a band marched to the residence where Herman W. Gramms, president of discoveries there are good reasons to expect the organization, made a brief eulogistic very many scientific revelations in the address to which Gen. Garfield responded near future from the Warrer Observatory at Rochester. as follows : "Mr. Chairman and Young Gentlemen: This is no ordinary event in the history of any people, when as I am told there are 400 young men here who made the journey, not for any personal purpose, but to express that great general earnest purpose that arise in the hearts ofactive, intelligent young men when they first grapple the questions of their country.
