The Oregon Railway Company, limited, proposes to commence grading its road from Dayton, Yamhill county, to Folger's landing, seven miles below, as soon as the route is selected...

By the organization of the Columbia & Puget Sound Railroad Company, which swallows up the late Oregon Improvement Co., the Seattle Coal road, a major portion of the Seattle Coal and Transportation Co., including the Newcastle mines, the greater portion of the ships, the colliers now building in Pennsylvania, 146,000 acres of land east of the mountains, the rolling stock, property and franchises of the Seattle & Walla Walla Railroad Co., etc., on which the sum of $5,000,000 was raised...

A Sacramento, Cal., telegram of Nov. 30, says: "Secretary of State Burns, had it in his power to have declared the State for Garfield, for the returns from Mendocino, Lassen and Shasta counties came without the seals of the boards of supervisors, and nothing appeared upon them to give them official identity. Had he kept the packages unopened until to-day, as he might have done under the law, those counties must have been thrown out, as there had been no valid verified returns filed. But the secretary opened the returns as received and discovered the error named and telegraphed the clerks of those counties they still had time before the 25th to make proper returns. This they did."

Senator Cochran, of Lane county, is talked of as a probable candidate for Governor of the Democrat at the next State election. Senator Haines, of Baker county, is also mentioned in the same connection. The last named gentleman would get a much larger vote in Eastern Oregon than Cochran, as the people up there have not the kindest feeling toward him for characterizing them as cowards in a speech in the State Senate while the bill for the payment of volunteers in the late Indian war was under discussion. Little matters of this kind long remain green in the memory of the dwellers beyond the Cascade range.

The wheat crop of France this year has only been surpassed eight times during the century. Her increase over last year, 6,349,000 bushels. According to French statistics Europe is better off by 30,000,000 quarters than in 1878. These being facts the hope for an advance this season in the price of wheat on this coast is not the best in the world.

Telegrams give account of the formation of a powerful syndicate to complete the N. P. Railroad. It is formed of the strongest capitalists, who agree to furnish $30,000,000 with which to complete the road. Of course this is good news, as it insures without a doubt the speedy completion of this great road.

There is not a leading paper or man of respectable talent and reputation in the United States, that pretends for a moment to deny the election of Gen. Garfield to the Presidency. It is the universally expressed opinion that he is fairly and squarely elected and will be duly inaugurated on the 4th of March next.

On Wednesday, in accordance with law doubtless the electors chosen on the second of last month, met in the capitals of their respective States and cast their votes for President and Vice President. They then certified to their proceedings and forwarded them by one of their number to the Secretary of the U. S. Senate.

Political Speculation. Our friend Walter Ketchum is spoken of as a proper candidate for Mayor on the Republican ticket. Walter Ketchum is a man of good judgment, a careful manager, and of the strictest integrity, and would be hard to beat. Either Judge Blackburn or Mr. Ketchum would fill the bill. The Democracy talk of putting Mr. Kline up for Mayor. Mr. Kline would doubtless poll more votes than any other Democrat, and his Republican opponent must be sold to get away with him. Mr. Martin is also mentioned for the office, but as he is not a subscriber for the REGISTER his chances are slim enough. For Recorder we hear of no new candidates on the Republican ticket. The Democracy offer Judge Baldwin, Billy Brum, the present incumbent, and it may be others. We are inclined to think Recorder Hatter has the inside. For Marshal Messrs. Oakley and Westfall have been mentioned since our last issue; but Andrew Jackson Hunt has made such a splendid record that he will be hard to beat. All are good men—but a tried servant, who has been found faithful to his trust and to the people, always must have the inside track as long as people are people. Cal. Burkhardt seems to have the inside for the Democratic nomination. For Treasurer Wiley B. Allen is a candidate while Olin McWain, D. D. Gray and others have been mentioned—either of whom would fill the bill on the Republican ticket. Frank Redfield will be insisted upon as the proper candidate for Councilman from the First Ward, and Martin will likely be his opponent. The Republicans of the Second Ward talk of A. C. Layton as a candidate; Scott seems likely to be his opponent. In the Third Ward Mr. Ballard seems to be the proper man. He would make a most excellent Councilman, and if the real interests of the Ward are taken into consideration, should be elected by a large majority. Our Democratic friends haven't his equal for the position in the Ward.

These "speculations" may be knocked into a cocked hat—we only write from the glimpse as we pass along. Judge E. D. Taylor has been elected to fill the vacancy in the nineteenth Ohio Congressional district, occasioned by the resignation of President elect Garfield.

Prince Gortchakoff is said to feel the helplessness of his condition so much that he has asked to be definitely relieved from the duties of Chancellorship. Ismail Pasha, ex-Khedive, is leading the quietest sort of life in Vienna. He drives daily the Prater, never failing to visit the Industrial Exhibition. He dines at 6 and never stirs out afterward, but sits in his rooms at the hotel playing cards with his suite all evening.

The Russian Czarevna, the sister of Alexandra, has just done a kindly deed, which the officers under Skobloff will not soon forget. Hearing that they were suffering for want of warm leather jackets to keep off the severe night frosts, she ordered a hundred of these jackets from a St. Petersburg tailor and quietly sent them off with the "Czarevna's best wishes."

The ex-Empress Carlotta has fortunately lost all her memory of her Mexican experience, never making any allusion to it. The unhappy princess in the darkness of her mind still retains the habits of court etiquette, exacts all ceremonious adjuncts, even to a guard of honor, and always attires herself in a handsome costume for dinner. The only visitor who she consents to see is Queen Marie Henriette, who shows a kindly devotion to the invalid who does her honor.

The following words from our President-elect, James A. Garfield, seem as fitting as when they were first uttered: "After the storms of battle were heard the sweet calm words of peace spoken by the conquered foe that lay prostrate at his feet: 'This is our only revenge, that you join us in lifting into the serene firmament of the Constitution, to shine like stars forever and ever, the grand principle that all men, white or black, shall be free and stand equal before the law.'"

J. J. Cozart, of Grant county, lost 150 head of sheep by their being poisoned on wild parsnips. The Baker Democrat says $200 was cleaned up from an arastra working three weeks on ore from the old Jones mine, near Pocatones.

Large bands of antelopes have made the meadows in the vicinity of Camp Harry their resort which occasion much sport for the hunters.

Sam Lee, a Chinese merchant at Auburn, Baker county, tried to skip away and defraud the Chinese merchant he owed $1,500 to, but the Mexican law holds him in jail at Baker City.

One Mr. Brown, of Forest Grove, while on a visit to Lafayette was seized with an apoplectic fit and falling to the stone floor out a deep gash in his head. He was taken under charge by a physician and is now doing nicely.
