KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

On Thursday afternoon, about three o'clock, as Lewis B. and Monroe Cleaver, brothers, were driving some cattle into town along the Brownsville road, three miles from here, a sudden thunder and lightning shower broke over them.

The lightning stroke knocked Monroe senseless to the ground from his horse, and killed Lewis and the horse which he rode. One of the cattle had its jaw broken by the same stroke.

On partially recovering from the shock, Monroe found his brother dead in the road. His hair was burned, and his clothes down to the waist were burned and scorched; his hat rent in strips. His skin was not torn, nor were any bones injured.

The fatal stroke had evidently killed him instantly. Monroe is still suffering from the shock. The deceased was a resident of Albany, and carried on the butchering business in town for years. He was 26 years, 2 months and 10 days old. A large circle of friends who esteemed him in life for his many, excellent qualities, join in respect to his memory, and in sympathy for the grief-stricken relatives who are so suddenly called to bewail his loss.

THE COUNTY FAIR.—Don't forget to attend the Linn County Annual Fair at Boston on the 19th and 20th inst.

It will be seen that good premiums will be given for the best trotting horses. Everybody ought to be there.

COMMENTING.—A freight wagon entered the Valley the other day by way of the new road from Lebanon across the mountains, from Canyon City.

The road will be in good working condition during the ensuing week, perhaps, or by the week following at farthest.

ARRIVED.—The company of forty soldiers, under Capt. Lafollet, ordered to make a winter camp at the mouth of Crooked river, on the new mountain wagon road from Lebanon, reached the latter place on their way to their destination last Thursday.

THE WEATHER.—Frequent rains, cool days and chilly nights, have prevailed during the week. Much injury has been inflicted on farmers by the rains. It is unusual weather for the season.

COMING IN.—A large party of emigrants were at the Dalles a few days ago, bound for the Valley. Let them come in—there is room enough for all, and welcome greetings await them.

AT PHILADELPHIA, they are exhibiting a panoramic view of the assassination of Abraham Lincoln and the attempted assassination of Secretary Seward.—(Boston Journal).

SECRETARY STANTON refused to let Ford open his theatre again because Mr. Lincoln was assassinated in it. He alleges, however, this sort of exhibition in Philadelphia. That's consistency. He has as much right over the Philadelphia monstrous show as he has over Ford's theatre in Washington. Why don't he stop the exhibition?

ANOTHER LITTLE QUESTION.—To our interrogatory, writer old John Brown was a traitor, both the Oregonian and our neighbor of the Journal admit that he was, and further, that he justly merited the ignominious death he suffered. So far, so good, gentlemen. Now, another little question: if you please to the following question: Why do you celebrate in song his treasonable deeds, and hold the memory as one who died a martyr in a righteous cause?

TO GO TO DU TR.—The Arena says Gov. Gibbs will call an extra session of the Legislature to meet about the middle of October.

LET'S LOOK OUT FOR SQUARES in the "Union" party.—The Standard Law, Negro Suffrage, and the Disfranchisement, the Code and the Jones, will make it an interesting session, in any meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association to the Constitution.
