THE VERY LATEST! Special Dispatches of This Day.

President Lincoln on Negro Suffrage.

On Thursday last about noon, after the stage found down from Idaho City had passed the Strawberry Ranch, and was making Pleasant Valley, west of Burnett river, six "road agents" jumped from the bushes, armed with shot guns and pistols, and wearing masks, demanded the driver to stop! Instead of halting the driver whipped about to a faster gait; when one of the houses in the team was shot, falling dead, which caused the stage to stop. There were twelve passengers on board, consisting of nine men and three women. We are unable to obtain their names. As soon as the robbers succeeded in stopping the coach they filed up on either side of the road, putting to flight the driver and eight of the passengers. The remaining four were the three women and Mr. A. Goodham. The "Agents" assisted the women to alight, and presented their revolvers to Mr. Goodham, also asking him to get out of the coach. By this time the other passengers were some distance ahead, getting away. The robbers then proceeded to take what valuables they could find, even pulling the jewelry from the persons of the females. The car of one woman was badly lacerated with a member of the banditti took from her a set of diamond rings. The amounts which make an aggregate of some $15,000. Mr. Goodham was the heaviest loser. He authorities us to say that he will give $5,000 for the apprehension of the thieves and the recovery of this money. One of the women lost $1,800, another $800, a packer lost $1,500—besides other amounts equal in the aggregate to $15,000. The robbers made good their escape, and none of the passengers were killed. Mr. Goodham fired two shots, but there being no concert of action among the passengers resistance on his part was a useless undertaking. The road is a plain open highway, very much traveled at the point where the robbery was made. Another coach, with passengers and Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express Messenger, came up to the place within five minutes after the time the robbers fled, and a gang of men were employed to clear the distance from there working the road. No clue was obtained as to whom the robbers were.

FROM NORTH CAROLINA. Washington, Sept. 25.—A dispatch received from Gov. Holden of North Carolina says, in reference to the election of Delegates to the State Convention, which took place on Thursday, one half the State has been heard from. The result is very gratifying.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AT COLUMBIA BAY. Portland, Sept. 25.—The steamer Oriaba is now at the mouth of the Willamette. Not being able to cross the bar, the passengers will reach the city by river steamer.

PORTLAND MARKETS. Flour.—We mark on change in prices. Three first-hand operations in home brand. Coffee is advancing, the stock on hand is full. Rice, Tea, Cocoa, Rice, Java, 25c. Land continues scarce. At a moderate advance, same, 25c. White, Eggs, best Oregon, 12c. Apples, 10c. Sugar, 22c.

MOUNT HOOD SMOKE.—The Oregonian says that puffs of dense black smoke, so thick as to obscure the view of the summit, were plainly seen issuing from a gorge on the southwestern side of Mount Hood, last Saturday. The Government will oblige Mount Hood to put on a stamp if it indulges in such lawlessness. It might do to send Stanton down to see the crater. We can't think of any man who could be so well spared. He will eventually bring up in just as hot and sulphurous a place, however, if there be truth in Revelations.

FORNEY SPEELS A MICE.—John W. Forney writes to his Philadelphia Press a long sensational letter about the designs of the Northern Democrats, to get all the Southern delegations to the next Congress for the purpose of running down the public credit and paving the way for repudiation. He says: "The conspiracy has been duly organized, and involves more elements than the people would at present readily believe. I regard it as the great peril of the Republic."

LOVETRY SERVICING.—A dispatch from Springfield, Ill., says contributions to the Lincoln monument fund are coming in very slowly. This would denote that the "Nation's grief" was but temporary, and that the mourning of the abolitionists over Lincoln was a matter of expedient, and not of popular effect. The dead Lincoln can dispense no spoils, give no offices. There has been abolition sorrow expended its last upon him.

THE CHICO-INDIO RACE.—Lieut. Mullen has put on a line of stages over this route. Soldiers are stationed along the road for their protection. The race through from Boise City to Virginia City is 575; to Humboldt, 365; to Chico, 375; to Sacramento, 385. It is a tri-weekly line.

ROAD NOTE.—Persons interested are notified that the Helmeck bridge on the Luck-inette, Folk county, on the road between Monmouth and Corvallis, has been torn away in order to put on repairs, and will not be ready for travel again before about three weeks.

Premiums Awarded at the Linn County Fair, Held at Boston, Sept. 17th, 1885.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather the second day, the receipts were not sufficient to pay the premiums in full. The following list shows about $500 Expenses, rest of land, etc. $200; amount of premiums, $800. The Society will be able to pay about 50 per cent of the premiums. Diplomas will be given when preferred. The ribbons were to be put on the articles in the pavilion on the second day, but circumstances were such it could not be done. The officers regret it. Any mistakes in the list will be corrected by the Secretary.
