THE BEAUTIFUL SNOW.

Oh! the snow, the beautiful snow, Filling the sky and earth below ; Over the housetops, over the street, Over the heads of the people you meet, Dancing.

Skimming along : Reantiful snow ! it can do no wrong. Flying to kiss a fair lady's check, Clinging to Hps in a frolicksome freak, Beautiful snow from the Heaven above, Pure as an angel, gentle as love !

mb i the snow, the beautiful snow. How the flakes gather and laugh as they go Whirling about in the maddening fun, It plays in its glee with every one. Chasing, Lauching, Hurrying by ; It lights on the face and it sparkles the eye ! And even the dogs, with a bark and a bound, Snap at the crystals that eddy around ; The town is alive, and its heart in a glow, To welcome the coming of beautiful snow !

How wild the crowd goes swaying along, Halling each other with humor and song ! How the gay sledges, like meteors, flash by, Bright for a moment, then lost to the eye;

Ringing, MOR Swinging, Dashing they go, Over the crust of the beautiful snow ; ow so pure when it falls from the sky, To be trampled in mud by the crowd rushing by, To be trampled and tracked by the thousands of Till it blends with the filth in the horrible street.

Once I was pure as the snow-but I fell ! I like the snow-flakes from heaven to hell ; Fell to be trampled as filth of the street ; Fell to be scoffed, to be spit on and beat ; Plending.

Cursing,

Dreading to die, Selling my soul to whoever would buy, Dealing in shame for a morsel of bread, Hating the living and fearing the dead ; Merciful God ! have I fallen so low ? And yet I was once like the banutiful snow

Once I was fair as the beautiful snow. With an eve like its crystal, a heart like its glow : Once I was loved for my innocent grace-Flattered and sought for the charms of my face! Father.
