TOWN AND COUNTY MATTERS.

COUNTY FAIR GROUNDS.

The meetings held Tuesday and again on Thursday at the Court House, to take into consideration the propriety of selecting new Fair Grounds for the Linn County Agricultural Society, resulted in the selection of a plot of 280 acres on what is known as Hutchinson farm, immediately adjoining the rear of the McConnell of this place. The new grounds are about a mile and a half from the river front of this town, and are said to be admirably adapted to the purpose. The Society is to give $5,000 for the property. They propose to form a capital stock of $5,000, in shares of $25 each, to pay for the land and erect the necessary improvements upon it. It is hoped that our citizens generally will aid in the matter by subscribing for shares.

THE LEANING ROAD.

A meeting was held at the Court House last Wednesday evening, to present to the citizens of the county generally the great benefits to accrue from the complete opening of a wagon road from Lebanon across the mountains to the mining regions east. Luther Eklins and Mr. Kirkpatrick addressed the meeting in behalf of the enterprise, and showed by clear arguments and undoubted facts that it is an enterprise which should enlist to its support every property owner and business man in Linn County. Messrs. J. Norcross, W. W. Parish & Co., and J. H. Foster, in attendance, are authorized to receive subscriptions for shares.

COUNTY MATTERS.

The exact return of the County Assessor of total population for the year 1900, is $2,493,941. There are 1463 persons who pay poll tax. The total tax levied is thirteen and one-half mills on the dollar, of which five and a half mills is for State purposes, two mills for school tax, and six for County uses.

THE RACES.

In the racing last week over the Boston Course, much sport was had. A promised report of the races has not reached us. We hear that on Saturday, Thompson's Ridesman filly which won the Thursday's race, was again the winner, beating Ford's horse only a few feet. The time made was only 41 1/2.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB MEETINGS.

Mr. M. G. Moss, Chairman of the Grass Ridge Democratic Club, has called a meeting of the club in another column, to meet at Fairplay School House, on Saturday, Nov. 26th. Let there be a good attendance.

TAX NOTICES.

We have received the advertisement of Sheriff Richardson, giving notice of the time and places he will be at to receive taxes in the County, but it came too late for insertion this week. It will appear in our next issue.

SUCCESSORS.

Kohn & Rice, merchants, in Nat. H. Lane's old store, are selling off their whole stock of every kind of merchandise below cost, as they propose to close business at an early day. They offer bargains.

CIRCUIT COURT PROCEEDINGS.

The Circuit Court for Linn county, commenced its Fall term on Monday. It will close today. From Jas. Eklins, Clerk, we have received the following report of business transacted:

The Grand Jury found several indictments, and examined the jail, which they reported unsafe. They were discharged yesterday.

Divorce was granted in the case of Susan A. Hall vs. A. C. Hall, and Hannah Rader vs. Daniel Rader.

State vs. E. D. Lee: Appeal from Justice's Court—verdict for defendant.

Month vs. Linn County Woolen Mills—verdict for plaintiff on his own note of $600, but for defendant as to the rest of the note in suit.

Ruth Cochran vs. County Commissioners—verdict for defendant.

Dickins vs. Price: Assault and battery; damages laid at $1,000—to be tried to-day.

A few other cases in which the State was the party against individuals, were disposed of, and a fair amount of civil business was transacted.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING IN LANE.

At a Democratic meeting held in the Court House, Eugene City, Lane county, Saturday, Oct. 21st, Jesse Cox was called to the Chair, and J. E. P. Whisenand was chosen Secretary.

Gov. John Whitaker explained the object of the meeting to be the election of a County Committee to fill the vacancies occasioned by the removal of the three men now composing that body from the county.

Gov. John Whitaker, Isaac E. Stevens and Jesse Cox were each chosen as County Committee.

On motion, the Secretary was instructed to send a copy of the proceedings of the meeting to THE STATE RIGHTS DEMOCRAT and Democratic Review for publication.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

JESSE COX, Chairman.

J. E. P. Whisenand, Secretary.

After the adjournment of the meeting the newly elected County Committee met to organize and appoint a member of the State Central Committee to fill the vacancy occasioned by the removal of Jas. O'Hara from the county.

Gov. John Whitaker was chosen Chairman of the County Committee, and also chosen as the member to fill the vacancy on the State Central Committee for Lane county.

The Committee then adjourned to meet at the call of the Chairman.

Eugene City, October 23, 1885.

TRACY SAID.

The Lexington (Ky.) correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says the word "loyal" has been so much abused by those who continually profess to be so, that it has become a stretch in the nostrils of the people. The remark holds good in Oregon as well as at the East.

FAST PAPERS.

During the week we have received a liberal supply of late States and California papers from Chas. Barrett, the popular and extensive dealer in News Publications, Books, Stationery, &c., in Portland. He supplies the trade as well as individual orders.

CALIFORNIA SECTION.

The full returns of the late election for a Judge of the Supreme Court have not yet reached us, but it is thought the abolition candidate, Sanders, is elected by about 7,000 majority. The vote was very tight.

SANTIAN MINES.

A new vein called the "Blue lead," of gold and silver quartz, has been lately discovered on Gold creek, on North Fork of Santian. The lead is fifteen feet wide, and the croppings assay $15 per ton.

FREIGHT AND TREASURE.

The last steamer from Portland for San Francisco carried away 2,000 boxes of apples, a small quantity of wool and produce, and $338,000 in treasure.

HENDERSON A RADICAL.

We find the following in the Oregonian of Monday:

On the 31st of August a grand banquet was given at Louisiana, Missouri, to the returned soldiers of Pike county, Missouri, and Pike county, Illinois. Speeches were made by several persons. Hon. J. H. D. Henderson of this State was present. The correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat thus speaks of him:

"Mr. Henderson, of Oregon, recently elected member of Congress from that State, was then introduced, and endorsed the radical party of Missouri, pledging himself to stand by them. He indicated by his speech that he is the man."

Mr. Henderson then stands committed to the cause and policy of the Radicals. They oppose the "reconstruction" plan of President Johnson, and are in favor of Negro Suffrage. Mr. Henderson is the Representative from Oregon, elected by the Abolition party, and is the authorized, selected exponent of their views and sentiments. He openly, in public mass meetings, announces himself as a Radical, and is pledged to their policy. The Abolition organs of Oregon declare that they favor and will sustain the policy of President Johnson, and also that they are opposed to Negro Suffrage. Thus, we have on one hand, their chosen popular exponent pledged to the cause of the Radicals, and consequently opposed to President Johnson and his course; and on the other hand, the organs of the party in this State opposed to the Radicals, and supporting the policy of the President. Which are we to look upon as the real sinner pure—the State organs, who speak without actual authority for their party, or Representative Henderson, who stands their chosen, authorized mouthpiece? A party is known by its acts and fruits. In the canvass last year, it is notorious that Mr. Henderson on the stump openly avowed his Negro Equality, Radical sentiments. He even went to the length of saying that he would not condemn marriages between the whites and blacks, although "should his own wife die, he should marry again, and believed as he had married white women twice already, he would marry a white woman again." He contended that negroes were better qualified to vote than many of the "low Irish and Dutch," and went to the full extent of Radicalism in the cause of the negro. We contend therefore that the Abolition party of Oregon, in the election of Mr. Henderson, committed itself to the Radical cause, and are pledged to it just as he pledged himself to it in his Missouri speech in August last.

It is the policy of the organs of the party now—because Negro Suffrage is growing unpopular in the State, and because the party has got aboard more "nigger" than it can carry—to deceive the people in this respect, and seek to convince them that it is not the intention of the Abolitionists to give the negro the right of suffrage. But they simply protest in mere words—their acts prove beyond cavil or doubt that they do really favor that measure, and, if the power to put it into operation were theirs, it would be enforced. Henderson has authoritatively spoken for the party, and stands pledged to the Radicals.

THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET IN NEW YORK.

An extract from an Albany letter to the New York Day Book, which will be found on the outside of this paper, will pretty well inform our readers of the character of the "Democratic" ticket in New York, but this paragraph additional, taken from the Tribune, will give further light as to the candidate in question:

E. O. Perrin, who was put up for Clerk of Appeals, was a little the most notorious and venial Know Nothing in those parts throughout the hey-day of the Dark Lantern persecution. He will run all the better among the Irish Roman Catholics who must give him the greater number of votes. They wouldn't be sure the ticket was "reg'lar" if they did not recognize some one on it as a Know Nothing.

And to cap the climax, we see by the telegraphic despatches of the present week that at the ratification meeting to endorse the same Democratic ticket, Montgomery Blair, almost a life-long Abolitionist, was one of the speakers. Strange Democracy, that which Blair would endorse. We want none of it in Oregon.

A WIDOW'S POTTERY.

The Pennsylvania papers tell of a Mrs. Martha Grider of Allegheny, in that State, now in custody, charged with having poisoned about a half dozen persons—all of whom died from the effects of her doses. Among her victims were Mrs. Caruthers, a Mrs. Hatchinson, and a servant girl who lived with the charming Grider. Her object appears to have been money, and yet she could have only obtained very small amounts from some of her victims. She was a member of the Methodist Church, but did not possess the confidence of the members, and withdrew from it. Her case presents a most startling illustration of the wickedness of the human heart.

NEWSPAPER CHANGES.

Wm. H. Newell, late of the Dallas Mountainier, has purchased the Walla Walla Statesman, and Henry Miller, formerly of the Oregonian, is editor of the Mountainier. We tender the courtesies of the craft to these gentlemen.

VERTUOUS VEGETATION.

Seventeen divorces were granted in a single county in Vermont, a short time ago, of which nine were cases of desertion and eight for adultery. The wives were the sinners in four of the latter cases.

WOOLEN FACTORY.

The citizens of Jackson and Josephine counties are likely to join in the erection of a Woolen Factory in that section. The Reporter presents strong arguments in favor of the project.

LIVE STOCK.

A great many cattle and sheep are being sent from Portland, across the country to Puget Sound, for the Victoria market.

PHRENOTY FOR SCIO.

Three phrenoty schooners were freighted at Couch's wharf yesterday for the above destination, at $1 per ton. Scio is a short haul in the heart of a rebel district, about sixty miles south of Portland. The shipments yesterday were mostly constituting hardware.

We clip the above paragraph from the Oregonian of last Wednesday. The fling which that paper makes at the Scio community will in no wise affect them, while it displays the meanness of that paper. Scio is rejoiced to say, an imprugible Democrat is stronghold, and the Democrats there are among the truest and best in the country. It is a flourishing, peaceful community, and if the merchants of Portland approve the spirit of the Oregonian's mean fling at the Scio merchants or farmers, the latter can readily find another market from which to purchase their heavy supplies. If to be Democrats is to be rebels, the Scicians are proud of the title.

NEW MAIL ROUTE.

The Postmaster General invites proposals for carrying the mails weekly or semi-weekly between Albany and Eugene City, by way of "Peoria, Burlington, Harrisburg, and Willamette Falls, to Eugene City." This is a step in the right direction; but we observe that if the mail is to be carried weekly, the same undulating style which now characterizes the mail carriage between here and Willamette Falls will be persisted in—that of departing from Albany on Thursday, and from Eugene on Friday mornings. The mail ought to leave here on Monday. To do so it would greatly add to the accommodation of all along the route. If the citizens of Peoria, Harrisburg, and other points on the line petition for a change of day, in case only a weekly mail shall be let, there is little doubt their request would be granted.

M. E. CUREN SOUTH.

At the late Annual Conference of this denomination, held in San Francisco, the following appointments were made for the Oregon and Jacksonville Districts, viz:

Oregon District—A. E. Sears, P. E.; Lafayette Circuit, James Allen; Eugene City, D. C. McDoulan; Salem, J. M. Ward; Independence, B. F. Burch; Corvallis, R. C. Martin; Albany, D. M. Rice; Brownsville, Thomas Brown; Eugene City, B. Short; Corvallis, W. A. Findley, President; Jacksonville District—C. H. E. Newton, P. E.; Jacksonville Circuit, J. A. Burns, J. K. P. Price; Roseburg, J. W. Craig; supply; Yreka, A. C. Howlett; Scott's Valley, Levi Van Slyke; R. B. Johnson and J. M. Overton, supernumerary; J. G. Huff, J. Grull and H. N. Compton, locust.

PORTLAND RACES.

At the late meeting on the Portland track, Hamboldt and Heenan went a single mile, which was won by the former by barely a neck, in 1:52; Humboldt, Heenan and Ida Martin, a single mile for $200—won by Ida in 1:52; and Jeff. Davis and Portland, mile heats, best two in three. Portland won the first heat in 1:54, and Jeff. the other two and purse in 1:58; 2:01. We believe the winner is owned by Hugh Fields of this county. Both horses are Rickman stock.

SEIZED.

The steamer Orizaba, Captain Burns, has been seized by Collector Adams, for a violation of the revenue laws, in taking freight from the steamer Active below Astoria, while the latter was on her way from Victoria to Portland. The steamer was released on bonds for $150,000. Capt. Burns and his mate were also compelled to give bonds for $15,000 each for their appearance to answer the charge founded upon the violation of the laws included in the above transaction.

DREN'T "MAINTAIN HIS COURSE."

The following story is told in a San Francisco paper of a scene occasioned by the late severe earthquake there:

At one of the churches, when the first shock came, many people got up to leave, when the minister, thinking it was all over, raised his hands and solemnly ejaculated: "Maintain your composure, brethren, God will protect you on land and sea." At that instant, however, the second "double and twister" came, and the Rev. gentleman ejaculated: "My Lord!" cleared the pulpit at one bound and was among the first of the flock out of the dock.

EMIGRANTS SUFFERING.

Some emigrants lately arrived at the Dalles are in a destitute condition. We have heard of others in a like condition at Portland and in this Valley, but generally this year's emigration have come across the plains in much better than ordinary condition. The suffering ones ought to be relieved, and doubtless they will be.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.

A company has been incorporated for the purpose of constructing a canal and locks from Oregon City to Canemah on the west side of the Willamette, by which steamers can ascend and descend. J. B. Demont, D. P. Thompson and A. L. Lovjoy are the incorporators; capital stock $300,000, in shares of $500.

THE BLACKFOT COUNTRY.

The Oregonian gives a letter sent from the Blackfoot country to W. S. Ladd, banker at Portland, dated Sep. 30th, in which the writer says the mines there are the richest he has ever visited. Two claims are mentioned which sold at $18,000 and $9,000 respectively.

VERY CLEVER.

The Oregonian copies the paragraph we gave concerning the new road from Lebanon across the mountains, and gives the credit to a contemporary. Very creditable in you, Mr. Oregonian. We will give the devil his due: when we copy paragraphs from the Oregonian, we credit them to that paper.

ANOTHER SEIZURE.

The steamer Active, coasting between Portland and Victoria, was seized upon complaint of Collector Adams on Thursday, for violation of the revenue laws, in delivering freight to the Orizaba below Astoria. She was released on bonds for $66,000, and left for Victoria yesterday.

THE DAILY MAIL.

Sebastor Williams telegraphed to the Oregonian on the 16th, that the bid of Wells, Fargo & Co., to carry the Oregon daily mail, had been accepted at Washington.

MINING.

The diggings on Olive and Elk creeks, on Middle Fork of John Day's river, are reported very rich. The Canyon City mines continue to pay handsomely.
