THE DEMOCRAT.

According to an announcement made last week, the DEMOCRAT is once more issued on a half-sheet. It will appear next Saturday, also, in this form; but after that it will be issued regularly in full size. Mr. ABBOTT is now in Albany, and is, together with other parties whose names will appear at the proper time, "putting things to rights" as fast as possible. We repeat what we said last week, viz: We hope all the old friends and subscribers of the DEMOCRAT, instead of considering it a defunct concern, will regard it as about entering upon a career of prosperity and usefulness far greater than any it has ever yet enjoyed.

TAXES, TAXES.

Ten or twelve days ago we were over in Polk county, and while there we saw the U. S. Assessor collecting taxes; and we presume he is yet on his travels. He is hunting up, as in duty bound, the various sins of individual wealth and income, &c., &c., on which taxes are collectable. Uncle Sam needs a good deal of money. Uncle Sam is badly in debt —in fact the old fellow owes about four billions of dollars, and Congress keeps running him in debt still more. For example, not a great while ago Congress appropriated the snug little sum of $11-584,500 for the support of the colored gentlemen of the South, and old Uncle Samuel has it to raise immediately.
These colored individuals want $1,750-000 for clothing; they want $4,106,500 in rations; they want $500,000 in medicines; and you, farmers and laboring men of Linn, have got to pay your share of it. So give cheerfully. The blessed bondholders are exempt. They won't help you to the amount of a farthing.
"Fork over," then, ye laboring men. It matters not that some of you are barely able to clothe and educate your children, though you toil hard from one year's end to the other; yet these negroes must have their food, and clothing, and medicines, and you must help furnish them.
We say again, give cheerfully. The nigger is a blessed institution. The Aboli-tionists rode into power on his back, and now they want you to feed him, and maintain him in idleness. Give, gentlemen, give cheerfully.

STRONGLY DEMOCRATIC.

—There are 60 convicts in the Oregon Penitentiary, 50 of whom are Democrats. Facts speak for themselves. Comment is unnecessary.
—Albany Journal.

We know a great many more than 60 Republicans who, if they had their just dues would have been doing the State service as above, long ago.

MITCHELL'S NEW GENERAL ATLAS.

Mr. Traver informs us that he has received a supply of this valuable work, and that he will proceed to furnish it to subscribers without delay. He hopes to find all ready.

DROWNED.

—We are informed that a Miss Boggs, living in Harrisburg, Linn county, lost her life on last Thursday, by going into the water to rescue her little brother whom she supposed was about to drown.

A Frenchman once wrote an essay discussing the question why Englishmen always committed suicide in November, and a recent London magazine contains an article on assassinations, remarking that they are always committed in April, and that the 14th of that month has been a favorite day with murderers for several centuries.

TELEGRAPHIC.

OVERLAND DISPATCHES.

DATES TO AUGUST 2.

The Laying of the Atlantic Cable Completed.

New York, July 29.—People here receive the news of the successful laying of the Atlantic cable without excitement.
The following dispatch has been received from Cyrus W. Field: Heart's Content, July 28.—We arrived here at 8 o'clock on Friday morning, all well, thank God! The cable has been laid and in perfect working order.
Subsequent dispatches from Field, giving particulars of the voyage, say that the Irish shore cable was laid on Saturday morning, July 7th, and the splice with the ocean cable was made on Friday, 13th, on board the Great Eastern, and laid in 94 fathoms, distant 274 miles from Valentia telegraph house. The Great Eastern and her consort, at 1:30 p. m., on Friday the 13th, started for Newfoundland. The average speed of the ship, from the time a splice was made until we saw land, was little less than five nautical miles per hour, and the cable was paid out at an average of five and a half miles per hour. The total slack was less than twelve per cent. The weather has been more pleasant than I have ever known it on the Atlantic at this season. The total distance was 1,639 miles, and the cable paid out 1,864 miles.

We have been in constant communication with Valentia since the splice was made, and have daily received news from England. The line will be open for business in a few days, and after taking in coal the telegraph fleet will sail for the spot where the cable was lost last year, and recover the end and complete the second line between Ireland and New Foundland.

New York, July 30.—No private messages have yet reached us over the cable. The news reports already sent came through C. W. Field, and James Redpath of the Tribune, who is now on board the Albatross. The distance to be traveled by the news yacht sailing from Gaspe Bay is 85 miles.

Washington, July 29.—To Cyrus W.
Field, Heart's Content.—I heartily congratulate you and trust that your enterprise may prove as successful as your efforts have been persevering. May the cable under the sea tend to promote harmony between the Republic of the West and the Governments of the eastern hemisphere. ANDREW JOHNSON.

New York, July 29.—Eleven cases of cholera occurred in this city yesterday and six to-day.

A. H. Stevens publishes a letter promising to attend the Philadelphia Convention.

London, July 28.—The following congratulatory message sent by the Queen of England to the President of the United States:

Osborne, July 27th.—To the President of the United States: The Queen congratulates you upon the successful completion of an undertaking which she hopes may serve as an additional bond between the United States and England.
The following reply was at once transmitted:

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
Washington, July 30, 1866.
To Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland:
The President of the United States acknowledges with the most profound gratification the receipt of your Majesty's dispatch, and cordially reciprocates the hope that the cable which now joins the Eastern and Western Hemispheres may serve to perpetuate peace between the Governments of Great Britain and the United States. (Signed.)

ANDREW JOHNSON.
New York, July 30.—The following dispatch has been sent over the Atlantic Cable:

Mayor of Mexico, New York, July 30.— To the Lord Mayor of London:—The energy and genius of man, directed by the Providence of God, have united the continent. May the union be instrumental in securing the happiness of nations and the rights of all people. (Signed.) JOHN T. HOFFMAN,
Mayor of New York.

Gaspe Bay, July 30.—Midnight.—By the arrival of a vessel from Port An-Beque to-night, further dispatches brought by the Atlantic cable from Europe have been received.

Messages to private parties are among those brought from Heart's Content by this vessel.

Arrangements have been made which will insure more rapid and frequent transmission of dispatches from Port An-Beque than heretofore, until the Gulf cable is laid.

Congressional.

Washington, July 25.—The Senate confirmed A. W. Randall as Postmaster General.

Washington, July 26.—The Senate declined the case of Patterson, Senator elect from Tennessee, for three hours, and finally referred it to the Committee on Credentials.

The President has nominated U. S.
Grant, General of the Army; Farragut, Admiral of the Navy; Sherman, Lieutenant-General; and Porter, Vice Admiral. These nominations were immediately confirmed by the Senate.

The Senate, after a long debate, passed a resolution, which was sent to the House, enabling Patterson to be sworn in as a Senator from Tennessee. The House debated and rejected the resolution.

Both Houses passed a bill admitting Nebraska.

Secretary Harlan resigned to-day, and the President nominated O. H. Browning, of Illinois, to fill the vacancy.

The bill to equalize the bounties for soldiers has passed both Houses, also the bill increasing the pay of members of Congress to $5,000, beginning with this Congress.

Chicago, July 20.—Congress adjourned at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon after a continuous session of thirty hours, and passed a great multitude of measures.

The House having refused to pass the Senate resolution modifying the test oath to cover the special case of Senator Patterson, of Tennessee, the Senate adopted a resolution allowing him to be admitted, and he was sworn in.

Both Houses passed a bill increasing the regular army, and also a bill to equalize the bounties of soldiers.

The Senate confirmed General Steadman as Superintendent of Public Printing, vice DeForest, removed, and Gen.
Canby to be Brigadier-General in the regular army.

The army bill fixes the military peace establishment at five regiments of artillery, ten regiments of cavalry and forty-five regiments of infantry.

The bill increasing the duty on wool was lost in the Senate, but a bill increasing the duty on cigars became a law.

The President pocketed the bill admitting Nebraska.

Difficulty in New Orleans.

Chicago, July 31.—For several days dispatches from New Orleans have threatened trouble upon the assembling of the Constitutional Convention of 1864, which was called to meet at New Orleans on the 30th of July; the object of the Convention being to disfranchise the rebels and to put Louisiana in the way of being reconstructed under the Radical aspirations, whilst the object of the rebels was to force its meeting. The rebel sheriff, Harry Hays, swore in a posse on Sunday, to promote this disruption, and delegates were openly threatened with lamp posts. Lieutenant Governor Voorhees and the Attorney General telegraphed the President on Sunday, stating that Governor Wells had issued his proclamation calling an election to fill vacancies in the bogus Convention, and that it was intended to indict the members of the Convention by grand jury and asking if the President intended that the military forces of the United States should interfere to prevent the execution of civil process, to which the President replied:

Washington, July 28.—To Albert Voorhees, Lieutenant-Governor of Louisiana:—The military will be expected to sustain and not obstruct or interfere with the proceedings of the Convention. A dispatch on the subject of this Convention was sent to Governor Wells this morning. A. JOHNSON.

Mayor Monroe on Saturday had an interview with General Baird, who stated positively that he would prevent the sheriff and his posse or any State or civil officer from interfering with the Convention. Mayor Monroe issued a proclamation on Monday morning, warning the people not to molest the Convention, saying he was satisfied from recent dispatches from Washington, that the deliberations of the members thereof will receive no countenance from the President, and that he will sustain the armies of the present civil government and vindicate its laws and acts to the entire satisfaction of the good people of the city and State.

The Convention assembled in Mechanics' Institute at 12 o'clock Monday, 26 members being present. The most intense excitement prevailed in the city.
The negroes turned out to protect the Convention, when the fight began in common on the streets. Meanwhile the police surrounded the Convention building in the presence of an immense crowd and a riot began in earnest. Members of the Convention were arrested and Dostie was killed; others, including the Marshal, were wounded.

The lockups were speedily filled with members of the Convention and negroes.
W. P. Swesh, member of the Convention, was carried to the lockup by a double guard armed to the teeth, amid cheers and cries of "hang him!" Reports widely disagree about the number of negroes and rioters killed.

General Baird immediately proclaimed martial law, and ordered civil officers to report to General Kautz who was appointed Military Governor, with his headquarters at the City Hall. Quiet was thus restored, and reports to-day say that the Convention prisoners were released and no further disturbances had occurred. The casualties are stated at the lowest 24 negroes killed, and several white persons, including policemen, were wounded. The jail and vestibules of the Mechanics' Institute present a sad appearance.

Washington, August 1.—A telegram has been received from General Sheridan recommending the continuance of martial law in New Orleans until after the investigations of the late riots shall be completed.

The President's dispatch to Lieutenant Governor Voorhees was that there will be no military interference with the courts. As published, it read convention for courts.

Judge Rosier, chairman of the Louisiana Democratic Committee, now here in Washington, telegraphed yesterday to the Attorney General of Louisiana, to arrest every man engaged in setting up a new government. We have seen the President, and he will do all that can be expected. Call on the military for aid.
The following telegraphic correspondence explains itself:

Executive Department,
Washington, July 21, 1866.
To His Excellency, Governor Wells—I have been advised that you have issued a proclamation convening the Convention elected in 1864. Please inform me under and by what authority has this been done, and by what authority this Convention can assume to represent the whole people of Louisiana? (Signed) ANDREW JOHNSON.

The Governor's reply is as follows:
State of Louisiana, Executive Dep't.,
New Orleans, July 28, 1866.

To His Excellency, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States:—Your telegram is received. I have not issued any order convening the Convention of 1864; the Convention was re-convened by the President of the body by virtue of a resolution authorizing him to do so; and in that event for him to call on the proper officers of the State to issue writs of election for delegates in unrepresented parishes. My proclamation was issued in response to that call. As soon as the vacancies can be ascertained they will be filled, and then the whole State will be represented in the Convention.

J. MADISON WELLS, Governor.

Chicago, August 2.—Washington special in this morning's papers say that at a public meeting held yesterday the question as to the right of the President to appoint and commission to office men who have been rejected by the Senate, was briefly considered and referred to Attorney-General Stanbery by his opinion.

New York, July 31.—The following have been fixed as the rates for Atlantic telegraphing:

From a telegraph station in America to any in Great Britain, for 20 words or less, including names of sender and receiver, £20; every additional word not exceeding five letters, 20 shilling sterling per word; from same to same in Africa, Asia or India, not exceeding in all 100 letters, £25; every additional word 25 shillings.
The letters in all words after the first twenty will be counted and divided by five; each five or fractional remainder will be charged as a word. Messages in cipher will be charged double the foregoing rates.

Cholera.—New York, August 2.—Since the 22d of July there have been 39 cases and 22 deaths from cholera on Blackwell's Island. Of the 29th to the 21st ult., there were 62 cases and 26 deaths on Ward's Island. In the city yesterday there were 21 cases and 9 deaths; also on Governor's Island yesterday, several new cases and 5 deaths. The epidemic is on the increase in Brooklyn.

Amos Lawrence had inscribed on the pocket-book he used: "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" A verse that should be written over the doorway of every haunt of mammon.
