

A Negro's Experience with a Gun

Last night about half-past nine o'clock a negro who lives on Front street, opposite the gas works, attempted to clean out a gun which had become foul. There were two loads in the barrel—a small single fowling piece and, failing to discharge the contents in the proper way, he thrust a red hot ramrod down the barrel as a last resort to get rid of the two extra charges. The iron ignited the powder in both loads with such force as to shatter the barrel on the piece, scattering the fragments about the room in great profusion. The right hand of the negro was torn into fragments leaving nothing but a bloody stump—Nashville Dispatch.

THE PRINTER.—A printer is the most curious being living. He may have a 'bank' and 'quoins' and not be worth a penny—have 'small caps and neither have wife nor children. Others may run fast, but he can get along the swiftest by 'setting fast.' He may be making 'impressions' without eloquence; may use the 'eye' without offending, and be telling the truth; while others cannot stand while they set, he can 'set' standing, and even do both at the same time—use 'furniture' and yet have no dwelling—may make and put away 'pi's' and never see a pie, much less eat it, during his life—be a human being and a 'rat' at the same time—may 'press' a great deal, and never ask a favor—may handle a 'shooting iron,' and know nothing about a cannon, gun or pistol; he may move the 'lever' that moves the world, and yet be as far from moving the globe as a hog with his nose under a mole-hill—spread 'sheets' without being a housewife; he may lay his 'form' on a 'bed,' and yet be obliged to sleep on the floor; he may use the 'type' without shedding blood, and from the earth may handle the '***,' he may be of a roving disposition and yet never desire to travel; he may have a 'sheep's' foot, and not be known; never be without a 'case,' and not do nothing of law or physic; be always 'correcting' his 'errors,' and growing worse every day; have em—s around him; have his 'form' locked up, and at the same time be free from jail, watch house, or any other confinement.

THE ELECTROPATHIC INSTITUTE,

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

J. H. JOSSELYN, M. D.,
Resident Physician.

THE DIRECTORS OF THIS CELEBRATED Medical Institute have the honor to inform the public for the general benefit which they have sustained, all the Resident Physicians with their patronage. It is now six years since the Institute was established; during that time there have been over THIRTY THOUSAND CONSULTATIONS, and in all cases where the disease was curable.

A Perfect and Permanent Cure has been performed. Mercurial chloasms have been treated in a manner which has been adopted by similar names, hoping to affect the urinary system; but their failure to do so is perfectly apparent; the kidneys have not been affected, and the result, but has gone on increasing its usefulness and profits in regular ratio. The Resident Physician has by careful study and experience within the last few years been successful in discovering new electric remedies which are far superior to any before used in the healing art, and he can

Warrant Them to Cure All cases for which they are used or make no charge for services. They will be forwarded to any place in the Pacific States upon the receipt of a letter stating the disease, with symptoms, the age and sex of the patient.

The Female Medicines, discovered and used by the Resident Physician, are the only remedies which are safe and sure to have the effect. The large number of cases in which they have been used, and the great number of public testimonials, especially from the ladies, are great evidence of their efficacy. Great care should be taken in visiting the Institute, to prevent the same.

ELECTROPATHIC INSTITUTE, 645 Washington Street, Between Montgomery and Kearney streets.

J. H. JOSSELYN, M. D., RESIDENT PHYSICIAN.

Below are a few of the Opinions of the Press of California, which are submitted to the Public.

(From the Red Bluff Independent of Jan. 24, 1865.)
ELECTROPATHY.—The readers of this article are particularly requested to read the advertisement of the "Electro-pathic Institute," 645 Washington street, San Francisco, California. It is a most interesting and valuable paper, and the Resident Physician of the Institute, during the past year, has gained for this establishment a reputation which has never been equalled by any medical institution on this coast. In cases of female irregularities, especially Dr. Josselyn has gained an enviable reputation, and the spacious parlors of the Institute are continually occupied by ladies, seeking relief from their troubles.

Dr. Josselyn pays particular attention to the treatment of cases in the interior of the State, and upon receipt of a full description of the disease which he applies to so uniformly and so successfully, accompanied with the real or fictitious address, sends per Wells, Fargo & Co., medicines that he warrants to cure the disease, without the slightest injury to the system. He uses no mercury or mineral poisons. The medicines used are known as "Serravallo's" and "Ayer's" Cherry Pectoral.

Persons placing themselves under the treatment of Dr. J. H. Josselyn may rely upon not only receiving correct and successful treatment, but upon his discretion and secrecy.

(From the Grass Valley "Union," Dec. 30, '65.)
Success the True Standard of Merit.—If there is any truth in the "Ayer's" Cherry Pectoral, it will apply to the Electro-pathic Institute of San Francisco. This establishment was opened to the public in the month of January, 1865, and the treatment of Dr. J. H. Josselyn, who has during that time treated upward of twenty thousand cases of disease to a successful issue, with an exception of a very small number, has been uniformly successful. Dr. Josselyn, has received and replied to not less than six thousand five hundred letters, besides giving his personal attention to the treatment of all applicants at the Institute. An amount of work that it would be hard to find another man on this coast with the time that Dr. Josselyn has given to all applicants, and the results of his scientific abilities as to enable him to determine the nature of the disease which the applicant may be afflicted, almost instantly, and to prescribe such treatment as will produce a speedy and permanent cure in the majority of cases.

Persons requiring a physician on whom they can rely, will do well to read the advertisement of the Electro-pathic Institute elsewhere in our columns.

(From the Contra Costa Gazette of Jan. 13, 1866.)
A GRAND SUCCESS.—During the past year, some of the "Ayer's" Cherry Pectoral, which has been "handed in their checks," and closed their doors. Without an exception, the establishments all over the State, and in every part of the State, were conducted by individuals that were the result of the practice of Dr. Josselyn, and were established for the purpose of relieving the sick and unfortunate. For the relief of the sick and unfortunate, Dr. Josselyn has done more than any other physician in the State, and he has done so in a manner that has secured him the highest reputation of his fellow-men.

Persons requiring a physician on whom they can rely, will do well to read the advertisement of the Electro-pathic Institute elsewhere in our columns.
