CITY CHURCH DIRECTORY.

O. S. PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH—Rev. W. J. Month, Pastor. Freaching at 11 A. M.

THE RAILROAD.—Hitherto we have not devoted that attention to the proposed Railroad which its importance demands...

We regret to say that, from some cause, our men of means in this community, manifest an apathy, or stoical indifference to the road which, to us, is unaccountable in view of surrounding facts and circumstances.

We cannot notice, at this time, all the objections urged by some of our Rip Van Winkle property-holders, to the contract. Our view of the matter may be expressed very briefly. It is this: The road will be built whether you take stock or not.

Let the capitalists of Albany attend to this thing immediately. "There is a tide in the affairs of men, which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune; Omitted, all the balance of their lives, is bound in shallows and in miseries."

A BEAUTIFUL CRAFT.—Mr. Wykoff, of this city, has built a skiff for Mr. Albert Moyer, which is now launched in the Calicoys and named for that famous and dreaded (to niggers) hand, the "Ku-Klux Klan."

CHIEF STORE.—Mr. Julius Gradwohl, the well known and enterprising merchant, has established a chief store on the corner of First and Ferry streets, in the building formerly occupied by A. S. Knightinger.

COW SHOT.—Last Wednesday evening a cow, belonging to Mr. Sprenger of the Pacific Hotel, of this place, was killed (shot with a rifle ball) by some person or persons as yet unknown.

MEDICAL.—The professional card of Dr. Plummer will be found among the new ads in to-day's paper. The Doctor has recently been appointed to the Chair of Chemistry in the Medical Department of the Willamette University.

JULY RACES.—A series of races, commencing on the 1st and ending on the 3rd of July, will come off at the Albany Course...

For your Cold.—Mrs. Stipp's Throat Balsam will relieve it in a short time.

LAW OF NEWSPAPERS. 1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the publisher...
