AN OUTRAGE UPON THE FASHIONS .-A newly inducted policeman in New Orleans recently had a singular adventure with a fashionably dressed lady whom he met coming out of a dry goods store. He had heard of shoplifters who had earried off the most costly goods in a sack disposed about the person. He was ambitious of distinction, and here was a chance for the coveted fame. The lady was evidently carrying a heavy load.—
She must be a shoplifter. There could be no doubt of it-he would arrest her. "You are my prisoner," he said laying his hand upon her shoulder." "What do you mean?" demanded the insulted lady.
