Religious Notices.—There will be services by the M. E. Church, South, regularly on the second Sabbath in each month, at the Baptist Church in this city, at 11 o'clock A. M.
REV. L. VANSLYKE, Pastor.
PUBLIC INSTALLATION.—A large number of Masons, accompanied by an equal number of ladies, left this city for Corvallis, on the steamer Echo, last Monday, to attend the Masonic installation in that city. From the fact of the proverbial slowness of the boat and the additional fact that a heavy south wind was blowing directly in her "snout" all the way up, it may be correctly imagined that the trip was a slow one; but the passengers amused themselves by dancing and pleasant conversation, and when we arrived at Corvallis the utmost good feeling and gaiety prevailed. The installation was at the Court House, which was densely crowded by the brethren and their families, added to which were a large number of spectators, who had been drawn there by curiosity or interest. The installation of the officers of the Royal Arch Chapter was first in order, and was a very impressive and instructive ceremony. Next came the installation of the Blue Lodge officers, which was followed by an address on Masonry by Hon. John Barnett. The address was a beautiful legend on Masonry, and a lecture on morality and charity of the very first order, and doubtless made many a heart present entertain a more favorable and enlarged opinion of the objects and tenets of the "Order of the Mystic Tie." The ceremonies were interspersed with appropriate music by a well trained quartette of singers, aided by a melodious accompaniment, a feature which was highly appreciated by those present. After the installation was over a banquet supper was served by Major Johnson at the City Hotel, which was partaken of and enjoyed to the fullest extent by over one hundred persons. The Major certainly understands how to cater to the palates of his guests.
Our party left next morning had a quick and safe return home on the steamer Redi-ace, feeling that it was good to get home away and good to come home again.
CHRISTMAS AT ALBANY.—At Pariah's Hall the United Presbyterian, Congregational and Baptist Sabbath School scholars, with their teachers and parents, had a gay time. The hall was crowded with seekers after pleasure and amusement, and almost every device was introduced to afford delight to those assembled. Baskets of cake and fruit were passed around prominently, and the little ones devoured the goodies with a relish sharpened by good enjoyment. For the edification of the children, Rev. S. G. Irvine gave a miniature panoramic exhibition with his magic lantern, which was highly appreciated by all present.
At the M. E. Church the children had a Christmas tree and a "famous good time generally." Santa Claus was most profuse and lavish in his gifts to the children, and they were happy accordingly.
The hall at Hook & Myers' Hotel was a brilliant success in the fullest sense of the term. About twenty-five couples were present, representing the beauty, grace and fashion of our city. The supper, gotten up and superintended by Messrs. Brenner and Rogers, was an excellent repast, reflecting credit on those engaged in its preparation; and the music, discoursed by Mr. Ross and Master Brenner, was universally pronounced the best ever furnished on a similar occasion in our city. The spacious apartments of the magnificent building were brilliantly lighted and comfortably warmed, and the scene throughout the evening was stirring and animated, and all thought that it was good to be there, and that to help.

Shor.—Last Monday night a man named Dunham shot himself at Corvallis under the following circumstances, as he relates them himself: He went to his room at the City Hotel about midnight, and was examining a revolver which was loaded but seemed to be out of repair, when his hand slipped from the drawn hammer and the pistol went off and was pointed so that the ball entered the stomach. Dr. Lee was called and probed the wound but was unable to find the ball, which was somewhere in the diaphragm. The man's life was supposed to be in a critical condition at last accounts. He is an old man, a timothy, and has been drinking very hard for some weeks back, and there are some who discredit his story of the affair, and believe that he attempted suicide while under the influence of liquor.
Rorous.—Last Friday night, Marshall Bell, of Corvallis, attempted to arrest some roughs in a saloon at that place, when they drew weapons and resisted, but at last he succeeded in accomplishing his purpose and lodged one of the parties in jail. But sometime that night the prisoner's friends effected his escape. Several suspected parties were arrested, and were to have been tried for this offense last Tuesday, which we since learn resulted in the acquittal of one and the holding of the other two to answer in the sum of $500 each.
DEBATE.—We learn that Messrs. Todd and Arnoy will meet in discussion upon the subject of Spiritualism in Portland, next week. The debate will be looked forward to with great interest throughout the State, and we presume the enterprising publishers of the daily papers in Portland will have photographic reporters on hand to write up the discussion and give it in full to their readers. You must do it, gentlemen.
SHIPPED.—Mr. Nimrod Price a few days since shipped to Thos. Cross, of Salem, some forty odd dressed hogs—perhaps the finest lot in respect to condition, ever shipped from this point.
AT JEFFERSON.—We learn that the Brethren of Jefferson Lodge, A. F. & A. M., had a "feast of reason and flow of soul" at their installation last Monday night. Masonic Hall was crowded with the members of the Order and their invited guests. The best of music enlivened the occasion, and the address of Hon. Geo. R. Helm is said to have been neat and appropriate, combining genuine eloquence with poetry and beauty of expression.
No one can appreciate the pleasure and benefits derived from such a reunion as that at Jefferson unless by experimental knowledge. Would that there were more such.
COUNCIL MEETING.—To-night the outgoing Council—that body which has immortalized itself by buying a fire engine, digging cisterns, and "playing the d—l generally"—held their last meeting, after which all but one of the heroic band will lay down their armor and retire to the shades of private life. One of the veteran Councilmen, with the Mayor and Treasurer, will hold their posts during another twelve months' seige, while the Recorder and Marshal are constrained to take a tearful departure in company with the retiring Fathers. And this is all of greatness!
A TREAT.—An unknown (to us) lady of this city this week sent us with her compliments a Holiday cake, with her compliments. Would that we could all see her, and, in token of our tearful gratitude, press the fair hands that could prepare so fair a present. But, the fates have decreed otherwise, and we must suffer and be silent.—(N. B.—We trust that our readers will not think the cake made up for us, for it didn't.)
CHANGED HANDS.—The Eugene Guard has changed hands, Geo. J. Ruys and A. Fitzroth purchasing the interest of the former proprietors and assuming entire control.—The new proprietors announce that the paper will be "hereafter, as heretofore, staunchly Democratic," and from the ring of the first number under the new control we predict it will be a strong lever in support of Democratic measures.
ATTENTION!—We call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of Messrs. Blain & Young, in this week's paper.—They commence the New Year with a new "ad," new goods and new prices, and you will learn that there is something "new under the sun" if you call at their establishment and examine their "numerous" stock of goods.
FIREMEN'S ELECTION.—The members of Albany Fire Company No. 1 will hold their annual election for officers on next Monday evening, at Joseph Webber's barber shop. A general attendance of the members is earnestly requested, as a full set of officers is to be elected.
RAILROAD MEETING!—There will be a Citizen's Railroad Meeting at the Court House, on Monday night, Jan. 3rd. Matters of the most vital interest to the future of Albany depend upon the united action of its citizens. Let everybody attend.
DAILY PAPERS.—Mr. Beriah Brown announces that he will issue the Daily Press at Salem in a few days. We wish him every success in his enterprise.
The Evening Call is the title of a new daily paper soon to be issued in Portland. It will have no politics and publish the dispatches.
PROF. PLEMER.—This eccentric genius was billed to read in Corvallis last Wednesday and Thursday evenings, and he informs us that he will read in this city the latter part of it week or the first of next.—Lookout for him and a grand treat.
MOVEMENTS OF THE DITCH COMPANY.—Mr. DeHart, Superintendent of the McMinville Water Ditch, arrived in town last Wednesday and went with a party on the succeeding day to Lebanon to examine the route of the proposed Ditches.
We acknowledge a call from Dr. Biddle, President of the Wallamette Freighting Co., who passed through our city on business connected with the company.
LECTURES.—Mr. John Arnoy lectured against Spiritualism at the U. P. Church last night, and at the request of the audience he consented to lecture here again some next week.
SICK.—We regret that our foreman, Mr. R. W. Mauzy, is quite unwell this week.
BORN.—RUST.—In this city, on the 26th inst., to the wife of Henry Rust, a son—weighing 14 pounds. A healthy boy that, and hard to beat at his early stage of life. May he continue to add to his corpulence.
MILLER.—On the 29th inst., in this city, to the wife of Ira A. Miller, a daughter.
MARRIED.—WESTFALL.—At the residence of F. M. Westfall, in this city, on the 29th inst., by A. N. Arnold, J. P., Mr. B. R. Westfall and Miss Mary J. Holloway, all of Linn county.
DIED.—TOMPKINS.—At Idaho City, Idaho, on the 21st inst., DIANA, wife of J. J. Tompkins, aged about 22 years.
Mrs. T. was formerly Miss Ann Jordan, of this city, and it will be remembered that about a year ago Mr. Tompkins (also a former resident of this county) sent for his affianced bride, and she cheerfully left her many warm friends here to become his wife and share his mountain home. And now cruel Death has snatched her from his strong loving arms, and she sleeps in the same grave with her new-born babe! Many a silent tear will be dropped for the memory of sweet "Ann Tompkins, and many a heartfelt prayer will be wafted up for the husband's consolation.

The subjoined correspondence sufficiently explains itself:
PORTLAND, Oregon, Nov. 15, 1890.
Messrs. EVERSON & HAINES, Gen'l Agents New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, Boston.
Gentlemen:—On my own behalf and in the name of my orphan children, I beg to thank you, and through you the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston, for its assistance in paying me my terminated policy on the life of my husband. On the 21st January, 1890, misfortune compelled me to forego the payment of the policy (less the amount of the unpaid premium only), thanks to the equity of the Massachusetts Lapse Law, that most bless my widows and orphan children. I recommend the New England Mutual to all who would provide against possible misfortune. I sincerely thank you again, gentlemen, for the ready and also for your generous and gentlemanly assistance in the matter.
Respectfully,
BETSEY MILLER.
PORTLAND, Oregon, Nov. 15, 1890.
Messrs. EVERSON & HAINES, General Agents of the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston.
Gentlemen:—Having taken a lively interest in the affairs of the large and desirable family, left by an old resident of this city, who died Aug. 23, 1890, and who was insured in the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, we take pleasure in making the following statement for the information of the public.
A. E. C. Miller was insured by ordinary Life Policy No. 13,054, bearing date January 21, 1883, for the sum of $10,000, and was insured under the equitable Lapse Law of Massachusetts. Since then nothing has been paid. He died Aug. 23, 1890, over eighteen months after last payment of premium, not having received any under the equitable Lapse Law of Massachusetts. He leaves a widow and orphan children. The policy was terminated by the ordinary Life Policy No. 13,054, bearing date January 21, 1883, for the sum of $10,000, and was insured under the equitable Lapse Law of Massachusetts.
