

DEATH OF GENERAL LEE.

The telegraph informs us that Gen. Robert E. Lee died at Lexington, Virginia, on the 12th of October, of congestion of the brain, aged 63 years, 8 months and 23 days.

Thus another great and good man has been summoned to the Land whither all mortality is drifting. General Lee's life is identified with the history of our country for nearly half a century past, and especially for the past ten years have his public acts been matters of observation and comment by the whole American people.

Born and bred a soldier, and injured by experience to all the hardships of the camp and field, he was yet a christian gentleman of the purest stamp, and no act of his life is wanting in that moral uprightness which ever characterizes the "pure in heart." Ready always to unsheathe his sword in defence of his country, in 1861, at the bidding of the State of Virginia, and in obedience to the demands of what he believed his duty, sorrowfully, but without reluctance, with a full appreciation of all the probable and possible consequences of the step, but without hesitation, he turned his back upon such offers and opportunities as men refuse but once in a lifetime, and for the constitution of government which his lineal ancestors had helped so effectually to establish, staked everything he had, save his fair name and christian virtues, and lost all he staked. In giving his adherence to his native State and welding his sword in defence of his home and family, he did what was only natural in one who loves the land that gave him birth, and we believe future generations will honor his name and place it high among those of the patriot dead.

All honor to General Lee, as a model gentleman, an earnest christian, a learned scholar and a brave soldier, and peace to his ashes as a dead hero!

THE LATE ELECTIONS.

The telegraph, with its usual reticence in times of election, has failed to give us any definite intelligence as yet in regard to elections held last week in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Iowa. The only dispatches that we have received indicate that all of those States have gone Republican by reduced majorities, excepting Indiana, which is claimed to be Democratic by about two thousand, and the Legislature of that State has a Democratic majority on joint ballot of about three votes. This is the first time that "Old Hoozier" has gone Democratic for twelve years, and is the most cheering sign of the overthrow of Radicalism in 1872 that we have yet observed. The Congressional delegation in Indiana will stand probably six Democrats to five Radicals—a Democratic gain of two Congressmen. In the other three States the Congressional delegation is probably unchanged, as regards their political status.

Iowa is probably Radical on the State ticket by 25,000 or 30,000—a Radical loss of about 15,000. The Radical majority in Ohio is said to be about 1,500—a Democratic gain of 1,500 over last year. Pennsylvania, at last accounts, was still in doubt, and it requires the official count to determine the result. We shall not probably learn anything further from these elections until the Eastern papers bring us the tidings through the mails. This, however, is cheering news to the Democracy, and presages sure death and destruction to Radicalism in the next national campaign, for the great States of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana will be gathered to the Democratic fold in that contest.

LOCK BILL PASSED.—By telegrams from Representatives Alexander and Helm, we learn that the Senate Bill for the Locks and Canal at Oregon City, to be built on the west side of the river at that place, passed the House yesterday, and is now only awaiting the Governor's signature to become a law. This is the most important measure for the people of the Willamette Valley that has been enacted by the present General Assembly.

THE Gals who blows for the Roseburg Evening calls us names and makes ugly faces at us from his safe "posh" away up in the Callipoo Mountains. "We don't know what we have done to deserve such treatment; we are quite sure that we never so far forgot the conventional rules of journalistic decency as to notice that obscure little snub.

THE PRESBYTERIANS AND THE CHINESE.

The Old School Presbyterian Synod, now in session at San Francisco, has declared by resolution, "That in the immigration of Chinese to this country, we recognize the providence of God; we interpret this as one of the means by which China is to be evangelized, etc."

Thus it will be seen that this powerful branch of the Evangelical denomination has espoused the cause of the idolatrous Chinaman and is welcoming him with outstretched arms to our Pacific shores. Not content with having been one of the chief instruments to precipitate the late civil war upon our country by preaching an abolition crusade upon the South—not content with assisting to deluge our country in a terrible fratricidal war, against all the teachings of that meek and lowly One of whom they pretend to be the followers—not satisfied with making a bonfire out of the property of the Southern people and stealing their negroes by its light—not content with aiding to plunge our country into the blackest pall of mourning that ever enveloped any people, and causing a wall of agony to go up from the bereft souls of tens of thousands of widows and famishing little ones; but now, when the smoke of battle is just clearing away, and our passion swayed nation is just again struggling to its feet and standing itself for an energetic leap out of the blackness of the ruin and desolation which has swept over it, these blood-stained fanatics, with their clerical robes still dripping with the flow of human gore, are encouraging the flooding of our land with a horde of idolaters who will rob the dead soldier's orphan children of their bread and deprive the widow of her only source of subsistence, the hard labor of the laundry—who will compete with the poor of our own land in all the avenues of labor and thus rob them of a legitimate livelihood and drive them into that course of crime which those church-bound fanatics so much deplore.

Why, in the name of justice and humanity, cannot the religious denominations of our country devote themselves to their legitimate business—the upbuilding of Christ's Kingdom—and allow the political matters of the nation to be managed by politicians? Is it necessary to the life of Christianity that its devotees should descend into the secular arena and combat questions of political economy and besmear their sacred robes with the filth of the political cesspool? We were taught that it was the duty of ministers of the Gospel to keep themselves free from the defilements of the world and preserve their sacred characters from the taint of worldliness; and we certainly believe that God's righteous judgment will sooner or later overtake those bigoted zealots who so far forget their sacred calling as to assist in encouraging by official action a strife which will probably end in another bloody war upon the plains of the American Republic.

"ON THE WING."

PLANTER'S HOTEL, St. Louis, Oct. 3, 1870.

Editor Democrat: I arrived at this place on yesterday morning from Deatur, Illinois, where I attended the State Fair. The Fair was well attended although it rained in torrents the four last days—so much so that the managers brought the Exhibition to a close on Saturday morning. The mud was almost boot top deep, and a little the toughest I ever pulled my boots out of. I felt sorry for the ladies for I believe they were in a worse looking condition Saturday morning than I ever witnessed them before.

The display in the Ladies' Pavilion was inferior to that of the Oregon State Fair of 1869; the same may be said of grain and vegetables, with the exception of corn, which far excelled, for size and quality, any former exhibition of that article that I have ever had the pleasure of seeing.

The horse show was not equal to that of the Oregon State Fair in any particular. The display of cattle was far ahead of my expectations; I do not believe that it can be beaten. There were twelve head of cream colored oxen, three years old last April, belonging to Taylor & Kincaid, of Cass county, which weighed, on an average, 2,500, and were admired by every passer-by for their size and beauty—this sight alone paid me for my trip to Illinois.

The exhibition of hogs was splendid, there being over two hundred entries. The Chester Whites were there in their purity, and also the Imported Berkshires, which were very fine and greatly admired by the farmers of Illinois.

The display of agricultural machinery was tremendous, covering about four acres. The corn and hay crops of Iowa and Illinois are very good, but there is very little wheat raised in either of these States this year. The early rains this fall have caused the timothy and clover fields to look as green as if it were May.

The weather is very warm here for this time of the year. I am afraid the Fair to be held at this city will meet with the same fate as that of the Illinois State Fair, as it has already commenced raining.

Yours respectfully, C. P. B. HOLIDAY'S body servant who edits the Portland Bulletin threatens to spit in Upton's face. That is about as ludicrous as a pig-mire challenging an elephant to mortal combat.

The bill provides for going into effect on the first Monday in July, 1872. Mr. Helm introduced H. B. 35, to create the office of Assistant State Treasurer; Senate Bill to amend the charter of Portland, passed, which bill allows the Governor to appoint a Police Commissioner who shall organize an effective police force for that city, and destroys the office of City Marshal.

The Radical assertion that the change of time of holding Courts in the Second District was to allow His Honor, Judge Thayer, an opportunity to attend the State Fair, has been proven as unfounded as it was weak and puerile, as Judge Thayer did not wait for the Fair, but went with all haste to Coos county to hold Court as soon as the Supreme Court adjourned. This busts another Radical soap-bubble.

H. R. Kincaid, who was summoned home from Washington as a sacrifice in the State Printer race last June, a few days ago returned to his post at the National Capital, where he will probably flourish his "hand-billy" with renewed vigor on account of being allowed to breathe our wild mountain air a few months.

STATE NEWS.

Marion county is to have a new Court House. Last week a boy 9 years old shot a deer in Douglas county. There are several vessels being built at Coos Bay. The Grand Lodge of Good Templars is in session in Oregon City this week.

A. J. Campbell, an old resident of Eugene, died on the 9th inst. Isaac Swallow was killed at Camp Harney, a few days ago, by a log rolling over him. Cassidy and Hackney, the East Portland safe robbers, were arrested at Salem last week. On the 8th inst., at Eugene, James Humphrey was thrown from a mule and his ankle was dislocated and leg broken. A. G. Craig, a clerk in B. H. Biddle's drug store, Corvallis, died very suddenly on the 12th, supposed to have been poisoned.

The Portland papers are shocked at the appearance of a lady on the streets of that city in Bloomer costume. She was the observed of all observers. The remains of a dead man were found in the Siskiyou Mountains last week, with a couple of whisky bottles beside him, which sufficiently accounts for his death. The North Pacific Transportation Company's steam propeller Continental founded off Cape St. Lucas Sept. 30th. Seven of her passengers and the second cook were drowned. The remainder of the passengers and crew were rescued.

A correspondent of the Herald says that a Democratic matron from Yamhill, who was camped on the State Fair Grounds, last week, gave birth to twin boys in her tent Monday night and named them both "Brick Pomeroy." Eight Stations appear on the Time Card of the Oregon and California railroad. Leaving East Portland, first comes Milwaukie, 7 miles; Marshfield, 11; Oregon City, 15; Rock Island, 19; Canby, 24; Aurora, 28; Gervais, 39; Salem, 51 miles. The Grand Lodge of Idaho, A. F. & A. M. elected the following officers on the 6th inst.: M. W. Sam B. Connelly, G. M.; R. W. Chas. Hilton, D. G. M.; R. W. S. Bridge, S. G. W.; R. W. S. M. Sisk, J. G. W.; R. W. J. W. Griffin, G. T.; R. W. H. E. Pickett, G. S. Governor Grover has pardoned Wm. Barchdorff, sent to the Penitentiary from Jackson county, on the ground of incurable disease, rendering further imprisonment a cruel and unusual punishment under our Constitution, and liable to produce death.

The following named gentlemen were elected officers of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, for the ensuing year: President, Dan Clark; Vice Presidents, T. M. Ward, of Wasco, M. Wilkins, of Lane; Secretary, E. M. Waite, of Marion; Treasurer, John H. Moore, of Marion. The first lady to enter Salem by railroad was Miss Lizzie Boise, who did not come in behind the locomotive or on the cars, but sitting comfortably, in a chair, on the cow catcher, with His Honor Judge Deady of the U. S. District Court on the right, and Hon. S. F. Chadwick, Secretary of State, on the left. Last week at Jacksonville, Henry Baily stabbed Richard H. Moore in the back, just below the left shoulder, the knife then glancing in the direction of right arm pit, inflicting an ugly but it is thought not dangerous wound. He also struck Moore on the head with a stone causing quite a wound. Moore had been fooling around Baily's wife—and that's what's the matter.

BY TELEGRAPH.

THE EUROPEAN WAR.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—The Prussians have retired from Breiten to Laon. TOURS, Oct. 15.—The Journal reports that the Orleans Princes have been ordered in the army now forming at Rouen.

On the 10th a splendid fight took place at Baguene and Chatillon, where the enemy was dislodged. During a reconnoissance of our forces the enemy sustained considerable losses. General Dampier, commander of the Aubusson, was killed at the head of his command. The Prussian batteries were dismantled at Duck. Our troops withdrew to their line in admirable order, according to a preconcerted plan. The sailors in Fort Montreux covered their retreat. The Chateau de St. Cloud was destroyed by fire from the forts.

TOURS, Oct. 15, Evening.—The rumors from Orleans are startling. It is asserted that the Prussians there, who are known to be in large force, surrendered to the French with all their artillery. The French forces are continually increasing. The Government authorities here have given public notice that there has been nothing received from Orleans for a day or two. A small force of Prussians occupy Bourges.

VIENNA, Oct. 15.—The Emperor in a letter conveys the Austrian and Hungarian delegations at Pesth, November 21st. LONDON, Oct. 15.—An official decree issued to-day orders before a Court Martial all Generals or other commanders of troops who are surprised by the enemy.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—The telegram given to the public to-day by the Lombard street news room is generally discredited, stating that Prince Amadeus has consented to accept the Spanish throne and Victor Emanuel has given his adhesion to the scheme.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—The following is given as the result of the first day's bombardment of New Brissach: 7 persons killed, 21 wounded, and 10 buildings burned. The place is well provisioned, and the garrison is obstinate in its defence.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The bombardment of Paris has been resolved on as a necessity. The environs of the city whence the bombardment must take place are uneven and difficult of access, hence the official announcement that nothing decisive can be hoped for before three weeks. TOURS, Oct. 15.—Bazaine has occupied Metz. He is marching with full force to relief of Verdun. Rumors of the evacuation of Orleans and that the Prussians have been driven back are confirmed. It is announced that Trochu led in

The Pills have been used by many in this country, and in no case have they failed to effect a permanent cure. Sent post paid to any address on receipt of $1.00 per box. 20607.

The stock has been carefully selected with an eye to the wants of all classes of people, and will well repay the time expended in an examination. When you want to buy, or look at goods, or talk over the news go to WHEELER'S. 20608.
